TORONTO DAVENPORT BOWLERS DEFEAT C. G. E. BY 58 POINTS

Capture First Games of Fourth Annual Inter-Works Tournament.

Shiner Presentation Made.

Toronto Davenport Works bowlers got away to a perfect start on Saturday night when they vanquished the local C. G. E. teams by the slim, but nevertheless effective margin of 58 pins in the first games of the fourth annual inter-works five pin tournament, staged at the Duffus Recreation Academy.

The Davenport contingent arrived in the city at five-thirty on Saturday, and for the balance of the evening were the guests of the local bowlers, who had arranged a very entertaining program, beginning with a banquet at the Empress Hotel, followed by a theatre party at the Capito and then the actual bowling contest which started at nine-thirty and finished at eleven o'clock.

Acquaintances were renewed a the banquet table and the seventy odd bowlers proceeded to do full justice to a typically perfect Empress meal. Alderman Bob Cotton, president of the C. G. E. Social and Athletic Club, was master of ceremonies and extended a cordial welcome to the Queen City crowd, wishing them success in their tournament. H. Hainsworth, secretary of the Toronto club, thanked Mr. Cotton and stated that the visitors were out to win with a vengeance. Jim O'Brien was the next speaker, who after telling some Scotch jokes, which he had saved for the benefit of a few of the visitors, expressed his regrets at not seeing some of the old timers from Toronto present, whom he had expected. J. . Duffus added his hearty welcome to the bowlers and lauded Fred Martin, local secretary, for his organizing and business ability in the conscientious discharge of his duties in the five pin realm. Mr. Duffus also voiced the hope that the tournament will remain an annual affair. Eddie Barrett, president of the visitor's bowling club spoke briefly also, saying that in the past the Davenport bowlers had considered that it would have been bad manners to defeat their hosts but this time all such ideas were taboo and the local players were due for a thorough trouncing.

PRESENTATIONS MADE

A pleasing feature of the programme, the presentation of a very artistic silver trophy to W. G. Shiner in recognition of his perfect score, by G. W. Portland, representative of the United Last Company, maker of bowling pins. Mr. Portland congratulated Mr. Shiner saying that it was very gratifying from the pin manufacturers' standpoint to know that perfect results could be obtained using their product. Mr. Shiner, who was very surprised, thanked the donor, and added that since making the possible he had hardly lived up to his reputation. He also expressed the hope that some of his team-mates would achieve the perfect score this season.

The entire party then proceeded to the Capitol theatre where a block of loges were reserved for the seven o'clock performance and following that the tournament was run off in the Duffus Academy.

To Manage Stadium

W. A. Hewitt, nationally known in Canadian sport, secretary of the O.H.A., registrar-treasurer of the C.A.A.A., past-president Canadian Rugby Union and chairman of the winter sports section of the Canadian Olympic Committee, who has been made general manager of the new sports arena at Toronto. The new arena will be known as Maple Leaf Gardens and will be the largest and best in Canada with seating accommodation for hockey of 13,500 and 16,000 for boxing and wrestling.

Babe Herman Signs Brooklyn Contract

HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS IN THE SPORTS WORLD

BOOSTS AND KNOCKS For EVERYONE

The executive of the local softball league got together recently at the Belmont Club rooms. They decided to send three representatives from here to Paris, Ont., on Good Friday. That's where the Ontario Softball Association meets this year.

• • • • • • •

Fred Scales, president, Dave Leether, secretary, and Tommy Holyman will be the boys to go from here. The Potes are going to have an intermediate team this summer. There'll be a gang of softball enthusiasts from all over the province attend the convention in Paris.

• • • • • • •

Right now there is the closest City 5-Pin League in the history of the Duffus Bowling Alleys. Six teams are in the running for the second half schedule which finishes in two weeks. And there is only a four-point difference between the first and the sixth teams.

• • • • • • •

• • • • • • •

The Junior City League curtain will be run down to-night. Stars and Sea-Horses finish up at eight bells at the Brock. The former outfit is one goal up on the round, having won the first game 2-1. The scrap is sure to be without mercy.

• • • • • • •

Don Woods and Jimmy Ellis, opposing defense men, will bear watching to-night. They are a fast, tricky pair and generally figure in on the scoring. Well, good stickhandling is always a pleasure to see.

• • • • • • •

Walter Johnson is confident his Senators will finish on top of the heap this year. The Big Train seldom makes any predictions, but he admits this spring that he can't see any other team in the league beating his Washingtons.

• • • • • • •

At that, he may be right. His star hurling staff which won 79 games last year is intact. Along with his smart infield and heavy-hitting outfield, Walter has plenty of reserves. They'll be a tough bunch to lick.

• • • • • • •

The Baseball Rules Committee have made a number of changes in the rules for this year. Most of them are of minor importance to the player, but there are a few he should get help to before getting into an argument with the umps.

• • • • • • •

Ghosts' Hardware found the Rink Rats a tough nut to crack down in Norwood. The East City team took a flock of subs along and kept changing regularly but they couldn't get any advantage. Both outfits were well-matched and five minutes overtime failed to break the scoreless tie.

• • • • • • •

No, sir, the boys just wont call it a winter and hang up their skates as long as there's any kind of ice. And you can't blame them. It will be many months before they're at it again. Well, there should be a couple of weeks hockey yet before the ice goes.

• • • • • • •

Bobby Connors of the Seattle Eskimos has been definitely suspended for the rest of the season, including the playoffs, for his vicious assault on Doug. Brennan. The Vancouver star had a stick broken over his head, and will be out of the game for some time.

• • • • • • •

Doug comes from Havelock and has made good with the Vancouver club. He has been treated rough all season by the Eskimos, several times being forced out of the game through bad cuts and bruises.

• • • • • • •

George Godfrey, erstwhile Black Menace in fistiana, has turned wrestler. The 260-pound Negro is no sap and may go far in the rassilin' racket. He was always a great showman, and his bulk and color should bring out the one-a-minute fans.

• • • • • • •

Godfrey recently toured Mexico and scored 14 consecutive victories in as many cities over his chauffeur who appeared under 14 different names. Most of the mat enthusiasts are a dime a dozen.

'NEATH SUNNY SKIES

If the new National League baseball really is appreciably deader, the New York Giants and their "master mind" manager, are counting on a big season this year. The Giants in training at San Antonio, Texas, have had trouble holding up their end in the days of long distance slugging, but they all believe they will do better with a slower game in which base running and clever bunting play a big part. A sliding pit has been installed in the Giant training grounds and the players will receive plenty of instruction in the art of stealing bases.

Manager Bill Killefer of the St. Louis Browns had his star southpaw, Walter Stewart, ready to face the Philadelphia Phillies in today's exhibition game at West Palm Beach, Fla. Big Chad Kimsey probably will follow Stewart on the mound. The Browns were happy to-day over their eleven hits in yesterday's triumph over the Columbus Red Birds.

The "Spring World Series" ends at Bradentown, Fla., to-day with the fourth meeting of the year between Connie Mack's Athletics and Gabby Street's Cardinals. . The Cardinals, who have won two of the three games so far, returned here immediately after their victory over the Phillies at Winter Haven yesterday.

Gerry Nugent, business manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, announced today at Winter Haven, Fla., that the Phillies had claimed High Willingham, an infielder, from the Chicago White Sox on waivers. Willingham went to the White Sox from the Dallas team of the Texas League. He is expected at the Phillies training camp in a few days.

Connie Mack's intimation that he will carry two reserve outfielders with the Athletics this season has added a lot of snap to the work of a half dozen rookies now training with the team at Fort Myers, Fla.

Those who profess to know at the Braves camp say that it looks as though Charlie Wilson has earned himself a regular berth at third base as he's been performing in a manner that makes even the old-timers blink and if he can hit like he can field they say the job is his without a battle, The Braves are at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Paddy Creeden is filling Bob Reeve's shoes at second base for the Red Sox these days at Pensecola, Fla, and he doesn't need any padding in the toes, either. The little Brockton, Mass. boy is doing a great job, both in the second sack and at bat. Paddy played baseball at Boston College and since then has coached freshman football at Fordham College.

Immune From Arrest

Wilfrid Hanbury, Liberal member of Parliament for the Burrard riding of Vancouver, whose non-appearance in a civil court action led to an order that he be committed for ten days for contempt of court. The committal order was found to be in error as Mr. Hanbury, a member of Parliament, is immune from commitment for 40 days before the session.

Second Armour Beats All Saints' Fifth 7-6

The second Armour Troop defeated All Saint's Fifth Troop at the Brock by the score of 7 to 6 on Friday. The game was fast and exciting and neither teams let up the pace until the final gong. The winners proved the more finished players and often broke through the defence only to be stopped by the spectacular performance of Bill Barry, goalie for the Saints. The 5th troop played their best hockey in the last period and threatened to tie the game in the last few minutes. Russaw, for the Saints, scored twice in the same number of minutes, with bullet shots from the right boards. Gardner and Loescher proved best for the Second, showing good combination and stick handling.

A particular feature of the game was that no penalties had to be handed out to either team.

The teams.—

Referee.—E. Wolff.

City League Final Billed For To-Night

The final playoff game for the City League championship is billed for to-night at eight o'clock at the Brock Street rink. The Stars and Sea-horses will resume their feud begun Thursday night when the Stars took the first of the title round 2-1. The one-goal margin is not a very safe lead when these teams get together with the Tully cup at stake.

A big crowd of fans saw plenty of exciting action in the first tilt last week and tonight's battle promises to be a real one. With the ice in good condition, and both outfits at full strength, the big game is, in sporting vernacular, a "natural."

The City League has the distinction this winter of being the last regular league to provide spectators with hockey at the Brock, and tonight's affair winds it up. It was a tough race throughout, and it's just a toss-up whether the Stars or the Sea-horses will emerge the victors tonight.

PORTS AND WINNIPEGERS ICING STRONG TEAMS FOR PLAY-OFFS

Two Western Interprovincial Junior Title to be Decided To-night.

ON SENIOR FIXTURE.

WINNIPEG, Man., March 16. (CP) Hockey-followers in the west are licking their chops in hungry anticipation of to-night's senior and junior playdown menu—the tastiest arranged since the wind-up of schedules. Two interprovincial junior titles are to be decided before the night is out, and a pair of the country's outstanding senior sextetes meet in a third inter-provincial duel.

Serious threat for the dominion title is to arise from the Port Arthur - Winnipeg home - and - home series opening at the lake-head city. Thrice holders of the Allan Cup, Canadian championship emblem, the Ports are reputed stronger than last season when they lost out only in the finals. But Winnipegs, winners of the Manitoba crown by victory over Brandon Saturday, are rated on a level with the Ports. The return game is carded for Thursday.

At Regina, Calgary Canadians plan a desperate bid to overcome the margin gained by Regina Pats 1930 Memorial Cup winners in Saturday's 4-to-0 win. But there appears little possibility that Pats will be prevented from another step toward the new title. At Winnipeg, Elmwood Millionaires tackle Fort William Westforts to decide the rival of the Regina series winner. The first game of the Winnipeg-Ports series was a scoreless tie at the lakehead.

Meanwhile, Edmonton Superiors, senior champions of Alberta, are enroute to the fastnesses of the southern Rockies to tackle Trail Smoke-Eaters, annual British Columbia titlists, in their own lair. The two-game series is to be played Tuesday and Thursday.

On Tuesday, too, Regina Vics will attempt to overcome a two-goal lead gained by North Battleford intermediates in the final for Saskatchewan honors.

THREE PLAYERS BARRED

REGINA, Sask., March 16. (CP)—Three members of the Truro Bearcats hockey team—Charles Gemmett, Leo Sargent and Reginald Shields—will not be allowed to take part in the Allan Cup playdowns, according to the decision of the C.A.H.A. executive, announced by Jack Hamilton, president.

THEATRES

AT THE CAPITOL

RICHARD BARTHELMESS IN "THE LASH."

This is a tale of that dramatic year of 1876 when California, previously a Mexican state, became a part of the Union of American States and its people, with their Spanish blood and traditions, fell a prey to a number of unscrupulous men who strove to exploit their lands.

Richard Barthelmess is one of the Californians, nephew to the aristocratic grandee, Don Mariano, and himself, in the opinion of the Americans, just another "greaser," while to him they are the "grangoes." An explanation of this curious term finds a place in the picture. It arose, it seems, from a corruption of the words "green goes," in the song the American soldiers sang: "Green Goes the Flag Over the Hill," as they rode under their green standard.

The picturesque setting of the tale harmonizes well with the romantic atmosphere that Barthelmess always injects into his work, but, for some reason, he is not as strong in this part as in other roles. There seems to be a curious let-down at intervels, as if he were a youth playing at the role of a bad man. He goes in for banditry and earns for himself a blood price on his head, and the nickname of "El Puma." He rides the roads by night, with his robber gang, and then, in a fierce getaway, captures for himself freedom and a beautiful damsel.

There is a magnificent supporting cast in this picture. Mary Astor is the attractive heroine, Rosita; Marian Nixon is her lovely cousin, Delores; and there is a very likeable new masculine face in James Rennie's delineation of Howard, the sheriff, who loves Dolores and seeks to capture her bandit brother, Pancho, as Barthelmess is named. Fred Kohler as the villain, Harkness, is a real bad man.

There are Spanish dances and soft music, the tinkle of guitars and mandolins, the soft haze of Californian summer air—through the picture, for atmosphere. It is well sprinkled with reiterated "adios" and "amigo mio" and the repetition of the pronounciation of Mexico, as "Mehico," in the Spanish fashion.

Through the production, there is much acting. Barthelmess never is natural for a minute. He has attained a peculiar technique in his recent years.—Jeanette.

Salaries of British army officers will be reduced.

ALL THAT GLITTERS IS NOT GOLD

If the little motto of "look before you leap" were posted in more amateur clubs in Canada it might be better for all concerned. There are many flowery stories circulated about the outrageous salaries that are paid to the professional puck chasers. Professional clubs have any amount of material to draw from and unless the ambitious amateur has somewhat extraordinary qualities it's better for him to remain with the simon-pures. The present day managers are in the pro. game for what they can make out of it and it isn't necessary to pay big salaries to-day. However, there are reasons for the present day stories, and here's a few of them. The first amateur star to step into the big money in a big way was Nels Stewart of the Montreal Maroons. Eddie Gerrard, now manager of the Amerks signed Stewart for $16,500 for three years. Then came "Ching" Johnston who put his name on the dotted line for the sum of $30,000 with the New York Rangers along with "Taffy" Able for the same amount. Following these Bill Carson took the Toronto Pats for $22,500 for three years. The following year Boston contributed $6,000 per season for his services. On the other hand sometimes clubs do get a break and don't realize it. This happened in the case of IRVING "ACE" BAILEY when he agreed to sign with the Montreal Maroons for three years for the sum of $11,000. This one we call a slight error on the part of the Montreal Club.

Five Teams in Running For American Play-offs

CHICAGO, March 16 (C.P.)—Last stages of the American Hockey League schedule to-day finds five teams still in the battle for play-off berths. Tulsa Oilers, who received a setback from Duluth on Saturday; Kansas City Pla-Mors, 1930 champions; and Duluth Hornets appear certainties for the post-season battle. Chicago Shamrocks and Buffalo Majors are fighting for the right to rank as a possibility.

Shamrocks better their position Saturday by defeating St. Louis Fliers 2 to 1, and now rank two points ahead of Buffalo and two back of Duluth. But Buffalo has played four games less than the Chicago sextette and is favored to finish fast.

SPECIAL SPEAKER ON PALM SUNDAY

Rev. Ernest Harston of Oshawa Will Have Charge of Campbellford Church Service.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 16 (Examiner Staff Correspondence).—Under the edict of the Lambeth Conference and with the permission of His Lordship the Bishop of Toronto Rev Ernest Harston, United Church minister of Oshawa, Ont., will be the special preacher at the Palm Sunday evening service at Christ Church (Anglican), Campbellford. Such was the announcement made by the rector, Rev. N. Clark Wallace, at the Sunday services. Mr. Harston will also preach at the evening Holy Week service the following Monday.

Services both morning and evening yesterday were choral. At the morning worship the choir, under the direction of the organist, W. Pearson, rendered the Benedicte Omnia Opera by Caleb Simper. At the morning service Mr. Wallace took for his text Luke 14, verse 27: "And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after Me, cannot be My disciple," pointing out that no description of the Christian faith would be accurate without the cross. "It was," he said, "not only the symbol, but the very embodiment of religion, for re-Religion was redemption from sin, stands everywhere, dominating life and is the centre of Christian worship as it is the symbol of Christian hope, raising itself above those who are sleeping the last sleep of faith. eligion was redemption from sin. Every preacher who had come after Christ had preached Christ as the Saviour through His cross this conviction having come through their personal relationship to Him. This bore out the assumption that something had been done by God for man which man could not do himself. The Gospel story had no real meaning unless the reader wished to be saved from sin. Christ dealt with the soul, not the body. He was the Saviour of the soul, for He showed man the way to escape from sin to God. The world thinks the one great evil is suffering, but the church has always said it is sin. Suffering makes life uncomfortable at times, but sin poisons the whole soul and raises a barrier between God and man."

In conclusion, Mr. Wallace pointed out that God wants man more than man wants God, and He had offered a way, the cross, which was the message and measure of His love. That was the only way man can find his way back to God, through the way of the cross, for "Whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me, cannot be My disciple."

THIRTY MEMBERS AT MILLBROOK MEETING

St. Andrew's Church W. M. A. Makes Arrangements For Thankoffering Service.

MILLBROOK, March 16 (Examiner Correspondence).—The March meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of Saint Andrew's Church was held on Wednesday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. (Rev.) W. W. Jones, in the chair, and over thirty members present, none of those living in the country being in attendance owing to the unfavorable state of the roads.

Arrangements were made for the Easter Thank Offering service on Sunday, April 12, at the morning worship, when the speaker will be Miss E. C. Hawken, now on furlough, and for the past six years missionary-teacher at the schoolhome for Rutheniam children, Wahstao, Alberta. Miss Hawken is the home missionary personally representing the Millbrook Auxiliary, and was at one time principal of the local school. Her many friends in the vicinity will be glad to know of the opportunity of hearing Miss Hawken's work at Wahstao. Her time at present is being spent with her father, who is in his eighty-fourth year, at Markdale.

Notice of the annual meeting of the W.M.S. for the Cobourg Presbytery was read and Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Eric Hunter, and Miss Estelle Hetherington were appointed delegates. Mrs. J. H. George is a Presbyterial officer and will attend in that capacity.

The annual quilting for the supply bale will be held in connection with the May meeting, Mrs. John Hatherly reporting having two quilt tops made, while Mrs. George Locke donated a third.

On motion it was decided to entertain the Mission Band, and its leaders on Tuesday, March 31, Mrs. Offa Williamson being appointed convenor of the lunch committee, with Mrs. F. A. Kidd and Mrs. George Fallis as her helpers; Mrs. C. C. Garside, Mrs. J. H. Might, Mrs. Ross Edmunds and Miss Burnham are the committee on entertainment.

H. Smith, Mrs. J. H. George, and Mrs. R. H. Edmunds.

Mrs. T. H. Aiken's group will have charge of the April meeting, Wednesday's gathering being dismissed with the W.M.S. Watchword.

CIGARETTE BLAMED FOR QUEEN'S FIRE

Arts Building Damaged By Fire Which Broke Out in Cloakroom.

KINGSTON, March 16.— The Arts Building of Queen's University was damaged by fire which broke out on Saturday in a cloakroom on the second floor, near University Avenue. Investigation by Fire Chief James Armstrong and Deputy Chief F. C. Reid showed that a cigarette tossed under a wash basin had ignited the oiled floor, burning a small hole in it. Then dropped under the flooring. A ventilator shaft runs up from the cloakroom, and the fire was quickly carried up through the shaft to the roof. When the firemen arrived at 12.16, clouds of smoke were pouring from the building, and hundreds of students had gathered. Their proffered aid was welcomed by Deputy Chief Reid, who found them handy in helping in the hauling of hose. The students had a lesson in firebghting and learned th dangers firemen face.

CATTLE, GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, March 16.—Breaking of the seasons' bottom-price record for wheat resulted Saturday from liberalsized future delivery wheat sales matched by simultaneous purchase of corn. This criss-cross proceeding had to do entirely with July and September wheat, representing the 1931 crop yet to be harvested. Numerous standing orders to buy new crop wheat were brought into action on the downturn, and rallies were in progress at the finish.

Wheat closed irregular, ⅝c lower to ¼c to ¼c advance, corn ¼c off to ⅝c up; oats unchanged to ¼c down, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 7c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, March 16. — Heavy offerings and a lack of export trade further contributed to the decline in wheat prices here on Saturday. Values slipped from a firm opening to close 1 cent to 1¼ cents lower for the day.

Extreme softness on the foreign exchanges and selling by New York interests was responsible for the low marks. The market opened firm at levels unchanged from Friday, but immediately ran into selling orders and steadily lost ground.

A statement credited to G. S. Milnor, head of the United States Grain Stabilization Corporation, said that fair sales of wheat under the plan to dispose of 35,000,000 bushels surplus had been made.

Cash wheat trade was uninteresting. Spreads were unchanged. Fair trade was worked in coarse grains, with values sympathizing with wheat.

MRS. JOSEPH METCALFE

NORWOOD, March 16 (Examiner Correspondence).—The funeral of the late Mrs. Metcalfe was held from her home, Lot 1 in the 8th Concession of Dummer Township, to the Norwood cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. The large attendance of neighbors and friends from all the surrounding country attested not only the warm regard for the departed, but the sympathetic esteem of the community for the bereaved family in the loss they have sustained.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. R. F. Stillman, pastor of the United Church, of which the late Mrs. Metcalfe had been for many years a faithful member, taking an active part in the Women's Missionary Society and the Sunday School and other organized work in connection with the church.

RUN-DOWN IN HEALTH—A DIFFICULT WINTER

Mrs. Elizabeth Fenton, Pickering, Ont., Restored to Good Health —Says Dr. Williams' Pink Pills (Tonic) Did Wonderful Work

"It's fifteen years now," writes Mrs. Elizabeth Fenton, "since my first trial of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am thirty now, but I never will forget what those pills did for me when I was just a girl, so run down and weak from sickness. When I feel tired out and nervous and need a good tonic I always go back to the old standby, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am never a victim of ill-health. I enjoy all sorts of sports and especially hiking. Health is next to happiness and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the key to health."

"Always Goes Back to the Old Stand-by"

Mrs. Fenton is right! Think of the people you know who are happiest—who get the most fun out of life. Strong and [illegible] all month long? [illegible] week—and have [illegible] to spare for social pleasures. They [illegible] well, too, and people like them.

That's what health [illegible] for you!

If your [illegible] is thin and poor, as is often the case in the spring, you [illegible] be happy. The iron and other elements in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills (tonic) increase the red corpuscles in the blood, giving color to the face and lips. At all Druggists'—50 cents a box. Write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville. Be sure to say, "Dr. Williams'" so that the druggist will know exactly what you want. 10

Large Barley Contract Announced By Minister

TORONTO, March 16—News of importance to Ontario's barley-growers, notably in Essex, Kent, Middlesex, Elgin and Perth Counties, is contained in the announcement by Col. the Hon. T. L. Kennedy last night, of arrangements made through his office for the sale of 1,000,000 bushels of Ontario barley, at 55 cents per bushel from Sept. 1 of this year.

Malt consumers of Eastern Canada, acting through the Canada Malting Company, Limited, will pay this minimum price delivered at Montreal, for the grade known as "three extra." The minister, in his statement, points out that in certain counties barley has been the chief cash crop, and he hopes that this arrangement will reassure the growers.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS ATTEND GEORGE STREET CHURCH SERVICES

Rev. George Little, of Toronto, Speaker at Young People's Anniversary.

SPLENDID ADDRESSES.

The large congregations which attended George Street United Church on Sunday on the occasion of the Young People's Anniversary were delighted with the eloquent and powerful sermons preached by Rev. George A. Little, B.A., of Toronto, editor of the United Church Sunday School publications.

He read the lesson from St. John 4th chapter, 19-42 verses, recording the conversation of Jesus with the woman at the well, and took for his text 37th and 38th verses: "And herein is that saying true, One soweth and another reapeth. I sent you to reap, that whereon ye bestowed no labor: other men labored and ye are entered into their labor."

He based his address on small beginnings, which through the labor of others, down through the generations, have increased tremendously and we are now reaping the benefits of what our ancestors sowed.

First, he referred to the fine apple tree John McIntosh found in the bush from which he planted a small orchard. Now, as a result of his labor, we have the wonderful apple, the McIntosh Red, known from coast to coast, and grandchildren of the man who planted those first few trees are reaping the benefits.

In reference to his own work, he told of a few men starting the publishing of Sunday School papers over a hundred years ago, and now over a million papers are published, but it took all these years to build up this organization.

How many of us think when we use the telephone, turn on the radio, drive our car, send a telegram or wireless, how much has been done for us before we received these wonderful products? "One sows and another reapeth!"

People from every part of Canada think their province the best, and it is fitting that they should have this pride, but at the same time, do they ever pause and think how much their forefathers did to make this the land it is and which we are now enjoying?

Those men who built George Street Church sixty years ago were wonderful pioneer spirits. They have left you a great legacy. Take for example, the organ. How many generations did it take to produce the fine instrument you now have? Music is a gift from the past. Our new Hymnal contains hymns from the Hebrews, Russians and from the Master's old land. It is a legacy from the past.

The Bible is a collection of manuscripts, which took several hundred years to collect. First printed in Latin, and after the Reformation in French, German and English, until now over 1,000,000 copies circulate in one year.

Our whole life is an acceptance of what others have done for us. We accept education, customs, etc., why not accept religion. It is just an acceptance of what Christ has done for us. We are not only debtors of the past, but trustees of the future. We must sow that others may reap.

Here the teacher minister and Sunday school teacher has a wonderful opportunity. Christ, the greatest teacher of the age, and now after 1900 years we are reaping the fruits of his teaching. Teachers working with boys and girls never know what great results may come from their labors and how wonderfully God will be glorified in the lives of these men and women of the future.

Evening Service

At the evening service Rev. Mr. Little's theme was "What the Church Means to the Young People." Associated with him on the pulpit platform was Homer Borland, president of the Young People's Association, who had charge of the opening service, and Rev. J. E. J. Millyard, who led in prayer and spoke feelingly of the passing of one of George Street Church's most enthusiastic workers, the late Mrs. James Stubbs.

The choir rendered special music. Douglas Carlisle singing "The Old Rugged Cross, and Deane Miner rendered three beautiful violin solos, accompanied by the organist, Daxid Howat.

The speaker of the evening challenged the young people about getting enthusiastic over the church. He asked the congregation to consider the church under the heading of three simple words: Get, Grow, Give; mentioning first some of the things we get from the Church: (1) Knowledge of the world's greatest Book; (2) Share in the great spiritual crusade which develops both moral and spiritual character; (3) Skill in worshipping. Here we learn to worship together in a way which can not be done by amateurs; (4) Fine friends, highest and noblest friendship made in church and church work. Under the heading of Grow; young people grow by (1) Study of Bible; (2) Thinking; (3) Playing (social activities which all young people's societies now embody in their church activities; (4) Self-expression; (5) Training for citizenship and (6) Organized activities.

What do we give the Church? he asked. (1) Money; (2) Time; (3). Service, and lastly and best of all give yourself to Jesus Christ and acknowledge him as your rightful sovereign.

At the Sunday School session, Rev. Mr. Little spoke briefly on, "Heroes in Your Heart," advising boys and girls to choose some worthwhile hero as their ideal, and admonishing teachers to live the Christ-like life as many of their class were looking upon them as their hero.

CANADIAN LEGION B.E.S.L.

Peterborough Branch

LEGION SEEKS NEW MEMBERS.

Local Branch Joins in Effort to Add 10,000 Throughout Ontario.

During the month of April the Canadian Legion of the B.E.S.L. in Ontario will put forth a Province-wide effort to add 10,000 new members to its strength. The Peterborough Branch is taking an active part in the campaign, and has set as the local objective 400, which is based on an estimate of 5 per cent. of the population of the territory covered by this branch.

Brought into existence over five years ago as a result of Field-Marshal Earl Haig's personal appeal for unity to the several conflicting organizations, the Canadian Legion has continued to expand until to-day it has a membership of some 90,000, comprised in 900 branches throughout Canada, as well as branches in the United States, West Indies, and France. After making due allowance for deaths on active service and depletion of ranks through deaths and other causes since the Armistice, it is estimated that the strength of the Legion should eventually be three times the present number. The Ontario membership campaign in April is the first step in Ontario towards this greater objective.

Officers of the Legion point out that the service work of the organization has been rendered freely to all veterans without distinction of membership. Legislative benefits secured by the Legion have been to the advantage of the whole war veteran body. It is felt that the responsibility of this highly important work should be borne equally by all veterans. At the same time the privilege of participating in the extensive and varied program and community work, as well as the amenities of the social life and activity of the Legion, is made available by active membership.

THE SON OF TARZAN No. 13 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Paulvitch pretended to show the boy how to secure the ape should it exhibit signs of rebellion during the trip. Jack laughed: "That's not necessary—he'll do whatever I tell him." "Come here!" said the man, "and do as I tell you, or you can't take him to Dover!" The boy did as told. Still smiling, he held his hands behind him. The Russian slipped the noose over Jack's wrists and quickly knotted the cords tight.

The fellow's attitude of friendliness now changed immediately! With an ugly oath he wheeled his prisoner about, hurling him violently to the floor. His fingers sought the boy's throat as he grinned down horribly into his victim's face. "Your father ruined me," he mumbled crazily. "This will pay him! I will bring him to see your body—and tell him the ape did it!" the twisted fiend cackled with gloating laughter.

Suddenly the room echoed with the growls of the maddened ape! Its great muscles surged out beneath its shaggy hide. Paulvitch looked up, his face white with terror—THE APE WAS FREE! With a single bound the beast fell upon the man, wrenching him from the struggling boy. Great fingers sunk into the wretch's throat; yellow fangs snapped shut, and when they closed the breath of life had gone from the dastardly Paulvitch.

Assisted by Akut, the boy worked over the bonds that held him....Finally they yielded their secret. He cut the cords from his body. Opening one of his bags he drew forth some garments. His plans were well laid! The beast docilely did all that Jack directed. Into the midnight stillness, unmolested, the pair slunk from the house. No casual observer could have noticed that one of the two was an ape!

Bosworth Campaign Enters Fifth Week

The Bosworth evangelistic campaign which has been in progress for four weeks entered upon its fifth week yesterday. In the morning the pastor, Rev. G. H. Johnson spoke on "Essentials for Christian Warfare" or some of characteristics nesessary for those who are in the army of Christ. In the afternoon Mr. Bosworth brought a most helpful and inspiring message. The subject being "Killing Lions and Peddling Honey." The sermon had a particular appeal to Christians for it revealed the mighty conflict there is in every life, yet also disclosed the fact that the Spirit of God is mighty to deliver and that every test or conflict should be a means of bringing added sweetness to the heart that wholly follows the Lord.

At the evening service there were many strangers and Mr. Bosworth spoke to a large and attentive audience on the subject of "God's fourfold indictment of the Lost." The truth was clearly brought out that many are kept from the Kingdom because of that which they failed to do. It is not only the committing of sin, but rather the neglect of appropriating the work of Calvary that keeps many out of the Kingdom of God. The sin is not obeying the voice not heeding correction, not trusting in the Lord and not drawing near to the Lord as revealed by the text found in Zeph. 3:2.

To-night Mr. Bosworth will bring a special message for young people. "The Call to Service." The meetings will continue each night at 7:45. Special musical features accompany each service.

LABORITES OUST HON. E. THEODORE

Move Comes as Result of His Opposition to Lang's Repudiation of Debts Policy.

SESSION IN SYDNEY.

CANBERRA, Australia, March 12.—(C.P.)—The Lyons group in the House of Representatives received a powerful addition to-day in D. C. McGrath, chairman of committees, and Labor member for Ballarat. He decided to secede from the Labor party of Prime Minister Scullin and support Hon. J. A. Lyons, who was in the Scullin Cabinet until a few weeks ago.

Besides the offcial Opposition and some strong Independents, the Labor Ministry has to face the hostility of the growing Lyons group and the increasing enmity of the extremists within the Labor ranks.

CHINESE GROCER GIVEN 6 MONTHS

Two Hundred Dollar Fine is Also Attached to Sentence of Hum Wing Fuo.

WILL BE DEPORTED.

Six months in the Ontario Reformatory, and in addition a $200 fine or another month was the sentence passed this morning by Police Magistrate Langley upon Hum Wing Fuo, local Chinese grocer, who pleaded guilty to possessing opium. At the end of his jail term Hum will get a free trip back to China, as it is the rule of the Federal authorities to deport all Chinese convicted under the Drug Act.

Hum was arrested nearly a month ago. He is more than 60 years old, and his counsel, W. P. Huycke, earned the sympathy of the court with his argument that the aged Oriental was a confirmed user of the drug and required it for his peace of mind.

"There is no need for this kind of thing, because the city is looking after the needy and supplying meals. In some cases giving too many meals and encouraging laziness," declared Chief Newhall, when Joseph E. Wilson, who gave his address as Toronto, explained that he was forced to beg because he was not strong and could not get a job easy enough for him to do.

Wilson kept a list of those who assisted him, and this list was produced in court, showing that he worked his "racket" in Port Hope, Lakefield, and in this city.

The man appeared to be about forty-five, and his drooping shoulder and thin face bore out his assertion that he was not physically capable to meet life in its present ugly mood. He was remanded until Friday to allow police time to learn more of him.

A fight on George Street late Saturday night brought E. Garvey into court and relieved him of $10 in a fine. He was held responsible for opening fistic hostilities in a dance hall, and it is said that before the scrap was ended nearly a dozen were in the conflict, and one of the weaker sex fainted through the sheer excitement of watching the eddying melee of flying fists.

WHO RANG THE ALARM?

Shrieking sirens heralded the approach of the brigade and a large crowd gathered around as the gleaming, crimson-painted vehicles drew up at the corner of George and Hunter streets early this afternoon; the firemen hurriedly jumping from their seats looked in vain for a fire or signs of smoke, and were disappointed, or maybe greatly relieved. There was an alarm rung in, that's certain, but there remains an element of doubt as to who rung it. One of the city father's who was standing on the corner of the intersection, in close proximity to the box did not see anyone tampering with it, while another citizen, who by the way was speaking from hearsay, stated that two small boys had caused the whole brigade to make a fruitless run. They were small boys he added, about three or four years old and one of them had had to stand on the others shoulder to reach the knob of the box.

DRAGOONS HOLD MESS BANQUET

Col. Anderson is Guest of Honor at Annual Dinner in Armouries.

LENGTHY TOAST LIST.

A very successful Mess and meeting was held by the 3rd Prince of Wales (Peterborough) Dragoons in the Armouries on Saturday evening. The guest of honor for the evening was Col. W. B. Anderson, C.M.G., D.S.O., Military District No. 3, Kingston. Following the dinner, Major F. G. Stinson, Mess President, proposed the toast to "The King." Lieut. B. B. Dawson gave the toast to "The Regiment."

Lt. Col. H. W. Powell, Commandant of the 3rd Dragoons, welcomed Col. Anderson to the Dragoons' Mess. The speaker also welcomed the other guests. He spoke of the innovations to the uniforms of the Dragoons—a red band for the caps and the authority to wear shoulder chains. Lt. Col. Powell also stated that the Dragoons were seeking affiliation with an English Regiment, most likely the Prince of Wales Dragoon Guards. However, to accomplish this end, the speaker said that a history of the local regiment would have to be compiled.

Lieut. J. Payne was presented with his commission. The recipient, in a few well-chosen words, thanked his superior officer for the honor conferred upon him. Major C. H. Stewart proposed the toast to "The District Staff."

Col. Anderson congratulated Col. Powell on the success of the Mess. He was pleased with the progress that the Dragoons were making, for they now have three squadrons.

Major M. R. Sloan proposed the toast to "The Garrison." Lt. Col Gordon Hall, V.D., spoke of the progress of his regiment through the co-operation of the officers of the Dragoons. Lt. Col. M. H. Park, C.O. Peterborough Rangers, also thanked the officers who were his hosts, for the aid they had given the Rangers. Major J. A. Dewart, M.C., of No. 3 Company, 4th Machine Gun Battalion, expressed his appreciation of the hospitality extended to him, and noted that the Battalion spirit was growing in the squad. Major Stinson proposed the toast, "The Canadian Legion."

This was responded to by Captain James Abraham, ex-officer of the regiment and now President of the Canadian Legion, who solicited the aid of the Dragoons and their guests in the Legion's drive for increased membership and their church parade on April 19. Col. Anderson proposed that every officer present, who was an ex-service man, should sign up with the Legion as soon as possible.

Capt. J. D. Paterson spoke a few words appraising the work of Lieut. B. B. Dawson who had gained high honor in Cadet training and musketry. He mentioned that the Laura Secord Trophy had been won by the Millbrook Regiment for the past three years. Capt. Paterson also especially referred to the Earl Jellico Sword for the highest aggregate in shooting in the British Empire won by the Millbrook Regiment, and on display in the Mess. In reply, Lieut. Dawson stated that the 16 best of his 32 men competed, and that three had obtained silver medals (99 to 100 per cent.) and five received bronze medals (97 to 98 per cent.).

"An' Take It The Way I Tell Yuh"

(Written as dictated)

"Yes sir." said Miss Bloggs, meekly, as she entered the office of the Go-Getter. "I fired three stenogs," bellowed the Go-Getter "for revising my letter, see." "Yes Sir" bleated Miss Boggs. "All right—take a letter, an' take it the way I tell yuh, see! The way I tell yuh."

And the next morning Mr. O. J. Squizz of the Squizz Silver Polish Company received the following letter:—

J. KILLINGSWORTH TAKEN BY DEATH

St. Thomas Man Was Well Known Writer—Edited Canadian Elk.

ACTIVE IN LABOR COUNCIL.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., Mar. 16.—Joseph Killingsworth, well known writer, died this morning in the Memorial Hospital after a long illness.

Born at Bolsolver, Victoria County, he came while still of school age, to this city.

He entered the service of the Michigan Central Railway and spent some years as fireman and engineer. A marked inclination towards writing, prompted him to enter the journalistic field on the editorial staff of the St. Thomas Journal. Later he was manager of the St. Thomas Street Railway, then with the Pere Marquette as chief clerk, and finally with the Customs Department.

Mr. Killingsworth was for many years a frequent contributor to newspapers and periodicals throughout the Dominion, edited the 'Canadian Elk," and published volumes of verse. He was for years active as a member of the Trades and Labor Council in this city, was local correspondent for the Labor Gazette of Otawa, and past legislative representative of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

TWO WOUNDED IN BOSTON SCRAP

SLAP ON BACK IS SIGNAL.

BOSTON, Mass., March 16 (C.P.)—Squads of police were to-day seeking out the North End's "small-time racketeers" for an explanation of the shooting of two men on Hanover Street last night.

Jerry Tomarro, 25, was the more seriously wounded of the two. He received four wounds in his abdomen and arms. His companion, Ralph Indigardio, 28, received a bullet wound in the arm.

A "friendly" slap on the back was the signal for hostilities to begin. The two were standing near the spot where Guifre Campbell was killed from guns planted in a Hanover Street house a short time ago.

Tomarro and Indigario were talking when a "friend" walked up to them, slapped one of them on the shoulder as if in a friendly greeting, then ducked into a nearby alley. As the "friend" ducked for cover, the occupants of a blue sedan started firing.

At the Haymarket Relief Hospital, neither of the wounded men would talk.

The third of the Travel Talk Series was given at the Y.W.C.A. Friday evening, by Miss Laura Wilson, on "Paris Past and Present." Mrs. E. E. Harvey, President of the Y.W.C.A., expressed the appreciation of the audience for the evening's entertainment and announced that next Friday, Rev. C. V. McLean would give an illustrated talk on "Wanderings in Palestine."

BRITAIN STANDS IN FIFTH PLACE AS AIR POWER

Is Looking to World Disarmament Parley For Reduction of Air Armaments.

HAS CUT EXPENDITURES.

Montague Claims Other Nations Have Rapidly Increased Their Outlay.

LONDON, March 17 (By George Hambleton, C. P. Staff Correspondent).—Britain is looking to the world disarmament conference for reduction of air armaments.

While Britain has reduced her air expenditure by one per cent within the past five years, other countries have gone right ahead, Frederick Montague, Under-Secretary for Air, told the House of Commons this afternoon.

Britain, he said, had no desire to indulge in a race in air armaments—she looked for substantial results from the Disarmament Conference—but it was a fact that she now stood only fifth in first line strength among the air powers of the world.

General Increase Abroad

There has been a remarkable increase in air expenditures abroad, Mr. Montague stated. In five years the French expenditure had increased by 130 to 140 per cent; the Italian by 140 per cent; the United States by 150 to 160 per cent. In addition, some countries had still further increased their expenditures by extra-budgetary grants, and the United States figures were for Federal expenditure only.

The House of Commons has now heard from the Naval, the War and the Air Departments that Britain's expenditures on armaments are not in any way keeping pace with the expenditures of other countries. The first Lord of the Admiralty and the Minister of War have already stated that Britain cannot continue to reduce her forces unless other nations show a willingness to follow her.

A.B.C. OFFICIALS BAILED FOR TRIAL

Remand Given Singer, O'Connor, Belyea and Winraugh on Eight of Nine Charges.

IN LONDON COURT.

LONDON, Ont., March 17.— Four former officials of the Amalgamated Builder's Council were bailed for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction when they appeared before Magistrate T. W. Srandrett, K.C., in city police court today. The men are Louis M. Singer, K.C., William F. O'Connor, K.C., Roy E. Belyea, and Harry Twinraub, all of Toronto. The judgment was handed down today following two adjournments since the preliminary hearing which lasted practically all of the month of February.

The remand for trial was given on eight of the nine original charges preferred against the men by Corp. E. G. Weeks of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the local court. A dismissal was granted on the third charge under section 498 of the Criminal Code which alleged conspiracy to enhance prices.

The first four charges were preferred under section 498 of the Code. The next four under the Combines Investigation Act and the ninth, or local charge was laid under section 444 of the Criminal Code. The charges allege among others: conspiracy to restrain trade, conspiracy to enhance prices; conspiracy to prevent competition, and conspiracy to defraud the public.

Member Would Repeal Export Liquor Bill

OTTAWA, Ont., Mar. 17. (CP) — Repeal of the amendment to the Export Act passed by the last parliament, prohibiting the export of liquor to the United States, is proposed by Col. S. C. Robinson (Cons., Essex West). Col. Robinson believes that in substitution for the amendment to the Export Act "a treaty should be negotiated for which Canada will get something in return for the loss of revenue this country is suffering in consequence of our good-will gesture, which apparently the United States does not appreciate."

A resolution to this effect has been placed on the order paper of the House by Col. Robinson for discussion, as under parliamentary rules no private member can introduce a bill which effects the revenue of the country.

Matthews Taken To Penitentiary

The big door of Portsmouth Penitentiary, Kingston, will close behind Leonard Matthews for four years some time this afternoon. Under guard, Matthews left the County Jail early this morning to take the ride to the big prison. He was conveyed by car.

Not one word could be gleaned from jail officials as to the manner in which Matthews received the new that his nine months' sentence had been lengthened to four years. It was learned, however, that he is in good health and is determined to make a fresh start when his term is ended.

DEFRAUD HOTELS COUPLE GET YEAR

WIFE HAS FORMER RECORD.

LONDON, March 17 (C.P. Cable).—John William Houldsworth, aged 74, described by his counsel as a resident of Vancouver, B.C., and as having large financial interests in Canada, and his 28-year-old wife, pleaded guilty in Marlborough Street Court to fraud from two London hotels. They were sentenced to serve one year in prison.

The police stated that accused had defrauded hotels at Attbourne, Windsor, Harrogate, Leicester and Southport. There was a previous conviction against Houldsworth many years ago, apart from which nothing was known against him. The woman, however, had been involved with the police on several occasions.

The defence stated that Houldsworth, with large financial interests in Canada, had been receiving several thousands of pounds yearly remuneration as a company director, but that he had lost about $150,000 in the crash of the notorious Hatry Companies a year or more ago.

Houldsworth is not listed in the current issue of the Financial Post, Toronto, directory of Canadian directors.

German Mills Blaze May Be Probed Again

KITCHENER, Ont., March 17. —(C.P.).—Further investigation into the mysterious Balzer fire case will be made by Provincial Police, it was learned here to-day. Last week, Victor Balzer of German Mills requested Inspector John Miller of the Criminal Investigation Department to re-open the case since he professed to be in possession of information which he said would change the aspects of the case considerably.

The Balzer fire occurred two years ago this week, when the family's house and barn at German Mills were completely destroyed. Mrs. Balzer, wife of the aged Czech-Slovakian farmer, disappeared at the time, but subsequent searching among the ruins revealed bones which were identified as being those of a human being. Victor Balzer claims that his wife was the victim of foul play.

ESCORT AMBUSHED.

ST. LOUIS, March 17 (C.P.). — About 100 men armed with shotguns and revolvers ambushed six guards of the Phillips Pipe Line Company today as they drove along Hog Haven Road to escort laborers to the tanks of the company, and wounded four of the guards in the gun battle.

SANITARIUM FIRE TAKES FIVE LIVES INQUEST ORDERED

Blaze Spreads So Fast Orderly Drven From 'Phone When Calling Firemen.

AT JAMESTOWN, R. I.

Four Mental Patients Trapped in Barred Rooms—Orderly is Victim.

JAMESTOWN, R.I., March 17 (C. P.). — An inquest probably will be begun to-day into the deaths last night of four patients and an orderly trapped by fire in the No. 3 Cottage at the private sanitarium of Dr W. L. Bates here.

A fifth patient, Matthew Cost 30, of Providence, was pulled from a second storey window by an employee and dropped into the arms of waiting nurses. He was seriously burned

The dead are:

Edward Shea, patient, of Ashton.

Katheryn L. Gerhard, 46, a patient of East Providence.

Edward Peckham, 83, a patient of Middletown.

Blaze Spreads Rapidly.

The blaze, discovered by James Daly, an orderly, spread through the three-storey frame structure so rapidly that Elmer Bow-Miller, another orderly, who attempted to telephone an alarm, was forced to flee from the telephone. It was eight minutes before a call was finally put through to the Fire Department.

Daly barely had time to hurry through corridors and unlock the doors of the patients, mostly mental cases, and was forced to flee the building without rescuing anyone. Cost was reached from outside, but heavily screened windows barred the would-be rescuers from reaching the other patients.

Fire apparatus from Newport aided the local firemen, but the interior of the cottage collapsed before the fire was brought under control. The bodies of the victims were removed from the debris shortly before midnight.

WELSH MINERS OUT ON STRIKE

5,000 Men Quit in Protest Against 14 Cents Per Day Cut in Wages.

PARLEYS PLANNED.

CARIFF, Wales, March 17.—(A.P.) —Five thousand coal miners of South Wales quit work to-day in protest against a wage cut of fourteen cents a day awarded recently by the chairman of a joint conciliation board.

Leaders who had prompted a decision by the miners' delegates at a conference yesterday to postpone action for a week were concerned at the action, and elsewhere it was feared that when the delegates resumed their conference next week they would vote definitely for a policy of abandoning their tools.

COUNTY TAX RATE IS EXPECTED TO BE INCREASED THIS YEAR

Although Estimates Not Yet Passed Rate Likely Be 18.833 Mills.

OVERDRAFT IN 1930

The rumor that the county tax rate would take an upward jump of several mills this year was confirmed today, County Clerk Ed. Elliott told The Examiner that he estimated the increase at 3.6 mills. Last year's rate was 15.233, but according to Mr. Elliott's figuring it will be 18.833 this year.

Of course the clerk stated that the rate would not be set officially until it was passed at the June session of the County Council.

An overdraft of $30,265 from last year due to increased cost to the county of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School and a big jump in the cost of the administration of justice was stated by Mr. Elliott to be major causes of the increase. He said that last year the county had to pay $14,400 more to secondary education than the Council had provided for. Further Old Age Pensions and Mothers' Allowance were adding greatly to the county's expenses, he said.

May Bury Ex-R.A.F. Man In Potter's Field

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., March 17. —(C.P.)— Ernest Clinton Robinson, local stunt flyer, who was killed while flying in Columbia, Tennessee, may be buried in Potters Field in that city, it was learned here to-day.

No funds are available for the former Royal Air Force lieutenant's burial. The local Legion had to reply to an appeal that they cannot bury any former veteran in a foreign country. An appeal will be made to the Last Post Fund.

Soviet Press Scores Japan Over Murder

MOSCOW, March 17 (C.P.).—The conclusion was voiced to-day by two morning newspaper, Izvestia and Pravda, that the attempted assassination of Paul Nikeieff, Soviet commercial counsellor, in Tokyo yesterday by a Japanese was an incident in the conspiracy which, they charged, exists between Japanese fisheries and other interests to create friction between Soviet Russia and Japan.

Soviet officials would make no comment on the shooting, but Izvestia, official Soviet organ, said: "The Japanese Government has taken no steps to halt attacks and propaganda of the anti-Soviets, and this shooting is the natural result of such a policy."

Officer Is Killed In Belgrade Plot

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, March 17 (A.P.).—An army officer, Major Rekalovitz, was killed to-day by one of three bombs with which efforts had been made to blow up the Military Academy.

Bombs exploded at 5.30 a.m., and again an hour and a half later, but caused no serious damage, and the bombers left no clue except one bomb which failed to explode.

Major Rekalovitz was testing it when it blew up, causing injuries from which he died.

No arrests were made.

ORDER CHECK-UP ON LOCAL CAFES

Barber Shops Will Also Be Inspected by Dr. T. W. H. Young.

HEALTH BOARD MEETS.

A check-up on the sanitation of cafes and barber shops in the city was ordered this morning by the Board of Health and Dr. T. W. H. Young, M.O.H., was instructed to inspect these places.

Mayor Denne declared that the Chinese places bordering the market were throwing refuse and scrub water out upon the market square. While on this subject the Mayor advised the need of the Board inspecting the kitchens of the cafes and his motion was seconded by Alderman Walter Stocker.

The subject of sanitation then turned to barber shops and it was alleged that some of the back rooms of barber shops were in a filthy condition, being maintained merely as a catch hole for sweepings from the floor. Dr. Young stated that he would make a thorough inspection of all tonsorial parlors, and order any dirty premises to be given a thorough house cleaning.

Three families totalling some fifteen persons, mostly children, are living in a place partly office and partly house on Water street, Mr. Stocker reported. It was stated that the place was unfit for habitation. Dr. Young will order a change and if his orders are not followed the place will be closed.

The best report in years was given the city's milk supply by Dr. C. B. Waite. Dr. Young stated that the milk report was excellent, being almost perfectly pure and rating far higher than in many recent months.

Contagious diseases showed an increase over last month, there being six cases, one of chicken pox and five of scarlet fever. None of the scarlet fever cases are serious, Dr. Young said, although four are in the hospital.

BEATTY SAYS THAT REDUCTION OF WAR DEBT NECESSARY IN WORLD

President of C.P.R. is Most Optimistic For Immediate Future of Canada.

ADDRESSES BIG RALLY.

(Special to The Examiner)

TORONTO, March 17.—In a speech delivered here last night before the combined Board of Trade and Empire Clubs of this city, E. W. Beatty, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway presented an incisive analysis of the Canadian economic situation and drew a convincing parallel between present conditions and those of a far more serious nature which this country had suffered in former periods of depression. He outlined what he believed were sound reasons for confident expectation that the present recession in the country's business was in measureable distance of improvement.

Mr. Beatty dealt also with the matter of international war debts and the paralysing effects of their payment on international buying power. They created a situation, he said, which would have to be remedied before general improvement in certain aspects for our progress would be shown. Russian affairs and the need for economy in the national affairs of Canada were also touched upon.

Referring to the fact that his company was this year celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of its incorporation, Mr. Beatty briefly reviewed the high points of its history, and drew attention to some of its outstanding achievements. He pointed out that up to the end of 1929 its total tax bill had been $105,813,944, while the total value of the original Government contribution to the railway's building in cash, land and completed sections of the railway had been $91,-118,827, which, he suggested, had proved an excellent investment for the Canadian people.

Mr. Beatty stated that there was a natural apprehension abroad regarding future business conditions. "We are prone to think", he said, "that because we are individually a little worse off, that the whole country is as badly off as we are, and we look at Canada through spectacles temporarily clouded by the fog of a local condition or a condition which affects most acutely some particular business. No one can quarrel with such a legitimate re-action to a personal situation as that, but still we would be very unwise when we to assume that the worst and most subnormal of our situations

Justice A. Scott White Dies In New Brunswick

SAINT JOHN, N. B., March 17.—(CP) — Mr. Justice Albert Scott White, of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick, died today at the Saint John infirmary after a short illness.

He was taken suddenly ill at his home Wednesday. Physicians diagnosed the attack as obstruction of the bowel and advised an immediate operation. It was not until Thursday evening that he was able to be brought to hospital here being brought down in a special train from Sussex.

An operation was performed that night and the patient made a splendid rally and seemed to be improving until Monday morning when a delayed shock reaction set in and he sank gradually from that time until he passed away peacefully away peacefully about 11:20 o'clock this morning.

HUSH APOLOGIZES TO ED. M. ELLIOTT

MEANT RENFREW COUNTY.

Expressing regret to the treasurer of Peterborough county for the error which it made in its publication of March 12, S. F. Thomson, editor of Hush, a weekly periodical published in Toronto has sent the following telegram to The Examiner:

"In our issue of March 12 we inadvertently stated that there had been defalcations by the treasurer of Peterborough county. It was intended to say the County of Renfrew, and we take the first opportunity to correct our obvious error and express regret to the treasurer of Peterborough county."

Peterborough citizens were stunned when on the week-end they read that there was defalcations by Edward M. Elliott, the trusted treasurer of Peterborough County for the past twenty-seven years. They realized that a mistake must have been made as was later disclosed.

The firm of Gordon and Elliott immediately got in touch with Mr. Thomson and he promised that a full retraction would be made in the next issue of his publication.

POLICE SEEKING CONFIDENCE GANG

FOUR COUNTRIES ON GUARD.

ROME, March 17 (C.P.).—Police of four countries hunted to-day for a dozen members of an alleged international confidence gang revealed with the arrest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Spencer of Albany, N.Y., and Leo L. Davidson, native of Kansas City, Mo., charged with a $35,000 swindle.

Police of England, Germany and Belgium who were notified of the arrests were asked to round up companions of Davidson and the Spencers. Spencer was said to have operated in Brussels, London and Berlin.

Mrs. Spencer was released to-day but remained under police observation. She went from jail to an elaborate villa on Monte Verde, overlooking the city of Rome, where she has lived with Spencer for several years.

EXHAUSTED MEN AFTER BATTLING OVER 8 MILES OF ICE RELATE HOW VIKING'S POWDER MAGAZINE EXPLODED

Five Homes at Tiny Settlement Try Valiently to Care For Survivors—Tug and Steamer Expected to Arrive at Noon With Food and Medical Supplies.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Mar. 17. (CP)—Eyes of the world were fixed today on a little island in White Bay on the northern coast of Newfoundland, where 118 survivors of the explosion-wrecked sailing ship Viking were being given the care afforded by a tiny settlement of five homes. But the eyes of Captain Abram Kean, Jr. and the members of his crew who had reached safety were turned outward to the wideswept ice-floe over which they struggled to land yesterday, for five men in a dory and two on foot who were still unable to complete the shoreward journey. The dory's crew, all badly injured, have spent two nights in the ice. Today, with the assistance of the two others they were persisting in their efforts to reach safety. But it was doubtful whether they could succeed. An offshore wind and their weakened condition made the four or five miles of ice and water a road of infinite hardship. Continually shifting ice made efforts of their exhausted companions ashore to aid them of little avail. Their greatest hope was the arrival this afternoon of the rescue ships Sagona and Foundation Franklin, now near Horse Island with medical assistance and supplies.

Establishment of the little party's identity would definitely fix the fate of the Viking's afterguard of officers and of Varick Frissell, A. E. Penrod and Harry Sargent, the trio of moving picture men who went north with the sealers to portray the adventure of the north for the entertainment of the theatre-goers.

Score or More Dead

Those men on the ice were a link to-day between the rescued and the score or more who died when the Viking's store of blasting powder blew out the ship's stern on Sunday night.

Frissell and his companions are missing, and they are not believed to be aboard the dory. Alfred Kean, mate, helpless with a broken leg, was the only officer reported by Captain Kean, himself injured when thrown to the ice by the explosion, was known to be alive, and it was considered likely he was one of the group making their slow way toward shore.

The Foundation Franklin, first of the rescue ships to slip out of St. John's harbor for the race northward yesterday, was expected to reach Horse Island early this afternoon.

Meanwhile, Miss O. Bartlett, the girl operator at Horse Island, sits at her key tapping out official messages and brief words of assurance from survivors to relatives. Between times she puts on the air snatches of the story of the seal fishery's worst disaster in seventeen years.

Parties of survivors from Horse Island were out this afternoon attempting to rescue the seven men on the ice. The five in the dory, it was learned, were too severely injured to attempt to reach shore when the Viking blew up, and doubt was expressed whether they could have survived two nights of exposure.

The cause of the explosion is still unknown. Captain Abram Kean, weakened by exposure and exhaustion, has not yet made a statement on that point, and he is the only survivor likely to know. The crew were all in the forward part of the ship, and to this fact their escape is attributable. Brief messages to relatives gave only the barest outline of the tragedy.

"We rushed on deck after the explosion to find the stern of the vessel blown to smithereens. The hull was afire and we jumped to the ice." This was the picture retained by survivors of the few seconds immediately following the blast.

Little of the tragedy was known here early to-day. Terse messages from Horse Island yesterday afternoon and last night indicated a probable death list of twenty from the Viking's complement of 142 men. No coherent account could be given by the exhausted men who first succeeded in crossing the eight miles of shifting ice between the island and the spot where the Viking's powder magazine exploded, causing the immediate sinking of the ship's stern.

Captain Kean was on the bridge when the explosion occurred. He was hurled twelve feet to the ice and injured in the fall. Survivors must await the arrival of the rescue ships due at one o'clock, for food and warmth, as there are no supplies available on the island and the five homes are crowded with the more weakened of the survivors.

McCLURE GIVEN TWO YEAR TERM BY MAGISTRATE

Pleaded Guilty to Four Charges of Burglary in Police Court.

ONE BURGLARY GANG.

Family Quarrel is Related to Magistrate and Husband Fined $1.00.

Gerald J. McClure, 18, another member of the alleged band of youthful burglars, which during the past five months have entered and robbed some ten grocery stores in and about the city, was sentenced to-day. He had pleaded guilty to four burglaries, three in the city and one in the county, and this morning Police Magistrate Langley sent him to the Ontario Reformatory for a term of two years less one day.

J. A. O'Brien, defence counsel, made a strong plea for the lad, but Crown Attorney V. J. McElderry, K.C., pointed out that McClure had been in several scrapes and would have an opportunity to find himself away from his associates. In the Reformatory, the Crown Attorney said, the boy could learn a trade, and when he got out he could then make a fresh start with a better opportunity of making good.

Robert Hamilton was the ring-leader of the boy burglars, stated Mr. O'Brien. It was to his house, continued the lawyer, that the spoils were brought, and it was he who made the profits from the burglaries, while the boys only got cigarettes and the "odd feed."

John E. McClure, 16, who had pleaded guilty to burglarizing E. F. Mason's store, was remanded until Thursday for sentence, as was also Arthur McDonald, who had pleaded guilty to being with the gang on one of the expeditions.

The Weather

The 17th of March is a day dear to Irishmen. To me it marks a definite milestone on the onward march of the seasons. We are prone to associate the "17th" with muddy roads and the dirt and debris of an all too-long winter, but a little investigation will show that now—with several feet of snow generally covering the ground—is not unusual. As late as 1928 conditions were much the same as to-day, as well as in 1916 and 1912, when there was over thirty inches of snow still on the ground. As for nipping frost, on St. Patrick's Day, 1916, we had it 6 degrees below zero, and on the following day it was down to 18 degrees below zero. Whew! Going a little farther back, on the "17th" in 1904, it was 4 degrees below zero, and the next day, 16 below. The years 1902 and 1903 showed the other side of the picture—dust flying, robins singing, blackbirds, bluebirds and other Spring songsters in numbers, and all Nature vibrant with life. This was about the year when the bicycle was at the hey-day of its popularity, when practically everybody owned one, and rode one, and all were out in the beautiful Springtime weather of the "17th of Ireland." Spring is not here yet. It is not, however, unduly delayed, and a few days may (and probably will) see swift and almost miraculous changes.—W.P.

Liberals Move Amendment To Speech

MACKENZIE KING BITTERLY SCORES PREMIER BENNETT

BENNETT ARROGANT.

Want of Confidence in Ministry is Implied in Liberal Amendment.

OTTAWA, March 17.—Six months' Canadian political truce terminated in a tense and crowded Commons last night when the official Opposition Liberal Party, led by former Premier King, moved to decapitate and inter the Bennet Administration over Premier Bennett's allegedly offensive and impossible Imperial Economic Conference preference proposals, and the "arrogant" manner of their submission.

The amendment submitted by the Right Hon. Mr. King at the conclusion of a four and a half hour speech—one of the longest in Canadian records—included in its condemnatory references alleged failure of the Government policies to remedy "unemployment and agricultural distress," and added the opinion that if other indicated policies presumably higher tariff, were persisted in "the very serious conditions which exist at the present time will be intensified rather than relieved."

Played Mussolini

But it was on the count of Premier Bennett's Imperial Conference proposals, the Prime Minister's alleged Mussolini-like attitude toward Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald and other Dominion Premiers, on the score of Premier Bennett's "appeal to the British people over the heads of the Labor Government" via radio broadcast, and on an openly spoken inference that Right Hon. Mr Bennett's tariff preference might have been deliberately drafted so as to be unacceptable, and, indeed, submitted with the idea of embarrassing the MacDonald Government, that Right Hon. Mr King last night sought to stir the House and the country into action to demolish the Bennett Administration.

Liberal Amendment

At the close of his speech Mr. King moved the following amendment:

"That the following be added to the address to His Excellency:

"We respectfully submit to Your Excellency that this House, while recognizing the serious economic conditions prevailing throughout the world, regrets that the policies of His Majesty's Government have not only failed to effect a remedy for un-

LABOR MINISTRY BEATEN IN HOUSE

MacDonald Government Refuses to Resign and May Ditch Electoral Reform Bill.

16 LABORITES ABSENT.

LONDON, Eng. March 17 (Canadian Press Cable).—The cabinet, following the defeat of the Labor Government by four votes in the House of Commons last night, will consider the advisability of entirely abandoning the electoral reform bill, the measure for an alternative vote which was designed to ensure continued Liberal support.

The government blames Labor party discipline for the defeat sustained on a clause of the bill last night. The vote was 246 to 242 in favor of a resolution rejecting that clause of the bill which is designed to abolish the university seats in parliament.

16 Unpaired Laborites

The absence of 16 unpaired Labor members last night may be officially called to the attention of their constituencies, their presence would have prevented the government defeat, but it would not have prevented the break between Sir John Simon and the Liberal party leader, Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, who was thus unable to throw his entire party support to the government.

Sir John lived up to his recent threats that he would vote only as his conscience dictated, and led 10 fellow Liberals into the Opposition lobby. The vote was accompanied by cries of "resign, resign" but the ministry did not consider the issue a vital one.

The defeat was the sixth sustained by the Labor government in either house since it came into office in June, 1929.

RED AGITATORS JEER AT GANDHI DURING SPEECH

Taunted By Bombay Communists for Failing to Get Release of Labor Disturbers.

CONGRESS ASSAILED.

Nationalists Flag Torn Down But Later Replaced Beside Flaming Red Banner.

BOMBAY, India, Mar. 17.—(AP)—Mahatma Gandhi, accustomed to adulation and worship, and commanding the respect even of his British antagonists, last night heard peers hoots, hisses and catcalls from a Labor audience which he was about to address.

Communists in the audience taunted him with his failure to provide for release of labor agitators in his truce with Lord Irwin which led to abandonment of the civil disobedience campaign, and charged him with betraying the workers.

"Down with Gandhi," they shouted. "Down with the National Congress", "Down with British Imperialism."

Tear Down Flag

As they shouted they tore down the Nationalist flag on the platform where Gandhi sat, amazed and bewildered, and replaced it with a flaming Red banner. Nationalist volunteers fought with the Communists for a few minutes and finally replaced the Red flag with the Nationalist emblem.

Gandhi then made his speech, pleading that he had done his best for the Labor agitators but that what he had been able to do depended upon the extent to which they had been aligned with the independence movement.

Turning back to political questions he told his hearers that the forthcoming National Congress convention at Karachi will demand complete independence from Great Britain, and that Nationalist delegates at the forthcoming Round Table Conference will reiterate the demand.

As Gandhi has explained before he does not mean independence in the full sense of the term so much as Dominion status with no reservations, which Britain thus far has not been willing to grant.

Cigarette Butt Starts Fire

STUDENTS TRAPPED IN QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY BLAZE.

When a fire said to have originated from a cigarette butt, broke out in the Arts Building of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., on Saturday, six students and the physical training head were trapped in an upper storey and forced to make their escape by ropes. Much damage was done. Above shows: (1) James Bews, head of Physical Training Department, and superintendent of buildings and grounds of the University, who, with six students, was trapped in the Greek Department office, and who, by the aid of rope, successfully brought the entire party to safety. (2) Prof. Manly Baker, head of the Geology Department, who saw the smoke from his house, put in the alarm, and rushed over and shut the fire doors leading between the burning Arts Building and Grant Hall, which is shown in (3) with the clock tower during the blaze.

The BEST Gray Hair Remedy is Home Made

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Orlex Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It will gradually darken streaked, faded or gray hair and make it soft and glossy. Orlex will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.

73 PLOT MUTINY PAY WITH LIVES

Hundred Other Chinese Officers and Soldiers Await Sentence at Canton.

REDS GIVEN BLAME.

CANTON, China, March 17.—(AP)—Seventy three officers of the Chinese army were executed here today after discovery of a Communist plot to stir mutiny in the troops at Swatow. A hundred other officers and soldiers are awaiting sentence.

The Central Government stated in connection with the executions that it was having considerable trouble with Red activity and influences, which have obtained a strong hold throughout the country.

Ten days ago a division of Government troops stationed on the Peking Hankow Railroad mutinied because they believed that their disbandment was imminent, and tore the tracks up in their neighborhood. They joined Red forces in ravaging the surrounding country.

EXTREMIST VOTE AT LAST MINUTE SAVES LABORITES

Special Planes Chartered to Rush Four Missing Members to Capital.

CRITICISM MOTION FAILS.

Storm Breaks Over Premier Scullin's Private Cables From London.

CANBERRA, Australia, March 17 (C. P. Cable, via Reuters).—In a desperate attempt to stave off defeat that loomed as the result of an unexpected crisis in Parliament to-day, the Labor Government chartetred a special airplane to rush to the Capital Hon Frank Anstey and two other Labor members from Melbourne. A fourth Labor absentee chartered his own airplane from Geelong.

The Melbourne plane did not arrive, but the Government was again saved by the last-minute rally of the Labor extremists, and a motion of criticism by the Nationalist opposition was talked out. The small group of extremists, who are definitely at odds with the bulk of the party in the caucus, stepped into the breach to-day just as they did last week, and for the second time the Government earned a respite.

The Nationalists suddenly decided to move adjournment to discuss the "inconsistencies of the policy pursued by the Government, and Premier Scullin's cables from London," in connection with "private cables" from Premier Scullin, when he was in London for the Imperial Conference, to the acting Government heads. These cables stressed that the Government would not yield to the extremists, would not consider inflation and would never contemplate any measure of debt repudiation.

"Vile Treachery"

Premier Scullin, in the House today," stigmatized as "vile treachery" the action of the person or persons responsible for making these cables public. He had said outside the House yesterday that the cables spoke for themselves and he did not apologize for one word. "If their publication was intended to discredit the Government, then the action has failed of its objective," he added.

When the storm broke in Parliament to-day, the Government, following recent deflections which have cut down its strength,, was plunged into consternation at the discovery that four of its supporters were missing. Frantic messages were despatched to them, and the Government hastily chartered the airplane at Melbourne. This did not turn up in time, though the member from Geelong arrived in a hurry. The Government would have undoubtedly met defeat but for the support of the few extremists. In a division on a motion of non-confidence last Friday the Government, with the help of the extremists, had a majority of only five.

IRELAND HONORS SAINT PATRICK

Sporting Contests, Feats and Dancing Will Last Until Wednesday Morning.

MESSAGES SENT OVER WOR

Messages Sent Over World.

DUBLIN, Irish Free State, March 17—(AP)—Residents of the Saorstat and kindred souls in the Northern Counties today celebrated Saint Patrick's Day with nation-wide religious ceremonies, civic programs, sporting contests, and feats and dancing which may last until tomorrow morning.

An eleventh hour legislative omission prevented drowning the Shamrock in good Irish whiskey, but for those who did not live too far away there was a prospect of a trip over into Ulster where restrictions closing public houses on Saint Patrick's Day do not hold.

A resolution which would have repealed the restrictions, now nearly a decade old, was on the calendar of the Dail and should have been passed on late yesterday afternoon, in time for today's celebrations, but for some reason it was left off the listing of the day's events and cannot come up until Wednesday.

In a published message of good will, President Cosgrave said: "All is well with the Saorstat Eireann. We are continuing with increasing success to build the old Irish nation anew, to preserve and strengthen its distinctive nationality, and to secure for Ireland's sons and daughters a living in their own land and enjoyment of a freedom not less than that of any other nation."

REV. WILLIAM SIMPSON PREACHES INITIAL SERMON AT MILLBROOK

Newly Appointed Rector for Parish Speaks at St. Thomas' Church, Millbrook.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS

MILLBROOK, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence) — Rev. William Simpson, B.A., formerly of Calgary, Alberta, and newly appointed rector of the parish of Millbrook and Cavan, preached his initial sermon before the congregation of Saint Thomas, Church, Millbrook, at evening worship on Sunday, March 15, the membership being well represented, and the choir well filled, considering the bad walking in the village, and the very unfavorable state of the roads throughout the countryside.

At an opportune time in the service, the rector mentioned the fact that he had been looking forward with anticipation to the first service in the new relationship of pastor and congregation, and spoke also of "the joy that has been mine in the service to-night, and in the two days' contact since my arrival in the parish."

The special circumstances excused the making of some personal remarks, the congregation being entitled to know that their rector's wife and youngest daughter had accompanied him from the west, and are now in Barrie waiting for their car of furniture to arrive when they will come on at once to Millbrook, and establish their home here.

"I feel confident that God has a work for me to do, building upon foundations already laid in this parish for the greater part of a century, and that through co-operation we shall build something worthily for the Kingdom's sake."

The great joy of worshipping in such a beautiful church had made a strong appeal to the new minister, who proceeded to read the Declaration he had signed in the presence of Bishop Seeny on Thursday, March 12, His Lordship having asked that this be done at the first service in the new connection as pastor and people on Sunday.

When signed by the Wardens of the churches of the parish, the Declaration, which was made at the time of Rev. Simpson's institution into the rectorship of his new charge, will be filed in the Synod's office at Toronto. The formal induction service will take place shortly after Easter, when the press of work of the Lenten season is over, and the Rural Dean and other clergy of the Deanery will be able to attend.

Paul's philosophy of life as expressed in Philliplans 3, 13-14, was chosen by the rector for his message to his people in their first service together, "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things that are behind, and reaching forth unto those things that are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

"With such a goal to which life is directing its way, all the chance happenings, apparently purposeless, all the accidents, and providences can be definitely related to the whole. The words of the text, a look backward, a look forward, and an attitude to the present, make sound common sense, and good Christianity, leading our lives, like Paul's, to be centred on the race, and to be a greatest success."

While there are some things in life that cannot be forgotten, and others which we should deliberately try to forget, the speaker reminded his hearers that slights, jars, injustices, hurts, are the things to be put out of mind. Urging entering the race of the Christian life, with its goal "the high calling of God in Christ Jesus," the minister spoke of the importance of pressing on, "my ideal for our ministry is that we should never take our eyes off the goal, and all eternity will give us opportunity to grow from more to more reaching up unto the stature of our Lord. Let us place the ideal of the Master before us, one that finds its purpose in helping young and old into the Kingdom, and He Himself will bring forth the top stone of our undertaking with joy, and with shoutings of Grace, Grace, unto it."

The processional hymn on Sunday evening was, "O Happy Band of Pilgrims," and the recessional hymn, "Unto the Hills Around," Miss Mamie Collins presiding at the organ. The ushers were Messrs. H. B. Allen and John Dawson.

Rev. Mr. Simpson announced a special service for the children on Tuesday, at 4.15 p.m., to which not only the boys and girls from the school are invited, but the older folk also, and on Thursday evening, preceding the lantern slides which the A.Y.P.A. has sponsored presenting each week during Lent in lieu of their regular meeting, the rector will conduct a service of worship, probably a shortened evensong.

represents the average just as in 1928 we were inclined to think that the best and most abnormal was real and permanent.

Mistakes Were Made

"We have learned a good deal in the last year and a half, and, of course, as always has been the case under subnormal conditions, mistakes of previous years, or rather the results of them, have become more conspicuous. In prosperous times mistakes are made which do not become unduly prominent, but in times of depression many of them stick out like sore fingers, and if we are wise, we review the situation in the light of the story they tell. Economists tell us that the trend of the world's trade has changed and that national consciousness and pride has led many nations to set up tariff walls in the interest of their own people and that this has interrupted the free flow of commodities throughout the world. They will tell you, too, that the orgy of speculation of the last few years has brought its inevitable toll and that the huge stock market losses of 1929 and 1930 have affected the fortunes and the buying power of many thousands of people. They will also say that at a time when agriculture and other basic products are very low priced, many of the world's people are suffering, that the anomaly of over-production has taken place when people are actually in need but cannot buy commodities they require, and they tell you that this is due to maldistribution of gold and, to an extent, to the low price of silver and therefore, its ineffectiveness as a medium of purchasing."

All factors mention are undoubtedly important, but I believe that one of the most deterring influences to the resumption of normal trade is the presence of huge war obligations, repayment of which and the interest upon them are reducing the buying power of those debtor countries to such an extent as to make normal trade conditions impossible. That is not a situation which you or I can settle or that Canada can settle, but unless I am very much mistaken, it will have to be remedied before genuine improvement in certain aspects of our progress will be shown.

"It is not surprising that the wealthiest and most self-contained nations of the world are beginning to feel the result of these world conditions. The United States have been conscious of them for a year and even France is now beginning to sense the effect of this unusual situation. I have always felt that the great American republic has more to gain by a resumption of normal trade than it will ever gain by the exaction of the last cent of war debt reparations from countries both unable and unwilling to pay. Naturally and properly we must localize our own difficulties and provide a remedy so far as that is possible. Policies may be initiated by governments which are helpful, but there is much that only the business interests of the country can accomplish, and perhaps the most gratifying feature of the situation as it now exists is the fact that throughout this country we are actually working at our own problems and pessimism is departing and confidence being re-stored.

Railroads Felt the Pinch

"The railway companies of the country have felt the pinch and in the vernacular of the prize ring, have taken it on the chin for the last twenty months in a shrinkage of earnings which, in a similar period of time, has been unparalleled in this country. We have been actuated by a belief that this country will revert to normal conditions more quickly than others. The Canadian Pacific has spent a great deal of money, not always with a commercial reason behind it; we know that in justice to our shareholders and because of the absolute necessity of preserving our own integrity, our money should be spent in ways which would at least give good grounds for confidence of a return. We must, of course, under present conditions exercise reasonable economy, not the slashing economy of panic, with its attendant social and economic ills, but the carefully considered economy of wisdom. Canadians have in some respects been a rather improvident people in the matter of public expenditures; the reason, of course, is that the guiding principle of such expenditure is not and cannot be in all cases based upon the measure of return. Also politics and not economics are very often the guiding influence, and with these uncommercial elements in public expenditures we look for waste and we have not been disappointed. I doubt if any of us, even those who consider themselves reasonably well informed, can have any accurate appreciation of the millions of money that have been unnecessarily spent because the then existing prosperous conditions in the country seemed to justify what, in any circumstances, would be extravagence.

Between now and 1934 this dominion must refund bonds to the amount of a billion dollars the money for which was secured in a period of patriotic fervor, where investment for war purposes was properly considered the duty of every man and woman who had anything to invest. Refunding operations will not take place under these conditions, it will be a series of commercial loans carrying a rate relative to the value of money and the undoubted soundness of the security, but which must be floated in the light of the capacity of the market to absorb them. I am satisfied that substantial though the operation is, it will be successfully completed but the magnitude of it should make us realize the care we should exert in public expenditures.

When we become slightly discouraged and perhaps somewhat apprehensive, through not seeing clear and tangible evidence of a return to prosperity, we can take some comfort in the fact that, save as to wheat, our production of basic commodities was greater in 1930 than in 1926 that our country is just as strong and our people stronger, more resourceful and just as confident in the main as in recent and commercially more active years."

Mr. Beatty pointed out that it was not until 1883 that the Canadian Pacific acquired control of the Ontario and Quebec railway, and in spite of opposition from the old Grand Trunk, proceeded to link up this road with Credit Valley and the Atlantic and north west, so as to furnish a direct line between Montreal and Toronto. "In the year 1882" he said, "the year succeeding our company's incorporation, the rateable value of property in Toronto was quoted as $60,000,000.

Turing to the West, Mr. Beatty said that in 1881, when the C.P.R. was incorporated, there were no post offices between Manitoba's western border and the Rocky Mountains. United States interests in our own North-West was great. A committee of the U.S. Senate on Pacific railroads reported that "the opening by us first of a North Pacific railroad seals the destiny of British possessions west of the 91st Meridian. They will become so Americanized in interests and feelings that they will be in effect served from the new Dominion, and the question of their annexation will be a matter of time."

"At about the same time," said Mr. Beatty, "London Truth was publishing its opinion that Western Canada was as forbidding a country as any on earth, that British Columbia was a cold, barren, mountain county not worth keeping, and that the Canadian Pacific was never likely to pay a single red cent on interest on the money to be sunk in it."

In reference to the latter statement, Mr. Beatty pointed out that the total value of the subventions to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company—cash, lands, and completed sections of the railway—under the terms of the original agreement with the Canadian Government and its subsesuent modifications has been figured at $91,118,827, which is not substantially greater than will be the ultimate cost of the Montreal terminals of the present Government system of railways.

"On looking over the figures paid by the company in taxation during the period from the incorporation to December 31st, 1929," he said, "I find that these taxes make the very respectable total of $105,813,944. The construction of the Canadian Pacific Railway of the territory between Winnipeg and the Pacific Coast was saved for Canada, and," he added, "I think you will agree that the Canadian Government made a good investment."

Mr. Beatty briefly drew a picture of the West as it was before the arrival of the railway, and instanced the transportation difficulties that lay between that country and the older parts of Canada. The present state of Western civilization was evidenced," he said, "by two of its chief hallmarks, the possession of a university and a symphony orchestra. Toronto had one university and two orchestras, while Montreal had two universities and one orchestra. On May 8 the new broadcast transmission system of the Canadian Pacific would enable the entire country to hear the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, while on June 5 the Calgary Symphony would be similarly broadcasted, thus all owing a comparison with that of Montreal which the company is regularly broadcasting.

With brief reference to the more outstanding points in the history of the railway's construction, the speaker passed on to the period between 1893-96, one of the most trying periods in the economic history of Canada.

The McKinley tariff had dislocated the whole trade of Canada with the United States. In 1893 Australia had experienced a terrible banking crash followed by a severe stringency in the London money market. Many American railroads passed into the hands of receivers; large corporations closed their doors; banks were failing daily; currency went to a premium ,and could hardly be obtained at all. By 1894 business was paralyzed over the entire western half of the continent. Wheat fell to an abnormally low price, and a winter of unusual severity tremendously multiplied the difficulties of the Canadian Pacific. In the spring of 1893, its dividend was reduced to one and a half per cent., and the price of a $100 share fell to $35.00. Then came the opening of new mines in British Columbia and the Lake Superior district making up somewhat for diminished traffic in wheat and business gradually came back to culminate in a new tide of prosperity in 1897.

"During all this period the people of the West never lost heart, and I think it well to remind you of this period of financial depression," said Mr. Beatty, "because you may recognize certain parallels to the financial conditions of the past year. The recent depression in Canada has, however, been considerably less in proportion to that of the United States, indicating that this country has greater economic independence than was the case thirty-five years ago. We have a richer supply of natural resources to draw upon, a wider spread of manufacturers, a greater variety of export markets served by an immensely enlarged merchant marine, and what I venture to think is still more vital, namely, a greater confidence in ourselves.

"Van Horne's favorite maxim was that a railway must keep on growing, otherwise it dies or is eaten up by one that is growing. As a result of this policy, the Canadian Pacific Railway diversified its activities so as to secure traffic and income from many enterprises which might not be considered strictly railway enterprises.

"You can, therefore, readily understand that the agricultural credit plan recently suggested by myself and supported by the government is not a panacea that dropped out of the blue sky but is in line with the long established policy and belief of the company, namely, that diversified farming should be practiced in the west wherever possible. Wheat was the magnet which drew the majority of settlers to the west, and for forty years much of the prairie land was sold on the prospect of revenue from wheat.

So long as harvests were good and the price of wheat kept up, most people were content, all except the prophets, who pointed out that this king of farming was more like mining than good farming, and that safety could not be secured only by a greater diversity of farm produce and that every farmer ought to be in a position to live off his own land.

"Wheat will for many years, perhaps always, remain the staple crop of the west. There are large areas which lack sufficient water to be suitable for raising stock. The soil is peculiarly adapted for milling wheat, and so long as the human race inclines to the wheaten loaf, so long can Canadian wheat command a world market. The agricultural credits plan is not intended to transform the west into the vast stock farm—it is merely a method of providing capital on easy terms, to enable approved settlers who have suitable land to feed their marketable grain to stock and to depend more on thier own farms for produce on which they themselves and the people of Canada depend for necessary food.

"A rather intimate knowledge of Canadian Pacific historty and thirty years in that companys service have convinced me that it was wisely conceived and courageously completed; that it has grown with the country under its former gifted and patriotic executives, and has re-paid to Canada in dollars, in service, in leadership and in prestige, many times the amount of the aid it received when the daring project was initiated. The Canadian Pacific has been a fortunate company—fortunate in that it was built to bind totgether the scattered provinces forming this Dominion and make its not unsubstantial contribution to the Dominion's great progress—fortunate in its officers and men whose ability, sagacity and resource saw it through its dark and doubtful days—fortunate in that it has been permitted to achieve its natural aspirations upon sound economic lines, subject to regulation at all times by independent and properly constituted tribunals but free from the menace of undue interference— fortunate in that it was free to exercise initiative and feel the spur to succeed that only great private institutions can feel in the fullest measure — fortunate in that it was able to marshal for this country its great resources during the war and able and willing to be a good Canadian citizen — to go on from accomplishment to accomplishment, growing in stature and prestige and in the goodwill of other Canadian citizens and of investors in Great Britain, United States and elsewhere—privately owned, privately administered, but always as Canadian as the land on which its rails are laid.

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, Mar. 17—Cream prices dropped one cent on all grades, to the country shippers yesterday. Large creameries maintained that prices were too high in comparison with the prices obtainable for butter and accordingly put their plants on a better basis. Shippers were quoted 31c for special, 30c for No. 1, and 27c for No. 2, f.o.b., country points.

Butter

There was a fair trade on the butter market and at the lower prices reported last week-end. Some good size sales were made at 31c to 31¼c for No. 1 creamery and 30c to 30¼c for No. 2. There was no inclination, however, to make sales at lower prices and buyers were satisfied to secure supplies at the new range.

Cheese

The prices quoted to shippers for cheese were steady with previous reports, but trade was only fair. Brokers asked $14¾s ro rnew large, 15c for twins and 15¼c for triplets, and retailers were quoted 16c for new large, 16¼c for twins and 16½c for triplets.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, March 17. — Grains tightened up yesterday after wheat had again outdone the season's bottom-price record. An early downward swing of wheat and corn was associated with increasing stocks of wheat at Liverpool, on ocean passage, and in the United States visible supply. Oversold conditions in the Chicago wheat market became apparent, however, and corn displayed independent strength, smaller shipments of corn to Chicago from other terminals being expected.

Wheat closed firm, unchanged to ⅝c higher; corn, ⅞c to 1⅛c advanced; oats, unchanged to ¼c up; and provisions, unchanged to a rise of 20c.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, March 17. — Wheat idled through a colorless session yesterday and at the close values were ⅛c to ⅝c higher than Saturday's close.

No news of any importance came into the Pit, and trading was an uninteresting affair. Business was small and reports of export transactions over the week-end and yesterday were lacking. With the exception of a little buying of May wheat for foreign account at 58¼c, support from the start was limited.

Except for a few bids in the market under the current level of prices, there was no interest in cash wheat. Spreads generally were unchanged. Coarse trading was limited. Lull in barley demand continues. Prices had a narrow range.

YOUNG WIFE STRENGTHENED

After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Bancroft, Ontario—"When I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I had been troubled about a year with my stomach and was in a run down condition. I was very nervous and had no ambition to do my housework. I was troubled with dizzy spells and my mother told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am thankful I did because it built up my whole system and now I feel perfectly well and have a sweet little baby boy."—Mrs. J. R. Strasburg, Bancroft, Ontario.

FALSE TEETH ARE A GREAT INVENTION but KEEP YOUR OWN AS LONG AS YOU CAN

Ten years too late most people seek Protection

The greatest mistake you can make is to wait until gums are swollen and spongy before you begin to think of pyorrhea. A famous British doctor states that many people have this disease for ten years before the symptoms appear.

And pyorrhea is to blame for half of all adult teeth extracted. Protect yourself now from this disease of neglect. You should, of course, see your dentist twice a year.

And, in addition, keep teeth clean—massage the gums—with Forhan's, the dentists' dentifrice. It was originated by R. J. Forhan, D. D. S., a specialist in pyorrhea.

Brush your teeth at least twice a day with Forhan's, for it is a mild, safe, scientifically correct cleanser, which restores your teeth to their natural gleaming beauty.

At the same time, use Forhan's for massage (full instructions with every tube). It is specially prepared to tone up the gums when applied with gentle rubbing, and to awaken sluggish circulation. The health of th gum depends on this circulation. Only when they are firm and strong can they hope to resist infections which bring such trouble to almost every adult later in life.

Here, then, is double protection in Forhan's—a protection which every member of the family should have. Adopt Forhan's as your dentifrice; it comes in two sizes, 35c and 60c—just a few cents per tube more than ordinary toothpastes, and exceedingly well worth it. Forhan's Ltd., Montreal.

"HITCH-HIKING" NOT BARRED.

It is explained by Premier Henry that the amendments to the Highway Traffic Act to be passed during the present session of the Legislature does not include the barring of hitch-hiking or asking for rides on the highways.

All that is contemplated is to require that those who want to stop motorists to seek a lift must stand on the shoulder of the road when so doing instead of in the middle of the highway, as has been the practice with many individuals.

It is claimed that this habit has been the cause of many accidents, and it is in the hope of reducing the casualty list from this source that the Minister of Highways is now endeavoring to deal with the matter by legislation.

There is on the part of motorists a natural tendency to be careful as to whom they pick up along the highways, especially when they recall the fact that more than one driver has paid for his kindness with their life.

Many car owners on that account would have approved of a measure that would have made asking for a ride an offense; they recognize, of course, that a regulation of that kind would have been difficult to enforce, but at the same time feel that it might have served to reduce the inconvenience and annoyance which "hitch-hiking" often occasions.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

A happy message for the anniversary of the birth of Ireland's patron saint is a despatch from Dublin declaring that to-day was one of the happiest St. Patrick's Days in years, despite the economic depression.

"The spirits of every one are remarkably high," says this optimistic word from the Free State capital. "The past year has been marked with less of the political turmoil which Ireland has known so much."

To the sons of Erin all over the Globe such a cheerful message must come on this anniversary as most welcome intelligence.

What more fitting occasion than St. Patrick's Day, dear to the heart of every one with Irish blood in his veins, for the promulgation of the news that there is peace in Ireland and that "the spirits of every one are remarkably high."

And welcome, too, must have been the fact that the magic of radio allowed the voice of the head of the Irish Free State to be carried to the millions of people of Irish descent on this Continent, conveying a hopeful and courageous address on the eve of St. Patrick's Day.

Time works many changes, and to-day while the thoughts of the sons and daughters of the green little isle go back to old Erin, as they have always done on St. Patrick's Day, there is this difference that to-day they know that all is right in Ireland and that as a free member of the British Commonwealth of Nations the Irish Free State is working out her destiny.

THE MUNICIPAL INCOME TAX.

One of the most interesting features of the present session of the Legislature will be the debate in committee to-morrow over the Ellis bill which proposes to abolish municipal income tax.

Peterborough's City Council will be represented by Mayor Denne and City Assessor Henry, who will voice the strongest opposition possible to a measure that would mean the transfer of some $22,000 taxes from income taxpayers to the shoulders of the property owners—in other words, as the city officials see it, from those best able to pay to others in a less fortunate position.

The bill itself is on the knees of the gods.

Throughout the Province there is a wide difference of opinion as to the merit of the measure.

Some municipalities favor the abolition of the tax on the ground that its application is unfair, that it is not collected in all municipalities, and that certain classes cannot escape the tax while others are able to dodge it.

On the other hand, there are others which point to the serious loss of revenue that would be sustained by the removal of the levy, and to the fact that the disappearance of the income tax would free some citizens of the obligation of contributing to the revenues of the municipalities.

When the bill was first introduced considerable support was forthcoming in the Legislature, but the opposition that has developed since may cause a change of heart.

BARRING OUTSIDE PUBLICATIONS.

One of the resolutions adopted by the Ontario Prohibition Union at its annual convention in Toronto was one that favored the banning from Ontario of outside newspapers and magazines carrying liquor advertising.

The resolution arises out of the fact that while such advertising is barred from publications issued in this Province, there are no such restrictions in some other parts of Canada and newspapers originating therein come into Ontario.

Many newspapers in Ontario, The Examiner among them, long before the present law came into effect, voluntarily decided that they would not accept liquor advertising, and therefore there was no change in their status when such advertising was officially banned.

It is well worth the attention of the Prohibition Union that the majority of these newspapers have expressed themselves as opposed to any attempt to interfere with outside papers because they contain advertising that is barred from Ontario papers.

As a sample of what is being said by the Ontario press on this subject we quote from the Stratford Beacon-Herald, which says: "It is hard to understand how the Prohibition Union will go about keeping out papers from other Provinces because they carry liquor advertising. We are quite certain they cannot do it, and it would be unwise to attempt it."

And The Examiner, which before the Ontario Liquor Control Act was drafted urged that distillers and brewers should be prohibited from advertising their wares in Ontario publications, heartily agrees with this view.

HOPEFUL OUTLOOK FOR TOURIST TRADE.

It is interesting to learn from statistics given out by the Department of National Revenue that in spite of the economic depression of last summer tourist traffic into Canada in 1930 set a new record.

The figures issued by the department show that last year 5,409,456 foreign automobiles entered Canada, as compared with 4,508,809 the previous year, which was the record up to that time.

It is estimated that each car carried an average of four people, which means that 21,637,800 tourists came into Canada last year; the traffic is not altogether one-sided, however, for the same report shows that 746,924 Canadian cars carrying 3,987,600 Canadian tourists left this country for the United States.

The great majority of these cars in both cases came into Canada or left Canada for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, the number of American automobiles in this class entering this country being 4,110,100.

At that 1,297,030 United States cars came in under permits allowing them to remain two months, and a further 2,326 were classified as having permits to remain six months.

The increase in motor traffic last year, in the face of hard times in the United States, gives good reason for looking forward to the coming tourist season with hopefulness, for it is evident that the conditions have led many Americans to study the question of vacation trips close at hand rather than to spend their holidays in Europe.

This is borne out, too, by a letter received a few days ago by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce from a resident of New Bedford, Pa., who writes as follows:

"I am planning on my first fishing trip to Ontario, Canada, next summer and would appreciate some advice. On account of the industrial depression, I am compelled to resort to more or less economy. Would prefer a location where I could rent a cheap cabin or camping site in close proximity to a variety of good fishing for bass, pike and muskies. From what information I now have, I am about convinced that the Kawartha Lake section, about 125 miles east of Toronto, is my best bet for the finny denizens of the deep. Any information as to location, expense, bait, boats and tackle will be greatly appreciated, together with road information—in fact, any 'dope' you may have available."

CO-OPERATION BETTER THAN CONFLICT.

Merchants and members of the City Council in Welland should watch out that discussions on the early closing by-law do not do more harm than good. One of the real needs among merchants of the smaller cities of Ontario at the present time is co-operation. Good roads and the universal use of the automobile have largely increased the potential trading area for small city merchants and their combined energies should be used to cultivate the trade of the territory they are in a position to serve.

This cannot be accomplished if an element of dissention is allowed to enter the ranks of the retailers. There are powerful and resourceful merchandising combinations in the metropolitan centres which are reaching out by every possible means for the business which should normally go to the tradesmen in the smaller cities, and it is only good business for merchants in the less populous centres to work together in their own interests.

The promotion of an active retail merchants' organization, the holding of community sales, the study of modern merchandising methods and concentration of thought and energy on adequately serving the public and giving them the best values possible, are means by which metropolitan competition can be successfully met. Such an objective will never be accomplished, however, by stirring up unfriendliness by unnecessary controversy.

Take the request of the florists, for instance, to be exempted from the provisions of the early closing by-law. Their argument was that it was oftimes necessary for them to return to thei stoes in the evening to make up wreaths for funerals and similar emergency work. What this had to do with the early closing by-law it is not easy to comprehend. The general understanding of the early closing by-law is that, after a stated time in the evening, certain shops shall not be open to the public. But if, after the hour specified, a florist receives an emergency order at his home or his greenhouse and, for the sake of convenience, returns to his place of business, to virtually manufacture that order into the finished product, surely such action could not be construed as being in contravention of the by-law.

If such is the case then the merchants would be better without the by-law. The object of the by-law cannot be to keep the proprietor of a business—or even his employees—off the premises after closing hours, when work by them is needed in order to take care of the requirements of their customers for the following day. It is, presumably, merely a measure to have all stores in the same line of business close their doors to the public by a specified hour in order that none of them may be subjected to unfair competition. As such, it is worthy of a fair trial by the merchants in general.

But let us get back to the original idea of this editorial, and that is that co-operation will accomplish much more than conflict. Welland merchants have the good fortune to be located in a territory which is thickly populated and has excellent means of communication. Taking advantage of every opportunity for concerted action to cultivate their market would be much better business than continued bickering over what time the stores should close.—Welland Tribune.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

And now the rank and file at Ottawa will have their innings.

Triplets, arriving in a Kentucky home, have been named Amos, Andy and Madame Queen. Ain't dat sumpin'?

Ontario Government cider is to be placed on the market this week, but there is not likely to be much kick about that.

Hitch-hiking has not after all been banned from Ontario highways. Motorists who want to take a chance on picking up strangers can still do so legally.

There is nothing unlucky about "thirteen" when the Hydro's "thirteenth bill" is a rebate.

At least 504 Americans are not worrying about economic conditions. They are the fellows whose annual income is at least one million dollars.

New Zealand has made a cut of 10 per cent. in the salaries of all state servants, including the Governor-General and members of the Cabinet. No rush to follow this example is reported from other countries.

The Red-Headed Goddess

By ALICE ROSS COLVER

The business of communicating with her distant husband in the sky was also a matter of impulse. What she would say she didn't know, and the only manner she could think of to adopt was that of choir boys chanting hymns in church. Breathlessly, with her eyes closed, she began in a singsong:

"Good morning oh Sun-God my Husband! I am glad to see you this morning, glad of your warmth, glad of your brightness. I pray you find Dirk also, and beam down onto his countenance and wink upon him and make him know that I am safe, though living under an awful religious strain, with my thoughts getting fewer and scarcer—in fact quite GONE!" Here she paused, and opening her big eyes rolled them wildly about over the immobile Indians, but, as they sat expectant, apparently charmed by the ceremony, she squeezed them shut again and proceeded:

"I do not know how long this ought to be continued, but I suppose until I get another idea. Oh, thank heaven I have it."

Abruptly she ceased and indicated haughtily that she wished a bowl of clear brook water. Her willing hand-maidens hastily brought it, whereupon Lorraine dipped her fingers in it and solemnly sprinkled the inscrutable, lifted countenance of old Scarface. He neither blinked nor stirred, so Lorraine, impishly mischievous and determined to get all the fun out of this that she could, stirred some dirt into the bowl and traced muddy lines crisscross upon his features, as had been done with powder to the sick Indian the night before. After this, she ordered her bowl washed out and filled with clear water, which she gravely poured into a hole in the ground, and handed back the bowl to be refilled, three times. The fourth time she carefully placed the full bowl by the fire.

The Indians had followed every movement with unwinking gaze but, when she suddenly began dancing, their faces lit with pleasure. This was nothing to which they were accustomed, and her light, easy movements, her pirouettes, her high kicking, her bending and swaying and stamping and twirling held them spellbound. Seeing that this at least was giving satisfaction, Lorraine kept it up as long as she had breath, then rushing to the bowl of clear water on the ground, she picked it up and held it aloft, chanting once more:

"Oh-sun-I-think-I've-made-a-hit. And I-pray-you-come-again-tomorrow- and-we'll-do-it-all-over-again-much better.

And - though - I - seem - to - be -fool ish- I - am - most - serious - when -I pray you - to - give - the - old - boy - a sunstroke - if - he - ever - understands- English. A-a-a-men. A-a-a-men. A-a-a-a-a-men!"

This ceremony seemed to satisfy the Indians and to release them from the rigid sphinx-like attendant attitude which was beginning to paralyze Lorraine's imagination. To her great relief they all got up, and in a few moments the encampment was engaged in the ordinary business of the day, entirely oblivious of her presence. She was an observer now, instead of the observed, and, with the strain of being a goddess temporarily lifted, she wandered freely and happily about, unaware of the swiftly gliding hours.

The first two days passed rapidly. Aside from her own program of bathing and communicating with her husband the Sun-God, there were many activities about camp which she found most interesting to watch, and everywhere she went after that first successful morning, she met smiles of welcome and pleasure at her approach. The young girls grinding corn in their metate, blushed with delight at her approach. The children, charmed by her beauty, followed, as did her lamb, and with the same faithfulness, while the women yielded to her a courtesy and consideration which was extraordinary. It was the women, she discovered, who placidly ruled the place, and who created an atmosphere of well being under which all seemed to thrive. Peace was in the air in this primitive haunt, and, enchanted, feeling as though she were living in a dream, Lorraine dwelt with them, enjoying to the utmost the life of unhurried serenity.

The details of their sketchy culinary department she did not investigate too closely, as sanitation and cleanliness were not the first ruling here. She preferred, rather, to stand by their looms, watching them at their blanket weaving, where their skill was a revelation to her, and the beautiful work they succeeded in producing, with the rudest of implements, was a source of unending surprise. They wove squatting on the ground, weaving up and pushing the wool through with their fingers and then hauling the warp frame down by an adjustable pulley, when the blanket grew out of reach. The warp frame was merely a rectangle constructed of four sticks, lashed together to the main frame, and this in turn was made by fixing two sticks horizontally across a couple of cedar trees, growing conveniently close together. Anything more childish Lorraine could not have conceived, and at first glance it made her laugh. Yet after hours of observation, when the blanket in its colored designs of red, yellow and black, grew beneath her gaze, it seemed to command more respect. For, limited though they were to a few colors and to straight or angular lines, the varied effects they managed to produce, and the precise care with which it was done, made their work an art.

From the looms she went to watch others preparing the dye for the wool. It seemed a careless kind of cooking, a jumble of twigs and leaves of sumac, of something yellow, and of the gum from a pinion tree, but after hours of boiling there was evolved a rich, blue-black fluid. The yellow she watched them make by crushing a fleshy root of some kind in their "metates" and mixing it with a chemical until a cold paste was formed, which, then, they laboriously and patiently rubbed into the wool by hand. The final result was a beautiful "old gold."

"Time," thought Lorraine, "i no concern of heirs." Her glance traveled from the woman tirelessly rubbing the color into the wool to another, who was preparing the yarn that had been dried after its scrubbing. Her spindle was merely a slender stick thrust through a round wooden disk, yet she would spin that mess of wool inher lap, every thread of it, twice. "And their patience puts a modern machine-pampered person like myself to shame. I wonder if the men are the same?"

Part way down the canyon the men were busy at their task of making silver jewelry. They too, she quickly saw, were possessed of the same monumental patience that their primitive methods and tools exacted. Most of their implements were fashioned by themselves, but they had acquired scissors, awls and pliers from the whites. Their bellows were affairs of goatskin, roughly constructed, and worked with horizontal movements of the arms. Their anvils were any suitable piece of iron, such as a bolt or an old wedge that they might have picked up on the desert. Their molds were cut in soft sandstone, and the melted Mexican silver dollars were poured into these, after they were greased with suet. They used ashes or ground sandstone for polishing, and whitened the silver by boiling it in a chemical of some kind. On and off, for nearly an entire day, she watched two Indians who worked crouching in the most uncomfortable, strained positions, without stopping to rest, except at noon; but when their work was done they presented her with a beautiful solid silver arrow, shaped and soldered together with extraordinary care.

On the third day of her visit with the Navajos there seemed to be some great excitement in the air. Early in the morning after her daily bath and prayer to the sun, she perceived that the usual activities were not to be pursued. The looms were left hanging in the branches, where they were put at night, and the fires around the forges were left banked. Instead, old and young proceeded to move down the canyon in a gay camaradie that quite mystified the white girl.

Nevertheless, she went along with them, with a child clinging to each hand and her pet lamb following faithfully at her heels. By the looks cast her way, she imagined there was going to be some festivity for her benefit. The boys in particular—about eight of them, gaily dressed in brilliant colored shirts—seemed to be most excited, and went leaping ahead of them all, making the old canyon walls resound with their whoops of exuberance. Shortly they disappeared down a side canyon and even when they reappeared, astride their ponies, Lorraine did not imagine what a treat was in store for her.

It was not until they all emerged on the desert about two miles from their camp, that understanding came to the girl. For then, with a shout, the young lads spurred their horses and set off like the wind across the desert. A few moments later there arose a cloud of dust as the racing ponies were jerked to their haunches and whirled for the homeward race. On they came, their arms swinging, their black hair blowing in the wind, their lithe young bodies so beautifully attuned to the rushing animals beneath them that it was thrilling to watch them. Lorraine's eyes sparkled with delight. This was superb horsemanship—and something she could understand. She clapped and shouted in a burst of excitement that she was unable to restrain, utterly unaware of the pleasure her own enthusiasm was giving the Indians around her.

Will Start Perilous Dash Across Ice of Lake Nipigon

TRANS-CANADA AUTO SOON TO PUSH ON

Delayed by unfavorable weather, the trans-Canada auto, Nova-Columbia, is about to resume its journey, the next stage being down the 72 miles of snow and ice from the top of Lake Nipigon to a point near Cameron Falls.

Gus McManus is here shown with his McLaughlin-Buick on Mud River. McManus recently took charge of the trans-Canada venture when injuries forced Healy Needham to return to Montreal for treatment. The car has been equipped with skis to render the going easier, and the roadster top has been lowered so that the driver may have a chance of quick escape if the auto strikes an air hole in the ice. McManus' equipment is here seen piled on a specially built front carrier. He plans to start the dangerous crossing of Nipigon at any time.

What To-day Means To You

"PISCES"

If March 17th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., from 5 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and from 9 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. The danger-periods are from 8 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. and from 3 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Astrological influences on March 17th will not be forceful and much will be left to the free will of the individual. Decisions made will prove vitally important, and the "pros" and "cons" of a question should be carefully considered. Physical and mental energy will be above normal.

The child born on this March 17th will have a mind which is mathematically inclined, and it will show an eye for business at an early age. It will be warm-hearted, very affectionate, sympathetic and charitable. It will not lack "nerve," and will always be willing to display its talents.

You are the victim of too much nervous energy, and are nerve racked. You never rest, are always on the go, doing everything and achieving little. Your hours of leisure are not made pleasurable by the mental relaxation which good books afford, but you seek constant change, and perpetual activity. You try to maintain good spirits through outside stimulation or artificial means, and you transgress the simplest rules of health. You steer a dangerous course, and do not try to prevent catastrophies, but are quick to seek remedies, when aid is needed. You are a "live" companion, but you wear out, both yourself and others, by your restlessness.

Your eyes are open to opportunities, but you do not know how to make the most of them. You are too impatient to wait for developments, and you often meet with defeat because you strike before the iron is hot. You tire of things as soon as the newness begins to wear off, and you refuse to be bored for long at a time. With people you are guided by appearances, which are always the worst guides to personality—unless your "nous" is highly trained and much practised. You are generous even to extravagance, and are likely to be fooled into giving undeserved charities. You are inclined to see things only as you desire them to be, and have a tendency to self-imposition. You often change your views and opinions, but are very sure of your beliefs as long as they last.

FILE BURGLARS DISAPPOINTED

District Attorney's Office Broken Into and Data on Gordon Case Gone Over.

NOTHING TAKEN.

NEW YORK N.Y., Mar. 17.—An attempt to rifle the District Attorney's files in which are kept data concerning the murder of Vivian Gordon was revealed to-day. A 24 hour police guard has been maintained at the office since the discovery was made Saturday.

The file containing dossiers from P to R was jimmied open, the District Attorney disclosed. Nothing was taken. This was the file in which matter concerning Joseph Radlow ordinarily would be kept. The data, however, had been removed following word that other files containing material about Radlow had been broken open and the Radlow papers abstracted.

There was nothing, however to indicate Radlow materially was the object of the new attempt at burglary.

Radlow, whom police describe as a former lover of the slain woman, had her arrested a year ago on a blackmailing charge which subsequently was dismissed. He is a cousin of John A. Radeloff, the man Vivian Gordon said in her diary she feared most of all.

Cavan

Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Toronto, motored to Cavan on Sunday to the home of their brother-in-law, Mr. David White, where their son had been spending a couple of weeks. The storm prevented them returning by motor so they journeyed to Toronto by train on Monday. Their accompanied them home.

Mr. S. Pritchard and his daughter Miss F. Pritchard, Toronto, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Pritchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Fallis, Franklin, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Morton on Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. A. Tinney and son Donald were visitors to Oshawa this week.

Mr. Archie Matchett is home from Guelph Agricultural College, for a few days.

Miss Ethel McKnight is suplying at Cairo School, where Miss Matchett is absent, having an attack of scarlet fever.

Mrs. D. J. Hunter was hostess for a Pot Luck dinner, under the auspices of the W.A. of Cavan United Church, on Thursday. The extremely bad roads prevented the whole quota of ladies being present, but a very enjoyable time was spent and a fine dinner enjoyed by those who braved the storm to be present.

There were no services on Cavan circuit last Sunday. The Young People's meeting on Wednesday evening was also withdrawn, on account of weather and road conditions.

Fruits and nuts exported from the United States last year had a total value of nearly $111,000,000.

NAUTILUS FORCED TO SEEK SHELTER

HEADED FOR BROOKLYN.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 17. — (C.P.)—The submarine Nautilus today continued to seek shelter at the Philadelphia navy yard, a victim of inclement weather conditions.

Forty-five minutes after departing from its berth in Camden, N.J., yesterday on the first lap of its adventure to the Arctic, the submarine, under command of Sir Hubert Wilkins, because of poor visibility on the Delaware River, put in at the navy yard.

The snowfall, which caused Sir Hubert to delay the voyage to Brooklyn, was looked upon by the submarine's crew of 18 as an omen of good luck.

"It means success," said one. "It's like a christening, giving us a taste of what is to come."

The submarine will continue to Brooklyn, where it will be christened and provisioned for the long voyage as soon as the weather clears.

GENERAL ELECTRIC IS OFF ONE POINT

Selling of Electrical Equipment and Rail Issues Unsettles Market by Mid-day.

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 17 (C. P.). — Bull leaders in to-day's stock market found Wall Street stubbornly refusing to ignore the current low level of corporate profits, despite promises of improvement late in the year.

Bullishness developed some aggressiveness during the morning, but the selling of electrical equipment and rail issues unsettled the market by midday. A somewhat cheerless report by the president of Missouri-Kansas-Texas, in announcing discontinuance of dividends on the common stock, initiated last year, was a bearish influence.

During the morning, several of the utility, food and merchandising issues worked substantially higher. Public Service of N.J., and General Foods each rose 2 points to the best levels of the year, and other issues rising a point or two included U S. Steel, American Can., American Telephone, Electric Autolite, International Nickel, Woolworth, Case & Byers. These gains were modified, however, Westinghouse Electric and Baltimore and Ohio lost 2 points each, and Eastman and Columbian Carbon about 4. General Electric sold off a point.

Gordon Murder Clue Proves To Be Hoax

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 17 (C.P.) —Another "leak" in the Vivian Gordon murder mystery dissolved into thin air to-day. A man who named to police two men, he said, committed the murder broke down, and admitted he concocted the story in the hope of selling it to newspapers.

At first the informant said he was George Hennessey, but later gave his name as Teddy Spanish.

Despite Spanish's repudiation of his story, District Attorney McLaughlin said he would seek to hold him as a material witness.

25 SCOTTISH BOYS COMING TO CANADA.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., March 16 (C. P.).—Officials of Fairknowe Home here have been advised that a party of 25 boys is now being selected at the orphan homes of Scotland for farm work in Canada. These boys will sail from Glasgow late in April, and will be distributed from Fairknowe Home for farm work in Eastern Ontario.

NORTH BAY BILL PASSES.

It gives the city power to take over the Victoria Memorial Hospital, at present operated by a board of trustees, and operate it as a municipal hospital.

SNOWDEN HOLDS OWN.

LONDON, March 17 (C.P.). — Right Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, who was operated on last night for a bladder ailment, was said to-day to be doing as well as could be expected.

"The doctors are very pleased with Mr. Snowden's condition," Mrs Snowden said.

INTERLISTED ISSUES DISPLAY ACTIVITY ON STANDARD MART

BASE METALS DULL.

TORONTO, Ont., March 17 (C. P.)— Improvement noticeable yesterday in the base metal section of the mining market continued during the forenoon session today, with interlisted stocks displaying some interesting advances at mid-day.

International Nickel, whose annual report, published today, shows earnings for 1930 of 67 cents a share against $1.47 last year, was up a point and a quarter to $19.25 when taken. Noranda at the same price was up a half and Hudson Bay gained a quarter to $5.50. Amulet also met improved demand and a gain of 5 at 43. Lindsley were irregular with Falconbridge off 5 to $1.55 and Ventures 4 to 75.

Teck Hughes was the strong spot in the gold group, price moving up 10 to $7.30. Eldorado and Wright-Hargreaves recovered a couple apiece, and small gains appeared in Big Missouri, Moss and Bobjo. Vipond sold off 2, and Algonquin, Bidgood and Murphy fractions each.

Nordon remained strong in the oil section, adding another 3 at 50 to recent gains. Peninsular Pete and Alberta Pacific were up a cent each and other oils were quiet.

BLACK KNIGHTS WARNED AGAINST RED DOCTRINES

J. W. Carson Urges Watch Be Kept That Canada Continue as Home of Free People.

SESSION IN NORTH BAY.

Encroachment of R. C. Church Discussed—Mixed Marriages Scored.

NORTH BAY Ont., Mar. 17. (CP) Speaking at the opening session of the Royal Black Chapter of Ontario West Black Knight's of Ireland, the Grand Master, J. W. Carson of London, warned against Communism and the encroachment of the Roman Catholic church. He said: "We, as members of this great loyal and patriotic institution and as loyal subjects of His Majesty the King, should ever be on guard, do all in our power as individuals and as an organized body to prevent the spread of Communistic ideas and suppress "Red" propaganda. No country can enjoy enduring prosperity unless the national superstructure rests upon a strong foundation. Canada's future is in the hands of Canadians of today. We can retain the law making power in our own hands by excluding the lawless from our shores and by ever retaining just law preserve Canada as the home of a free people. Our duty is to hand down to posterity the priceless British freedom we have inherited.

"You are not unaware of the continual activities of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in connection with the school system in the provinces throughout the Dominion. The marriage question is continually coming up in the Province of Quebec. The church still claims the canon law supercedes the law of the land. Surely the judgment of the Privy Council should be recognized and the law of the land obeyed. Beware of mixed marriages. They seldom prove satisfactory to one party or the other and never fail to demand greater sacrifice from the Protestant partner than they do from the Roman Catholic. We, as the Protestant people, love our country, we are patriotic to the heart's core. The Bible, the throne, the constituition are the watch words that thrill through every British heart."

FORGERY IS CHARGED

TORONTO, March 17.—Wanted by police of Brockville and Cobourg, Harry Deline, alias Jack Cameron, 120 Bond street, was arrested last night by Detectives Storm and Taylor. Deline is wanted in Cobourg on a charge of uttering, arising out of the purchase of a car which he drove to Toronto. Finding himself broke, Deline is alleged to have admitted selling the car for $8. Belleville police want him on a charge of forgery. He is alleged to have forged a signature to a pay cheque for $12.

BELGRADE, Jugoslavia, March 17 (C.P.).—Two attempts were made this morning to blow up the Military Academy here. The first was at 5.30 and the second at seven. Bombs exploded both times but failed to cause serious damage. There were no arrests.

$120,000 DAMAGE IN QUEBEC RAILWAY FIRE.

QUEBEC, Que., Mar. 17.—Canadian National Railway officials to-day estimated that damage caused by fire last night which destroyed a 200-foot wooden building and ten box cars at Limoilou, a suburb, amounted to $125,000. The origin of the blaze has not been ascertained but officials thought it may have resulted from defective wiring.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, March 17 (Special to Examiner).—A portion of mining market interest at lea t, appears to have swung from the lower priced golds to the base metal stocks, the later group, under the leadership of Noranda showing several interesting movements in trading yesterday and today. Renewed attention can hardly be attributed to developments in the base metal situation, for copper remains unchanged around the 10 cent level with only moderate buying and other metals are still depressed in price.

According to some quarters an explanation for the current activity in Noranda lies in the unofficial report which has gained wide circulation that diamond drilling at the company's property encountered about 40 feet of high grade gold copper ore at the 2,000 foot horizon. Officials on Monday said no word of such a find had been received at head office.

A northern Mining Service sends down from Elk Lake a number of interesting news items regarding some of the smaller operations. "Arno made the first cash payment on the Hurd property, Matachewan district here today, supplies are being sent in and work will be started immediately. Moffatt Hall is calling for tenders for shaft sinking this week. Bidgood and Macassa are starting work immediately."

"Rubec and Huronian Mining and Finance are negotiating with a view to amalgamation of a group of gold properties in the Rouyn district, preparatory to resumption of operations," the communication continues.

"Both companies hold important ground with promising gold showings near Granada."

A report, supposedly emanating from Timmins to the effect "output of March gold was not sufficient to cover operating expenses and contingencies," recently received wide publication. Officials of the Company state this is untrue. March gold made a very fair profit for the year 1930, they state, and this after paying all charges, including development. The supposition is based on information that is absolutely unauthentic, it is said.

Advices from Medford, Oregon, state that lead by Mayor McIntyre, the community of Jacksonville, mining camp of the early fifties, is staging a "pick, shovel and rocker" mining industry. Nine "town lot" diggings are in operation on a paying basis. The pay dirt underlies Jacksonville in three ancient channels, draining neighboring hills. It sounds like a good solution for the towns unemployment problem.

MORE STRENGTH COPPER ISSUES

Opening Firm, International Nickel Advances to Higher Ground in Later Trading.

C.P.R. IS STRONG.

TORONTO, Ont., March 17 (C.P.)— Toronto stock exchange market was outstandingly strong in certain spots this morning but despite the stimulus of rising prices, trading remained to a slow pace.

Coppers developed further strength, Noranda was the first to move and set a new record for 1931 when it sold above 19. Nickel was inclined to move higher at the opening but the movement was painfully slow and it was not until the second hour the stock snapped ahead with any certainty. Business increased and the price jumped to a 19, th highest it has been in some time.

C. P. R. could not be secured under 44 the first hour, strength being due more to action of the stock in London than to any news concerning the company or to American buying. Later some shares came out at 43, Brazilian was higher at 27, Ford of Canada held unchanged at 28 the foods wer firm but unchanged Goodyear Tire common rose to 109. Maple Leaf Milling preferred advanced a couple of points to 40.

The oil stocks were also firmer, though demand was not on a scale to cause more than passing comment. Imperial sold uniformly at 16, B. A. oil was up slightly at 13 3-8, Supertest was up one at 28.

Montreal Stocks Show Advances at Noon Hour

MONTREAL, Que., Mar. 17.—(C.P.) —Stock prices rallied strongly on the Montreal Stock Market this forenoon, with a large number of gains registered at noon. Smelters advanced 2 points to 180, Winnipeg Electric 2 to 20, Dominion Bridge was up one point to 4½, Montreal Power 7-8 to 63 3-8, Nickel ¾ to 19¼, British Columbia Power "A" was ½ to 42, and National Breweries ½ to 33¾. Western Grocers was off 3 points at 15, Gypsum lost ¾, selling at 10.

OSHAWA COUPLE SUE FOR $50,000

TORONTO, Ont., March 17.—(CP) —Damages of $50,000 are sought by Allie Murphy and P. T. Murphy, of Oshawa, in a suit instituted against W. H. Despard and H. H. Davidson.

The plaintiffs claim for alleged false imprisonment and malicious prosecution of the plaintiff, Patrick Murphy, and declare they have been wrongfully deprived of lands, goods, household furniture, farm implements and stock.

ROBERT BLATCHFORD CELEBRATES HIS EIGHTIETH BIRTHDAY TO-DAY

SAW "GERMAN PERIL."

LONDON, March 17 (By Thomas T. Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent). — Robert Blatchford, by general consent one of the finest characters ever to preach the doctrine of Socialism, reached his 80th birthday to-day. It is nearly 40 years since Blatchford—then much more widely known by his pen-name "Nunquam"—published "Merrie England," which went into millions of copies both here and on the American continent and was translated into at least half a dozen other languages.

People might detest Blatchford's theories, but there were few who had anything but admiration for the man himself. He might proclaim himself at war with the social system, but there was little bitterness in his writings. He had remarkable competence as a literary craftsman, and declined a remunerative job on the Hulton string of newspapers in Manchester to found The Clarion.

Realized German Peril.

Socialist as he professed himself, Blatchford was one of the first to realize the danger of the "German peril,' 'and was a keen partner with Lord Northcliffe in endeavoring to arouse the nation to the reality of this danger.

Blatchford has just written his book of memories. It is a mellow, and pleasant compilation, ranging over a wide gamut of experience. His early life was passed in extreme poverty, and some of the best passages in his reminiscences are concerned with his experience when destitution had driven him to enlist in a British line regiment.

In Who's Who, Blatchford has: "Educated, nowhere; served time brushmaking, but did not follow it." He was born at Maidstone, the son of actor parents, and after a period with the 103rd Regiment, Dublin Fusiliers, and as a clerk, joined the staff of Bell's Life, London. He left the Sunday Chronicle and started The Clarion in 1881. His last book was published in 1926, "As I Lay A-Thinking."

Unpaid Head Tax Lands 32 in Court

HAMILTON, Ont., March 17.—(C.P.).—Thirty-two men appeared in Police Court this morning, charged with failing to pay $5.00 head tax levied by the city. Convictions were registered in each case. It was found that four of the accused were men out of work and destitute.

Magistrate Burbidge stated that he had no option but to convict, but did so with reluctance.

Steps are being taken by the city tax department to make some concession in the case of the destitute men.

McCLURE GIVEN TWO YEAR TERM

Buchan answered the question when he stated that his daughter, while his wife and son held his arms had "basted" him over the head with a kettle. The kettle was produced in court. A battered, sorry-looking kitchen utensil it was, with one side almost dinged until it met the other.

Buchan went into a rambling history of his life to explain the cause of the fight at 11 o'clock this morning in his North Monaghan residence. He said that his wife and he were having an argument when his daughter suddenly took a hand in the duel of words. Outraged that the girl should take sides against him, Buchan admitted that he struck her on the face.

Then the kettle came into action, declared Buchan. The girl seized the steaming kettle from the stove, while the rest of the family pinned him to the floor, she "basted" him until the kettle came into its existing shape.

"If there are any marks of an assault, Your Worship, you will find them on me," said the accused "No. I wasn't drinking. I haven't tasted a drop in a year."

The daughter bore out her father's testimony except that she said she had been punched twice.

Buchan was fined $1.00, and given two weeks to pay.

Shades of Robinson Crusoe and the Old Man of the Sea arose as George Brown limped into the court room to face a charge of vagrancy. Brown was a piece of human wreckage. His hair was long and unkempt and his beard had not felt a razor in many moons. His clothes were tied on with rope. He showed every effect of being without food and finding his hours of sleep in cold barns.

He was picked up yesterday at Springville by Provincial Constable Sylvester. Snow and cold in Toronto and no work had driven him to try the hospitality of the city, he said. He thanked the Magistrate, who gave him ten days on the hill.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of R. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

The wheat market was dull and featureless throughout the early part of the day, prices were lower, and on the extreme dip were 5-8 under the close of Saturday, but near the finish the market firmed up with locals buying in sympathy with an upturn in Chicago. Offerings continued very light, there being no selling pressure in evidence. Export sales over the week-end and yesterday morning were only 100,000 bushels, which is insignificant and North American clearances last week were only 4,610,000 bushels, which included some United States wheat and flour. Liverpool closed 3-8 lower and Buenos Aires was 1 3-8 lower at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and both markets reported a very slow demand for wheat. There was no particular interest in the local cash market. Shippers and terminals were taking the odd cars, with offerings very light and spreads generally unchanged. It was understood that there were plenty of bids in the market a little below current levels. The flour situation remains unchanged with a fair domestic passing, but nothing doing for export. The Canadian Visible decreased 4,900,000 bushels which was a surprise, but explained by three million bushels being taken from Buffalo stock to move to seaboard to be used by New York interests on their new "In Bond" market. Some small amounts were also shipped from the head of the lakes by rail. The U. S. Visible supply increased 1 836,000 bushels. On passage stocks are now 56,040,000 bushels compared to 38 495,000 a year ago. Liverpool stocks of wheat are now 3,064,000 bushels, the preceeding week being 2,832,000. This is the first increase for a considerable time. Country marketings Saturday 268,000 bushels against 161,000 a year ago. The market closed around the top for half to 5-8 gains with some buying by these who had sold against their bids early. Advise caution in following upturns.

—Coarse Grains.—There was a little export business done in barley over the week-end. Barley closed 3½ to 5-8 higher; oats 1-8 to 3-8 higher. Rye 3-8 to 5-8 higher. Flax 1-8 to 5-8 higher.

Liverpool Cables due 5-8 to ¾ higher based on Winnipeg.

VIKING DISASTER STRIKES HEAVILY AT SEAFARERS OF NEWFOUNDLAND

TOOK PERRY TO POLE.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Mar. 17.—(C.P.) "They're pretty sick right now, all the men and the women of Newfoundland," said Captain Bob Bartlett, and he was speaking of the Viking disaster up off Horse Island near the Young Ice.

Captain Bartlett said it without any of that thing that passes for emotion among city-bred men. He spoke as a man of the outports.

He sat in his quarters at 146 East 83rd street, his quarters between trips to the cold country, and wore that naive, casual expression that fits men who disrespect life, comfort, civilization.

"It strikes close to me," he said in his thick Elizabethan brogue, "The father got sixty of the men on that vessel. I know Bosun Ronald Carter and many another of them. I know young Varick Frissell well enough, too. Five feet, seven he is or eight, if you ask me. A whale of a lad.

"I fear he was hurt. If he had not been injured he would have been the first across the ice with news for the world. He is that way."

His Father's Ship.

"B' God, you see," he said, "I feel this thing. It is a terrible, wonderful thing and very strange. That ship, the Viking, was me father's own vessel. Me father captained the vessel from 1904 to 1923. You might say I grew up on that ship. It was no later than last spring I took her out from St. John's and up towards Snap Rock."

Captain Bartlett, he who took Peary to the North Pole stood in the middle of the room, no little embarassed.

"You see," he explained, "I was an actor in that film picture young Varick was making. I captained the ship when we went up to take that picture last spring. I was Captain Bartlett to the crew while they were sealing and I was Captain Barker to them when we all got to acting.

200,000 Feet of Film.

"Two hundred thousand feet of film we shot that spring up in Belle Isle Straits. The wind was blowing nor'-east, and we had to stand up there to get the ice. So we made the picture. Young Varick spent all last summer in Hollywood trying, I guess, to get it cut and sold."

"Yes, yes," said the captain. "I was jist talking about it to a young lad here. A terrible disaster. . . No, I don't know. Some say twenty dead, some say more. They are feeling pretty bad right now at home, Tom."

Then the captain's voice chilled, and he said: "I don't know—a stout vessel, that Viking—look at the wonderful wood that was in her, Tom—a ship's like a man, they wear well when you take care of them."

No, sir, not even Tom Foley could be saying that vessel Viking was a rotten, ancient chunk of wood. Captain Bob Bartlett's "faather" had sailed her for nigh a quarter of a century. His "faather" had brought in as high as 30,000 seals in her hold.

What if she was built in 1881. Wasn't she sailed the first time in 1882, by Fridtjof Nansen himself?

What about that vessel Neptune? Wasn't she sixty years old, and still a sweet sealing ship?

Sealers for 100 Years

"A terrible disaster," said Captain Bartlett, whose family have been sealing for more than 100 years. "They're pretty sick home right now. But they're used to disasters. Look at the Greenland, her men perished, hands in 1914. There were 176 men never came home that time. Look at the Greenland, her men prishd, back in the '90's, 125 men at least. And there was seventy men perished on the ice when the vessel Newfoundland broke loose from the ice in a black blow. It was me only uncle was captain of the Tigris in 1872 when twenty men were killed by disaster.

"A wonderful, terrible thing. But I hope for that lad Varick. He had a soul in him, and was trying to portray the fisheries before the ships dwindled to a mealy ten. He had the feel of the thing when there was 400 ships in the harbor and 14,000 men. His picture was a good one.

"He had no need of going back for some more shots of the ice and the seal whelps."

GIRL STRIKERS IN POLICE HANDS

Toronto Pair Arrested During Attempt to Prevent Dress Makers Going to Work.

Toss Bricks Through Glass.

TORONTO, Ont., March 17.—Two arrests were made to-day when more trouble was encountered between strikers of the dress-making union and the police. Rose Lishultz and Mary Goldberg, two girl pickets, were taken into custody on charges of disorderly conduct. The girls, police state, were arrested when they attempted to prevent strike breakers from returning to work.

A brick, to which a number of burning firecrackers were attached, was thrown through the window of Miss E. Conway's home, damaging an arm chair in the living room where the missile fell. Miss Conway told police she thought it was the work of strikers.

Norman Grad, owner of the Grad Dress Company, also notified police that a brick had been thrown through his living room window.

WARDEN HOOTON PLANNING PICNIC

Will Invite Neighboring Councils to Join in June Holiday.

DURING SESSIONS

Warden G. H. Hooton of the united counties of Northumberland and Durham yesterday invited Mayor Denne and the members of the council of the city of Peterborough to participate in the "Wardens' picnic" which he will sponsor during the June sessions of the counties council. It is understood that a similar invitation has been extended to the Warden and members of the council of Peterborough county, and also to the Warden and council of Hastings counyt.

The plans for this gathering are only in the inceptive stage, and the details are yet to be arranged. Until last year the Wardens' picnic crossed the lake to Rochester, but Warden Nelson decided upon a change, and held a field day of sports at Presque' isle Point.

"I have tried to charter a boat to carry one thousand persons down the lake to the Niagara district," Waden Hooton said, "but I was unable to secure on. This year's picnic may be held at Cobourg, or at some other resort such as Bewdley, Gore's Landing or Harwood. I would like to have the members of the neighboring councils join with us this year and make a real union of it. As a special feature we might be able to have Premier Henry with us, and I think we could arrange a program that would please everybody."

Mayor Denne said he would be glad to go, and expressed the opinion that most of the members of the city council would also attend.

"It would be a means of meeting the members of the county councils" said the Mayor, "and looks to me like a happy suggestion."

In Toronto Wednesday

Warden Hooton and Mayor Denne will both be in Toronto on Wednesday on municipal business. Warden Hooton will be present at the hearing of Cobourg's bill for permission to separate from the United Counties. This application will come up before the Private Bills committee, and is scheduled for 10.30 o'clock. The Reeve of Cavan is inclined to the expectation that the Cobourg request will be refused. He intimated that he has several strong conditions to present to the Committee without which the Cobourg Bill cannot be granted.

"I have gone into this question as thoroughly as I could," said Mr. Hooton to The Examiner, "and there are some large financial obligations which I think Cobourg has been overlooking. I don't know of any municipality which has been separated from a county during the last seven or eight years. The government has not been encouraging separation because of the road building and other improvements for which the towns and villages are jointly responsible with the urban municipalities."

Mayor Denne and W. J. Henry, the city's assessor, will attend the meeting of representatives of the municipalities who on Wednesday morning will prepare their opposition to the Bill to abolish the municipal income tax.

Millbrook

Mrs. William C. Allen who has been spending the winter with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Winslow Ida, went to Toronto last week for a visit before reopening her home here for the summer months.

Rev. William Simpson, B.A., formerly of Calgary, Alberta, and newly-appointed rector of the parish of Millbrook and Cavan, arrived in the village on Thursday, and has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hutchison until the arrival of his furniture from the west, when his wife and daughter will join him, and they will reside in the recently-purchased rectory on Centre street, previously the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnston have taken Miss Erma Hunter's house at the west end of the village and are residing there for the present, having sold their former home to the Anglican parish for a rectory.

Two members of the congregation of Saint Thomas' church were remembered with special prayers on Sunday evening, on account of serious ill health. A. J. Fallis, who is still a patient in the Toronto General Hospital having undergone two operations in recent weeks; and T. H. Bradley, who filled the office of vestry clerk for some years, and who has been confined to his home through illness for some months past. It is expected that Mr. Fallis may be able to return to his home this week.

Mrs. DiBrisay of Ottawa is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. (Rev.) Joseph Wilks, this week.

The young people of the church formed the choir for evening worship at St. Andrew's church on Sunday, the selections including, "Hide Me, O My Saviour, Hide Me," and "He's The One'. The pastor's theme in his Lenten series of sermons was the one originally intended for March 8, the church services of the community being withdrawn on that date owing to the big snowstorm. Hence Rev. Mr. Jones spoke on Sunday evening, March 15, on "Freedom from Materialism" as illustrated by the life of Saint Francis of Assisi, the Catholic monk who turned the thought of his generation back to God. There was a large congregation, and the Sunday evening Lenten sermons are evidently making a deep spiritual impression on the listeners.

Constable Henry Nattress has been seriously ill for the past week, but has taken a turn for the better, and is holding his own in the struggle toward making recovery of normal strength and health again.

Mrs. C. M. Westmacott, who has been spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. R. Fowler, Victoria, B.C., expects to be in Winnipeg by the twentieth of this month. After a visit with her sister, Mrs. Stowe, at Winnipeg, Mrs. Westmacott will return to her home here an reopen it after her extended absence. Miss Rose Macnamara has been with relatives in Toronto and Orillia since she left with Mrs. Westmacott last December when the latter went to the Pacific coast.

Haultain Residents Hold Jolly Euchre Party.

PERSONALS

HAULTAIN, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence)—Mr. and Mrs. William Church's home was the scene of a jolly euchre party on Thursday evening, with a good sized crowd present, considering the size of the community. The first prizes were won by Mr. Herbert Long and Mrs. William Church, while the consolation prizes went to Mr. Allen Church and Ottis Northey.

A Euchre Club was organized, with quite a large number of members, and will meet next Thursday evening, at eight o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mathews.

Lunch was served about midnight and brought to a close a very enjoyable evening.

District Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown and little sons Keith and Lionel, of Apsley, are at present visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. Herbert Long was in Lakefield on Friday.

Mrs. Ephriam Bronson visited her mother, Mrs. Isaac Lean, who has been dangerously ill, in Nicholls Hospital, Peterborough on Friday.

Owing to the heavy snow storm there was no services held in the churches here on Sunday, and the mail has been off schedule, but a great deal of work has been done to get the roads open for motor traffic, and it is expected that the Apsley to Peterborough buses will be running again soon.

Ice Jam In St. Clair Lowers Water 6 Feet

WINDSOR, Ont., March 16 (C.P.)—The Detroit River is reported as about six feet below normal levels. There has been a decided drop within the past two days, and it is said this is due to an ice blockade in the St. Clair River. Considerable difficulty is being experienced by the passengers of the Detroit-Windsor ferries as the decks of the vessels are so far below the dock levels that regular passage between vessel and dock is not possible.

RICE LAKE AIDS MOTOR TRAFFIC

Farmers Able to Get Out to Highway When Roads Are Blocked by Snow.

NO TREACHEROUS CRACKS

BALLIEBORO, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence) — Although the snow is about sixteen inches deep on Rice Lake, still the residents living at Gore's Landing and the surrounding district refuse to be isolated from having the privilege of taking their motor cars out.

On Saturday afternoon they hitched several teams of horses on a snowplough and made a road from the Landing to Bewdley, where the cars can be observed running from the Landing to where they can reach the highway and thus reach the city of Peterborough or wherever their business may take them.

Rice Lake has been a marvellous outlet for the rural folks who have not been able to get their cars over the snow bound township roads during the past two months, and there have been no treacherous cracks over the surafce which the traffic could not steer clear of.

MACKENZIE KING

employment and agricultural distress, as pledged by the Prime Minister and his colleagues, but have served furtre to prejudice the deplorable position of the agricultural interests, thereby causing additional unemployment and substantially reducing the national revenue.

"The House believes that the proposals made to the Imperial Economic Conference and the manner in which they were submitted and discussed by the Prime Minister of Canada were responsible for the failure of the conference to accomplish its purpose in London, and that the successful development of Canada's trade relations with Great Britain have been adversely affected thereby.

"The House is further of the opinion that, if these proposals and certain other of the policies of the Government are persisted in, as would appear to be the intention of the Government as outlined in the Speech from the Throne, the very serious conditions which exist at the present time will be intensified rather than relieved."

Non-trading Country

Mr. King declared that the Speech from the Throne suggested that the Prime Minister had in mind that Canada should be "a self containing, non-trading country. The reference in the Speech from the Throne in this regard would have to be considered from the viewpoint as to whether the policies of the Government would be in the interests of the Dominion."

The Speech from the Throne, the Opposition leader said, suggested that there was a "gulf to be bridged." He thought there was "a very large gulf to be bridged" in Canada between present conditions and good times. Under the policies of the Government he was afraid that the gulf would become something like the gulf between Dives, and Lazarus where the rich become richer and the poor become poorer.

"Same old line" a Conservative member interrupted.

At the time of the general election, Mr. King stated, the people were not told of world-wide economic conditions, but the blame had all been put on the shoulders of the Government of the day. The present administration had only been in office five minutes "when its tone changed and it began to talk about the world-wide conditions which it had to face."

If he were to judge, Mr. King said by correspondence, which he had read and which had been sent by the Prime Minister, the Premier was carrying a "great load" at the present time.

Premier Bennett protested. The Prime Minister demanded that the correspondence in question be produced. No honorable member, the Premier said, could paraphrase or interpret a letter and a personal one, without producing it. Mr. King replied that it was a personal letter addressed by the Prime Minister to another party which he (Mr. King) had read and the Opposition leader intimated he would have to secure consent of the party to whom the letter was addressed before he could read it in the House.

This was not the first time that anonymous letters had been heard of in the House of Commons, Premier Bennett stated, and he demanded that the personal letter to which the Opposition leader had referred should be produced and read.

Accused of Wiggling

"My honorable friend may wiggle as he wishes," Mr. King began.

"You are doing the wiggling," a Conservative member called out.

Premier Bennet again arose. What did the House of Commons think of a leader of a party, he asked, who referred to any personal letter not addressed to him, and which he had no right to read? What would decent society think, he questioned, or what would a judge in court do if a lawyer attempted to paraphrase personal correspondence, not addressed to him and not produced?

Mr. King said that he had seen a personal letter by the Prime Minister, addressed to a working man who had protested against certain promises not being carried out, and the Opposition leader styled this letter as an "effusive communication."

Mr. Speaker Black, declared that he was quite sure Mr. King realized that his reference to a personal letter not addressed to him was quite improper unless he intended to produce that letter. Mr. King said that perhaps Mr. Bennett would pass some of this "load onto his colleagues.

A government might be judged, Mr. King continued, by its financial record, how trade had progressed during its tenure of office, and whether harmony and union existed in the country. Premier Bennett, the leader of the Opposition said, had referred to a "legacy" having been left him by the previous administration, and he (Mr. King) intended giving some figures and facts to indicate its nature.

From 1922 until 1930, Canada's aggregate trade increased from $1,502,000,000 to $2,393,000,000. A peak of $2,635,000,000 had been reached in 1929. "I believe," said Mr. King after asking if these figures reflected an adverse legacy to bequeath an incoming government, "that the most serious results that will ensure from the policies of this Government will be a contraction of trade on all sides. Employer and employee will be affected, the retail merchant and the wholesaler—all will feel the contraction in trade."

Imperial Conference.

Returning to matters attendant upon the Imperial Conference last summer, Mr. King said judgment might be based on present-day conditions in Canada, compared to those existing before Premier Bennett attended the Empire gathering.

One of the principles that had been adhered to at all conferences before the one held in 1930, was that the head of one Government must not embarrass another, Mr. King said. No government, he declared, had the right to criticize the domestic policy of another, let alone that of Great Britain, which, in effect, was the host of the gathering.

The Liberal leader deemed it "highly improper and something that would be resented," for the head of one government to seek to dictate to another in a matter of policy. The party complexion in the conference, he said, did not matter. Describing Premier Bennett's attitude at the conference as "rough and ready," and "assured arrogance, the like of which had never been seen before." Mr. King said he had ignored all precedents and established conference practices in his manner of approach, "They resembled," he continued, "the presentation of an ultimatum to another country on the eve of a war. They were impossible of acceptance and they must have been presented knowing they would be turned down. "Such actions had been taken, Mr. King said, by one nation which was attempting to provoke a war with another.

Mr. King said that the Prime Minister had had no reference to any policy the British Government might have, no to British views but only to the views of the Conservative party of Canada. He re-read the speech of Premier Bennett substituting a policy of free trade instead of protection; and asked if Mr. Ramsay MacDonald had delivered such a speech at a conference held in Ottawa, what attitude Mr. Bennett would have taken. Mr. King voiced the opinion there would have been an "explosion," and the people of Canada would have backed Mr. Bennett up in resenting such a speech. If he (Mr. King) had adopted such an attitude at a conference as Mr. Bennett had taken in London, every member of the Conservative party, the Opposition leader said, would have endeavored to have prevented him (Mr. King) from landing on Canadian shores.

1ST PETERBOROUGH TROOP

The weekly meeting of the 1st (St. John's) Peterborough Troop was held in the Parish Hall on Friday, with the Scoutmaster in charge. In the absence of the Assistant Scoutmaster, Troop Leader Millard assisted the Scouter. After "flag break" the boys formed up for inspection. When this had been carried through, the patrols adjourned to their patrol corners for instruction.

During the evening Mr. Tomkins of the St. John Ambulance Corps took charge of a class in First Aid. It is hoped that this instruction will extend over a period of some weeks.

The game period as usual was enjoyed. After the usual opening of the "camp fire" the troop orchestra contributed a program of music. The "camp fire" period has become a feature of the troop meetings and as the orchestra develops great things are to be expected.

After the meeting the leaders of the troop had a conference with Scoutmaster Wolff of the Sixth in connection with the association program. Next week's meeting will start at 6.45 p.m., and will be dismissed at 7.45, in order not to conflict with the Scout Association concert.

Construction of seven port works projects to cost approximately $6,000,000 has just been started in the Philippines.

Bad Cold On Her Chest Had To Stay In Bed

Mrs. J. C. Winters, Janow, Man., writes:—"I have every reason to praise Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup as it has done me a world of good. I had a very bad cold on my chest, and had to stay in bed two weeks, and could hardly speak on account of coughing so much. I tried every medicine and liniment I could think of, but I got no relief. My husband read about Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup so I decided to try it. I took only one bottle and I am ready to recommend it to anyone with a cold."

Student Makes First Rocket-Iceboat Test

DASH SHORT BUT SPECTACULAR AS CRAFT SPITS STREAMS OF FLAMES

Harry W. Bull, 21-year-old Syracuse, N.Y., university student, is seen here with his sister, Helen, who helped him in the construction of his rocket-propelled ice boat, in which he made a spectacular test over mushy ice of Lake Oneida, before a crowd of interested spectators. The craft, which is claimed to be the first rocket ice boat, leapt 50 feet in 2-3 of a second before it swerved and stuck in deep snow, spinning like a pinwheel. The boat, built during Bull's spare time, is operated from a small switchboard controlling fire of rockets packed on either side of the craft.—Associated Press Photo.

Destructive Tide, Terrific Storm Ravages Summer Colony

ATLANTIC SEABOARD BEATEN BY STORM FROM NOVA SCOTIA TO NEW ENGLAND STATES—MUCH DAMAGE

Much damage in some case imperiling of human lives is caused by a northeastern gale which is whipping the highest tide in 21 years along the Atlantic seaboard, wrecking sea walls and homes and flooding many districts. The photograph reproduced ABOVE shows all that remained of a thickly settled summer colony at Revere, Mass., after the fury of the seas had finished with it. The cottage tottering on rickety stilts is all that is left of a long row of summer dwellings and the wreckage of a half-dozen homes may be seen strewn about.—Associated Press Photograph.

MILLBROOK ROAD STILL BLOCKED

Attempt Was Made to Open Paved Highway on Saturday.

MAIL MEN HELD UP

MILLBROOK, March 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).—An attempt was made on Saturday to open the paved road east of the village to the highway, for motors, two trucks being used for the purpose, and a considerable amount of shovelling being done as well. The work was not a decided success, however, owing to the great depth of snow, and the advent of the snow-plough over this section is still anxiously awaited. King street, in the village, will be cleared when the plow reaches this vicinity, though it will apparently again be necessary to employ men to cart off the snow which will be thrown to the roadsides. At present all roads in the country are in the worst condition of the winter, and most of those who were in the village for business on Saturday came with teams and big sleighs. A few who tried cutters from the east road had upsets. The ruts are so deep, and when the horses step off they go down abruptly and seem to find no bottom on which to secure a footing. Cuts on the horses legs are the result of having to turn out and the plunge through the crust of the deep snow. The claim is made that because of the frost in the ground there is little chance for the water to soak in, and a sudden thaw would mean a flood of possibly serious proportions in this community at least.

Up to the week end only one of the rural mail carriers had been able to cover his complete route since the big storm the previous Sunday and Monday.

GRAIN EXHIBITS PUT UP FOR SALE

An opportunity to procure seed grain of very high quality was afforded farmers of this district Friday, when in bringing the Fifth Annual Quinte District Seed Fair to a successful close, most of the exhibits were sold at auction, by W. J. Hancock, auctioneer.

Attendance at the same was small, as was to be expected with the present state of the roads due to the recent snowstorm, although the bidding opened quite sharply, to decline again towards the end of the sale. Bidding was started on grain in the open classes first, extending right the way through a most attractive list of entries to the exhibition, and including registered seed. T. G. Raynor of the Seed Branch, Ottawa, prior to the opening of bidding on each of the lots put up for sale, fully described the merits of the seed, calling attention to the owners name and whether the seed was in a prize winning class or not.

One ten bushel lot of Registered Oats, O.A.C. 72, exhibited by Thomas Sellars, and which had taken a first prize, brought 80 cents a bushel, purchased by J. Humphries. Last year at Napanee, a similar lot sold for $3.00 per bushel, it was stated. These oats were described by the officials of the Fair as the very best buy to be obtained that afternoon.

J. B. Nelson, Fair secretary and treasurer and local agricultural representative, and H. W. Pearson, seed inspector secretary, registered each sale and capably handled the details of the whole of the transactions involved.

The following is a list of the various lots placed up for sale and the prices obtained:—

PRESENTATION MADE TO RUSSEL DARLING

Many Friends Honor North Monaghan Family at Social Gathering.

More than a hundred friends of Russel Darling and family gathered at his home in North Monaghan recently to present him with a beautiful chair. William Bradshaw acted as chairman for the evening and called on John Willan, who read an appropriate address. Norman Willan and Thompson Huggins made the presentation.

Mr. Darling, although taken completely by surprise, made a very suitable reply, thanking his friends. "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was then sung, followed by songs and step dances by Tom McGhie and Leigh Hewitt. Speeches were made by E. Anderson, J. Willan and William McElroy and T. Huggins.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing, music being supplied by W. Kinsman and C. Anderson.

England and Wales have 530,000 Sunday School teachers.

ST. PATRICK IS CELEBRATED AT CAMPBELLFORD

Rev. Fr. Ferguson of Warkworth is Guest Speaker at Rotary Club Luncheon.

CLAY PIPES IN EVIDENCE

Life and Work of Irish Patron Saint Told By Speaker.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 17.—(By Examiner Staff Correspondent). — With the shamrock occupying a very important place in table and wall decoration and with the members of the club adorned with the proverbial Irish clay pipes, the Campbellford Rotary Club celebrated St. Patrick's Day at their weekly luncheon held yesterday in the St. Lawrence Hotel. The guest speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Father Ferguson of Warkworth.

Much fun was caused by giving the members good Irish names and electing their own chairman, Sir Roger, to take charge of the program. Vocal numbers were given by Albert Hazell, "How Ireland Got Its Name," and W. Henson "Strike Up A Song", while the club joined in the singing of Irish airs. E. C. Dolman acted as accompanist.

Father Ferguson gave a very entertaining and instructive address on the life of St. Patrick. Speaking of him as the youth who became a great saint, he explained the urge of younger nations to step over the confines of their own national surroundings at the time the Roman Legions were being withdrawn from Scotland, Wales, England and Gaul, where they had established their hold, emphasizing the fact that their hold had neve rbeen established in Ireland. This had resulted in many of the Irish going out into other lands and bringing home with them captives, some of whom were sold as slaves and others given to friends. In this way St. Patrick, or Patricia as he was called, was brought to Ireland and sold to a breeder of hogs in County Connaught.

Here he stayed for six years, minding the herds of his master until the call to God's service came to him and he eventually ran away. Fleeing by boat he was, with the ship's company, lost for many days, during which time he suffered from lack of food, eventually finding his way home howeevr, to Kilpatrick, on the banks of the Clyde, in Scotland.

Father Ferguson touched on the question of the racia origin of the saint, drawing attention to the fact that he had been named French, Scotch as wel as Irish. He pointed out that St. Patrick spoke of his father as a captai nin the Roman Legion and a magistrate in Scotland, his mother being sister to the Bisho of Tours. After his captivity he received instruction for four years at home after which he went to St. Germain, where he finished his course.

St. Patrick first came to Ireland in 403, being sixteen years old. He was born in 384. After his consecration as bishop he came again to Ireland in 432, dying in 493 at the age of 109 years.

The speaker pointed out that when the saint came to Ireland to convert it from the old Druid worship to Christianity, he commenced his labors by converting the princes and not the people. In this way he was able to reach the masses, through the influence the princes had over their people. He never converted the king, High Neil, but at his first meeting with him won over to Christianity many of his chiefs.

The end of the saint is pathetic. Feeling his life ebbing away, he went to aEgles Nest, a high mountain, to fast and pray that Ireland would always remain true to the faith.

His prayers weer answered for he was told in a vision that for a thousand years the country would remain faithful, then for eight hundred years it would suffer untold misery for the faith, but that after that a brighter day would dawn for it. The eight hundred years were drawing to a close, the speaker said, and Ireland and the faith were looking toward a new vision in the future.

Father Ferguson also stressed the fact that the spirit of St. Patrick had impelled the Irish to great saintliness, pointing out that in the calendars of saints for the different countries many Irishmen could be found. He quoted the following list, France 36, Germany 19, England 11, Scotland 9, Wales 6, Russia 4, Poland 11 and Italy 36.

Of the capability of St. Patrick, he said that he was far in advance of his time. He had himself consecrated 300 bishops and established schools, seminaries, advanced the medical profession and set up free clinics. He was the saint, in the speaker's opinion, who had created the class of man who looks for God first, last and all the time.

New Hats From Paris Show On Off-One-Side Tilt

(1) The smart model from Jose, Paris, fashioned of green linen and black leather, and caught with a strass ornament. (2) A large summer model from Blanche Robert, Paris. It is created of baku straw and trimmed at the side with flowers. (3) Jenette Guy designed this Paris toque of black satin, enriched with embroidery. The tendency of the newest hats is an "off-one-side" movement, rather than a direct "off-the-forehead" movement, which has been good for some time. There are still many of the off-the-forehead hats showing, however.

NURSING CLASS WAS BIG SUCCESS

Class Was Sponsored by the Junior Institute of Lakefield.

CHURCH OPENING

LAKEFIELD, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence)—The Nursing Class sponsored by the Junior Institute was successfully concluded on Friday afternoon with a very delightful banquet.

Miss F. M. Alexander, who conducted the first nursing class, held under the auspices of the Woman's Institute three years ago, was again in charge and renewed old friendships and made many new friends on this visit. The class numbered fifty-one, nearly all young girls and young married women, and the keen interest manifested was indicative of the serious manner in which they applied themselves to this splendid opportunity for a course in home nursing.

On Friday afternoon the girls were invited to bring their mothers to share with them the pleasure of the class and also to be guests at the banquet.

Prettily decorated tables were laid and between 75 and 100 ladies sat down to a dainty banquet. The only representative of the sterner sex was Chief R. J. Webster, who had shown an unfailing courtesy to the class and assisted them in many ways. The banquet was quite informal, but a hearty vote of thanks was extended to Miss Alexander for her patience and care in imparting information and giving demonstrations. A welcome was extended to the mothers and a vote of thanks was given the young girls by the mothers for their hospitality and courtesy. An auspicious close to a successful class and one which will bear much useful fruit in the works of these women of to-morrow, who are seriously preparing to assume the responsibilities of the home-makers and mothers of Canada.

A very pleasant interlude between the class and the banquet was the taking of a group photograph of the class.

Opening Postponed

Owing to the illness of Rev. Dr. Rochester, the formal opening of the basement of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, scheduled for Sunday, March 15th, was postponed. The workmen expect to finish the basement this week and work will likely go forward on the completion of the auditorium of the church.

Mr. R. J. Lennox spent a few days last week at Crowe's Landing.

Saturday was Shamrock Day and a bevy of bright-faced Colleens made the rounds of the village selling the emblem of Old Erin and its patron saint, and so well did the young ladies live up to the tradition of the success of Irish persuasion, that practically everybody was "wearing the green."

The curlers are working hard over the competition for the Dawson Cup, which is a challenge cup, and gives an informal and jolly finish to the more formal competitions for the Fitzgerald, Casement and Tanner cups. The members of the winning rink are H. Hamblin, C. C. Stenner, E. Watson, E. H. Northey, skip. This rink is challenged for Monday night and the ownership may change several times before Old Man Winter says good-bye.

Two rinks from the Norwood Curling Club came to the village on Friday and played a friendly game with two local rinks. The score was called a tie and a plesasnt afternoon was spent by both clubs.

Mrs. Scott then gave a very interesting story on the Japanese homes which was followed by a reading by Pauline Thorndyke, entitled "Please Don't Push."

LECTURE CLASS IS CONCLUDED

Miss E. Cameron of Carleton Place Has Charge of Course Sponsored by Madoc Institute.

TWENTY-SEVEN REGISTER

MADOC, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence) — The Demonstration Lecture Class for Madoc Women's Institute closed Friday afternoon, after ten very pleasant and instructive lessons under the capable and thorough leadership of Miss E. Cameron of Carlton Place, who has already spent the previous three months as Instructor in the Girls' Homemakers Course.

There was a total registration of twenty-seven in the class, with an aggregate attendace of one hundred and seventy-seven, making an average of not quite eighteen. The holding of the three months' course in Madoc had, of course, some effect in lessening the size of the class, and the severe weather prevented many from coming, who had intended to take advantage of the course.

After the close of the afternoon's class, while the membership were still in their places, Mrs. Nickle, secretary, gave a full report of the membership, attendance and finances of the class, after which Mrs. C. N. Whytock; in a few brief words, expressed the regret of the members at parting with Miss Cameron, and the thanks of the class for the splendid series of lessons given by her, then in behalf of the class assembled asked her acceptance of a very pretty vanity case, as a tribute from the class, and a memento of pleasant days together. Miss Cameron expressed her thanks and spoke of her agreeable class, and spoke of the regret she felt at leaving Madoc, which had become like a second home to her, as she had spent nearly four months in the carrying on of the two classes. After "She's a jolly good fellow," good-byes were regretfully said, and another of the many pleasant Institute gatherings had become an event of the past.

Act two was half an hour later; act three, Granny Grimes Garret, bowery, New York the following November; act four, reception room, Miss Burleigh's New York home, the same evening; act five, the sitting room of Miss Judkin's at Christmas time.

The cast of characters was: Rev. Ralph Underwood, the country minister, Howard Blewett; Gregory Heath, of the world at large, Harry Blewett; Jud Pardoe, a wreck on the ocean of life, Dawson Paul; Dimothy Hood, who would rather whittle, Gordon McGregor; Deacon Potter, a trifle deaf, Stanley Grant; William Henry, Melville Anderson; Tom Sparrow, Donald Telford; Mr. Filkins, an officer, Kenneth Sanderson; Helen Burleigh, from the city, Mrs. Howard Blewett; Jerusha Jane Judkins, the post mistress, Gladys Blewett; Roxie, a fresh air kid, Lillian McGregor; Granny Grimes, of the Bowery, Jean Paul; Celeste, a maid, Phyllis Moore; director, Rev. R. D. Wright.

The play was given to a full house and the Misses Marion Storey and Gladys Smith, of East Emily, played Hawaiian music between acts. Miss Mabel Paul presided at the piano for the closing of the entertainment and refreshments were served. Proceeds amounted to about $33.15.

YOUR body needs the natural roughage of bran for proper digestion and natural elimination of waste. No bran is so perfect a laxative as Quaker—no other tastes so good when baked into muffins or other dishes.

Constipation causes a multitude of ills. Headache, stomach disorders, bad breath, sallow complexion and mental depression can often be traced directly to faulty elimination. Without the proper roughage the intestinal muscles become lazy—they do not work to remove insidious poisons which are poured into the system.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

I am sorry I was unable to print these suggestions for refreshments for a St. Patrick's party sooner, but it isn't too late, perhaps, because St. Patrick's parties will, very likely, be held throughout the week.

• • • • • • •

The refreshments for the party feature the shamrock, this plant being very much in evidence at this season of the year.

• • • • • • •

The shape of the triplicate leaf is practically the same as that of our ordinary three-leaf clover. It is so closely like the club motif in a deck of cards that if anyone is puzzled about getting the shape right, refer to the ace of clubs.

• • • • • • •

The menu for the party might consist of the following: Shamrock motifs, Shamrock salad, Shamrock biscuit (clover leaf), Curley green nut petals, Shamrock ice cream, Shamrock cakes, Shamrock fruited lemonade, Shamrock candies.

• • • • • • •

For salad and biscuits the following might help. Cut little shamrock leaves from sweet green peppers and from pimento. Arrange any preferred salad (salmon is suggested) on lettuce leaves. Edge the plate with fresh shamrock leaves and surround the salad with the leaves pressed into it so that they are silhouetted against the mound of salad.

• • • • • • •

If you cannot get the fresh shamrock, the lettuce and cut leaves will be sufficient. Ordinary clover-leaf biscuits make the shamrock biscuits and they should be hot. Butter them first if the refreshments are passed around.

• • • • • • •

For the curly green nut petals, tint salt with green vegetable coloring. Let it re-crystalize if you get it too moist, and toss the nuts in a little melted butter and while still oily put them in the salt. Stir gently and let them crust over a trifle.

• • • • • • •

Serve pistachion ice cream in three spoonfuls arranged in shamrock leaf form. Serve with individual cakes frosted with green tinted icing and having pistachio nuts pressed on top in shamrock leaf form.

• • • • • • •

For the fruit lemonade tint it with green and put one shamrock leaf in each glass, or you might cut wee shamrock leaves from shaved citron and sprinkle in a few in each glass.

• • • • • • •

Any homemade, green-tinted fondant candy can be given the three-leaf shape. Or hazel nuts can be dipped in green fondant and three nuts form one piece of leaf-shaped candy.

HALL EXPLAINS PREPARATION OF FLOWER GARDENS

SHOWS BEAUTIFUL SLIDES.

"Gardens Planting of Seeds and Transplanting of Seedlings" was the subject of an educational address given by John S. Hall of Toronto before members and guests of the Peterborough Horticultural Society in the Library Hall last evening. The entire lecture centered around colored slides made by Mr. Hall himself of gardens he has visited, of flower specimens, and illustrated charts.

The speaker commenced his program by showing pictures of the Botanical Gardens in Toronto. This included illustrations of ponds and waterfalls, rustic walks bordered by flowers, begonia beds and an Easter display. He also gave scenes from the gardens of F. D. James' "Red Gables" in Toronto. One picture depicted a background of ever-greens with a flower-bordered walk leading up to them and striking through in two directions. Others showed views of the well kept lawns and rose garden. The most interesting scenes were those of the water garden which formerly was a marsh. These comprised pictures of rustic bridges, fountains, falls, rock gardens, a rustic house, fish pond and a tea house in a rose garden.

Preparing Flower Beds

The speaker then spoke of preparing flower beds. The gardener should dig straight down so as to reach the maximum depth. This should be done in the fall so as to expose and freeze any grubs which might be in the ground. For indoor planting of seeds, Mr. Hall suggested that hotbed earth well rotted with manure should be used. A box 4 inches in depth should be perforated at the bottom and these holes covered over with pottery. Rough earth should be placed in the box first, then the sifted hotbed earth. Flat bottomed trenches should be dug to save seeds from growing on top of each other. A whitewashed glass should then be placed over the top, and the earth watered frequently. The seedlings must be seeded out so as to give the stronger a better chance.

Flower beds should be dug out to the depth of two feet. There should be a layer of fill-in a layer of manure and then a final dome-shaped layer of good earth. This should be done about three weeks before planting is to take place. To remedy the blight common to asters, Mr. Hall suggested that moth balls be placed in the earth, or that bichloride of mercury be used.

The lecturer showed colored slides of the following flowers, briefly mentioning salient points in their culture: Sweet sultans, sensuala Americana, phlox, French and African marigolds, petunias, salpiglossis, snapdragons, verbenae, morning bride, zinnias, Petunias, sweet peas, perennials, iris, peonies, lupans, spires, Chinese bell flowers, liatris, red hot poker, African3, for-gloves.

Mr. Hall spoke of the correct method of tieing up some of these tall flowers to protect them against the wind and storm. The main supporting stem of each should be secured to a stake (not too near the roots) with bass or straw, but should not be pulled in towards the stake. Disbuding should be practised too, in order to get the finest and largest blooms.

Three types of roses were depicted—Frau Druschki, Mrs. Ward and Mm. Butterfly. Special mention was made of the beautiful garden contain 150 varieties of roses, named "Rosary", in Bowmanville. Fox tail lilies, dahlias and gladiolae were also shown in profusion.

Mr. Hall concluded his address by showing several views of Hamilton Willis' estate, "Shadowbrook" some five miles from Toronto. The residence is of Spanish architectures, and surrounding it are Swiss and Spanish gardens. The pictures took the visitors all around the gardens, showing him a wealth of color and artistic designing. Particularly enchanting was the Japanese bridge and garden over the River Don. The gardens, surrounding a brooklet meandering over rocks, were strewn with Oriental flowers and the pagodas gave a panorama effect of a miniature Tibetan scene, only here it was embedded in color.

"Thus" said the speaker, "man designs gardens according to his own particular character, and no one should criticize the effect of his labors as long as he really does work towards the beautification of his garden plot or lands and the satisfaction of his individual taste."

1931 COEDS BETTER PHYSICALLY THAN 1881 GIRLS, DOCTOR STATES

Ashland College President Claims Improvement Has Been Steady.

6,000 GIRLS STUDIED.

ASHLAND, O., March 17 (C.P.).—Betty Coed of 1931 is a better girl physically than Betty Coed of 50 years ago. She weighs more, is taller, and has a greater lung capacity and chest girth.

This was revealed to-day by Edwin E. Jacobs, President of Ashland College, who during the last 15 years, has studied the physical measurements taken of 6,000 girl freshmen in five institutions of higher learning during the last half century. The ages of the girls measured were approximately 18 or 19 years.

	50 Years ago.	To-day.
Weight	113.8	123.2
Height	159.5	161.6
Lung capacity ...	150.6	165.6
Chest girth	78.1	78.7

Dr. Jacobs' analysis indicated that the improvement has been steady.

He said that the causes for increased vigor perhaps are:

"1. College girls may now be coming from a different stratum of society than formerly.

"2. Previous improved high school training in physical education may have its effect.

"3. General health conditions of all homes are better than formerly.

"4. It may also be that the general physical vigor of this part of the population is improving.

"5. Or it may be that more vigorous and robust girls are getting out for college rather than the weaker ones, for there can be no doubt but that modern college life appeals more and more to the vigorous girl."

That Body of Yours

A LA CARTE SERVICE IN HOSPITALS

One of the new professions that is of great importance and interest is that of dietitian in any hospital. These dietitians have to take an extensive course on cooking, the nutrition of, and the proper serving of food.

Unfortunately another factor enters into it and that is the cost or price allowed for each meal.

It is this cost of meal per patient that makes the work of the dietitian difficult and yet there is another factor, tha to my mind is most important, and is not receiving the attention it deserves. This is the individual taste or appetite of each patient.

During the war, when all hospitals units were served the same rations, it was surprising how different were the type and appearance of the meals in one unit compared with those of another. One cook went to the trouble to give variety in the way the food was cooked, while another served the food in the same manner practically every day.

What is my point?

It has always been thought that the dietitian had really no chance to give variety to sick patients because food had to be—liquid, soft, or "ordinary diet".

Now you can readily see that when it comes to a soft diet or an ordinary diet, and the patient has been in the hospital for some time, that while there may be some variety to the diet, nevertheless the patient may go for a number of meals, even for some days, and not get the kinds of foods he likes. And as he hasn't much appetite anyway, his recovery is delayed.

In Berlin this matter has been receiving much attention and regular a-la-carte menus have been introduced in some large hospitals. Every morning the menu for the day is brought to the patient, and he selects he dishes that he desires, keeping within the range of the diet that his physician has prescribed.

This means that the patient looks forward to his meals, that his digestive juices begin to work even before his tray is brought to him, and digestion thus gets an excellent start.

It means also that he will be out of the institution some days, possibly some weeks, sooner than if he had to take the "regular" meals, as supplied to all patients in most institutions.

The lesson, of course, for all of us is that while the food value must always be thought of, the patient's appetite is really more important in getting him well in a short time.

A BEDTIME STORY

by Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE LAUGHING BUNNIES

"Unkie Wig, isn't everything just lovely?" asked Baby Bunty, the little orphan rabbit as she hopped along through the woods beside Uncle Wiggily.

"Well, yes, Bunty, everything seems to be pretty nice," said the old rabbit gentleman. "But what do you mean is lovely?"

"Why, just everything!" Bunty answered. "You know you ran away to the woods because I was bad and Jingle and Jangle pulled the cloth, dishes and all, off the table. And then the jolly dog gave you the tickle stick and——"

"Oh, yes! You mean that" chuckled Mr. Longears. And, happening to point the tickle stick at himself he had to laugh, of course.

"Oh, isn't everything lovely!" cried Baby Bunty again and then Uncle Wiggily pointed the tickle stick at her and she had to laugh.

Just before that Mr. Longears had pointed the stick, which the jolly dog gave him, at the Fox, and Mr. Fox had to laugh so hard that he couldn't close his teeth to bite.

A few minutes later Uncle Wiggily saw a crying Wolf and pointed the tickle stick at him. And all at once the Wolf stopped crying and began to laugh. For it was the kind of a stick no matter at whom or what it was pointed, laughter followed. It is true the Wolf said he was crying because his wife had been peeling onions to make a shortcake. But, anyhow, the tickle stick made the Wolf laugh.

"I think, Uncle Wig," said Bunty as she and Mr. Longears hopped on through the woods toward the hollow stump bungalow, "I think that tickle stick is the most wonderful thing in the world."

"I am glad you like it, my dear," spoke Mr. Longears.

All of a sudden the little orphan rabbit began to laugh. Uncle Wiggily was surprised for he hadn't pointed the tickle stick at Bunty. So he asked her:

"Why are you laughing?"

"Oh, I just feel so jolly," she answered. "And I was thinking what will happen when we get home. Ha! Ha! Ha!"

"Why, what will happen?" asked Uncle Wiggily, and he thought Baby Bunty was such a jolly little orphan rabbit that it didn't take a tickle stick to make her laugh. Nearly always she was happy and jolly except when she was a bit bad and used more baby talk than she should.

"What will happen when we get home with the tickle stick!" asked Uncle Wiggily, for Baby Bunty had not yet answered him.

"You'll see," was all the little orphan would say.

So she and Uncle Wiggily hopped on and on and on through the woods.

Now, all this while, Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, and Mrs. Longears, who was the rabbit gentleman's wife, and all his forty sixteen bunny rabbit children, had been waiting for Uncle Wiggily to come home.

As I told you, in some stories before this one, Mr. Longears had run away from his bungalow home because some of his children made him very unhappy by quarreling and pulling the cloth and all the dishes off the table.

Then Baby Bunty had run to the woods to look for her "Unkie Wig," as she called him, and she had found him, with the tickle stick, and now they were on their way home.

But in the hollow stump bungalow there was sadness because Uncle Wiggily was away.

"Do you think he'll ever come back, Nurse Jane?" asked Jingle.

"Why, of course he will," said the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"If he doesn't we'll send the jolly old Police Dog after him!" said Mrs. Longears.

Then, all of a sudden, Jangle shouted:

"I see him. Here comes Daddicums and Baby Bunty."

Along came hopping Uncle Wiggily Behing him was Baby Bunty. And then, all at once, the bunny children all began to laugh.

"Ha! Ha! Ho! Ho! Tee Hee! Que Wee! Quee Wee!" they laughed.

Then Baby Bunty laughed and said: "I knew this would happen Unkie Wig!

"What did you know would happen?" asked Mr. Longears.

"I knew," said Baby Bunty, "that as soon as you came along with the tickle stick, all of them would laugh. And so they did, didn't they'''

"They surely did!" said Mr. Longears. "But it's funny, Bunny, I have lost the tickle stick! I must have dropped it in the woods."

"Oh, dear!" sighed Bunty. "But, then, why did everybody laugh?"

"I'll tell you why," said Nurse Jane. "We laughed because we are so glad Uncle Wiggily came home. Now everybody is going to be happy."

St. Patrick's Dinner In St. Paul's S. S. Hall

The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Presbyteria Church are this evening holding the annual St. Patrick's Day dinner in the Sunday School Hall, from 5.30 to 7.30. They have planned for a record crowd, and quality and quantity of the "vittles" will be outstanding. Following the dinner, at 8 o'clock, a program of Irish music will be presented in the church, and Fred Roy, our well-known city photographer, will show five reels of interesting pictures. There should be a large audience to enjoy the music and "movies," and incidentally encourage the Ladies' Aid Society.

No Birthday Holiday For Miss Bondfield

LONDON, Mar. 17.—(A.P.) —Rt. Hon. Margaret Bondfield, Minister of Labor in the Laoor Cabinet, celebrated her 58th birthday to-day by doing twelve hours of work in her office. It was just an ordinary day for Miss Bondfield. She is known as one of the hardest working members of the Cabinet and when a broken ankle enforced partial idleness upon her a year ago she declared that nothing in her public career had so irked her.

MILLBROOK UNITED

Interest has grown in the series of sermons on Pentecost which the pastor, Rev. W. W. Jones, B.D., has been preaching since the new year in Saint Andrew's United Church, evidence of this being found in good congregations which have been present at morning worship even when weather and roads have been alike unfavorable.

Beginning with contrasting the baptism of John with water, the symbol of repentance and desire for a new life, with the baptism of Jesus, which was by the Holy Spirit and meant a new nature, born again from above, the study went on to speak of the power of the Holy Spirit to see life through. A warning was uttered here to those who apparently were losing interest in Christian life and the progress of the Christian church, burying their talents in inactivity.

"The Gospel in Spite of," was the third subject, leading on to the church before the court of public opinion, when emphasis was laid upon the great opportunity of the really Christian church for providing Christ likeness of character and of service before a watching world. The nature of the Holy Spirit, who comes and dwells in our hearts and enriches our lives as a gracious, divine miracle, continued the theme, the next sermon being on the reckoning of Christ, which means new dynamic and new life, and led up naturally to the teaching ministry of Pentecost.

The behaviour of a Spirit-filled church brought more than one pertinent lesson to the congregation, the pastor going on to take next the intellectual side, or the why of Pentecost, while on Sunday morning his subject was the manifestations of Jesus after Pentecost, his remarks being based on the story of Saul's conversion as told in Acts 9, verse 5 and onward.

"Jesus is in the market place as well as in the temple; in the homes of people as well as in the palaces of kings, but He is known only to those by whom He is spiritually discerned." Some of the laws governing the manifestation of Jesus were dealt with in detail including the law of necessity; for if He be Christ, and cares, and is an unfailing Friend as He claimed, He must reveal Himself. Again He reveals Himself only to those who are willing to receive Him, and on the understanding that He fully satisfies the heart, mind, and conscience of the individual, and they two go on henceforth together.

Those to whom Christ reveals Himself have a responsibility to declare Him with burning hearts, and convincing words and lives. In closing the minister urged his hearers to put to themselves the question: What does Christ mean to you? Adding the reminder that while the Saviour must of necessity make Himself known to every man and woman who will open the heart's door and bid Him come in, "He is yearning to make your life beautiful. Behold, He stands at the door and knocks; will you not open to Him and give Him welcome as your personal Lord and Saviour?"

This series of sermons will continue throughout the present month.

Ross L. Dobbin Elected President of Curling Club

PRIZES FOR CLUB COMPETITIONS PRESENTED AT ANNUAL MEETING

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Ross L. Dobbin was last evening elected president of Peterborough Curling Club, at one of the most enthusiastic annual meetings of recent years. Previous to relinquishing office the immediate past-president, J. J. Howden, asked that the membership stand in silence as a token to the memory of the late James H. Connal and John N. Bacon.

"The club has suffered heavily in their passing," said Mr. Howden. Both these men were among our very best curlers; indeed, they were almost in a special class of their own because of their skill, expertness and knowledge of the game. The club joins in sending condolence and sympathy to the bereaved families."

Sympathy was also expressed later in the evening for J. W. Brightman and T. Brightman, both members of the club, who have recently suffered a bereavement.

"At the beginning of the season," stated Mr. Howden, "at a meeting similar to this one, I strongly urged that the spirit of comradeship and sportsmanship be developed and cultivated. The executive feels that the tone of the rink is good."

In conclusion, he congratulated those curlers who attended outside events and upheld the honor of the club, naming Ray Best, H. F. Foote and their rinks who went to Toronto, and also the District Cup rinks skipped by John Sedgwick and Ira D. Moore.

Officers Elected

H. C. Sootheran and Ira Moore were appointed scrutineers for the election of officers, which resulted as follows:

President—Ross L. Dobbin.
Honorary President.—J. J. Howden.
Vice President.—Dr. N. H. Sutton.
Committee of Management.—The above four officers and J. T. Braund, W. M. Cruthers, J. Penrose and H. R. Martin.
Representative to O.C.A.—J. J. Howden with R. L. Dobbin as alternative.
Auditor.—H. C. Sootheran, re-elected.
Chaplain.—Rev. David Wren.

The financial report tendered by J. W. Mayneord, secretary-treasurer, gave the receipts at $2,348.39, with expenditures of $1,894.98, and outstanding accounts $223.50, leaving a credit balance of $229.91.

Mr. Sootheran, who audited the books, stated that he had rarely seen a set of books kept in such a splendid manner as those kept on behalf of the club by Mr. Mayneord.

E. G. Braund, who gave the Junior Curlers' financial report, stated the club had 24 members. They had finished with a credit balance of $30 out of which they still had further expenditures for the engraving of cups, while provision was also to be made for a banquet.

Prizes Presented

A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of prizes to the successful contestants in various club competitions as follows:

First Prize, Club Schedule.—T. E. Ross, T. Holyman, Dr. J. C. Green and G. N. Green, skip; blankets, presented by Dr. N. H. Sutton.

Second Prize, Club Schedule.—F. D. Weir, W. Stocker, D. Fitzgerald and W. J. Oke, skip; sweaters, presented by J. H. Sedgwick.

Third Prize, Club Schedule.—Roy Girven, A. W. Pratten, R. R. Scott, and T. O. Donaldson, skip; silver platters, presented by R. F. Downey.

Fourth Prize, Club Schedule.—H. B. Hanna, W. C. English, N. D. Seaton and W. M. Cruthers, skip; sweaters, presented by H. F. Foote.

First Prize, Vice-Skips' Bonspiel.—J. Dinsdale, W. Fletcher, Martin Chenhall, and Jack Gillespie, skip; Patterson Trophy and casseroles, presented by W. D. Campbell.

Second Prize, Vice-Skips.—J. C. Glaspel, Stan. Lowe, Dr. N. H. Sutton and D. M. Bissell, skip; sweaters, presented by H. R. Martin.

Winners of Front-End 'Spiel (Ross L. Dobbin Trophy).—G. Braund, Rev. D. Wren, R. Hutchinson, and B. W. Harvey, skip; table knives, presented by R. L. Dobbin.

Second Prize, Leads and Seconds 'Spiel.—F. Hooper, J. C. Thompson, G. Robertson Jr., and T. H. Hooper, skip; silver platters presented by D. M. Bissell.

Much constructive discussion, both pro and con, concerning the advisability of holding an open bonspiel next season, which was cancelled during the season just completed, did not result in any definite action; the matter being held over for further consideration at the Fall meeting.

That the club continue in the present method of selecting the schedule rings, is the wish of the majority of members, who defeated R. F. Downey's motion, "that it would be in the interests of the club to revert to the former method of selecting the schedule rinks for each succeeding year; that is, the elected skips choose their vice-skips, and then draw for seconds and leads." The motion was seconded by H. F. Foote.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Angus McIntosh, caretaker and umpire; to the anditor, Mr. Sootheran; the scrutineers, and to Mr. Martin.

REVISED RULES 1931 BASEBALL

Although Considerable Number of Changes Made, Many Are of Minor Importance.

COLOR IN GLOVES

Baseball will be played in 1931 with a revised code of rules, according to John B. Foster who is a member of the Baseball Rules Committee. He discusses the changes in an article in the Baseball Magazine.

The committee consisted of Commissioner Landis; John Heydler, president of the National League; Ernest Barnard, president of the American League; William Veeck of the Chicago Cubs; Sam Breadon of the St. Louis Cardinals; Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators; and Eddie Collins acting for Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics. Robert Emslie and Thomas Connolly, umpires, acted as advisers. Foster represented the baseball writers.

The revision was thorough, each regulation being discussed in detail. The two most important revisions, prior to this, were in 1920 and 1926. So rapidly does baseball change and improve, it was found necessary to revise certain rules before another summer began. While there was a considerable number of changes made, many of them were of minor importance. Here are some of the biggest changes.

The distance from home plate to the backstop has now been shortened from ninety feet to sixty feet.

Hereafter the foul lines must be marked not less than three inches wide, and bases must be not more than five inches nor less than three inches in thickness.

And in future, pitchers' gloves must be uniform in color, including the web band.

A hit, not a homer, that leaves the playing field is judged fair or foul by the umpire as to where it leaves the playing field and not where it leaves his view.

A fair hit ball that bounds into a stand or over a fence shall be ruled a two-base hit.

If the umpire declares a batsman out for interference the base-runner shall return to the last base legally touched by him at the time the interference was made in the judgment of the umpire.

A new rule specifies that an error and not a passed ball shall be charged to the catcher when he drops or misses a third strike allowing the batsman to reach first base.

The sacrifice fly shall no longer be counted a hit for the batter, even though it advances a runner.

The new code has been reduced from eighty-six to seventy-one rules which is a good thing, as the fewer rules to any game the better. These and other changes in baseball rules went into effect the first of the year, and will be followed in every recognized league.

OSHAWA BLANKS KITCHENER 3-0

While Stratford Defeats Guelph 2-1 in Ontario League Play-off.

THREE IN TIE.

TORONTO, Ont., March 17 (C.P.) —Oshawa Pats, who reposed in the basement during the major part of the Ontario Hockey League race, served notice last night they intend to provide more than ordinary opposition in the play-offs.

Meeting Kitchener Silverwoods in the first of home-and-home games to decide the claimants of fourth place, the Pats blanked their opponents, 3 to 0. The return game will be played at Kitchener to-night.

Stratford Nationals defeated Guelph Maple Leafs, 2 to 1, in an exciting play-off match on their home ice. One of the largest crowds of the season in Stratford saw the Nationals clinch the game with two quick goals in the second frame. Stratford, Guelph, and Niagara Falls are now tied in the round robin series.

NEW YORK TEAMS IN FINAL GAMES

With Play-off Berths Settled, Little Interest Attached to To-night's Games.

TORONTO, Ont., March 17 (By George Maguire, C. P. Sport Writer) —With all play-off berths decided in both sections of the National Hockey League, to-night's program of four games lacks the usual interest of closing games in other seasons. Two of the tussles are international affairs, but even if the United States clubs win the remaining matches against Canadian teams they will fall several short of winning the season's honors.

New York Americans, participating in their final scheduled fixture, invade Montreal, where they clash with the Maroons, who nosed them out of third place in the Northern division. By winning, the Amerks can tie the Montrealers on points, but they lose out because the Munromen have chalked up most wins during the campaign.

Holders of third place in the Junior loop, New York Rangers also make their last appearance in a scheduled game when they play the tail-end Senators at Ottawa. While there is nothing at stake the game will give Bill Cook, league leading goal scorer, an opportunity to just about clinch the honors for the season. He is two up on his nearest rival, Howie Morenz, fleshy centre of Montreal Canadiens. Morenz has also another game in which to fatten his point-scoring average, and the Ranger sharpshooter may yet be nosed out.

In the other two games, Detroit Falcons travel to Boston and Chicago

MADOC LOSES FINAL GAME ROWSOME CUP

MULVIHILL COUNTS WINNER.

Northern Team Handicapped By Lack of Capable Playing Alternates.

BELLEVILLE, March 17.—Belleville Senior "B" finalists won the championship of Hastings County and the Rowsome Trophy last night, defeating Madoc, Trent Valley League winners, 2 to 1. The local team displayed more finish to their attacks and were at an advantage in having capable substitutes, Madoc playing practically the entire game with their regular line-up.

Madoc scored the first goal, L'Heureux carrying the puck the length of the ice, and when checked, McGuire came through and beat Buskard from close in. The count was tied when Davis and Runions combined, with the latter scoring. The last goal scored by Belleville came midway in the third frame, when Mulvihill rushed in fast to bat backhanded into the net, a rebound from the stick of Johnny Leschman.

Mulvihill, Sherry, Holway, Davis and Runions were best for the winners, with McGuire, Johnson and Andrews showing well for Madoc. Buskard in the Belleville goal was injured in the third period, but was patched up to comeback and play a sensational game. Hulin in the losers' net, played a stellar game, and saved his team from a worse beating. The contest was not rough although eight penalties were handed out, evenly divided.

Belleville.—Goal, Buskard; defense, Holway and Weir; centre, Leschman; wings, Smith and Mulvihill; alternates, Sherry, Davis, H. Canning and Runions.

Referee—H. H. Jacobs, Toronto.

SOCCER CHANGES IN LOCAL RULES

Finances Have Increased Three Dollars, Registration Forms Twenty-five Each.

A special meeting of the Peterborough and District Football Association was held last evening, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, with President Vincent Stewart in the chair and a good attendance of the executive.

Constitution Adopted

The select committee appointed to deal with the constitution, to conform to the rules nd regulations of the Ontario Football Association, placed their amendment to the old P. and D. F.A. before the meeting. Each clause and section was taken individually so as to allow each member to criticise the change.

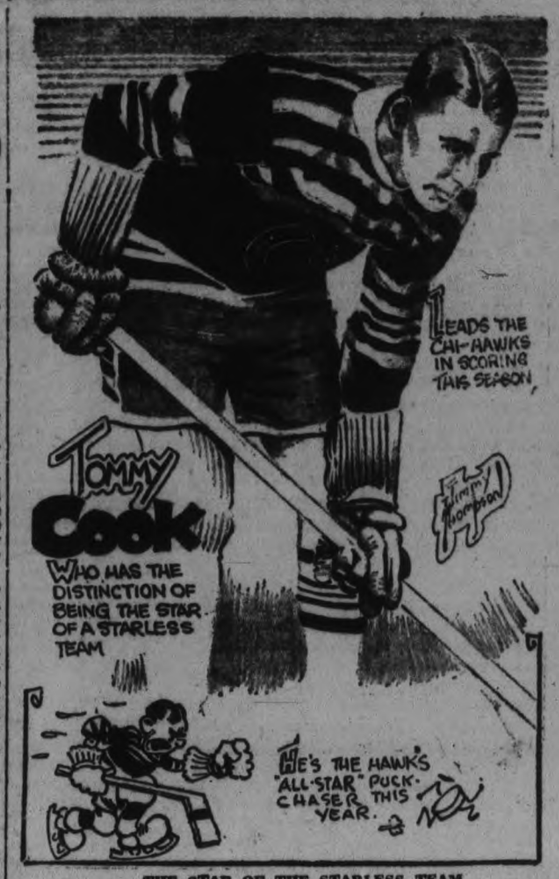
The finances have increased three dollars this season through the committee placing another dollar on each trophy. This compels the respective clubs to deposit twelve dollars to meet all obligations, and they must also deposit five dollars as a guarantee which is returned if they fulfill all games.

Twenty-five cents will be the cost of the registration forms this season, instead of the usual ten cents. All players must sign the Ontario form. The amount charged for a transfer will be three dollars—one going to the local association, one to the O.F.A., and one to the D.F.A.

No Clubs Registered

The executive have endeavoured to get the clubs registered but they have not yet re-organised so far this season.

All players and members interested in the Canadian Packing Company teams are requested to meet in the Chamber of Commerce rooms next Monday evening, March 23rd, at eight o'clock.



THE STAR OF THE STARLESS TEAM

Strange as it seems it's true. Tommy Cook of the Chicago Hawks is the star of a starless team. It's the proud boast of the Chicago Hawks that they are the N.H.L.'s starless team, but the rest of the "Big League" puck-chasers want to know whether they play hockey in earnest or just amuse themselves. If there ever was a star Tommy Cook is, and he has plenty of these, them and those into the bargain. He leads the Windy City's N.H.I entry in scoring points and has the distinction of being one of the lightest players to have ever crashed in on the Big Tent, weighing only 125 pounds. He gives one the impression that is he had a good stiff "Ching" Johnston body-check it would send him over the 25th row of seats. Tommy's early hockey experience was gained in his three years as an amateur of Fort William seniors, during which time they won the Allan Cup twice. The ex-Tulsa Oiler is not related to his namesake of the New York Rangers. He was brought by the Hawks after leading the American League in scoring and winning the unanimous selection as centre of the all-star circuit team. He has the knack of wriggling his way into scoring position and when he snares the little disc at close range his aim is deadly. He boasts plenty of speed and technique and he demonstrated when he scored five points in a single game this season. So he's one baby that's well worth watching in the coming Stanley Cup playoffs.

MILLBROOK BEATS BAILIEBORO 3-1

Millbrook took the big end of a 3-1 score over Bailieboro last night at the Brock street rink. It was a fairly even and fast affair, with the winners getting the inside track with Lady Luck. The boys from Bailieboro muffed a number of chances to counter through poor work around their opponents' goal.

Millbrook counted one in the opening frame when Brown slipped one in from close quarters. The go was close enough and both goalies were called on to save quite a few. Cawker made it two for the winners when he lifted the rubber in early in the middle chapter. Sidey notched the losers' only marker in this frame. Again play was even, and featured by numerous lone rushes. Sticky ice made combination difficult. W. Sayles got the third one for Millbrook shortly after the beginning of the last period. Bailieboro sent four and five men up all through the session and should have had a couple but were robbed by hard luck and good net-minding on the part of Mitchell. The losers contented themselves with playing a defensive game toward the end.

Mitchell in goal and the forwards all went nice for the winners, though every player contributed to the victory. There was no outstanding man on the Bailieboro lineup, all of them working their hardest. But Muskrat guarding their citadel stopped the rubber from all angles and the three that beat him were well earned.

THREE TO PAY COSTS.

BELLEVILLE, March 17 (Special to The Examiner).—The Town Hall at Tweed was packed to capacity yesterday afternoon, when Magistrate Casement of Madoc ascended the bench to hear charges of assault occasioning bodily harm preferred against three members of the Tweed Hockey Club, Max, Fred and Gerald Geraldi, and Rev. Mather Meagher, coach, and M. J. Barkey, defense to the Madoc Hockey Club. A large number drove over from Madoc for the proceedings and the little village of Tweed fairly buzzed with excitement as conjectures and opinions flashed hither and yon. Long before the time of trial, the room was packed, but all were doomed to disappointment.

Wiser heads prevailed and the charges against Father Meagher and Fred Geraldi were dismissed, while the charges against the other three were withdrawn. They to pay the costs of the action proportionately between them. B. C. Donnan, Crown Attorney, prosecuted; Charles A. Payne, K.C., appeared for Father Meagher and Barkey, while R. D. Ponton, K.C., and I. D. Corcoran of Tweed represented the Geraldi brothers. A conference was held prior to the court sitting which was attended by officials of the two hockey clubs interested, and everything was satisfactorily adjusted.

Hard Case to Settle

Magistrate Casement, in opening the court remarked that this kind of litigation was hard to settle because of the enmity and bad feeling which it engendered. Domestic and neighborly quarrels are always hard to pass judgment upon, said His Worship, and any decision by me or any court would not be saitsfactory to all parties. A community trouble is always hardest to handle, and these charges have brought about a community trouble. Even in the case of conviction of any of the parties it will not be my intention to inflict a severe punishment, as I believe this matter could have been more amicably settled out of the court. At this juncture, the Crown Attorney interjected: "That all would be satisfactorily settled if His Worship would read the charges."

Rev. Father Meagher was first called and after the charge was read, before the reverend gentleman had a chance to reply, Crown Attorney Donnan, addressing His Worship, stated, "The Crown does not tender any evidence in this case"; and Magistrate Casement had no alternative but to dismiss the action. The same procedure was taken in the case of Fred Geraldi, while the charges against Max Geraldi, Gerald Geraldi and M. J. Barkey were all withdrawn although they were asked to pay the costs of the action proportionately, which was agreed to by the counsel present in their behalf. Thus a situation that might had engendered a bitter feeling between two live communities was averted.

Out of Hockey Game

The several charges arose out of a hockey match, played in the village of Tweed on January 6th last between Madoc and Tweed. The flare-up took place midway in the second period and for a time spectators as well as players were embroiled in a real hockey tangle.

It is alleged that Max Geraldi hit Barkey and the defenceman, in retaliation, hit Geraldi. When the players were coming from the ice, it is further alleged that Father Meagher struck one of the Geraldi boys, who was helping his brother, who had been allegedly attacked. From all the information that can be gathered, it is apparent that not one person in the rink that night, excepting the two involved, could tell actually and accurately what happened. Had the players and officials been left to themselves to unwind the tangle, the affair would have been smoothed over but the followers of the teams, being rabid in their views, edged the fracas on and the charges resulted, which were happily withdrawn.

SAULT JUNIORS DEFEAT FALLS IN FINAL GAME

Northerners Fall Goal Short of Overcoming Niagara Lead on Series.

GAME 4-3; ROUND 8-7.

Make Great Rally to Run in Three Goals in the Final Frame.

TORONTO, March 17.—Soo Greyhounds will return to the Canal City with their dreams of winning the Canadian hockey championship unfulfilled, but they will not go back disgraced. Last night, rising to great heights when all seemed lost, they ran in three consecutive goals in the final period against the Niagara Falls Cataracts, won the game by 4 to 3, but lost the round by 8 to 7. It was a nerve-racking rally that they put on, and it marked the climax of one of the most closely contested games of the series.

The Falls, playing carefully and cannily, brought gloom to the followers of the Hounds when the smooth-working Max Kaminsky dented the twine twice in the first period and lengthened the Cataract lead to four goals. The Sault got one back in the next session, but the Falls equalized on Smith's swift shot and entered the last round four goals to the good.

A Rousing Rally.

Few expected that the Hounds would even make it close after that, but they crossed the critics and, led by Charlie Dunn, their gallant lit defence man, they showered shots at the Falls net. Lauzon, their clever centre player, got the first marker of this session nine minutes after the period started when he combined with Dunn. About two minutes later Hunter registered, while Lauzon and Maki were credited with assists and that goal sent the arena into a bedlam of noise. Hats were flung high in the air, the roars of the fans could be heard for blocks around and thoughtless spectators hurled programs and paper on the ice, bringing about interruptions that certainly didn't help the oncoming Hounds to any extent.

Gene Fraser rallied his tiring players and they continued to shoot the puck the length of the ice at every opportunity, but with only about five minutes left to play Lauzon combined with Hunter for the goal that won the game, but not the round, for the Northerners. Came more noise, papers, programs, and cheers, and it was plain to see that the O.H.A. champions were in danger of losing the round.

With three minutes to go, Kaminsky and Dundas got into a fistic battle and drew major penalties. It was the only serious infringement of the rules that occurred during the hard-fought series. When the final whistle sounded the warriors shook hands and quickly forgot the incident.

There were twelve penalties, the Falls drawing seven and the Greyhounds five.

Sault Ste Marie — Goal, Conway; defence, Dundas, Dunn; centre, Lauzon; wings, Maki, Hunter; subs., Naccaratto, Vincent, and Bradford.

O.H.A. CHAMPIONS BEAT SUDBURY

Northerners Make Much Better Showing, However, Lose 2-1.

HAMILTON, March 17.—Displaying a form reversal over their performance of Saturday, when they lost to the Tigers by a 5 to 0 score, Sudbury Wolves held the Tigers to a 2 to 1 count in the return engagement here last night and had enough of the play to reverse the decision, but weak sniping on the part of the Northern forwards proved their undoing. Going into the game five goals up, Hamilton players turned in a lackadaisical performance and left much of the responsibility on the shoulders of "Hawse" Marsh. It was only in spots that Tigers showed the combined play that carried them to such an easy victory in the opening encounter, and when they did dish it up, the Sudbury rearguardsmen were helpless against it. However, after scoring a counter in the opening frame and another half way through the second session, they played very little hockey, with the result that the contest was boresome instead of interesting.

MUSKRAT SEASON OPENS IN ONTARIO

Trappers Out in Force All Over District Make Most of Short Season.

The muskrat season opened this week, and it is reported that trappers are out in force all over the district eager to make the most of the short season which comes to a close on April 22. Keeping Milady warm next winter is going to be a problem and many, many pelts must be garnered between now and the next four or five weeks. Muskrat coats in various styles and fashions are very popular for winter wear among the smart set in northern climes, and yearly hundreds of thousands of pelts are sold by hunters and trappers to the various fur dealers in the district.

The muskrat is a fur-bearing rodent peculiar to the North American continent, and resembles a rat in color and in having a long scaly tail. The hind feet are webbed and the ears, which are small, are concealed in the fur. The muskrat has peculiar scent glands which secrete a substance having a strong odor of musk. As a habitat the muskrat does not draw the line and is not fastidious as to quarters. Sometimes the shallow water of a lake or creek will supply a large colony with a happy hunting ground, and sometimes swamps and ponds will be the home centre of a community. Typical "wandering Jews" these animals do not spend very long in any one place, sometimes travelling around until they have returned to their original settlement.

The muskrat is usually trapped and many residents in this district find a nice addition to their incomes by setting traps for them along the shores of lakes, creeks and rivers in the district. In the surrounding territories many farmers make quite a business out of trapping the muskrat.

The Church Hockey League's annual banquet will be held next Monday night at 6.15 at the Knox Sunday School Hall. The three sectional winners will be presented with shields. A number of players from each of the other teams in the league will be present for the feed, too.

* * * * * * *

Harold Rehill, secretary of the league, says "they have had a most successful year." They have kept out of the "red" throughout their long schedule, which is something to brag about.

* * * * * * *

We venture to say much of the league's success is due to the same Harold, who has worked plenty hard to put it across. And Howard Hall, president, deserves a lot of credit, too.

* * * * * * *

Art Blade went from here Friday to attend the annual meeting of the Dominion Harness Horse Association. It was held at the Iroquois Hotel in Toronto. Art was elected one of the directors for the coming year.

* * * * * * *

He said that last year showed a big improvement over the previous year, and indications are 1931 will top them all. Harness horse-racing is getting more and more popular throughout Canada, and some record entries are on the cards for this summer.

* * * * * * *

Grove School's first hockey team is coming down for a game with Choates' Hardware outfit to-night. They battle it out from seven to eight at the Brock, and as the Lakefield squad have not dropped a game this year, it ought to be quite a scrap.

Jack Dempsey, 36 years old, says he is through fighting. From now on, the former Manassa Mauler wants to be known as a referee and fight promoter. He believes he is too old to try a comeback, and that's that. Many of Jack's admirers will regretfully admit he is using his head.

Well, the Stars are the new City League champs now. They won the round by one goal, which shows what a nip-and-tuck series it was. But they earned the victory by aggressive play. And they got the breaks.

* * * * * * *

The game last night threatened to be rough at times. There was quite a bit of slashing, boarding and stiff bodychecks. But Pat Calladine, handling the bell, was right on top of them. He sure didn't miss much, nor hesitate to chase them.

* * * * * * *

Chris Sproat and Red Dallin worked their heads off for the Seahorses. They never slowed up while they were on the ice, and Chris nearly got another goal to his credit through following in fast.

* * * * * * *

Don Woods displayed a dazzling burst of speed at times, but he did not break into the scoring column. Thirnbeck was the sharpshooter for the Johnson crew. He netted two of his team's goals on lone efforts.

* * * * * * *

One of the Stars' markers was a soft one. George Jay hoisted the puck from the blue line and somehow it got by Clarke who had been saving nicely up till then.

* * * * * * *

More girls' hockey it seems. If the ice holds out and the team can make the trip. Westclox girls expect to play either Keene or Norwood tomorrow night at the Brock.

* * * * * * *

The damsels from the Alarm Shop wanted to take on Ballieboro tonight or Wednesday, but that game will have to be postponed a few nights. Meantime, there'll likely be a bunch out to see the frailer stickhandlers doing their "stuff" tomorrow night.

JOHNSON'S SEA HORSES BATTLE STARS TO 3-3 TIE IN SECOND GAME BUT LOSE ON ROUND 5-4

Winners Retain Junior City League Championship and Tully Cup.

BATTLE TO LAST.

Soft Condition of Ice Makes Speed and Combination Play Difficult.

Johnson's Sea-Horses battled the Stars to a 3—3 tie at the Brock last night, but lost the round 5 to 4. So the Stars are the Junior City League champions and holders of the Tully Trophy till next year. The first game of the playoffs ended 2—1 for the Stars, and last night's draw was not quite sufficient for the Johnson team.

It was a close, hard battle on slow ice which made speed and combination difficult. A fair sized crowd of fans turned out for the final game and they got their money's worth. The winners deserved the triumph by the offensive they took and kept most of the game. They shot every possible chance they got, and the shots were plenty hard. And they had a few breaks with them, too. The losers were not beaten till the last bell, but their shooting and work around the net was not the best. At that, the tie scores indicates the closeness of the play.

Play Opens Fast

The opening frame was fairly fast with the play mostly individual. The Stars began boring in and shooting, and the period was only a few minutes old when Young got in close to score the first one. The boys began a series of rink-length rushes and hard shots on both nets, with the goalies having about an even number to stop. Halfway through, Thirnbeck balanced the count when he slipt the Stars' defense and slapped the rubber in. Both squads were going fast at the end.

Thirnbeck went through the whole team to bulge the hemp for the tying goal on the round, early in the middle session. Then Stars took the edge of the play, working in time and again and shooting the disc from all angles. Shortly after, Ellis came down the right boards and lifted a long one past Clarke to again give Stars' the lead. About the middle of the frame, G. Jay took a pass quite a piece out from Ellis and lifted the rubber in again for the winners. Play was fast and even at the last, with the boys inclined to rough it some.

The final stanza was fairly even and slower than the others. The referee kept the players from mixing it up and penalized a bunch of them. Sea-Horses might have tied the round up if they were not nearly always one man short for rough play. The boot heel was chased back and forth the first part of the go, and then Sea-Horses began to press. They sent four and five players up the ice and made it hot for Sanderson, who was stopping some tough ones. Then Sproat grabbed a loose puck from a scramble near the Stars' net and batted in the last counter of the game. From then on, Sea-Horses held on edge on the play. They worked hard to net the tying goal, and Stars ragged the puck and shot it down the ice to kill time, and so the game ended.

Play Usual Good Game

Sanderson and the defense men did great work for the winners, while Frost, Young and G. Jay played their usual classy game. The second line also went good. It would be unfair to select any player on the losers' team, as everyone did his best. Dallin, Sproat, Thirnbeck and Woods never quit trying, but then neither did the others. It was just a tough game for them to lose. The teams:

Bowling Alley Gossip

By Pin Boy

The Lucky Strikes set the pace in last week's five pin bottles when they encountered the hard-hitting Rangers, and in a wild pin-spilling jamboree, knocked over 3526 pins to take three out of four points. Despite the high pinnage, the winners had little to spare, as the Southenders also had an "on" night, scattering 3464 pins. The strikers won the first tilt by 55 pins, the second by 21 and lost the third by 14. Thi was the only hectic battle of the night and if Fred Jones of the Rangers, had not slipped back to a 155 score in the second game, it would have been anybody's battle. 794 by O'Connell and 783 by Martyn, were the major tallies for the winners. Joe Marsden led with his team-mate, Bill McGee to hit 756 and Harry Ranger crumpled 753 sticks to run a close second.

The following are the scores for the Lucky Strikes versus the Rangers game.

Lucky Strikes:
F. Hickey	222	218	194	634
V. O'Connel	250	282	262	794

Those high-flying birds, representing the Westclox, who have been hovering around first place in the league standing had their wings clipped this week when they met the Brinton Carpet and were held to a 2-2 decision. Tommy Cupoli unwrapped a fast ball during most of the duel and as a result was high man with 782. His team-mates, however, with the exception of Baptie, who made 609, failed to support him. The Carpet makers held up their side of the argument by consistent, rather than spectacular bowling, with G. Anderson and G. Dodson leading.

The Cognawagas' winning streak was also halted this week when they hit the Big Five, or as it happened this time, the Big Four, there being one player missing. The dummy score of 150, however, worked out to their advantage as the Cogs turned in three scores 103, 131 and 139, and the combat ended in a 2-all tie. George Williams maintained his reputation as the heaviest hitter for the Clubmen by plunking 683 pins. Tom Curvin zipped along to a 718 triple to lead the Big Five.

The Bowlrites stole a march on their old rivals, the Canadiens, by taking a 3-1 verdict last week. The winners lost the first game by 23 pins but after that were never in difficulty. Nels. Routley, lead-off man for the Canadiens, stepped along at his usual brisk canter, to lead every player in the scoring with 728 to his credit. Frank Woods started to hit them again this week, making 694 to run close behind Shaughnessy and Anthony, who toppled 707 and 705 respectively.

The Night Hawks had an easy time taking the works from the cellar position Belmonts, who had only three players. Steve Elliott and Mike Duffus led the attack for the Hawks with three game totals of 752 and 711 while Almas for the Clubmen bumped 711 also.

A meeting of all team captains in the tenpin city league will be held this week in the Board Room at the Duffus Recreation Academy, on Thursday night at 9:30, directly after the city league five pin games.

QUEBEC FINALISTS PLAY ANOTHER TIE

McGill and St. Francois Xavier Each Score One Goal.

MONTREAL, Que., March 17.—McGill University, Provincial senior champions, and St. Francois Xavier, intermediate titleholers, battled to a one-goal draw in the first of the home-and-home series last night for the Provincial championship and the right to go to the Maritimes for the Allan Cup playdowns. The series was originally scheduled as best two out of three games, but when the first game last week went 90 minutes in a goalless draw the system was changed to a home-and-home series. The decided game will be played at the Forum on Wednesday.

'NEATH SUNNY SKIES

Spicy Bits of Baseball Gossip From Majors' Camps.

John A. Heydler, president of the National League, making a tour of the training camps, remarked at Winter Haven, Fla., on the fine spirit displayed by the Phillies despite their reverses in practice tilts. The league prexy said he expected a tight race for the flag.

He thinks the strengthening of the Boston Braves' outfield—the added batting punch — will make them a factor in the race. He also had praise for the up-and-at-'em attitude of the Cincinnati infield. The Cardinals are "starting in where they left off last fall," and in his opinion are real contenders. The Cubs, Pirates, and Giants, which he hasn't seen, are also regarded as possibilities.

The new ball with the elevated stitching won't change the style of attack very much, in the opinion of Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, who are at Fort Myers, Fla. There is no sliding pit at the champions' camp, and Mack is not stressing base-running, because he thinks there will be no decided change in the attacking system this year. He looks for a lot of free swinging.

No more top-heavy schedules of spring exhibition games for the Braves who are training at St. Petersburg, Fla. Manager Bill McKechnie says that they sure help to reduce training expenses, but these heavy schedules of exhibitions are a big handicap to a team's development.

"Playing such clubs as the Yanks, Athletics, and Cards every day is too much of a hardship for my regular pitchers," the Tribesman manager says, "and doesn't afford the rookies a real chance to show what they can do."

Vernon Gomez, the man with $1,200 worth of bridgework in his mouth, is one pitcher Joe McCarthy thinks will be a big help to the New York Yankees this year. The Yanks are training at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Gomez lacked control last season and never did reach the state of effectiveness that had been predicted for him. This season he has picked up weight and, what's more, is putting the ball where he wants it.

This business of holding out for a few weeks and then coming to terms with a rush just has been too much for "Memphis Bill" Terry, slugging first baseman of the New York Giants.

Bill arrived in camp at San Antonio, Texas, only the other day just in time to catch himself a mild attack of tonsilitis.

Despite a denial from the "Big Boss," members of the St. Louis Cardinals, now at Bradenton, Fla., especially the outfielders, wondered to-day whether a deal between the Cardinals and the Cincinnati Reds was in the making. Manager Dan Howley of the Reds visited camp yesterday, supposedly in search of an outfielder. President Sam Breadon of the Cards said no deal was pending, but that failed to keep the players from speculating a bit.

Grove Meets Choates' Hardware Crew To-night

The Grove School first time is coming down from Lakefield to-night to play Choates' Juniors at the Brock Street Rink. The game is called for seven o'clock sharp.

The Grove outfit came through a long, tough schedule this winter without losing a single game, and they are confident they can trim the Choates' City League squad. The latter team are a hard bunch to defeat, and to-night's affair should be worth seeing.

The two teams will be at full strength, and a good sheet of ice is expected.

While Stewarth Heather and Thomas Lucy were seeking work at the Beckton, England, gas works they were struck by a scaffold pole and killed.

FOUR TEAMS LEFT IN RUNNING FOR CANADA'S JUNIOR TROPHY

Regina Pats and Elmwoods to Fight it Out in West—Cataracts and Ottawa in East.

FINALS NEXT WEEK.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 17. (CP)—Only four teams to-day remain in the running for the Memorial Cup, Canada's cherished junior hockey trophy. Four more stout hearted squads passed out of the championship race last night and the competition has now narrowed down to the finals in eastern and western Canada.

Regina Pats and Winnipeg Elmwoods will fight it out for the right to represent the West in the final series to be staged at Toronto next week.

The Pats, present holders of the Dominion crown, eliminated Calgary Canadiens from the playdowns through the medium of two shutouts. The first game ended in a 4 to 0 triumph for the Regina hockeyists and the second in a 1 to 0 victory. By holding the Canadiens goalless last night Kenny Campbell, eagle-eyed netguardian of the Pats hung up his sixth consecutive shut-out in the playdowns.

Elmwoods earned the right to meet the titleholders by doubling the score on Port William Westford Maroons, the final count being 4 to 2. The Winnipeg squad fought a scoreless duel with the Maroons in the first contest at the lakehead city.

Eastern Finalists

Ottawa Primroses and Niagara Falls Cataracts are the finalists in the east. The capital city youths blasted Montreal Amateur Athletic Association from their path last night at Ottawa, 6 to 3. Having won the first game at Montreal, 3 to 0, Primroses won the round, 9 to 3.

An interesting duel will likely be waged at centre ice when the teams clash, the first being carded for Wednesday. Danny Cowley, star centre of the Ottawa team, has been playing spectacularly all season. He will be opposed by Max Kaminsky, rated the greatest junior centre ice performer in the Ontario Hockey Association.

BRIAND TO VISIT AFRICA

PARIS, March 16 (A.P.).—Foreign Minister Briand and Charles Dumont, Minister of Marine, will accompany President Doumergue on his official voyage to Tunisia, French Northern Africa, during the first two weeks in April, the Council of Ministers decided to-day.

Port Arthur Gains Lead Over Winnipegs

TORONTO, Ont., March 17. (CP)—Champions of Western Canada in 1930 and Allan Cup finalists, Port Arthur seniors gained a one goal lead over Winnipegs, Manitoba's best, by defeating the latter squad, 2 to 1, in the first of their home and home series. The return fixture will be played in Winnipeg on Thursday and indications point to a thrilling struggle before a winner is declared.

Three other teams remain in the running for western honors. Trail, British Columbia representatives, who met Port Arthur in the western final last season; North Battleford, intermediate, and Regina Vics, senior champions of Saskatchewan, are the squads whose Dominion championship aspirations have not yet been blasted.

To-night the two Ottawa teams, Rideaus and Montcolms, renew their feud for the Ottawa district championship. The teams fought through 60 minutes of scoreless hockey in the first game.

GOLF NOTES.

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 17. (CP)—Finishing the first round with net scores of 80, Mrs. Duncan Coulson, Toronto, Ont., and Marian Morgan, Buffalo, N.Y., to-day lead the field of 28 players into the second round of the 72-hole Augusta Women's Invitation handicap golf tournament.

Mrs. Coulson's gross score was 94, and Miss Morgan's 88. Mrs. Coulson had a handicap rating of 14 and Miss Morgan 8.

Twenty Men Employed To Clear Railway Yard

HAVELOCK, March 17 (Examiner Correspondence)—The snow during the past week has been a veritable godsend to a large number of men who have had very little work during the present winter. Twenty men were called on to help in the work of digging out the railway switches in the Canadian Pacific yard. These men were busy for three days, working day and night, and the company's snow plow and spreader were also manned and operated in an effort to keep the tracks free for the numerous trains. On Thursday the number was reduced to about half, but these were kept busy for the balance of the week. In addition there was a rush on the railway freight service, and many who had very little call for their service were kept busy handling the grain from Port McNichol and Midland for export to the Old Land. About one hundred thousand bushels of wheat and barley are being carried every day to the seaport. During the past week the highway snowplow has been busy on the roads between Havelock and Marmora, and Havelock and Norwood.

The country mail carriers were forced to abandon automobiles and fall back on the old reliable Dobbin. The warm sun of the past few days has done a great deal to help in clearing the right of way.

GUILD HOSTESSES AT "MYSTIC TEA"

Successful Social Function Carried Out Under Auspices of Knox Church Society.

LAKEFIELD, March 17—(Examiner Correspondence).—On Wednesday afternoon the members of the Ladies' Guild of Knox United church were hostesses at a delightful "Mystic Tea" at the home of the president, Mrs. W. J. Charlton, on Regent street.

The spacious home was prettily decorated in green and white in honor of the season of St. Patrick with the daintiest of St. Patrick's favors in evidence. The guests were received by Mrs. Charlton and a very pleasant social afternoon was spent. The tea room was in charge of four pretty Irish coleens in white frocks with green and white caps and aprons, who took orders for a dainty green and white menu which was mystic indeed and one was puzzled by the list which included Chinaman's triangles, old man's delight, pigs in blankets and a long list of other mysteries.

Mrs. D. H. Charlton, Mrs. W. A. Fairbairn, Mrs. E. Hill and Mrs. G. E. Renwick were the tea room assistants and Miss Mary Adams the cashier.

In the hall three ladies presided over a table of home cooking which was very attractive and found ready sale. Mrs. George Preston, Miss Frankish and Miss B. Adams were in charge and did a thriving trade.

Don't neglect a COLD

DISTRESSING cold in chest or throat—that so often leads to something serious—generally responds to good old Musterole with the first application. Should be more effective if used once every hour for five hours.

This famous blend of oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Musterole gets action because it is a scientific "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain. Used by millions for 20 years. Recommended by doctors and nurses.

Keep Musterole handy—jars and tubes.

BETTER THAN A MUSTARD PLASTER

Mrs Robert G. Charlton also assisted during the afternoon.

Financially the results were highly satisfactory, and a great many ladies attended.

AMATEUR PLAY WELL RECEIVED

"It Happened in June" Presented By Dramatic Club of George Street Church.

ENTERTAINING STORY.

The love affairs of two young couples at Shady Grove, the home of Mrs. Branson, and the owner of Shady Grove store, was ably portrayed in a bright, modern play entitled "It Happened in June," presented by the Dramatic Club of George Street United Church in the Sunday School Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Association and the Sunday school. The play, which is directed by Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thompson, will be repeated to-night.

It consists of three acts; the first scene taking place in the combined living and dining-room of the Bransom home. On account of ill health Mrs. Branson is absent in Colorado leaving the management of the store to her daughter Betty (Irene Cox), and the management of the household to the Irish cook Mollie Jessop (Helen Burns), who is an expert cook but who also has a great flow of vocabulary and takes an important part. In the first scene Nell Crundel, a neighbor's daughter (Loretta Sedgwick) is helping her prepare the dinner for expected company, and Jim Pritchett (Claire Northey) general help around the farm, comes in. He is a simple country bumpkin who continually tries to make love to Mollie.

The next character to appear on the stage is Susie Crundell (Evelyn Miller), a great friend of Betty's who comes in and is invited to stay for dinner. The whole household and neighborhood are very much excited over the expected arrival of Charles Atkins (Wilbur Milne), handsome and of a carefree nature, whom his uncle has sent to visit at Mrs. Bransom's home, thinking in a small village he will be tamed. Previous to his coming he receives a letter from Evelina Scroggs (Musa Cox) which makes him think perhaps life there will not be without its thrills.

He arrives bringing with him a friend, Rundy Stewart (Cecil Wasson) who comes for a holiday and incidentally tries to sell insurance. Charles and Randy fall in love with Betty and Susie at first sight, and these love scenes are especially well portrayed.

The plot and pathos of the play come in when Jarvis Sneed, the meanest old man in the village and president of the bank, demands an interview with Betty and tells her that her late father owed a note for nine hundred dollars and that he intends to force payment and that she had better sell the store at once as the Norris Company, a chain store concern, are sending down a man to put the Shady Grove store out of business. The villain's part was well taken by Howard Moyer. Just at this time Charles appears on the scene and as his uncle is president of the Norris Company, he decides to take a hand in the business and defeat Jarvis Sneed's plot. He forces him to give the receipt for the payment of the note, and with the knowledge of Susie, Nell, Mollie and Jim, formulates a plan to buy the store from Betty with Randy and himself to manage it and put on a better basis, finally presenting it back to the owner.

Jarvis Sneed again visits Betty and tells her Charles is trying to defraud her and that he is the nephew of the man who was trying to drive her store to the wall. She suspects Charles and both she and Susie are so indignant that they send the boys from the house. Finally, the capable Mollie settles matters in her firm, determined way, by demanding that Betty be told the whole truth, which clears up the situation and all ends well; even Jim Pritchett succeeds in getting a kind word from Mollie, although she has not quite come to the point where she will promise to take him for her lawful wedded husband.

Altogether "It Happened in June" is a well-written play and is extremely well presented; each one seemingly being so well suited to his part.

Homer Borland, president of the Young People's Association, acted as chairman, and Mrs. C. S. Thompson, by way of introduction, gave a brief synopsis of the play.

Between acts, Miss Jean Padgett delighted the audience with two solos, "The Rosary," and "My Alice Blue Gown"; and Miss Mignon Mayneord's whistling solos were enthusiastically applauded.

GREAT REUNION TO WELCOME JELLICOE

Admiral of The Fleet, Earl Jellicoe, hero of Jutland, and leader of six million war veterans throughout the British Empire will come to Toronto in August to preside over the Biennial Conference of the British Empire Service League. The Ontario Command of the Canadian Legion is now making plans to make this momentous event the occasion of the greatest reunion of veterans ever held in Canada. The Empire delegates are coming as guests of the Canadian Legion, and plans are under way to double the membership in Ontario by an intensive campaign during the month of April.

The Peterborough Branch is joining with the other two hundred Branches of the Legion in this Province in the effort to attain this objective. A meeting of the Branch is being held on Monday, March 30th, at 8 p.m. o'clock, to undertake preliminary organization of the local campaign. Teams are to be formed and every eligible veteran in the community will be approached.

President J. Abraham of the Peterborough Branch points out that while every veteran owes it to himself and his comrades to take an active part in the work of the Legion, the events of 1931 offer a particular attraction and an opportunity. Eligible veterans, he states, are at a liberty to put in applications for membership at any time prior to the Province-wide campaign, and it is hoped that the work of the local committee will be simplified by many of them taking the step voluntarily.

The Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League came into existence in 1925 following an apeal to war veterans in Canada from the late revered Grand President of the British Empire Service League, Field Marshal Earl Haig. Several existing national and local veterans' organizations cast in their lot, and The Canadian Legion to-day has some 900 local branches and a fast-growing membership.

The Canadian Legion stands to-day as the authoritative voice of war veterans in dealing with governments—Dominion, provincial and municipal—and is accepted by them as such.

By the vigorous yet equitable drafting and presentation of legislative requirements The Legion has secured pension, treatment, employment and educational benefits that have affected and assisted practically every veteran in Canada. It is equally attentive to the interests of veterans of the Imperial as well as Canadian forces.

What The Legion Offers You

Intimate association with your comrades of active service days.

An opportunity to express yourself on matters of local, provincial, national and Empire concern—The policy of The Legion is developed from the opinions of its individual members.

Expert advice and assistance on all problems of pension, treatment, employment and all matters related to your war service.—The Legion maintains service bureaux in all its provincial commands with a central bureau at Dominion Headquarters in Ottawa. The Ontario Command has a service bureau at Provincial Headquarters, with branch bureaux at London and Windsor.

A chance to extend a helping hand to your fellow comrades and to the dependents of those good comrades who rest in Flanders Field.

The means of improving your right to the name of being a good citizen and a true patriot.

CARDINAL MAFFI PASSES IN ROME

Dies at Age of 73 After Life Spent in Pursuits of Science, Letters, Church.

HAD LINGERING ILLNESS.

ROME, March 17. — (AP) — The Roman Catholic world today mourned Pietro Cardinal Maffi, Archbishop of Pisa, who died last night at 73 after a life spent in pursuits of science, letters, and the church.

The end came peacefully after a lingering illness. Extreme unction had been administered earlier in the day and the Pope, acting for the second time within a few weeks on behalf of the dying Cardinal, sent his benediction.

Cardinal Maffi twice was spoken of as a probable selection as pontiff, but both times, once when Pius X died and later when Benedict died, he was passed up for others.

The cardinal was a close friend of the royal family, even at a time when King Victor Manuel was in a state of virtual excommunication from the church. He officiated at the wedding of Crown Prince Humbert and Princess Marie Jose of the Belgians a year ago.

He was born of well to do farmer parents in the village of Pavia on October 12, 1858. From the time of his early education he showed an aptitude for learning and was made a doctor of philosophy before he took holy orders. He became a profound student of astronomy and wrote text books on the subject which are still in use.

He was renowned for the occasional independenceof his views.

Fire Damages Plant Of Quebec Newspaper

QUEBEC, Que., March 17. (CP)—The basement and business office floor of L'Evenement, French language morning newspaper, were considerably damaged by fire to-day. The upper part of the building where the typesetting machines and telegraph equipment are located were not damaged, but a great amount of water was poured into the basement, where the printing press is located. The loss has not been estimated. Spontaneous combustion was thought to have been the cause of the fire.

Canadian Canoe Boys Originated Program

In the report of the Watercraft Minstrel Show as published in the Monday edition, the name of the Canadian Canoe Company was inadvertently omitted. This is much regretted, because it was with some of the employees of that company that the idea originated.

The director and interlocator, Delbert Lucas, as well as Homer Lundy, Frank Lundy and Byers Smith, who took active parts in the cast, are on the Canadian Canoe Company staff.

For some years now the employees and the management of the two local boat factories have united in their social activities such as bowling leagues, annual picnics, etc., and we are pleased to make special mention of the active participation of the employees of the Canadian Canoe Co. in all these events and particularly in the recent Minstrel Show.

Ventnor, Isle of Wight, with 1,867 hours, nine minutes, had the most sunshine in Britain last year.

THE SON OF TARZAN No. 14 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The killing of the Russian by this great trained ape was a nine days' wonder to all London. The paper were filled with the mystery when no trace of the missing animal could be found. But, as usual, other news soon caught the public's attention—and everyone forgot the matter. All but Tarzan of the Apes, who, after futile search for his son, realized that in some way Akut was connected with Jack's disappearance.

Just as an African-bound liner was about to sail, two last-minute passengers came aboard. One evidently was an only lady, heavily veiled, and so weakened by the infirmities of age she had to be wheeled up the gangway by a young man who stated the invalid was his grandmother. The youth would permit no one to assist him to their stateroom, and, during the long voyage, that was the last seen of the old lady until they disembarked.

The supposed grandson insisted upon doing the steward's work inside their cabin, saying the presence of strangers was more than the seasick old lady could stand. Outside the cabin—and none there was who knew what he did INSIDE—the youngster was just as any other healthy, normal boy. He mingled with the passengers, and became a favorite with the officers and men. But to the politely curious questions concerning his "grandma" he was oddly silent.

Among the passengers who sought the boy's acquaintance, with the least success, was a noted crook "wanted" in a dozen countries. He had paid little attention to the youth until one day he had seen him accidently display a large roll of bank notes. From that moment the noted blackguard schemed to find means of transferring that money to his own pocket. Clever as he was, he had been unsuccessful up to the day they landed on the African coast.

25 ADDED TO MEMBERSHIP

The quarterly Communion service which was observed on Sunday morning last, was of special significance, when some twenty-five names were added to the membership roll. Included in this number were fifteen graduates of the Sunday school, a striking tribute to the splendid work being done by a group of faithful officers and teachers. It seems particularly appropriate that such a forward step should be taken by these young people at this season of the year when Nature herself is about to blossom out in her Spring raiment. The fusion of these new members into the congregational life of Knox should be a source of encouragement to the older members and their presence will no doubt be noted in the furtherance of the work undertaken. The service itself was carried out in a most impressive manner and the sermon was in keeping with the occasion.

Tax Rate In Galt Cut Quarter Mill

GALT, Ont., March 17 (C.P.).—St. Patrick's Day brought a pleasant surprise to Galtonians when it was learned that the City Council, after a lengthy session last night, struck the tax rate at 44 mills, a reduction of a quarter mill from last year.

Generally it was expected the rate would be increased because of unemployment relief work this winter, but the co-operation of the various public bodies reduced debenture payments and careful paring of estimates made the reduction possible.

The school rate is 15 mills.

ARAB QUESTION DISCUSSED BY CLUB SPEAKER

Dr. W. R. Taylor Delivers Eloquent Talk to Local Canadian Club.

RACIAL DIFFERENCES.

Speaker Had Spent Several Years With Colonel Lawrence in Palestine.

"Problems of the Jew and Arab" was the subject of an address delivered yesterday afternoon to the local Canadian Club by Dr. W. R. Taylor, of Toronto. Dr. Taylor spoke from his experience of several years in Palestine and he dealt sympathetically with the racial and religious differences that have rent the Holy Land since the end of the Great War.

During the war the Arabs had greatly aided Colonel Lawrence in his desert battles with the Turks and as reward the Arabs were promised a free state in that region west of Damascus. The Arabs maintained that this region included Palestine.

Arabs Dispute Rights.

Earl Balfour, on behalf of the British Government, had assured the Jews that Palestine would be set apart as a home for their wandering race. Trouble immediately arose between the Jews and the Arabs as to their status in Palestine and in the racial uprisings during 1929 several hundred people were killed.

The British sent a commission to Palestine to learn some means by which the situation could be peacefully settled. The commissoin reported in favor of the Arabs, but yet the British do not intend to retract Balfour's promise to the Jews.

The difficulties are still in process of solution, stated Dr. Taylor, and the Jews and the Islam world are anxiously awaiting the final settlement.

To give work to farmers in regions having poor crops last year Spain has authorized expenditure of $1,066,500 for highway improvement.

COURT'S DECISION FINISHES DRIVE OPENED YEAR AGO

No Grounds For Interference With Convictions States Judge Latchford.

Sentenced To Portsmouth.

Two Others Who Made No Appeal Now Served 4 Months of Time.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 18.—(CP) — A unanimous decision by the Second Divisional Court today brought to a close the crusade instigated more than a year ago by the Attorney-General's Department against the operations of Toronto brokerage houses. The decision ruled that six of the eight brokers convicted and sentenced last fall, must serve their terms in penitentiary. The other two are already at Portsmouth and have concluded about four months of their terms. All convictions were registered on various counts of conspiracy and fraud.

The appeals dismissed today had been made on behalf of William J. Smart and Maurice E. Young of the Homer L. Gibson Company, sentenced to three and two and a half years, respectively; D. S. Paterson and Austin Campbell, of the D. S. Paterson Company, sentenced to three years, two years and the latter two and half years and two years; Malcolm Stobie and C. J. Forlong, of the Stobie, Forlong Company, sentenced to three and two years, and the latter two and a half years, all sentences were concurrent.

Two Made No Appeal.

James Hoppleston and W. T. H. Shutt, of the Arthur E. Moysey Company, made no appeal against their sentences of three years and two and a half years, respectively, and were removed to penitentiary, following their sentences last November. The others have since been on heavy bail pending the outcome of their appeals which actually occupied about three weeks.

I. W. C. Solloway and Harvey Mills, partners in the firm bearing their names, were arrested at the same time, and were fined $200,000 and $50,000 respectively. They will appear shortly in court again to face further charges of a similar nature.

In announcing the judgment, Mr. Justice Latchford remarked that the appeals had been similar in substance, differing only in minor respects. The court held the charges to the jury were proper in circumstance and that the accused received a trial according to law and were rightfully convicted. "We can find no grounds for interfering with the convictions and sentences," His Lordship concluded.

Canadian Air Mail Has Splendid Record

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 18.—(C.P.)—Although the regular Eastern Canada air mail service has been in operation over four years, not one piece of mail has been lost in this time, J. S. Richardson, in charge of aviation communication for the Northern Electric Company of Montreal, told members of the Electric Club here to-day.

'Although aviation here has not been developed with the rapidity that it has south of the line, nevertheless aircraft operating companies in this country have splendid records for flying," he said.

Mr. Richardson also looked forward to the time when beacon stations would be installed at various points throughout the country.

FIRE WIPES OUT ELEVATOR, MILLS IN CHATHAM CITY

Blaze is Second to Break Out Inside Twenty-four Hours.

$100,000 LOSS.

Starting in Elevator Flames Spread to Mill Roof and River Dock.

CHATHAM, Ont., Mar. 18. (CP)—The second fire to break out in the city in 24 hours last night destroyed the elevator and the milling plant of the Kent Mills, located on the embankment of the River Thames in the heart of Chatham, involving a loss estimated at more than $100,000.

The fire broke out shortly before 11 p.m., about the same time as the blaze Monday night which left the Sulman Stationary and Wallpaper establishment in ruins with a loss of probably $75,000.

Last night's blaze rivalled in intensity the conflagration which not two years ago laid the new Garner Hotel in ruins.

Starts in Elevator

The fire started in the elevator, which is occupied by the F. B. Stevens Company, dealers in seeds and grains. Within ten minutes the flames had reached the roof of the structure which was about 90 feet high.

Sheets of red hot metal toppled from the top of the doomed elevator onto the roof of the mills, setting ablaze that structure.

As red hot sheets of metal toppled from the elevator, they ignited huge piles which supported a dock in the river at the rear, and these were soon consumed. Huge clouds of steam rose from the river produced by the heat from the burning elevator.

Firemen Snuff Bomb In Havana Theatre

HAVANA, March 18. (AP). A large bomb was discovered in the Marti Theatre at Santa Clara last night but firemen smothered it with their caps before it exploded. Police searched to-day for those who placed it.

Meanwhile, Rafael Funes, a fireworks expert was sought by Captain Hidalgo, directing an inquiry into the bomb factory found yesterday by the Government in San Sebastian street. Police believeed the Cuban bombing ring had been dealt a telling blow with the raid on the house, which they padlocked.

Sealer Explodes, Killing Many Sailors

News of another tragedy of the sea has just reached civilization telling of the sinking of the sealer "Viking" amid the ice packs of the northern Atlantic. The disaster was caused by an explosion which sent the ship to the bottom, killing forty members of the crew and forcing the remaining hundred to take to the ice. The first intimation of the explosion was forthcoming when some members of the crew managed to struggle across the ice field to a lonely island. Above are two pictures, one showing seals being transferred from the hold of the Viking on a previous sealing expedition, and the other, taken from the Viking shows a sister ship and crews amid the ice looking for seals

GREAT SHAKE-UP IN BRITISH HOUSE DRAWING NEARER

Claim Lloyd George Will Join Laborites—Simon to Conservatives.

ALL PARTIES BADLY SPLIT.

Gov't Defeat on Reform Bill Blamed—Liberal Whip Resigns.

LONDON, Eng. Mar. 18. (A.P.)—Widespread stories to-day of new British party alignments, which would lead David Lloyd George to the Labor fold, and Sir John Simon to the Conservative standard greatly excited political circles.

The reports, published in the Daily Sketch and a Liberal organ, appeared to be the outgrowth of defeat of the Labor Government Monday night by four votes on a minor clause of the Electoral Reform Bill, principally because Sir John Simon and ten fellow Liberals refused to follow Rt. Hon. Lloyd George in voting with the ministry.

The Daily Sketch said that Mr. Lloyd George, disgusted with failure of the party to stand with him in maintaining the Liberal-Labor alliance, would enter the Labor cabinet as Lord Privy Seal, succeeding Vernon Hartshorn, who died a few days ago, and Hartshorn's predecessor, Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas. The Post carries with it an unofficial unemployment portfolio, which would give the Liberal Leader opportunity to advance his pet schemes on that subject.

All Badly Split

Liberals, Conservatives, and Labor Party alike are badly split, with the leadership of the nominal heads of the parties in question by insurgent factions of each. Only nineteen Liberals voted with Mr. Lloyd George and the Government on the Electoral Reform Measure Monday night, 23 were absent and unpaired, six were paired against the bill, and eleven voted outright against it.

Premier Ramsay MacDonald is said to have taken Laborites who were absent and unpaired at the time of the division severely to task in a meeting of the Parliamentary Labor Party last night, considerably more than enough having been absent to have staved off a Government defeat. It was understood he will reintroduce the clause on which he was defeated, providing for abolition of University seats in the Commons and make it a confidence measure.

This cleavage on what is regarded as essentially a piece of Liberal legislation has caused Sir Archibald Sinclair, Chief Liberal Whip, to resign his position as whip.

Viscount Grey of Falloden, whose word still carries a great deal of weight among the ranks of Liberalism, favored retention of the Government in office in a speech he made last night and "particularly on account of their overseas policy."

Police Aid in Carrying 100 Guests to Safety in Street.

LYNN, Mass., March 18. — Three persons were burned to death in fire which destroyed the interior of the Hotel Leno here early today.

Two others were believed missing while four were severely burned and another badly cut. The dead were discovered by firemen searching the debris. The blaze started in a minature golf course on the first floor and spread rapidly through the remaining four stories.

Those burned were: Florence Curdo, Frank Nelson, Lottie Clifford and Mrs. Mabel Eaton. All were taken to the Lynn Hospital suffering from serious burns about the chest, face and arms. It was impossible to determine their addresses immediately.

From 75 to 100 guests were carried and aided to the street by firemen and police officers responding to a general alarm.

The building, five stories and of brick, was occupied by stores and a miniature golf course on the first floor and the hotel on the upper four floors.

Powder In Hold Is Cause Of Explosion

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 18 (C.P.)—The tragic explosion aboard the sealing vessel Viking was attributed to-day to the ignition of blasting powder in the hold.

CAVAN FARMER IS SEEKING $10,000 AS HEART BALM

William Nill Faces $10,000 Action Before Mr. Justice Rose at Cobourg.

WITNESSES ARE CALLED.

Harold Kincaid Alleges Alienation of His Wife's Affections.

(By A Staff Reporter)

COBOURG, March 18.—Two Cavan farmers were the principals in an action for $10,000 for the alienation of a wife's affections which was begun here Tuesday afternoon in the Spring assizes of the Supreme Court of Ontario with Mr. Justice Rose presiding.

The plaintiff is Harold Kincaid, who alleges that "his wife was enticed away from him and her affections alienated" by William Nill. Both men live on the ninth concession of the township. G. N. Gordon is solicitor for the plaintiff, and the defendant is represented by G. W. Stevenson of Peterborough assisted by W. F. Johnston, also of Peterborough.

Kincaid is forty years old, and his wife several years younger. Nill is apparently in his forties, and is also married.

The two families had lived in harmony and friendship on adjoining farms until 1929, when the plaintiff, according to his testimony,declared his objections to Nill's alleged attentions to Mrs. Kincaid. This interest had begun, it was stated, during Kincaid's long illness from January until May in 1928, and had steadily increased during 1929. Kincaid said that his remonstration had no effect, that ordinary comforts and management of his home were disrupted during that time, and although his wife is still living with him their connubial relations have not been the same since his return from the hospital.

Incidentally there were no criminal cases on the assizes docket, and the jurors were dismissed after Mr. Stevenson moved that the jury notice in the case of Kincaid vs Nill be cancelled, Mr Gordon agreeing.

Kincaid On The Stand.

Harold Kincaid opened the case under examination by Mr. Gordon. His sketchy narrative went back to the days prior to his illness more than three years ago when the two families were both neighbours and friends, and traced the alleged gradual alienation down to the present, in fact until last Saturday when Kincaid saw his wife and Nill at the "hot dog" counter in Kreage's.

On August 7 last Mrs. Kincaid went to Orillia on an excursion. Kincaid didn't go because he was too busy, and also for the reason that he had been to Orillia the year before. He was not keen about going back there again so soon. He submitted a snapshot taken at Orillia showing William Nill in the centre of a group with one arm around the shoulders of Mrs. Kincaid and the other around Mrs. George Howden, who, the plaintiff said, was a friend of the Nills.

Kincaid became ill in January 1928 and was laid up until Spring. Then Mrs. Nill had to go to the hospital

JOHN R. MARSHALL ELECTED HEAD OF LOCAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PRAISES DUTTON'S WORK.

John R. Marshall was last evening elected to the presidentcy of the local Chamber of Commerce, in succession to James Dutton, who will relinquish office at the forthcoming annual meeting, and who will remain on the 1931 Board as immediate past president.

Charles S. Cummer will this year fill the position as vice-president, with J. A. McKone, treasurer.

The new Board passed a hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Dutton for his untiring work during his three years' term. It was the opinion of the Board that the Chamber of Commerce occupies a higher position in the thoughts of the citizens of Peterborough than ever before.

Mr. Dutton replies characteristically, stating that this type of public work had given him great pleasure and that he had enjoyed meeting and working with the people of Peterborough with whom the Chamber's activities had brought him in direct contact. He thanked the Board of Directors for their seeming good will and esteem and bespoke for the new president, Mr. Marshall, their same faithful adherence to duties as had been accorded himself.

Cold Reception Is Given Income Tax Bills by Members

More Than 50 Per Cent. of the Municipalities Wholly Disregard the Municipal Income Tax Law Stated Arthur Ellis, the Sponsor of te Bill in the House.

REPRESENTATIVES OF MANY CITIES AND TOWNS WERE PRESENT TO VOICE STRONG OPPOSITION

Sponsors and Members Declared That the Tax Resulted in Glaring Inequalities and That Large Industries Were Locating in Quebec Instead of Ontario.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18. —(CP)— Bills to abolish the municipal income tax or modify it met with a cold reception in the municipal committee of the Legislature today. Mayors and civic officials of a half dozen cities, representatives of labor and of boards of trade appeared to oppose them and a good many of the members of the committee were outspoken in their objections.

One bill introduced by Arthur Ellis, (Cons., Ottawa South) would abolish the tax altogether. The other also sponsored by a capital city member, A. E. Honeywell (Cons., Ottawa North) would make the imposition of the tax optional with municipalities and give them power to fix a rate for income tax apart from the general tax rate.

While the opposition was strong there was a general admission that there were inequalities in connection with the present law which should be corrected. The suggestion was advanced that a commission should be appointed to consider the whole question of taxation and the proposal of a uniform flat rate throughout the province was more favorably entertained.

More than 50 per cent of the municipalities of the province wholly disregarded the law, said Mr. Ellis. In the village of Rockliffe, adjoining the city of Ottawa for many years no income tax was collected and most of the millionaires of Ottawa lived in Rockliffe.

Glaring Inequalities

The tax resulted in glaring inequalities throughout the province, Mr. Ellis went on, owing to the different tax rates and different assessment rates in different municipalities. It was unfair, he said, that a man in one city should pay 50 mills on his income and in another 34 mills because of a different assessment system.

Industries Go to Quebec.

The tax resulted in industries going to Quebec and other Provinces which had no income tax instead of to Ontario, said Mr. Ellis. Ontario was taxing industries to death.

The Ottawa member encountered a lot of interruptions from members of the committee opposed to the Bill and Hon. Leopold Macaulay, chair

RESCUE VESSELS SEARCHING FLOES FOR MISSING MEN

TWO BADLY INJURED.

Three More Sighted on Ice, Accounting for 124 of Total on Board.

ST. JOHN'S N.F., March 18. (CP) Relief for the survivors and a check to determine the exact number of dead or missing constituted a task to-day for rescue ships lying off Horse Island, near which an explosion burned and sank the sealer Viking.

Lack of exact information regarding the number of persons aboard the 50-year-old sealing ship when a blast tore out her stern Sunday night and conflicting reports on the number who had made their way across eight miles of ice foes to the island left the number unaccounted for in doubt. Officials said they believed the final check would show approximately 20 in the death list.

Survivors Huddled on Shore

Between 118 and 124 survivors were huddled on Horse Island making the best of its meagre facilities and waiting for their rescue ships, Sagona and Foundation Franklin with doctors, nurses and food supplies to take them out.

The more seriously injured were being cared for in the five houses of the winter colony while the others made themselves as comfortable as they could on the bleak, barren island.

The steamer Sagona arrived last night but made no attempt to put a boat ashore or take off any of the injured. Aboard her were three of the survivors, rescued from a bit of the Viking's wreckage yesterday 15 miles from where the ship blew up.

They were Harry Sargent, actor-explorer of Boston, a member of Varick Frissell's motion picture expedition; Captain W. Kennedy, navigator of the Viking, and Wireless Officer C. King of the Viking. All three had suffered injuries and from their 48 hours exposure on their piece of wreckage. King was the most seriously injured with a broken leg, both feet frozen and was suffering from shock. Kennedy was suffering from burns about the head and face.

Gov't Is Questioned On Russian Embargo

OTTAWA, Ont., March 18.—(C.P.)—A series of questions in respect to the recent embargo placed on Russian commodities by the Dominion Government, has been placed on the order paper by W. Girouard, Liberal member for Drummond-Arthabaska.

"Previous to placing the embargo on imports of products from Russia, did the Canadian Government confer with Foreign Government?" he asks. "Did the Canadian Government try to induce other foreign governments to imitate Canada?"

Mr. Girouard goes on to ask if the Government received assurances from any other Government that its embargo policy would be followed by any of them. He also asks if it is the intention of the Canadian Government to order Canadian citizens who are working in Russia to return to Canada.

NEW COAL DUTY HITS U. S. HARD

New Rule Hits Portions of Exports Selling Below Prices Fixed in Canada.

ON BITUMINOUS ONLY.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 18. — (C.P.)—Already harrassed, the United States coal industry has become more so since March 14, because the invocation by Canada of a dumping order against United States bituminous coal.

An official decree authorized by the Canadian Order-in-Council, just received by the Department of Commerce here, places a value of $1 per ton on slack bituminous, and $1.25 per ton on the run of mine product, for import duty.

These values apply at point of production. When exported to Canada from Diversion Point or intermediate distributing point, all charges to such point must be added. Dumping duty applies on shipments at lower values. Imports bona fide purchased and in transit to Canada on or before March 14 are not affected.

This action is construed here as an apparent determination of Canada to prevent coal entering the Dominion which sells at a price considered by Canada to be unreasonably low. In the practical working of the plan, coal selling in the United States at less than the value fixed in Canada will be subjected to additional duty equivalent to difference between the invoice mine price and the value as fixed by them.

The event of injury to the United States coal industry will be governed by that portion of their exports selling below the prices fixed in Canada. Whether the edict will succeed in keeping out of Canada even this portion is speculative.

Shipments of bituminous to Canada average between fifteen and sixteen million tons annually, but no statistics are available as to what percentage of this amount would come within the scope of the dumping action.

Premier Ably Defends His Policies

BENNETT RELIES ON SAME POLICY FOR NEXT PARLEY

Premier Bennett Tells House of Commons Carrying Out Laurier Policies.

HIGHER TARIFF EXPECTED.

Ably Defends Policy Followed at Recent Imperial Conference.

OTTAWA, March 18.—(CP)—What was accepted as a renewed intimation of a substantial upward tariff revision at the present session of Parliament, coupled with an announcement that he would continue to hold the finance portfolio himself for at least another six months, was contained yesterday in the slashing counter-attack by Premier R. B. Bennett upon the Liberal Opposition.

The Prime Minister fairly took the wind out of his opposition critics when, answering the charge of Empire disruption launched yesterday by Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, he demonstrated that the reciprocal tariff proposals enunciated at the recent Imperial Conference were essentially the same in content and delivery as the preferential tariff principle which all Liberals proudly recall Sir Wilfrid Laurier as laying down at the conference of 1902.

Denounces Innuendo

Mr. King's innuendo regarding "special interests" and possible contributions by Canada to the upkeep of the British navy were denounced by the Premier as a revival of time-honored Liberal appeals to class, racial and sectional prejudice. Mr. Bennett asserted that the Unemployment Relief Act and the September tariff revision, seen by Mr. King as a sop to "special interests", had given work to more than 200,000 Canadians.

"Humbug", the expression first used by Rt. Hon. J. H. Thomas regarding Mr. Bennett's proposals and employed yesterday by Mr. King in gibing at the Prime Minister, was thrown back at the Opposition with even greater force by Mr. Bennett.

What other word but this, he asked in effect, could anyone use with regard to Mr. King's present horror of the present Government's Russian trade embargo as compared to his own administration's action in severing official relations with Russia in 1927? What word, he asked again, might be so fitly applied to the Opposition leader's cry for national unity at the very moment when he was stirring up prejudice with talk of "special interests" and naval contributions? Fifty per cent. more Canadian wheat had been sold in Britain under the present Government during the past seven months than in the corresponding seven months last year under the King Government. But the price for this year's greater quantity of sold wheat was 25 per cent. below the total price of what sold in the corresponding period last year.

Mr. Bennett blamed this lower price on the enormous amount of wheat offered by Russia at prices below the Canadian cost of production. This price-killing by Russia was advanced by him as one of the reasons for Canada's recent embargo on Russian products.

Russian Wheat the Cause

Why the difference in prices? demanded Mr. Bennett; why had the price of wheat fallen so easily? This was the crux of the whole problem. Canadian wheat was not the first to fall; it was the Russian wheat that went to the British market.

"Because you didn't take Russian coal," interjected John Vallance (Lib., South Battleford).

"The honorable gentleman forgets we are taking Welsh anthracite," retorted the Prime Minister, "and that it is coming into Canada because the unfair competition of Russian coal has been removed."

Those mutterings of discontent with the truth were nothing new, Mr. Bennett added.

The result of the free introduction of Russian wheat into the British market had spoiled that market for Canadian wheat, and the same had applied to Canadian exports of lumber due to the importations of timber from the districts of the Volga and north Russia.

When he was in England, continued the Premier, he had ascertained what cargoes of wheat had come into the United Kingdom during his sojourn there. He had found that the price at which these cargoes were sold was lower than the costs of production, and that 200,000,000 bushels were being offered, with 60,000,000 bushels sold. There was now a threat of larger importations. It was the free introduction of that wheat which, fixing the price of foreign wheat, had made it impossible for Canadians to compete.

TWEED SCORES HYDRO CONTRACTS IN LEGISLATURE—COOKE TO REPLY

Contracts Let at Prices Which Were Extremely Favorable to Companies.

FORTY YEAR TERMS.

TWEED, March 18.— S. C. Tweed, Liberal, charged in the Legislature yesterday afternoon that two private power corporations had been enabled to sell their bonds and build huge private power plants by being granted contracts by the Ontario Hydro Commission for large blocks of electrical energy—at prices which were "extremely favorable."

So favorable were these prices, declared Mr. Tweed, that one company was able to offer $20,000,000 worth of bonds for sale on the printed plea that the net revenue from its Ontario contract would equal the annual interest charges on the issue. Another company, he charged, had been enabled to offer for sale $18,000,000 worth of first mortgage bonds with the printed allurement that its net earnings from its Ontario Hydro contract would be more than 1½ times the amount required to pay interest on the total authorized amount.

During the closing hours of the day's debate, in replying to a question by J. F. Sangster (Liberal, Glengarry), Hon. J. R. Cooke, Minister of Hydro, and chairman of the Commission, declared his intention of replying to the remarks about the Commission which had been voiced

FORMAL PROTEST IS SENT TO U. S. ON JOSEPHINE K

Ottawa Claims Rum Runner Was More Than Hour's Run From Shore.

Fatal Shooting Questioned.

Not Expected That I'm Alone and Present Case Will Be Merged.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 18 (C.P.). — A second major diplomatic problem between Canada and the United States has resulted from prohibition enforcement efforts of the coastguard.

Formal protest from Ottawa concerning the firing on and seizure of the Canadian rumrunner Josephine K. was on its way to-day to the coastguard and the Prohibition Bureau for answer.

The protest, received and acknowledged yesterday by the State Department, contended the rum runner was more than an hour's sailing distance from shore in January when she was fired on by the coastguard cutter CG-145 off New York.

Question Shooting.

The hour's sailing distance is embodied in a treaty as the limit to which United States ships may pursue, seize and search suspected rum runners. Canada's note also questioned the justification of the action which led to the fatal shooting of the Josephine K.'s captain, William P. Cluett.

The note must be considered by the Treasury Department's coastguard service and the Justice Department's Prohibition Bureau before formal reply is made.

The first major diplomatic incident resulting from prohibition enforcement followed the sinking of the I'm Alone off the Louisiana coast in 1929. After some consideration the protest was referred to arbitration. It is expected the I'm Alone and Josephine K cases will not be merged.

Houde Makes Charge, Sticks To His Guns

QUEBEC, Que., March 18.—(C.P.)—A flare-up last night in the Quebec Legislature during the course of which Hon. Camillien Houde, Leader of the Conservative Opposition, charged that Hon. Athanase David, Provincial Secretary, was a member of a syndicate which would benefit by an amendment to the Quebec Co-operative Syndicate Act. Peter Bercovitch, (Lib.-St. Louis Montreal), declared Mr. Houde had issued a charge which he should substantiate or else be prepared, to resign.

Mr. Houde declared he would be prepared to submit the matter to a tribunal of three, one chosen by the Government, one by the Opposition, and the other to be picked by the two appointees.

SUPPLIES FADING AT POINT BARROW

Police Force Doubled as Natives Grow Restless Under Quarantine.

NEW CASES BREAK OUT.

POINT BARROW, Alaska, March 18.—The fight against diphtheria epidemic raging here the last two weeks has suffered a setback with the discovery of two new serious cases, the natives restless under quarantine, and food and hospital supplies shrinking fast.

All available hospital space was filled to-day, and Dr. Henry Griest was compelled to return to their homes all cases showing the slightest improvement. This situation resulted in the serious relapse of one patient.

The financial depression caused a 50 per cent cut in appropriations to the Presbyterian Hospital here, Dr. Griest said, resulting in a shortage of food and supplies.

Captain Perdersen of Oakland, Cal., commander of an Arctic trading vessel and representing the Northern Whaling Trading Company, wired Dr. Griest to draw on company funds up to $1,000.

Restlessness of the natives, who dislike the precautionary actions of the whites and fail to understand the seriousness of the situation, caused the police force to be doubled.

LONDON, March 18.— (A.P.)—A conference between British, Japanese and United States naval plenipotentiaries on the recent Franco-Italian-British naval accord was foreseen here to-day.

Tokyo ordered its counsellor of its Embassy at Paris, Mr. Muriyama, to come to London, as an observer empowered to make suggestions in naval conversations, while Senator Morrow arrived here yesterday from New York with American views of the new pact.

It was understood, however, that neither Mr. Morrow nor Mr. Kuriyama, will take an active part in drafting the projected five power agreement, this work being left to the British, French and Italian experts who are largely responsible for the success thus far of the new agreement.

STATESBORO, Ga., March 18.—Because he played a "practical joke" by performing a sham wedding ceremony for two high school students, William Newman, church worker and professed minister, must serve a three months' sentence on the chain gang. The penalty was imposed after two ministers brought charges against Newman for performing a wedding ceremony without a license.

Ralph Gay, eighteen, and Miss Jimmie Lee Johnson, seventeen, appeared at Newman's home one night and Gay took Newman to one side and persuaded him to perform a ceremony.

Communists and Mutinous Soldiers Ravage Country Along Yangtse.

TROOPS ON WAY.

SHANGHAI, March 18. — (AP) — The slaughter of 3,000 peasants in a Communist uprising along the Hueph Szechwan border was reported in Chinese dispatches today.

Nationalist Government military forces at Shasi, Hupeh Province, were reported to have undertaken an expedition against the Reds. The scene of the uprising was designated as north of the Yangtse River in the border area mentioned. The area was said to have been pillaged.

Communists and mutinous soldiers severed the Peiping-Hankow railway at the Hupeh-Honan border and ravaged the countryside. The disorders were said to be continuing there.

BROTHER IS HERO SISTER CREDITED

TELLS WORLD OF TRAGEDY.

HORSE ISLAND, N.F., March 18 (C.P.). — Sisters sometimes get the credit for the work their brothers do, and that's how Miss O. Bartlett's name was blazoned on front pages of newspapers as the heroine of the Viking disaster.

She had been an amateur wireless operator on this lonely island for two years until this Christmas, and had been used occasionally by the Newfoundland Postal Telegraph Company. This Christmas she left the island, but her brother quietly carried on her work and never thought to have the name changed on the telegraph company records.

So it was in her name that the first messages of the fatal explosion which tore the sealer Viking apart trickled through to the world, but it was her brother who tapped tirelessly out the first details, working 18 hours on end without sleep to tell of the disaster. And he never thought of credit until the telegraph company straightened out his identity.

New York Syndicate Buys Feldspar Find

RENFREW, Ont., March 18 (C.P.), — Rights to a large body of feldspar in Fraser Township, stumbled upon by three hunters last fall, have been sold to a syndicate of Plattsburgh, N.Y., it is reported here, and immediate development is in prospect. The price at which the fortunate trio sold was not divulged.

The quantity of feldspar available at the prospective mine, located some 25 miles from here, is said to be extensive. Three Beachburg Village men—John T. Collins, Osborne Collins, and Robert Davidson—reported discovery of the mineral bed after a hunting trip.

Soong Would Revise China's Export Tariff

NANKING, China, March 18.—(AP)—T. V. Soong, Chinese finance minister, submitted to the central political council today a memorandum proposing a revision of the export tariff schedule.

Soong suggests that old export tariff rates collected ad valorem shall remain at 7.5 per cent but that export duties collected according to quantity be increased from 3 to 5 per cent.

The memorandum points out that a deficit of $143,000,000 Mexican is expected for the current fiscal year and that urgent measures are necessary to meet the financial stringency.

MISSIONARIES KILLED.

HONG KONG, March 18 (C.P.).—The murder of two United States women missionaries, Mrs. C. B. Miller of Glendale, California, and Mrs. Dallas R. White, St. Helena, Cali., at Yunnanfu Sunday night was reported in a telegram from that city to-day. No details were available immediately. The two women were Seventh Day Adventist missionaries.

SEALING SHIPS AID IN SEARCH FOR SURVIVORS

Believed Lost Shipmen of Viking May Be Found Among Ice Floes.

SOME INJURED.

Cast Adrift Following Explosion of Sealer on Sunday Night.

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 18. — Hope that more survivors of the sealer Viking, which sank in White Bay, Newfoundland, Sunday night, will be found among the ice floes and on floating wreckage, was expressed in a telegram to-day from Bowring Brothers, Ltd., of St. Johns, Newfoundland, owners of the boat, to their New York offices.

The message added that other sealing steamers of the fleet to which the Viking belonged and from which it had become separated at the time of the explosion, had succeeded in returning through the ice-filled Strait of Belle Isle to aid in the search. The message said:

"Other sealing steamers have returned to search for missing men from the Viking.

"The doctor of the relief steamer which arrived off Horse Island last night reported that Harry Sargent (Boston explorer who was rescued with two others from wreckage yesterday) is suffering from an eye affliction, but that it does not appear to be serious. His condition is said to be the best of the three men found on the floating wreckage.

"Believe there is some chance of finding a few more survivors. The area will be well searched.

Air Trip Incomplete Passenger Asks $1,000

BOSTON, Mass., March 18.— The failure of an airplane to reach an agreed upon destination was the basis of a suit against the Airport Corporation for the return of a $1,000 fare in municipal court yesterday.

Charles Dane of Medford paid that sum in advance for an airplane trip from Boston to Harbor Grace, N. F., in July 1928. In his suit he alleges that the plane landed him in Moncton, N. B., and he was forced to complete the journey by train and boat.

Although $350 of the original deposit was returned, the suit was tried on the theory that the total fare should be refunded because the passenger was not delivered at his destination in accordance with the contract.

GANDHI REFUSES REQUEST

BOMBAY, India, March 18 (A.P.)—Mahatma Gandhi to-day refused to allow his admirers to immortalize him in stone.

Writing Nationalists at Ahmadabad who wished to erect a marble monument in the centre of the city to commemorate his services to India, he said that the money which might be spent in such a statue could far more appropriately be devoted to "ameliorating the deplorable condition of the poor."

Mother, Fearing Chair, Picks Life Term for Her Son

BARDSTOWN, Ky., March 18 (C.P.).—A life sentence rather than trial and the risk of the electric chair was chosen Monday by a Detroit mother whose son was charged with murder.

The decision had to be made by Mrs. Agnes Piotrowsky, whose son, Anthony, had seen his companion sentenced last night to die in the chair and had asked her whether he should accept the commonwealth's offer of life in the penitentiary or go to jail and risk the chair.

Through Anthony's attorney the mother gave her decision over the telephone in a couple of hours and Judge Tudor then sentenced him to the State Reformatory at Frankfort.

OBITUARY

WILLIAM J. ROBINSON.

HASTINGS, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — The death took place on Friday, February 13, of William Joseph, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, at the age of 2 months 13 days.

MRS. ORRA VARCOE.

ROSENEATH, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — It was with feelings of deep sadness that it became known by citizens of Alnwick Township and surrounding districts that Mary Ellen King, wife of Orra Varcoe, a highly respected resident, had passed away at her home recently, after two days' illness at the age of 62. Mrs. Varcoe had not been in very good health for some time, and it had been apparent all winter that she was failing, yet no one realized that death was so near. In the passing of Mrs. Varcoe Roseneath and district loses one of its noble residents and a faithful friend and counsellor to the community. She devoted a great deal of her time to church activities. A faithful worker in the Woman's Missionary Society, she radiated a spirit of cheerfulness wherever she went, making a host of friends. Her life was busy doing for others. She was ever responsive to the call of suffering or need, and in homes of sickness, in scenes of rejoicing, in the services of the church, her tokens of love were sent with a lavish hand, and many were the words of cheer, the kindly deeds, which endeared her to all.

The funeral was held on Friday, afternoon from her late residence, and was largely attended. Interment was made in Merrill's Cemetery. Rev. R. W. Paton, M.A., was the officiating clergyman for the simple but impressive service, speaking briefly from the 7th and 8th verses of the 4th chapter of the Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day, and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing." Rev. Mr. Paton gave a few touching remarks of the deceased, when he said: "We are to-day paying our last respects to the life of one whose conception of the Christian life was very similar to that of St. Paul, one who was ever ready to help her neighbor and please her Saviour. The one gleam of light that beams in upon our sadness to-day is the hope we have in the life everlasting. We remember the words of our Master, "I am the resurrection and the life, whosoever believeth on me shall never die." And as we think of the departed loved one, we not only take the backward look to her life that she has lived in the flesh, but we also take the forward look to the glory of the Throne of God. With the eye of our faith fixed upon Jesus Christ, we look forward to that great union, when again we shall be united with our loved ones, and with them shall stand around the great white throne of God. Her favorite hymns were sung, those beautiful old hymns, "Rock of Ages," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

The pall-bearers were her neighbors, Messrs. C. Radley, A. Halstead, C. Grigg, C. Thackeray, A. Mouncey, and W. Arnold. The floral tributes were beautiful, among them being a spray from the W.M.S. and one from the Women's Institute.

Besides her sorrowing husband, there are left to mourn her loss her only son Clarence W., his wife and little daughter Gwendolyn, who lives in the home, and two daughters, Mrs. Andrew Comfort of Hamilton, Ont., and Mrs. Louis E. Murrell of Chicago, Ill., also three sisters, Mrs. W. McColl and Mrs. F. Fry of Norwood, and Mrs. F. Sims of Chicago, and two brothers, J. G. King of Carstairs, Alta., and Bruce King of Dartford. Friends from a distance who attended the funeral were Mrs. Fred Fry and son, Mr. Ray Fry of Norwood; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce King, Dartford, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Morrison, Miss Joy Morrison of Norwood, Messrs. Charles, Harry, and Ezra Peters, Hastings, Mrs. W. Heal, Peterborough, Mr. Roy King, Hastings, Mrs. Fred Goodknecht of Owosso, Mich., Mr. William Ball of Ayr, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. W. Arnold, Cobourg, Mrs. A. Comfort and family Trevor and Maxine, of Hamilton, and Mrs. L. Murrell and daughter Dolores of Chicago.

The remains arrived Saturday, via C.P.R., from Detroit, Mich., to Havelock. Interment was made at Maple Grove Cemetery.

EARL DAINARD

HASTINGS, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence).—The funeral took place in Belleville on Tuesday afternoon of a former resident of Hastings, Earl Dainard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dainard, who for a number of years resided in Hastings.

The deceased was laid to rest with full military honors; many of the surviving members of the 2nd Battalion which deceased served with in France were present. Rev. H. B. Hall of the United Church had charge of the service, during which Miss Ethel Williams sang "Nearer My God to Thee."

CHICAGO GRAIN.

CHICAGO, March 18.— Sharp setbacks in grain prices resulted late yesterday from enlarged selling of wheat future deliveries. North American wheat export business was at a standstill and favorable reports about 1931 domestic winter wheat South-west suggested big new yields increasing the present unwieldy surplus. Corn price bulges failed to hold in the face of wheat weakness.

Wheat closed heavy, unchanged to 1¼c lower; corn, ¾c to 1⅝c down; oats, unchanged to ⅝c up, and provisions, 2c to 10c advance.

TORONTO PRODUCE.

TORONTO, March 18.— Egg prices on the Toronto market crashed again yesterday. Country shippers suffered another reduction, and retailers benefited another cent per dozen. Graded eggs were down a cent from Monday's levels, and brokers found supplies difficult to move on the new basis. There were reports of sales at prices more than 1c below Monday's quotations.

Egg Prices.

Country shippers were quoted 19c for extras, 17c for firsts, and 15c for seconds, delivered, ungraded, cases returned. Retailers were offered, extras, in cartons, at 27c per dozen, extas, loose, 25c; firsts, loose, 23c; and seconds, loose, 20c. Brokers offered graded eggs, in free cases, at 23c for extras; 20c for firsts, and 18c for seconds. Receipts were reported as being heavy at country points, and the demand locally was not nearly strong enough to take care of supplies on hand. Many were of the opinion that retailers could help to a great extent by lowering their asking prices in accord to prices quoted them. Yesterday retailers were asking, and getting, 35c to 40c per dozen for fresh extras.

Butter.

The trade in butter was steady enough, in comparison with previous dull periods, but the best inquiry was for No. 2 creamery, solids. Supplies changed hands at steady prices, in most cases, with a fairly good inquiry for No. 1 at 31c, and No. 2, at 30c, and brokers asking a ¼c better, or 31¼c for No. 1 and 30¼c for No. 2.

Cheese.

Cheese was moving slowly at the steady prices of 14¾c for new large 15c for twins, and 15¼c for triplets, colored, paraffined, Government graded. Retailers were quoted 16c for new large, 16¼c for twins, and 16½c for triplets.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, March 18. — Wheat prices moved within a narrow range here yesterday, and the session was without feature. Quotations at the close were ⅝c to 1¼c lower for the day.

Support, with the exception of a little buying for foreign account, was light and of a mixed character. Offerings were again limited. Overnight export business was disappointing, and confined to a few scattered loads.

A few parcels of cash wheat changed hands, but transactions were small. Offerings, however, were limited, and spreads remained firm.

In the coarse grain section, small lots of oats were sold for domestic use, but actual buisness was negligible in other grains. Trading was narrow, with prices moving within a narrow range.

Given Two Months For Selling Liquor

LINDSAY, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—At yesterday's session of Police Court, Vance Daynes, a former resident of Peterborough, was sentenced to two months in the county jail on the charge of selling liquor. Daynes, it appears, had purchased a gallon of wine, and when interrogated by Provincial Constable Porter the date of purchase regarding the disposal of same, stated that he had given it to a "man in Haliburton."

Terrified Woman Leaps Out Window As Robbers Enter

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 (C.P.). — Terrified by two robbers who escaped with $18.00, Mrs. B. Chalk leaped from the window of her home, shrieking for police. She clutched at a window ledge as she fell, and escaped with a shaking up and a fractured or broken ankle.

To an officer who responded to her cries, Mrs. Chalk related a tale of the dog who bit the hand that fed it. She claimed she was robbed of the only money in the house, earned by her son, snow shovelling. One of the intruders, she said, was Andrew Johnston, a homeless man who had been given a bed by her son. Police immediately began a search for Johnston and his confederate.

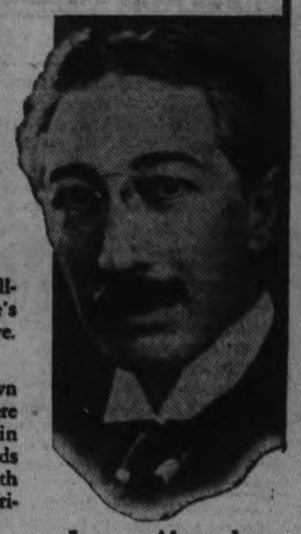
"Colgate's is by far the best cleanser" says Jerome Alexander, B.S., M.Sc.

Fellow A.A.A.S.; Member American Institute Chemical Engineers; Pioneer Worker with the Ultra-microscope; Specialist in Colloid Chemistry.



Jerome Alexander says:

"I found that Colgate's exhibits the lowest surface-tension. Because of this, Colgate's penetrates into the tooth fissures, flooding away impurities which cause trouble. Therefore, Colgate's is by far the best Cleanser."

Jerome Alexander

LET the tests—the scientific experiments of Jerome Alexander convince you, as they have convinced him, that Colgate's cleans teeth better.

Jerome Alexander made impartial, exhaustive studies of the cleansing action of well-known dentifrices. Colgate's was undeniably more effective. Why?

Because Colgate's gets down into the tiny crevices where decay begins. Because—in Jerome Alexander's own words—"It penetrates into the tooth fissures, flooding away impurities which cause trouble."

Jerome Alexander's research agrees with the findings of such noted authorities as Dr. Hardee Chamblis Dean of the School of Sciences, Catholic University of America; Dr. Allen Rogers, head of the Department of Industrial Chemical Engineering, Pratt Institute; and others of equal fame.

The price is important—but the quality—not the price—has held Colgate leadership for 30 years.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 1931

NOTHING TO BE GAINED.

Col. S. C. Robinson, Conservative member for Essex West, proposes to precipitate a discussion in Parliament over the question of liquor exports to the United States.

The member from the Windsor district will introduce a resolution suggesting the repeal of the amendment to the Excise Act prohibiting such exports, and in substitution the negotiating of a treaty "for which Canada will get something in return for the loss of revenue this country is suffering in consequence of our good-will gesture which apparently the United States does not appreciate."

It is difficult to see how anything can be gained by re-opening this question at the present time.

It is true that Canada has lost considerable revenue by prohibiting exports of liquor to our neighbors.

It is probably true that the step has not materially interfered with thirsty Americans securing Canadian liquor.

It may be true that Canada's action in this connection is not appreciated as it should be over the border.

But the fact remains that in declining to be partners in operations that defied the laws of a neighboring nation Canada has regained her own self-respect and has no decision to sacrifice it anew for the revenue she might obtain in the process

Threshing out old straw in Parliament over this matter is merely wasting the time of the House, which has got more important things to deal with.

THE RUSSIAN SITUATION.

The point raised by E. W. Beatty, K.C., president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in his Toronto speech the other night that the federal authorities and the Canadian Chamber of Commerce should consider it their duty to secure the fullest and most accurate information in regard to the Russian situation, is well taken.

The Russian experiment is a matter of tremendous importance to the rest of the world, and it should be the responsibility of the various Governments to know as much as possible about its details.

Soviet Russia, it can be assumed, knows a good deal more about Canadian affairs and Canadian conditions than this country is allowed to know about similar matters in Russia, and that is not a particularly healthy situation.

The president of the C.P.R. was frank in his dealing with the subject of trading with Russia.

If the ambition of the Soviet is "to destroy the political and commercial foundations upon which this country and all other civilized countries have been built," said Mr. Beatty, "it is inconceivable that we should treat Russia as a friendly competitor."

"If this is true, and if the so-called five-year plan can only succeed with the direct or indirect assistance of other nations of the world," he continued, "it is reasonably clear that assistance should not be extended from this country."

CONTROLLING NATIVE WINE.

Any hope that the grape growers of Ontario may have entertained of having the permit system as affecting the sale of native wine removed has undoubtedly been killed by the annual report of the Liquor Control Board which shows that the sale of domestic wines in a year in which the consumption of other beverages decreased jumped 17 per cent.

The board is emphatic in its reference to the necessity of maintaining the control system as it applies to the sale of wines produced in the Province.

"In the opinion of the board," reads the report, "no change ought to be made.

"Unfortunately, there are only too many cases showing that the sales of wine, heavy in alcoholic content, ought to be subject to proper measures of control, and the results of excessive drinking of wines, averaging 27 per cent. alcoholic content, are just as disastrous to the drinkers and their families, whether the wine is a native production or not. Under no possible principle is it just to apply the permit system to 9.5 beer and not to 27 per cent. wines."

That view, The Examiner feels sure, expresses the opinion of most people, and the grape growers and the winery proprietors might as well accept the situation and abandon what is obviously a hopeless attempt to bring about a condition that is decidedly not in the general interest.

The very fact that sales of domestic wines have increased by 17 per cent. is sufficient justification in itself for keeping such sales under control.

THE LIQUOR BOARD'S REPORT.

The annual report of the Liquor Control Board, covering the operations for last year, should be regarded as fairly satisfactory, even by those who are opposed to the whole system of Government sale.

The fact that there was a falling off in sales of over three million dollars, that less hard liquor was sold and that there was a decrease in the number of permits sold to residents of Ontario, while accounted for to a great extent, of course, by economic conditions, is certainly not an indication that Ontario is fast becoming a Province made up of drinkers as some people have said.

A drink bill of over fifty-two million dollars is admittedly not something to rejoice over, but from a purely selfish viewpoint there should be some consolation in the situation, as revealed by the report, that one out of every five permits issued in Ontario is purchased by a non-resident, and that tourists from over the border undoubtedly contribute a large sum to the annual total.

No new stores or beer warehouses were opened during the year, and the end of December found three fewer breweries in operation than there were twelve months before.

The report so far as it goes indicates that the board has not relinquished its efforts to make good on its policy that no one abusing liquor should be allowed it.

In reviewing its operations, however, the board should be given greater latitude, and should be allowed to state, for example, the amount of sales to non-resident permit holders and the sales at the various vendor's stores throughout the Province.

THE WHEAT SITUATION IN CANADA.

The Round Table, a quarterly review of the politics of the British Commonwealth, the March issue of which has just come to hand, has a most interesting review of the Canadian wheat situation. This magazine points out that while nearly all of our basic industries have been adversely affected, the most serious shrinkage has been that of our wheat crop.

In 1929 Canada exported $367,491,000 worth of wheat. In 1930, however, this had shrunk to $168,289,000, which means that Canada had two hundred million dollars less to spend in 1930 than she had in 1929. This was due to many causes, including the drop in price, the competition of Russia and the Argentine, and, in the opinion of The Round Table, of bad management on behalf of the Pool. The Round Table does not by any means condemn the Pool, but it points out one big mistake which it made. That was in deciding in 1929 to act as its own selling agent in Europe, and to dispense with the services of the long-established agencies which had previously acted for it. This turned these agencies into competitors, and seriously affected the market for Canadian wheat.

While The Round Table admits that the present situation is a deplorable one, it sees reason for great encouragement in the spirit of the western farmer. The farmer of the West is not talking, but working, and The Round Table believes that he will survive the present difficulties, and will, despite all competition, eventually come out on top again.—Kingston Whig-Standard.

THE INCOME TAX MUDDLE.

The municipal council has expressed itself in opposition to the bill now before the Legislature seeking the abolition of assessment of income by municipalities, very probably on the ground that the civic revenues would be adversely affected in the event of this bill becoming law. That this would be the case, and that municipalities now assessing income would have to raise the general rate of taxation to make good the deficiency, cannot be denied. Yet it must be remembered that assessment of income for taxation purposes is by no means practised by every municipality throughout the Province. Indeed, it is said that there are not less than 422 municipalities which do not now collect such a tax, and these municipalities are not confined to rural ones, but embrace several urban centres. It is contended by those seeking abolition of the municipal income tax that communities which do not impose an income tax possess a distinct advantage over others in which such a tax is collected when there is any competition for industries, and it is further contended that there is no justification for the tax because it is not for payment of any service received by the person paying it. It is, moreover, very largely a duplication of the income tax imposed by the Dominion Government and many of those paying it object, and object strenuously, to having their income taxed twice over.

As the Stratford Beacon-Herald also points out, there is probably more inequality in the municipal income tax than in the federal tax. A municipality has not the same power to search out income as has the Dominion; no municipality could keep an organization in existence to secure all the taxes which might come from assessable incomes, and for that reason there are in every municipality only a section of the residents paying this tax. They are generally those whose incomes can be readily ascertained from the records of the companies where they are employed, or from the books of the municipal corporation itself.

It is also a fact mentioned by the Stratford newspaper that municipal income tax is not in payment for any service rendered by the municipality. There is a certain amount levied against property for school purposes, for debenture rates, etc., and the amount of that tax is full payment for what the owner of the property in question has received from the city. The municipal income tax is merely a forced gift to the municipality by those whose incomes are already taxed for Dominion purposes.

Not withstanding all of these arguments, it does not seem apparent that the Legislature will be doing something for the benefit of the urban municipalities of the Province as a whole if it assents to the bill now being debated before it. It may be quite true that there is a good deal of hit and miss in the application of the tax. It may also be quite true that some communities which do not impose this tax have an advantage over others that do. But, under a strict interpretation of the act, all of the 422 municipalities throughout the Province in which income tax is not collected are living in open defiance of the law and nothing is ever done to force them to make collection on income account. And, furthermore, the municipalities in which the tax is collected have so arranged their expenditures that they are dependent upon this source of revenue. If it be removed, there can be no alternative, unless their services are to be radically cut to a pronounced elevation of the general rate of taxation, affecting those with small incomes perhaps more than those with large ones. The municipalities need the revenue which they derive from their income taxes. They cannot get along without it. If they are unable to procure it through the application of an income tax, they must obtain it through the general taxes, and those taxes would have to be increased very materially to make good the shortage. The income tax now helps to keep down the tax rate for the benefit of the man with the small income. Remove it and he would have to pay more, and the individual with the large income would probably have to pay less. —Brockville Recorder and Times.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

The British Labor Government may be down, but certainly it is not out.

Mr. Mackenzie King's contribution to the debate on the Speech from the Throne was a speech of four hours and a half. Looks like there ought to be a few Hansard jobs open soon.

It is up to Hon. Peter Heenan to protest at the way Northern Ontario hockey teams are being taken for a ride in the annual play-offs.

Poll tax in the village of Delhi has been doubled because there are so many single men there. It is hoped this announcement will not cause a rush of hopeful spinsters to Delhi.

There is one good feature about it. Private members cannot follow Mr. King's example, thanks to the half-hour time limit on their speeches.

Hockey relations between Toronto and Boston suggest that W. D. Herridge, Canada's new envoy to the United States, might tackle the problem of restoring peace.

Baseball magnates are not worrying so much this year over the number of home runs Babe Ruth may make as they have about the number of times the turnstiles will click.

The Red-Headed Goddess

The youngsters performed for almost an hour, doing stunts that took her breath away as she watched. They would sweep by her, erect and fearless, and then—in the wink of an eye—they had disappeared, and nothing was to be seen of them over or under the flanks of their rushing horses. Then, abruptly, the ponies would wheel and trot demurely by her once more to reveal the grinning boys somehow hanging by mane and stirrups on the other side.

They could hang hidden from either side with equal ease. They could ride standing up on their horses when they galloped at full speed. They could jump to the ground and over their racing ponies from one side to the other in a succession of several jumps. They could do anything Lorraine had ever thought of, and many more tricks besides. It was a superb exhibition of extraordinary skill, and Lorraine ached to show her appreciation and praise in some way. She managed of course, by her vehement manner of enthusiasm, to convey to them her admiration; but she wanted to do more than that. She wanted to return in some measure their thoughtfulness in entertaining her, but she could do nothing, could say nothing, and could give nothing, so she felt quite disconsolate until unexpectedly—and in a rather amusing fashion—an opportunity was given her.

For when the boys dropped, panting and hot, onto the desert sands, She-Who-Sees-Far said something and pointed with her bony finger to a figure toiling toward them from the distance. There was at once an outbreak of chatter, to which Lorraine listened attentively, concluding, finally, that the person approaching was known to them. In some curiosity, while the boys rested and the men smoked and the women calmly waited, she watched the horse and rider draw near

He proved to be a young lad returned from a trading post whither he had taken a collection of Indian blankets and silver ware to trade for American goods. The families, always easily aroused, gathered about him in quite a stir of excitement to see what he had brought back. By his shy, self-conscious manner, Lorraine guessed this to be his first trading expedition, and she watched with bright, amused gaze to see what effect his success or failure would produce.

To the men, he handed money enough for their satisfaction; to the children, he brought candy that delighted them; to the girls, he hesitatingly proffered stockings, strings of beads and gay handkerchiefs; while to the women he brought food, canned goods of all kinds, boxes of crackers, slabs of bacon, sugar and a couple of loaves of bread. Seeing them, Lorraine's mouth watered. How long since she had eaten baker's white bread?

All went well until one woman—Lorraine wondered if it was his mother—discovered a box that mystified her. Holding it up she demanded angrily to know what it was. The boy apparently could not explain to her satisfaction and, in a fury, she hurled the box at his head. Like a flash he ducked, and the package landed in the sand at Lorraine's feet, where she sat patting her baby lamb. Picking it up curiously, she read the label—"Snowball popcorn."

"Oh!" she cried aloud, springing up. "This is good. This is all right! I know what to do with this!" And running to the angry woman she asked in pantomime if she might keep it. Puzzled, but agreeable, the squaw agreed, and then Lorraine coaxed for some brown sugar, which she had seen given out, and with these in her hands she went back to camp with them, happily planning a surprise for the Indians, and, in eager anticipation of their delight she went about her preparations.

She used a coffee can for a popper, indicating her desire to have it plentifully perforated and fastened to a long stick for a handle. This done to her satisfaction, she went to a juniper fire, banked by the silver smiths for work the next day, and recklessly raked off the smothering dirt. Thrusting her improvised popper over the glowing charcoal coals she summoned the children close about her, with beckoning fingers and smiling eyes. The others crowded about too, with Scarface standing almost directly behind her back, his sphinx-like face inscrutable as he waited for the white girl to show what she was doing. When the first little pops came, and the children saw the puffy white balls emerging, they shouted with laughter and begged to be allowed to hold the popper themselves. So she left them taking turns over the fire, and went herself to another, where she proceeded to make a thick syrup with the brown sugar and water. Soon the biggest pot in the camp was filled with the dainty white food and, when the syrup had cooled, Lorraine made popcorn balls for the Navajos—especially for the grinning boys. With another box of sugar, she made a kind of fudge, generously seasoned with pinon nuts; and this she presented to Scarface who received it with a sober grunt and a suspicious eye. To Lorraine's astonishment, the popcorn balls and the fudge provided the main meal of the day, for all the Indians, who, she was beginning to learn, either feasted or fasted, living with an irregularity regarding food and sleep and rest that made their vitality a source of wonder to her.

She was, however, able to procure a more substantial meal by using her most regal gestures, but to her lamb she confided her doubts as to the wisdom of this that night.

"This goddess-stuff is great, Lize. It gets me anything. I'd have died, absolutely died, if I hadn't been allowed a bacon sandwich and a can of beans. Just the same, I wonder, between you and me and the totem pole, I wonder if old Scarface isn't hot on my trail? Maybe I wasn't as wise as I thought I was to know all about popcorn—white man's food. And maybe I shouldn't have been so keen to eat white man's bread and bacon. I wish Silver Tongue would come home, Lize. The knees of the goddess are shaking. The knees of the goddess are shaking!"

Chapter XVI

"The White Girl Must Die."

Lorraine's uneasiness, however vanished during the next day or two almost completely, and, even though she was not able during the whole time she was there to exchange a single word with any of the Indians, there grew up between them a very definite feeling of friendliness. Her quick, appreciative interest in all their activities, and her undisguised delight at their prowess inevitably made her hours a succession of little triumphs, so that the occasional doubt that Scarface gave her seemed of relative unimportance, and her anxieties became a bubble blown of a fevered imagination.

There were times when she wandered with the children and her faithful lamb up and down the immense canyon. At those times she kept hoping that she might stumble upon the cultivated patch of ground where Dirk had gathered melons and vegetables, that long-ago day, and from thence be able to work her way back to him, to reassure both herself and him as to their mutual welfare. But though they explored many tortuous passages, and came upon many unexpected little dells of beauty, where there was wild, luxurious growth of many kinds, never once did they go far enough to reach the tilled land, so that she had to continue to rest in her blind trust of Silver Tongue.

Her leisurely life gave her much time for revery. Snatched as she had been from a complicated society, where mechanics ruled over a world of greed and suspicion, this sudden immersion in an ancient age, where existance depended upon one's own resources, and contentment seemed to lie in the simple fact of being alive, taught her a new set of values. She looked back smilingly from the door of her dark hogan, where she slept on the hard ground, to her own rose-colored room with its luxurious four-poster bed, its silken, down quilt, its flood of electricity, its dressing table and the array of silver, scented accessories she had once thought so necessary for her toilet. She plunged into her cold pool in the morning and dried her shivering self on ragged Navajo blankets, remembering her own warm bathroom tiled in yellow, the deep, fragrant tub of hot water, the thick lavendar towels she used to toss so carelessly on the floor when she was done. She ate, day after day, meals that would have been monotonous, save for the irregularity with which they appeared—roast mutton, roast corn; roast horse, roast corn; boiled mutton, boiled corn; and sometimes a dish of beans seasoned hotly with a kind of Mexican sauce. Nibbling at the invariable fried, bluish cornbread, she recalled affectionately her dainty morning tray with its plate of thin buttered toast or crisp muffins, and she thought, "Only five hundred miles between these two ways of living—yet hundreds of years."

But if the Indians lacked comforts, they possessed what her civilization seemed to have lost—peace of mind, contentment and a family life rich in happiness. Never once did Lorraine observe a mother scolding her raven haired child. Never once did she see a boy or girl impertinent to an elder. There was respect without cringing submission, and the boys developed a brave fearlessness, while the girls developed modesty and a capability for the simple household tasks. Their sense of fun was keen, but not unkind; and the men were tireless gamblers.

Their games were childish, but the men played them with the same intensity she had seen at home over a card or billiard table. There was one game in particular, called "hesitce" of which they were very fond. It consisted of burying eight moccasins—four on each side of a little fire—up to withing an inch of the top, and then filling them with dirt. A chip, blackened on one side, was tossed up to see who would begin the game. The lucky ones held up a blanket, screening their four moccasins from the other team, and quickly hid a small, round stone in one of the moccasins. When the blanket was lowered, the opposing side had to guess by striking with a stick, the moccasin in which they thought the stone was hidden. If they won, it was their turn to hide the stone. In addition to that, they were given by Lorraine—chosen as an impartial observer—a certain number of little wooden counters. She could never figure out on what reasoning the numbers of counters to be received was based, but it was either four, six or ten, and seemed to depend upon the position of the shoe in which the stone was hidden. When one side had all the counters—about two hundred—the game was over. Some times it took all night, and it was at those times that Lorraine devoutly envied the Indian women their mortality. They could slip off to bed, but the goddess, perforce, had to sit on cramped legs in a close hogan, thick with pipe smoke, and hand out little sticks to the men until dawn broke. By that time she could sing with them the chant they uttered every time they held up the screening blanket.

Five Convicts Injured In Scrap At Joliet

JOLIET, Ill., March 18 (C.P.).—Five men were injured to-day in a quarrel among 16 convicts in the band room at the new penitentiary at Stateville, across the river from the old prison, in which a riot broke out on Saturday.

No guards were present at the time. The cause of the argument had not been learned immediately.

The convicts beat each other with clubs and five were hurt badly enough to require hospital attention.

Deputy Warden Frank Kneff said he had been warned that the chair factory at the new prison was to be bombed at 10 a.m. Extra guards were posted, however, and the attack did not materialize.

INSTITUTE MEETS AT TRENT RIVER

Members Gather at Home of Mrs. Thomas Tyler—Pleasing Program.

TRENT RIVER, March 18—The members of the Trent River Branch of the Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Tyler on Thursday afternoon, when the president, Mrs. George rooks, occupied the chair.

The roll call was responded to by naming a Canadian author. A letter of thanks was received from Mrs. Inkster to whom fruit had been sent during her recent illness. Much business was transacted at this meeting.

At the close, the hostesses, Mesdames H. Mann, G. Brooks and Seabourne served a dainty lunch. Tickets were distributed among the members for a telephone flower, Mrs. T. Wight holding the lucky number.

MR. BEATTY ON RUSSIA

To The Editor of The Examiner,

Sir,—Listeners-in on Monday night to the broadcast of the speeches at the great Board of Trade banquet at the Royal York must have been a bit startled to hear Mr. Beatty, the president of the C.P.R., say that it would be well for them to investigate for themselves the condition of things in Russia and not to listen to what might be very largely propoganda. He also drew their attention to the fact that embargoes and high tariff walls intended to exclude rather than protect were detrimental to world trade and might be one of the causes of world stagnation and depression.

Coming from about the only great organization triumphantly riding the storm in all Canada it might be well for us to recover our reasonableness and re-adjust ourselves to world conditions. The League of Nations is a frost.

HOLLINGER MINE ADVANCES 10 POINTS IN HEAVIER TURNOVER

Interlisted Issues in Gold and Base Metals Show Buoyancy on Standard.

Market Leaders Active.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 (C.P.).—Higher-priced stocks received some attention on the mining market in the forenoon today, interlisted issues in both gold and base metal groups showing buoyancy.

Hollinger sold up 10 in improved turnover, Lake Shore gained a quarter and Teck Hughes 5. In the lower-priced stocks Mining Corp. softened 7 to $2.68 and Wright-Hargreaves and Sylvanite lost three apiece. Gem Lake, San Antonio and South Keora also turned easier in tone. Eldorado came ahead again for an advance of 13 and further gains were registered in Macassa, Moss, Central Manitoba and Dominion Explorers.

Noranda was stronger from the opening, standing up a quarter at $19.25 at mid-day. Abana enjoyed renewed activity and a gain of 3 at 20 and Chibougamau prospectors moved up another couple. Lindsleys were unchanged and Pend Oreille off 3 to $1.35.

Lower-priced oils were relatively quiet with Calgary and Edmonton and Peninsular Pete off 3 each to 50 and 22, respectively.

NORANDA FIRMS AROUND MID-DAY

Gypsum Issue Sells Under 10 in Further Liquidation To-day.

C.P.R. UNCHANGED.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 C. P.).—Business was at a low ebb on Toronto stock exchange this morning. The leaders eased after the opening but on a limited turnover. Gypsum appeared to be still under liquidation and intermittently sold under 10. Nickel fluctuated just about the level of last night's close while Noranda, after settling slightly, firmed again around mid-day.

C. P. R. came out unchanged at 42, later easing fractionally. Ford of Canada was off slightly. Foods were quiet. Brazilian, Bell Telephone and Utilities generally unchanged. Walkers was firm just under 8.

Oils were conspicuous by their absence the first hour. Neither B. A. oil nor Imperila Oil appeared on the tape until the second hour and then for only odd lot amounts. International Petroleum was another laggard. Prices were unchanged.

Hamilton Bridge came out stronger and advanced more than ½ point. Trading was not impressively heavy but reflected better demand for this stock.

Security Prices Easy On Montreal Exchange

MONTREAL, Que., March 18 C.P.—Security prices were slightly easier with this morning's session on the Montreal Stock Exchange. The range was narrow and the number of issues which did make an appearance in the trading was limited. Losses for the most part were fractional. The sales volume was light.

Power Corporation, Consolidated Smelters, National Steel Car and Industrial Alcohol were exceptions to the general trend, recording advances during the morning which ranged up to a full point in the case of Smelters. Brazilian Traction, International Nickel, Montreal Power, Shawinigan and Canada Cement shaded off fractionally after the opening orders had been taken care of. The opening prices were, on the average, the best of the morning.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 (Special to Examiner).—Higher priced stocks continued in good demand on today's mining market, with golds making an improved showing. Productions are heard on the street renewed interest in the producing gold stocks is likely to develop because of the uncertainty surrounding first quarter general business conditions.

Close to 1,000 feet of underground work per month is being done at the Waite Ackerman property, according to northern reports. Development consists of drifting and raising and about 1,000 feet of diamond drilling also is being done each month, one machine being employed. It is believed that when production is resumed, output may be established on a larger basis than heretofore as reserves are being substantially increased.

Gossip is rather scarce around the mining board rooms these days. Though followers of the market are looking forward to a good season of news when the promised widespread activity gets under way this spring. More deals for funds are being reported all the time, with interest still centering in gold propositions.

Recent developments indicate an adequate supply of electric power for mining operations in the Siscoe gold area is likely to be available within a reasonable short time. Uncertainty in this connection has delayed the execution of various expansion programs. According to advices from the management of one of the leading properties, it is expected a power line will be built into the district this spring.

This will have an important bearing on the plans being worked out by Sullivan gold mines towards electrifying the entire development machinery. The present equipment, it is understood, is readily convertible and the proposed new mill will be constructed with this object in view. Sullivan's plans involve a mill of suitable capacity, yet to be decided upon, in order to put the property on a paying basis during the late summer or early fall.

Assurance of a supply of power, therefore, will enable Sullivan to arrange the mill to utilize the power right from the beginning of operations, thus avoiding the additional expense incidental to the installation of steam or oil equipment, which would be discarded when the mill would finally be power driven.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

Wheat continued dull and featureless with one of the smallest trades passing in many weeks. Prices held within a narrow range, showing a range of about ½ cent up to near the close. What was going on was all local in character, no outside interest being shown, and export sales overnight were only 75,000 bushels and no new business was received this morning. Offerings were extremely light, no pressure being on the market at any time. On the dips below 59 cents for May wheat locals picked up what came out and threw it out again on ¼ cent profit. The Liverpool market closed firm, being half to 5-8 higher and private cables stated there was less pressure from Argentine wheat yesterday. Buenos Aires was ¾ higher at 3 o'clock, not quite as firm as at mid-day. Chicago held firm most of the day but eased off in the late trade, but had little effect on Winnipeg. There was no special feature to the cash wheat situation. What small export business done overnight was mostly from the Pacific coast. Broomhall's weekly International Review was mostly favorable except France where crops have been damaged by too much moisture. The report stated that trading is extremely quiet with the one of the market slightly easier. Australia sold 10 cargoes of wheat to China during the past week, the business being helped by the firmer exchange rate of silver. Conditions on the continent on the whole indicate larger foreign imports during the coming months, but farmers are fighting any reduction of import duties. Advise purchases on the dips. Selling against daily bids the last five minutes or so was the cause of the breaks.

Coarse Grains.—These markets were extremely quiet, and outside of an odd car of oats worked for Eastern domestic trade there was nothing doing. Flax market held steady closing 1-8 to ¼ higher.

Liverpool Cables due 7-8 to 1 cent lower based on Winnipeg.

GRAINS IRREGULAR TO-DAY'S TRADING

Moist Weather in Agricultural Districts Accounts for Irregularity.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 18 (C. P.).—Moist weather, bearish on wheat and bullish on corn, made grade prices irregular early today. Wheat reached a new low price record for the season, but corn scored dvances. Opening at ½ cent decline to 3-8 gain, wheat afterwards held near to the initial limits. Corn started unchanged to 1-8 up, and subsequently rose all round.

RESCUE VESSELS

Sargent had a slight injury to one eye.

Only Member of Party

Sargent is the only member of the motion picture party who has been accounted for. Frissell, who was aboard the Viking with his assistants to take sealing scenes for his picture "White Thunder", and A. G. Penrod, his camera man, are still listed among the missing.

Although figures on the number of men aboard the Viking varied from 142 to 155. Newfoundland Government officials said they believed the ship carried an official complement of 142, including Frissell's motion picture party. Two young stowaways were found aboard after the ship left here March 9, making a total of 144 on the sealer when she blew up.

A radio message from the sealing vessel Ungava, which is participating in the search of White Bay, to-day said there were 118 on Horse Island, three aboard the Sagona and that three others had been located on the ice, making 124 accounted for and leaving 20 dead or missing.

The three located on the ice, the Ungava said, included the first and second officers of the Viking and a sailor. The sailor had both legs broken, and all three were suffering from lack of food and water. The message did not say whether their rescue had been effected.

Officials were striving to learn whether the men mentioned by the Ungava were among those which Captain Carter of the sealer Beothic reported sighting 10 miles from his ship.

He said he saw 10 men, five in a dory and five on the ice and was making an effort to reach them but feared they could not be rescued before daylight.

Young Stowaway Missing.

Among the missing was Edward Cronin, 12 years old, of St. John's, one of the two stowaways. The other stowaway, Michael Gardner, reached Horse Island.

The missing list also includes the names of the ship's doctor, W. J. Roach; Chief Engineer J. Murphy, Second Engineer F. Parnell, Third Engineer H. Hanniford, six firemen and seve sealers.

The cause of the blast, which apparently hurled many to their death and sent scores of others over the side to escape the flames, has not been determined definitely. One possibility advanced to explain the explosion was that the boiler let got under a high steam pressure raised to drive the ship through the ice. The other was an explosion of blasting powder used to clear a channel in the ice.

Captain Abram Kean, Jr., Master of the Viking and one of the most seriously injured, said he was on the bridge when the explosion threw him out onto the ice. Captain Kean is on Horse Island.

The rescue ships with other vessels of the sealing fleet spent the night cruising among the ice floes in White Bay seeking stragglers on the ice for bodies.

PRINCE READY TO LEAVE

CORDOBA, Argentina, Mar. 18. — (A.P.)— Preparations were being made here to-day for the departure of the Prince of Wales, who will leave some time during the day for Buenos Aires, possibly landing at Rosario en route.

JOHN MARSHALL

vice-president of the Chamber and an immediate past-president of the Trent Waterway-Iroquois Trail Association, declined the presidency this year and also expressed a desire to relinquish the office of vice-president and become once more a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Kerr's action was due in large measure to ill health and pressure of business, and while respecting his wishes in the matter, the Board did so reluctantly and were of the opinion that during his term as vice-president he has filled his office with dignity and his given advice on technical and general business subjects which has been most helpful to the organization and to the city.

Mr. Cummer, who fills the office of vice-president, has served for three years as treasurer. It is expected that his many friendly and business contacts will enable him in his present office to direct the attention of still more of the business and professional people to matters of community development and advancement, while J. A. McKone, treasurer, has a background of business training which will enable him to gauge and direct the financing of the Chamber's activities for the current year.

POLICE BATTLE

group of river-front workers which went on strike about a month ago in protest against a wage cut of 16 cents an hour by four steamship companies, met after midnight at a longshoremen's hall and formed a marching body of about 200 which headed for the river. Officers said the marchers intended to intimidate strike breakers who are taken on guarded tugs each morning to the ships being worked in the harbor.

The marchers were sighted at a distance by the detail of dock police who called out the riot squad and all available police from precincts throughout the city were concentrated at the river front.

Arriving at the docks shortly before dawn, the marchers were met to disperse. Retreating to neighboring streets, the Negroes broke up into small groups, hissing and booing the police. Snipers at strategic points then opened fire on the officers and the officers, withholding fire, rushed into the crowd to make arrests, disarming several members of the mob and rounding up the small groups in patrol wagons.

COLD RECEPTION IS GIVEN BILL

man of the committee, had to call for order.

The tax bore heavily on the salaried man because his income was known and fixed, cities did not have the same machinery as the Dominion Government for forging returns from wealthy people who were able to evade the tax.

Hogarth Supports Bill.

Major-General D. M. Hogarth (Conservative, Port Arthur) declared himself in support of the Bill. Fred Skinner (Conservative, Leeds) said he was in favor of the principle of the Bill, but thought it almost inopportune time to bring it in when municipalities were in special need of money. For this reason he was going to oppose the Bill.

The difficulty was not with the tax, but with the unfair way it was collected, said E. C. Graves (Conservative, St. Catharines). He believed some change should be made and favored some arrangement between the Dominion and all the Provinces for a uniform system throughout Canada.

Optional collection of income tax by the municipalities was urged by M. Vaughan (Conservative, Welland) of two towns in his constituency, one favored the Bill and one was opposed.

Mayor Peebles, of Hamilton, said that city was very much opposed to the bill. If income taxes were done away with the city would lose about $200,000 in revenue and would have to increase the property tax by about two mills on the dollar.

If the income tax were removed said the mayor, some other way of raising revenue should be provided. Before anything was done, he thought there should be a thorough study of all problems of taxation.

Heads Municipal Representatives

The Hamilton mayor spoke as chairman of a meeting of municipal representatives which took place before the opening of the committee. He submitted a stack of resolutions and letters from municipal councils opposing the bill.

Objections of the city of Brantford were voiced by Alderman Stent. He said he was sure the bill would be killed in committee but thought the airing of the question would do much good.

Abolition of tax would result in an increase of 2½ mills on the Kingston tax rate said Mayor Wright of that city. He favored an optional flat rate of 30 mills on the dollar for all municipalities.

Mayor Bezeau of Kitchener, got himself tangled up with the sensibilities of Ottawa members when he started to speak.

"If I were a corporation lawyer, representing the capital city of Canada, where they neither spin nor do they reap," he began. But he was interrupted by Mr. Ellis, who declared he represented no corporation in presenting the bill but merely his sincere views after long experience in municipal government.

Mr. Honeywell also objected to the implication that Ottawa people did not work and had large incomes. The bill he said, would adversely affect 70 per cent. of the people and many men in the civil service were bringing up families on less than $1,000 a year.

Kitchener was opposed to the bill, said the mayor. He thought it was a bad time to curtail municipal revenue.

Toronto Mayor Speaks

Opposition of the city of Toronto was expressed by Mayor William Stewart. He also suggested if any change was to be made a commission should be appointed to study the question of assessment throughout the province as well as taxation.

Representing the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce, F. P. Healy, said the tax should not be abolished unless some other way of raising revenue apart from a tax on real estate were afforded.

F. D. Tolchard of the Toronto Board of Trade said the bills should be laid over until a commission had investigated the whole question of taxation.

On behalf of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, Jerry Buckley strongly opposed the bill. It was only through the products of labor, he said, that capital and the state could exist. The bill would permit persons with large income to escape taxation. It would permit Hon. R. B. Bennett who owned no house but lived in a hotel to avoid taxation.

Hon. James Lyons, (Cons., Sault Ste. Marie) said he had been asked by the city council to oppose the bill. He believed the city would be agreeable to the establishment of a uniform flat rate for income tax throughout the province.

Peterborough was represented at the meeting by Mayor Roland Denne and City Assessor W. J. Henry.

FIRE DESTROYS LIVERY STABLES

LOSS $11,500.

BRANTFORD, Ont., March 18. — (C.P.)—One of the worst fires on record in the village of St. George broke out early to-day and totally destroyed the old Howell livery stables building in the heart of the village, together with all its contents, including sixteen horses, feed and several large trucks, and spread to two neighboring buildings, doing much damage to the residence of Reg. Howell, proprietor of the livery stable.

Mr. Howell's loss in the livery stable building is estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000, with an additional loss of $1,500 on the house. Samuel Russel, owner of the horses, and other contents estimated his loss at about $5,000. Partial insurance is carried.

SHEEHY ATTENDS TRADE MEETING

Many Important Matters, Including Ontario Apprenticeship Act Discussed.

MEET IN LONDON IN 1932.

Members of the Provincial Builders' and Supply Association of Ontario met in annual convention at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, recently under the presidency of J. K. Sheehy of this city. Many important matters were on the agenda for discussion, including the Ontario Apprenticeship Act and the Ontario Lien Act. J. Clark Reilly, general manager and secretary of the Canadian Construction Association was an honored guest during the second day's session.

President—Harry Hayman, London.

Vice-president— John Scott, Toronto.

Secretary-Treasurer—George Gander, Toronto.

Executive — J. R. Stork, St. Catharines; W. J. Stafford, St. Marys; George Thomas, Galt; H. Ball, Kitchener; George Andrews, Sarnia; Peter McLarty, Sault Ste. Marie; W. E. Dillon, Toronto; and J. K. Sheehy, Peterborough.

After considerable discussion George Andrews, of Sarnia, moved, seconded by J. McEachren of London, "That we petition the Honorable Minister of Labor, that owing to the dissatisfaction existing over the procedure of the present Provincial Apprenticeship Act and the lack of harmony prevailing, without which the Act cannot make progress, we ask the Minister to withdraw the Act from the statutes until it has been thorough revised."

This motion was immediately followed by an amendment, moved by Harold Ball of Kitchener, seconded by John Nelson, Toronto, "That we approach the Honorable Minister of Labor and place our proposals and amendments before him at an early date."

On the vote being taken, the amendment carried by a large majority. The policy of constructive criticism, so ably championed by Mr. Ball, Mr. Sheehy, and others, won the day as being in the best interests of those directly concerned and most likely to result in some favorable action on the part of the Government.

A hearty vote of thanks to retiring President Sheehy was carried, and the last motion before adjournment called the 1932 annual meeting to be held at London.

CAXTON VOLUMES BRING $100,000

LIBRARY INVALUABLE.

Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent) —Stories having appeared about the disappearance of valuable volumes from the library of York Minster, the Dean of York reveals that five Caxton volumes were recently sold for $100,000.

The sale was necessary on account of the difficulty of raising further sums at the present time for the repair of the ancient Minster, the Dean explained.

The chief glory of York Minster, which dates from between the 11th and 13th centries, is its priceless stained glass, for the preservation of which $310,000 was raised recently. Another $250,000 is required.

The Minster library's history goes back to the days before the Danish invasion, and in "vulgar cash" is beyond valuation.

William Caxton, called the first English printer, was born in 1422 and died in 1491. The first dated book printed in England was Lord River's translation, revised by Caxton, of "The Dictes or Sayengis of the Philosophers," 1477, and from this time until his death Caxton was busy writing and printing. His services to English literature were very considerable, part altogether from his pioneer work as a printer.

C.N.R. Plans To Spend $8,000,000 On Works

OTTAWA, Ont., March 18 (C.P.)— The Canadian National Railways will, in the course of the current year, spend $8,000,000 on work in connection with the new Montreal terminals. This is set forth in a return tabled in the House of Commons. The figure is an increase from the $6,818,532 expended on the terminals in 1930.

Details of the expenditures show that $1,820,500 will be disbused on "lands, properties and damages." A total of $1,853,500 is earmarked for the "main terminal area," and $1,881,000 for "grade separations, including overhead bridges, subway and elevated structures."

Lesser isms of projected expenditures are: "Other structures, $370,000; new lines, $298,000; other construction, $327,000; general expenditures, engineering and surveys, $350,000."

FURTHER GAINS IN STEEL MILL OUTPUT STRENGTHENS N. Y. LIST

Market Inclined to Work Higher Following Mid-week Statistics Reports.

LATE TRADING SLUGGISH.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 18.—(C P)—Further gains in Steel Mill output and Electric Power production favored the cause of higher prices in today's stock market.

The list remained in a condition of sensitive balance between a buoyant tendency in the Utilities and Industrials, and continued heaviness of the rails. The Rail shares dragged the list lower again for a time, but the mid-week business statistics provided support, and the list was inclined to work higher after midday. Trading, however, was sluggish.

Shares rising a point or two included U. S. Steel, American Can, Bethlehem Steel, American Rolling Mill, Byers, McKeesport, Consolidated Gas, American and Foreign Power, American Water Works, Public Service of N. J., Sears Roebuck, Eastman, Dupont, Case, Johns Manville, Fox, General Theatres, and Loews. Several of the rails broke to new low ground for 1931 in the morning, but made some recovery later. Union Pacific and New Haven recovered losses of about 2 and 2 points. Atchison dropped 2, then more than regained its loss. New York Central sold off about 2 to record another minimum, then recovered. American Telephone and Westinghouse Electric were under pressure for a time, but rebounded.

CAVAN FARMER IS SEEKING $10,000 AS HEART BALM

for treatment, and Mrs. Kincaid used to go over to Nill's and cook his meals, according to the plaintiff's testimony.

"While she was cooking for Nill" he continued, "I was geting the meals at home for myself and a hired man. Nill got to taking my wife in to Peterborough when he would go to visit his wife at the hospital."

In the summer of 1929 there was a garden party to which Kincaid went alone, but his wife went with Mr. and Mrs. Nill.

"Before plowing time I told Nill he'd better stay away or there'd be trouble. He didn't say much. Their meetings didn't stop. Nill called up once to ask my wife to go to Peterborough with him and his wife. I told him she had other ways of going to Peterborough. They kept meeting in the woods near the railway on my farm. I saw them walk that way. I was just able to walk around on crutches during that summer of 1928. I complained to my wife about her action, but it had no effect."

Kincaid then began to make a record of the incidents to which he referred by the book yesterday.

"One Sunday in the summer time in 1928 my wife slept until after three o'clock. She then said she was had to go to the woods to get a team from pasture. I was on crutches in the yard. I could see a man in the direction she was going. She said Mr. Nill had offered to help. I went on with the chores. I don't know where they went. I saw them part in Nill's woods.

"My wife usually went in to market. She missed only the odd Saturday. During the winter Mrs. Nill was in the hospital my wife would get up at five o'clock in the mornings to go to the telephone. Sometimes there would be a dingle and sometimes she would just lift off the receiver. On two mornings I dingled the phone myself, and Mr. Nill answered the signal."

"June 22, 1930, I saw Nill going east along the railway to salt his cattle. My wife followed him. Then went down the railway. I think two of our children were with them."

July 1, 1930, Kincaid put on a white shirt going out to the barn. Ordinarily he wore a dark coloured shirt. Nill was working i nhis potato field. He waved half a dosen times at Kincaid, but the plaintiff concluded that Nill thought he was waving at Mrs. Kincaid because she usually wore a white waist.

July 19—Nill met Mrs. Kincaid as she crossed through the field on her way from the station, returning from Peterborough on the afternoon C.P.R. train.

Aug. 3—Mrs. Kincaid took the cows to pasture; hurried back to the railway gate and talked with Nill nearly an hour. Her son Charlie, eleven, asked where his "mama" was. He went down the railway with Nill. Mrs. Kincaid came back home.

Similar entries were read from the diary, some of them apparently of slight importance. On September 20 Mrs. Kincaid returned from Peterborough in the afternoon around 4 o'clock and talked with Nill in his woods until five, Kincaid continued. Their meeting on September 27 was somewhat similar except that Kincaid went to the pasture and from the bushes saw Nill wait for Mrs. Kincaid as she came from the station, and carried her parcels for her up to the bottom of the lane. There they talked for twenty minutes.

"Nov. 16—My two boys came home with their hair cut. Nill had cut their hair at Hutchison's."

An Anonymous Letter.

Mr. Gordon then produced an unsigned letter which Nill had admitted having written. It was not addressed. Kincaid had received it from Wesley Howson, and Howson later told of having found it under a brick near Kincaid's gate.

The letter follows:

Hello, My Dear:—I came back to see my hay, so I'm writing back at the woods, and can hardly see. Lillie and I were sitting outside when you went home last night. She asked me if I saw you in the morning. I said that I passed you on the school hill. She said did I talk to you for about two minutes. I said she told me that she told you that you were partly to blame for the trouble and would see you again. I could tell you all if I could see you. We went to Peterborough this forenoon. Lillie is in bad shape. She has lost 7½ pounds lately. We are going in the morning again about 8. I cannot write all I would like to. It is 8.35 p.m. now. I'm going back to G. Hooton's tomorrow night and will meet you at your gate at 10.30 p.m. if you can get out. If you cannot, you leave a note. I will come from the east. I will dim the light at top of hill. I will stop. Cannot see.

Yours for ever.

Kincaid said he thought Mrs. Nill's name was Lillie.

Asked by Mr. Gordon what he did to check Nill, the plaintiff said: "I warned him twice, but it did no good, so I just had to let things go."

Finally he saw his solicitor, and this action was launched.

Mr. Gordon—What was your wife's demeanor during the last two years?

Wife Discontented At Home.

Mr. Kincaid—She was always in bad humour. Nothing suited her. She was away a great deal of the time. She didn't get the meals. She didn't make my bed. The summer after I came from the hospital I had most of the meals to get. The ordinary household duties were neglected.

Is she still living with you?—Yes.

Where does she sleep?—Downstairs.

Where do you sleep?—Upstairs.

How long has this continued?—Since I came home from the hospital.

What effort have you made to change her attitude?—I tried to persuade her, but I couldn't.

Has the condition at home changed any now?—Not a bit.

In cross-examining the witness, Mr. Stevenson demanded that Kincaid stated the number of times he knew his wife to have been alone with Nill.

Once Nill and Mrs. Kincaid had gone to see a wreck at Cavanville.

"My wife phoned to see if Mrs. Nill would go," said the plaintiff. "She wouldn't, but Mr. Nill went. Then two years ago this winter they were together in the barn throwing hay down."

Kincaid had done most of the chores. Then he went back to the house to read the paper. When he returned to the barn some time later he said his wife and Nill were throwing hay down for him.

"Another time Nill was cutting her hair in our kitchen. The children were there. He asked her if she could stand the noise. They went into the front room and closed the door and finished the hair cutting."

Mr. Stevenson's final question was: "Do you know anything wrong against your wife?"

Darcy Gallagher.

Darcy Gallagher, a Cavan township farmer, living near Nill's told of having seen Mrs. Kincaid with Nill one day in Gus Howden's woods last year. Mrs. Kincaid's eldest daughter, about seventeen, was with them part of the time.

"But afterwards she went and sat on an elm log across the creek. Nill and Mrs. Kincaid were sitting under some bushes. They were there about fifty minutes.

September 7 last Gallagher saw them in the same place. The four children were with Mrs. Kincaid at first. They walked on to the back line. The oldest boy chased Gallagher through a bush with a dog. Gallagher turned back into the bush. He saw the children on the road with the dog. Nill and Mrs. Kincaid were not with them.

Replying to Mr. Stevenson's question, Gallagher said that spying on people was not his usual occupation. In this instance he was just satisfying his curiosity.

Edgar Martell.

Edgar Martell, a farm laborer in the Nill neghborhood, stated that on July 8, 1930, he was working for Kincaid. He saw Nill going to the pasture with cattle, and afterward Mrs. Kincaid went down with cattle in the same direction.

"They both went across the field into the woods," said Martell. "They went in at 7 a.m. and came out at 10 a.m. Kincaid and I saw them."

Then there was an occasion in August last year when Nill met Mrs. Kincaid after she had come off the C.P.R. train.

"At the Cavanville garden party I was at the back of the hall. I saw Mrs. Kincaid, Mrs. Nill and Mr. Nill sitting together."

Wesley Howson.

Wesley Howson, the next witness said he owned the house occupied by Kincaid. For a time he had two rooms reserved in Kincaid's house. Witness said he often saw Nill at the Kincaid's house in 1929, two or three times a day. Mr. Nill drew milk from that district.

"In April one morning I started out on the milk truck but it got stuck in a field. It was rather cold, and I went back to the house to get warm. Mr. Nill was just going out of the kitchen. Mr. Kincaid was out in a field."

Mr. Howson said that on two occasions he saw Nill on the road apparently coming out of the Kincaid lane about five o'clock in the morning.

"Mr. Nill ran a piece, and looked back over his shoulder," witness said.

Mr. Gordon—What was he doing there?

Mr. Howson—I don't know.

Witness identified the unsigned "Yours for ever" letter which Mr. Gordon had entered as an exhibit. He found it under a brick at the left hand side of Kincaid's gate. It was then dark, in the month of July.

Mr. Gordon—Did you hear Kincaid warn his wife against going with Nill.

"I did. She said her husband couldn't stop her; she'd go with him if she liked."

Mr. Howson told of an encounter with Nill sometime after the letter was found at Kincaid's gate.

"I met Mr. Nill as I was coming from Kincaid's. I didn't speak to him, and he didn't speak to me. He bunted into me with his shoulder and knocked me over. He struck me on the head. I could hardly see for blood. Nill pressed the ball of my eye with his thumb and scratched my cheek. I had to have medical attendance."

To Mr. Stevenson, witness said he and Nill appeared in the Cobourg police court as a result of this clash, and both were fined.

Mr. Stevenson—What sort of person is Mrs. Kincaid? Is she a respectable person?

Mr. Howson—She appeared to be.

"Do you know anything against her?"

"I don't know anything."

Near Indian River.

James Seymour, Cavan township farmer, examined by Mr. Gordon, said he saw Mr. Nill and Mrs. Kincaid together in April, 1930, two miles east of Indian River.

"Their car was standing on the right hand side of the road. It was in the afternoon. Mr. Nill was standing in front of the radiator. Mrs. Kincaid was in the car. I didn't see any one else in the car."

Mr. Seymour said his farm adjoins Nills.

William Seymour corroborated his father's evidence. He added that Nill's back was toward him when Mr. Seymour saw Nill on the Norwood road. He testified further that he met Nill last week, and in a conversation told Nill that he was summoned as a witness.

"I told him what I had seen on the Norwood road. He said he wasn't there. Nill told me this case was just a money grab. He said I was living beside him and Kincaid was leaving the neighborhood."

Mr. Gordon read from the examination of Nill for discovery paragraphs relating to the letter which Wesley Howden said he had found near Kincaid's gate. According to the evidence Nill said he had written the letter and left in that place under a brick or stone "because Howden was threatening to shoot me. I expected him to get the letter because I had seen him before looking around in that place under stones and around the fence. He said he would shoot me, because he was jealous of Mrs. Kincaid coming out with us. I didn't write it in the woods. I wrote it in the summer kitchen at home. I wrote anything to make Howson believe the letter was meant for Mrs. Kincaid. I wanted to get him out with that gun."

Nill's Evidence.

In beginning the defense, Mr. Stevenson called William Nill, the defendant to the stand.

"When Kincaid was taken ill" said Nill, "I called to see if I could be of any assistance. Up to that time the relations between our two families were friendly. I went upstairs to see Mr. Kincaid, and he asked me if I would mind driving Mrs. Kincaid to Peterborough in their horse and cutter to get some thermogene. As a result of what he said I took Mrs. Kincaid into the city. That was before he went to the hospital.

When the doctor decided that Mr. Kincaid had to go to the hospital I took him to the train in my sleigh. At the station he asked me if I would look after things around the house while he was away, because, he said, he couldn't depend upon Wes Howden doing the chores around the place. I told him I could not undertake to give orders at the farm, but I would do anything I could to help him.

For seven weeks Mrs. Kincaid went every day to see her husband, and my wife took their children in after school and looked after them until their mother came home on the 7.10 p.m. train."

Nill told of having picked 175 bags of potatoes for Kincaid. He hauled them, "and this is the thanks I go he added.

"I never saw Mrs. Kincaid any time alone. Wes Howden and the Kincaid children were there. Any time Mrs. Kincaid came to our place my wife and family were there. Kincaid got home from the hospital in May 1928, and we were friendly until June, 1929. For seven weeks I shaved him twice a week. I helped plant his potatoes, and planted all his corn. I took his horse to Millbrook to be shod."

The defendant stated that whenever Mrs. Kincaid was taken on any trip with his family she was invited by Mrs. Nill.

Mr. Stevenson—It is suggested that you were out a lot with Mrs. Kincaid up to 1929.

Mr. Nill recalled only four occasions.

"One day Mrs. Kincaid said she would like to learn the shift gear of the car. I asked Mr. Kincaid, and he said he didn't want to get his neck broken. Mrs. Kincaid and I went about two miles along the road, and turned back. On another occasion she went with me to a dance in Millbrook."

In regard to the evidence of Mr. Seymour and his son that they had seen Mr. Nill and Mrs. Kincaid on the Norwood road, Nill said: "They were badly mistaken, for Mrs. Kincaid and I never drove east of Peterborough."

Referring to the alleged telephone signal between defendant and Mrs. Kincaid, Nill said: "During the winter of 1929 I was drawing cream for Kincaid, John Cathcart and myself. I drew it to the station to be shipped. Kincaid had a can two or three times a week. As their pump was out of order I also drew cans of water to their house. When I called Kincaid's to find out whether they had any milk to be shipped some one would cut in on the line and make noises in the telephone. So I arranged with Mrs. Kincaid that I would ring our own number one-one, so that she could tell me when they wanted me to call for milk. There was nothing private about it, and my wife knew what it was a signal for."

Nill denied that he had waved at Kincaid on July 1st, the day Kincaid had testified he had worn a white shirt in his barn yard. "I never waved at him in my life."

The Orillia Snapshot.

Mr. Stevenson next questioned the defendant about the excursion to Orillia.

"Did you go with Mrs. Kincaid that day?

"No, I didn't know that she and any of the children were going up. I saw her at the station. At Orillia there was a snapshot taken of a group of fourteen. Mrs. Kincaid was in the group and also Mrs. Howden. Mrs. Ab Byers was taking the picture. Some one asked me to get in. I did, and I put my hands on the shoulders of Mrs. Kincaid and Mrs. Howden. I said: "How would I look like this," and Mrs. Byers snapped it, just like that. There was nothing to it at all."

Mr. Nill admitted that he had met Mrs. Kincaid coming from the train on July 19 last year. "I carried her basket. There's about a half acre of cedars on the property. You wouldn't call it a woods. We didn't go through it. Any one going that way goes around it."

Mr. Stevenson—It is said that on June 22 you went east on the railway and that Mrs. Kincaid followed you.

Mr. Nill—I did see her about that date. I went down to salt the cattle. She was down the track with her three children. I think they were picking strawberries. I had just a general conversation with Mrs. Kincaid. Mr. Kincaid was on the railway when I went down."

The defendant explained some of the other incidents alleged by Kincaid, and the case was adjourned with Nill still on the stand with Mr. Stevenson's examination in chief not completed.

CAMPAIGN ON IN HASTINGS COUNTY TO RID DISTRICT OF T. B. CATTLE

Valuable Address on Subject Given in Marmora by Agricultural Representative.

WHOLESALE TEST URGED.

MARMORA, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — Plans regarding an accredited area for the County of Hastings were laid before a fair-sized gathering of farmers of Marmora Township in the White Hall, Marmora, on Tuesday evening by J. Wilson, agricultural representative.

The meeting was the third of a series which is being held in the nine front townships of Hastings County. The important facts about the proposed T.B. restricted area for the county were brought out in the course of an interesting address which paved the way for a profitable question period at the close.

A few stereopticon slides were used to illustrate some of the points. It was pointed out that all cattle should be tested for tuberculosis because of the increased value of the individual animal passing such test, and also the increased herd value. The removal of the tubercular animal naturally protects the herd, the children of the home, and the business of the farms. In the restricted areas all reactors are slaughtered and not sold to someone else to incur the spreal of the disease elsewhere.

Two-Thirds Vote.

At least two-thirds of the cattle owners in a proposed area must sign the petition as furnished by the Ontario Department of Agriculture to bring about the testing of cattle for the area. A special staff of veterinaries are assigned to the areas, being employed thus all the time. They tag all animals tested and ear punch the reactors. Providing the scheme goes through, it is said on good authority that the testing could be arranged during the fall months when the bulk of feeders have gone to market.

Market value for the carcass of a reactor disposed of by slaughter under inspection, will be paid the owner, and in addition compensation based on the value of the animal is paid. The maximum for grades is $40 and for pure-breds $100. No compensation, however, is to be pa'd for steers, grade bulls, or cattle with lumpy jaw.

The circulation of the petition is not being rushed through." It is being sent to leading farmers in the various school sections, and their co-operation in making the system a success is being urged.

BENNETT RELIES

The Prime Minister then turned to the Imperial Conference. He reviewed the events immediately following upon his assumption of office in August and the calling of the special session. He had made known to the country just what his policies would be—those were framed in order to secure reciprocal preferences within the British Empire. That was what the people had been told.

On the first day of the conference, certain messages of welcome had been delivered, and then it was agreed that a plenary conference would open at a later date.

What Dominion were there? asked Mr. Bennett. There were Canada, the senior partner among the Dominions; then Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, the Irish Free State, Newfoundland, and the Mother Country. At the plenary session statements were made by the Prime Ministers of these Dominions, representing Canada, he had pointed out that reciprocal trade agreements were absolutely essential to the maintenance of the economic life of the Empire.

Attitude Towards Country.

"And if this conference is to meet these problems and to provide an effective solution to them," Mr. Bennett had said, "it seems to me that my attitude towards my own country will be the attitude of you all towards yours. On no other basis can we hope to effect an enduring agreement of benefit to each one of us. I will determine what my country needs, and, if you do likewise, then we may come together and search out the means by which we can be of mutual assistance in satisfying those needs."

In the operation of preferences every unit of the Empire would benefit; but this did not contemplate the exclusion of products from other countries. He had told the Imperial Conference that "we must have—all of us—markets without the Empire, and to make those markets sure and greater, we must place no insuperable barrier in the road of reciprocal world trade. What it means is that we should direct the present flow of trade into more permanent Empire channels by preferring Empire goods to those of other countries. This can be done only in one way—by creating a preference in favor of Empire goods."

Far from denying that Canada would deal in the markets of the world, he had said the direct opposite. And when the leader of the Opposition yesterday charged him with seeking to establish a close wall around the country he either did not read what the Prime Minister had said at the conference or, having read it, he had deliberately omitted it. The contradiction to Mr. Mackenzie King was on the record, pursued the Prime Minister.

Mr. Bennett read from his remarks at the conference.

"We have considered what such a scheme of preference will mean to Canada and to the other parts of the Empire," he had said, "and our conclusion is that we of the Empire states have within our own control the means to advance the interests of each one of us, by developing a plan of economic co-operation, based on the principle of Empire preferences."

"I put it to the House," continued the Prime Minister, 'Could any Canadian say less, who is worthy of the name of Canadian, at a conference like that?'

Recalls Laurier Proposals

Mr. Bennett compared the proposal which he had made to the assembled governments at the opening of the Imperial Conference last year with a proposal made at a similar conference in 1902 by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. They were practically identical though couched in different language, he said. Canada, 28 years ago had urged the same policy as he had advocated at the conference.

Inter-Empire relations had passed the "age of platitudes," Mr. Bennett continued. When the Liberal leader referred to "severing the ties of Empire," it was his "exaggerated ego" asserting itself, the Prime Minister declared. Mr. King believed only himself should speak for Canada.

It was true, said the Premier, that he had used blunt language in presenting his conference proposals. But it was also true that all but one of the larger British newspapers expressed gratitude that some one had placed the issue squarely before the people. His proposal entailed preferences between all parts of the Empire, not between Great Britain and one Dominion. It was still under consideration by the Empire Governmental heads and would be discussed further at the Economic Conference to be held in Ottawa in the Fall.

This fact, the Prime Minister continued, placed the proposals in the sub judice class, it was impossible to discuss them fully before the conference. He belived it ill-befel a leader of a political party to attempt to make capital out of the proposals before that time, especially one whose predecessor had advanced the same policies 28 years ago.

"I know it is not the case," was the Prime Minister's answer to Mr. King's charge that inter-Empire relations had been strained by the conference. "I know," he continued, "that the proposals commanded respect even from the most unbending. Our relations have been improved by the conference and I would dislike to have it broadcast that the leader of the Opposition speaks the thoughts or the sentiments of Canada when she will be host, to the conference in the Autumn."

All through his negotiations at the conference, Mr. Bennett asserted, he had endeavored to be frank and not to indulge in platitudes or circumlocution. He believed Empire discussions had advanced from that stage.

He was charged with employing coercion at the Imperial Conference, continued Mr. Bennett. The answer to that was that he had merely done what Sir Wilfrid Laurier had done in 1902. He had made up his mind that 30 years was long enough to wait in order to accomplish what Laurier had tried to bring about.

Will Observe Pledges

The leader of the Opposition had asserted that the Government had failed to implement its pledges, continued Mr. Bennett. The Government proposed to observe these pledges to the fullest extent. This could not be done in eight months. It had never been suggested that it would be done in eight months. The Government proposed to go on until it was done. He was aware that some of those opposite would do what they could to sow dissension and to encourage dissatisfaction. But he did not think the people of Canada would be deceived. The old cry that this was the Government of the vested interests would not hold water.

Touching briefly on trade matters, Mr. Bennett criticized the former Government for the trade agreements which it had negotiated. The former administration had made a treaty with Australia. It had made another, by order-in-Council, with New Zealand. To-day relations between Canada and New Zealand were strained because of that treaty. A channel of trade had been created and then destroyed. It would have been better for New Zealand if it had never had the Canadian market than that it should have it for a while and then lose it.

Mr. Bennett briefly referred to the treaties with Italy and France negotiated by the former Liberal Government, following which the minimum tariffs had been raised against Canada on wheat. The treaties had provided that this country should receive the minimum. Canada had received the minimum he said, but the minimum had been raised.

The Opposition leader, Mr. Bennett continued, had made reference to the trade arrangement between Argentine and England; but the basis of this agreement was bargaining. "I have pointed out to this House", the Prime Minister exclaimed, "that the basis of all agreements is bargaining." He referred to the "Life of Cobden—the free trader—and emphasized that the basis of all treaties of any value was bargaining.

TWEED SCORES

during the day. The Minister asked Mr. Tweed for the names of the corporations mentioned by the latter during his address.

Mr. Tweed, who is regarded as the Opposition financial critic, supported his charges by reading from prospectus circulars of the Ontario Power Service Corporation and the McLaren-Quebec Power Company.

Forty-year Contracts

"Speaking in the House a few days ago," he said, "the provincial treasurer referred to the Hydro-Electric System of this province. He stated that the cost of generating power was small compared with the cost of transmission. During the past year the Hydro-Electric Power Commissionof Ontario has entered into two 40-year contracts for power upon terms which appear to be extremely favorable to the power companies. A circular issued in connection with the Ontario Power Service Corporation bonds states:

"The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario has contracted to take 100,000 H. P. The net revenue from this source alone is approximately equal to the annual interest charges on our entire bond issue (twenty million dollars). In January we will have for sale another 175,000 H.P., so that earnings on this basis will amount to over twice the interest requirements when it comes into full operation.'

"A circular issued recently in connection with the sale of bonds of the MacLaren-Quebec Power Company," he continued, "reads as follows:

To Provide Earnings.

"When delivery up to the full amount of the contract is being made, it is estimated that the revenue received solely from the sale of 125,000 h.p. contracted for by Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario, will be sufficient (after paying all estimated operating expenses of MacLaren-Quebec Power Company, but before depreciation) to provide net earnings equivalent to more than 1.5 times interest requirements (assuming a 5½ per cent. interest rate on later issues) on the total authorized amount of $18,000,000 first mortgage bonds.'

"In other words, the construction of these power plants has been made possible through contracts given by this Government through the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario," said Mr. Tweed. "The Commission appears to have undertaken to purchase power for a period of 40 years upon terms that will provide a handsome profit to two power companies.

"The Government's investment in Hydro as at October 31, 1930, was $176,799,442 net and its further guarantees were $66,899,834, making a total liability of $243,699,276 on account of Hydro."

ST. PATRICK'S SUPPER.

Ladies of St. Paul's Church, Marmora, Also Sponsor Spleidid Concert.

MARMORA, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — St. Patrick's Day was chosen by the Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's as the occasion for the holding of an excellent Irish supper in the lower part of the Town Hall. The room was strikingly adorned with distinctive Irish decorations. There were several large Irish flags around the walls and miniature flags, shamrock leaf designs, and pots of shamrock graced the tables. Over one hundred persons were served at the tables, and then there remained an abundance of good things. Later in the evening, under the same auspices, the mirth-provoking comedy, "So This Is College," was shown upstairs to a packed house.

MEASURED IN MILES

SUPPOSE for a moment that advertising didn't exist—that there were no trade-marked goods—that everything you bought had to be judged solely by its look or feel or taste.

Imagine yourself setting out to do the morning's shopping under such conditions. You'd drive down the street, looking in windows for the articles you needed — the blouses for Johnny, the half-dozen bath towels, the toilet soap, the ginger ale for to-morrow's picnic. You'd stop, ask questions, examine the towels, smell the soap, wonder if here was your money's worth or if you might find something better farther on. And though you followed this procedure mile after weary mile, you could never be sure.

Computed simply in terms of gasoline and tires and shoe-leather, advertising saves you a startling sum every year. And if you add the value of your time, the amount is vastly increased.

When you buy a product that is advertised you know in advance what you will get, how much it costs and where you can obtain it. That is why, in millions of modern homes, the newspaper advertising columns are a daily guide to purchases.

Read the advertisements, decide what you need, then buy with assurance.

Let advertising save you time and money.

LARGEST ELECTRICAL UNIT IN WORLD IS MADE IN CANADA

Generators Capable of Producing 77,000 Horse Power to be Installed.

AT CHUTE A CARON, QUEBEC.

MONTREAL, March 18 (By The Canadian Press).—In their plant at Chute a Ca on, Quebec, the Alcoa Pow.r Company will soon have installed four o the largest waterwheel generato s in the world. Each of these generators will be capable o' producing 7 ,000 h rsepower and thus the four will produce 308,000 horsepowe , an amount greater than the combined develo ed water power of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and New Brunswick.

This power will be used wholely for the reduction of aluminum ores to pure aluminum. The process is an electrolytic one and require an immense amount of electrical power.

The great power developed by these generators may be imagined more easily when it is understood that just one of these generators will develop enough power to light the whole city of Toronto and have enough left to light Three Rivers. Or again, one of these generators would provide enough power to run all the washing machines in Canada or all the vacuum cleaners.

One feature of these generators is their compactness. The outside diameter of each is 31 ft. and their overall height is 32 ft. In comparison with other large generators this is extremely low. The total weight of each generator is approximately 1,200,000 lbs.

It may be interesting to note that in the manufacture of one of these generators over 450,000 pieces are used. To be able to handle this number in a minimum of time requires good organization, and in this case both manufacture and installation has been done in record time.

These four generators have been built by the Canadian Westinghouse Company at Hamilton, Ontario. Two have been installed and two are now being installed by their service department.

CONSIDER QUESTION OF WOMEN ELDERS

Recognition of Long Service in Church is Concensus of Opinion by Laymen.

MONTREAL, March 18 (By The Canadian Press).—Church elderships for women as the logical recognition of years of service are likely to follow the present deliberations of the United Church of Canada according to general feeling. The question was raised in the early days of the Church's existance and has already been discussed and even decided by a number of bodies, but only recently did it come before the Montreal Presbytery to determine their members' feeling in the matter of changing the word "men" in the official definition of an elder to the words "members in full membership" to allow of women holding this office.

The presbytery referred the matter to a special committee which will report their findings to the next meeting of that body in May.

Rev. Dr. Lloyd C. Douglas, Minister of St. James United Church said: "There is no scriptural basis for a choice of persons—no sex bar in the matter of eligib l ity for the eldership. Indeed, the place of women in the early Apostolic Church was very conspicuous. They are even mentioned by name as having a great deal to do with the social services.

"Paul, it is known, rejuected the idea of women having any administrative voice in the church. But Paul was a celibate.

'Actual church-organization work, missionary propaganda and enthusiasm, and the bulk of the social work are carried on by women. This is not surprising. They have always been the conservers of culture-religious as well as aesthetic—and for this reason alone they should be better represented in the church.

"The duties of the elders," added Dr. Douglas, "include the overseeing of the religious services—to see that the stated observances of the church are carried on in accordance with Christian tradition. The elders represent the congregation and are in touch with its wishes with regard to the religious services. They also advise the minister concerning the services best suited to the class of congregation."

NURSERY CATALOGUES.

The catalogues are coming
Ev'ry morning in the mail,
The cunning colored ca talogues
I've never seen the m fail
To make me want a garden
Where the honey-bee soft drones
Where velvety green spaces
Have inviting stepping-stones.

Those popular young poplars
That from Lombardy derive,
I'd set against the sky-line;
And I'd certainly contrive
Some tuberous begonias
A-blooming in the shade;
Then, roses, glads and dahlias
Where sun would lend them aid.

I'd scatter Alpine poppy seed
Among the rocky spots,
Then, evergreens and fruit-trees,
Maybe spruce and apricots,
I'd group in clumps. That method
Is a fundamental rule.
And certainly I'd not forget
An ornamental pool.

There waterlilies rare would sleep,
And darting goldfish play.
And then I'd have—but stop! Enough!
Dry up, and fade away!
For I'm a guy just dreaming dreams,
A dweller in a flat.
I cannot have a garden,
So, be still, my soul! That's that.

CHINA IS AWAKENING TO TRUE GREATNESS

Dr. Kinag Kang-Lu of McGill Declares New Spirit Has Been Born.

MONTREAL, March 18 (By The Canadian Press).—When sleeping lions awake and roar their challenge to the world at large it is then time to expect great doings. China is just such a lion, Dr. Kiang Kang-Lu, professor of Chinese Studies at McGill University, told the Lions Club at their weekly luncheon at the Mount Royal Hotel recently in his address, "The Significance of Lions in Chinese Literature."

Although torn with dissension, civil strife and revolutions which are disrupting the country, China is awakening to a realization of its true greatness and glorious past. A new spirit has been born, particularly during the past 20 years, calling for a return to that progressive civilization fostered in the first place by the country, the speaker said.

A unification process is now in evolution, and a great deal of territory that was previously "grabbed" for commercial purposes has been re tored. Dr. Kiang Kang-Lu expressed the opinion that by the end of the current year there would be no existing concession possessions.

The lion always has been looked upon as the symbol of power and wisdom, Dr. Kang-Lu said. Curiously enough, the Chinese word for lion and teacher is the same. Time and again, complaints were registered by court attendants of past dynasties that more appropriations were made for the feeding of lions than for the salaries of the courtiers.

Vatican Questions Easter Visit

ARCHBISHOP'S JERUSALEM VISIT QUESTIONED BY POPE

Vatican circles have learned unofficially that the Holy See has made representations to the British government regarding the situation which might be created in Jerusalem by proposed visit during Easter season of Archbishop of Canterbury, shown ABOVE, on the yacht of J. P. Morgan, New York financier. The Vatican, it is understood, is not directly opposed to the visit, but has pointed out that it might be interpreted in Palestine as an Anglican bid for part possession of the Holy Sepulchre, now guarded by four religions.

SNOWDEN FACES PROBLEMS WELL

Prestige of British Chancellor of Exchequer Grows With Time.

DISREGARDS EXTREMISTS.

LONDON, March 18 (By Thos. T Champion, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent).—Rt. Hon. Philip Snowden, Chancellor of the Exchequer, whose speech concerning the state of the national finances has been described as the gravest pronouncement made to the country since the early days of the Great War, possesses as arresting a personality as any in present-day life. His face is one of the keenest of the hatchet type. A grievous accident in early life wrecked his physical frame, and compelled his retirement as a civil servant. Perhaps it was this misfortune which pardonably assisted him to the cultivation of an acid tongue. Snowden not so many years ago could have passed very fairly for the-original of W. S. Gilbert's King Gama, who found life "extremely flat, with nothing whatever to grumble at."

Snowden, who is now 67, entered Parliament relatively late in life, having turned 40. In this he was like Joseph Chamberlain. They were alike, too, in going to Westminster with a great reputation. Snowden's maiden speech created almost as big a sensation as did the maiden speech of F. E. Smith, afterwards Earl of Birkenhead. But amongst those who remember hearing both efforts it will always be allowed that whereas F. E. Smith spoke from the head alone, Snowden spoke, as he has always continued to speak, from the heart as well as the head. Snowden never sacrifices principles for tactical dialetics. Despite his one-time venomous tongue, he has always been one of the most popular figures of the Commons.

Idol of Socialist Party.

When Philip Snowden entered Parliament for Blackburn in 1906 he was well-nigh-the idol of the Socialist Party. Six years earlier, although unsuccessful in gaining the seat, he had polled in that town the largest vote which had ever been secured till then by an apostle of Socialism. Snowden, indeed, may be said to have created the Socialist "Hot Gospel" and brought it into active politics in England. Although he was never a Communist it was Snowden who invented the phrase, "The Idle Rich." From his early days he had a flair for high finance. No doubt his abilities here were stimulated by his experience in the Inland Revenue Department. In passing it may be mentioned that Snowden was born in the bleak Bronte country of Yorkshire. Maybe this had a nascent influence over his temperament.

Snowden during the War was a pacifist and anti-conscriptionist. He lost his seat at Blackburn in consequence, and he also lost his valuable connection as a free-lance newspaperman. Though he was opposed to the war he fought hard against those members of his party who supported the Russian Revolution. Both Mrs. Snowden and he are looked at askance by many Socialists on account of their attitude towards Russia. In his general outlook there is no doubt Snowden has mellowed as the years have passed. If he had had his own way, it seems, he would rather have been a newspaperman than a Cabinet Minister. He is still a member of the Trades Union called the National Union of Journalists. "I have never really taken to politics," he told a gathering of this body recently. "The House of Commons has never gripped me. You get into a current very often by accident. It carries you along, and it is very difficult for you to reach back. Politics is certainly fascinating. It is exciting at times, but there is a dark side. There are great possibilities of tremendous influence, but there are great temptations, great dangers, and it takes a strong character to resist them."

Ships launched in Sweden last year totaled 132,000 gross tons, as compared with 107,000 tons in 1929.

Intelligence Tests Being Widely Used

MONTREAL, March 18 (By The Canadian Press). — The trained psychologist now measures intelligence as a grocer measures out his viands, according to Canon Gustave Jeanjean, of the Universite Catholique of Paris, who spoke recently at the University of Montreal under the auspices of the Institut Scientifique Franco-Canadien. Intelligence tests were first used to determine the abilities of obviously backward children, he stated, but their use is being windened to cover all types and to add in discovering students' abilities and aptitudes.

In the United States, said Canon Jeanjean, intelligence tests are very widely used, and their use in France is growing. It was the late war which gave intelligence testing such an impetus, tests being given nearly all recruits to the United States army and the resulting mass of information was of great use to psychologists.

Intelligence tests must not be taken as a true means of measuring the student's chance of success in life, the speaker said. There have been many examples of people of unusual brilliance in school who fail almo.t completely to adjust themselves to practical life after graduation and contrary cases of those who stand near the foot of their classes at school and later far outstrip their more clever fellows, he pointed out.

CITY UNDER CITY IN RADIO CENTRE

34 FEET UNDER GROUND.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Underneath "Rockefeller City," John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s $250,000,000 midtown project, will be a subterranean "village," with its own shops, garages, service platforms, arcad s, and appurtenances, it was disclosed yesterday.

The "village" will comprise two levels, one seventeen feet beneath the ground level, and the other thirty-four feet down. All of the enormous unit that will occupy nearly three city blocks between 48th and 51st sts. and Fifth and Sixth aves. will be "serviced" by means of the underground passages.

The garages are designed to accommodate 663 cars, but probably 1,000 cars could be accommodated in the space allotted. Ramps lead down from the ground level to the garages, providing both entrances and exits.

Besides these features, there are huge shipping platforms, with accommodations for the largest motor trucks, for hauling material in and out of "Rockefeller City." Hence it will be unnecessary for any motor truck to be parked on the ground surface anywhere in the entire area.

Parking Provided.

A special provision has been made for parking automobiles of box-holders of the Metropolitan Opera House, should the institution build its new home in "Rockefeller City." Opera box-holders could thus drive into the area from Fifth or Sixth ave., from 48th or 51st st. and have their cars parked, without confusion, in a commodious garage.

If you buy out of town, and I buy out of town, and all our neighbors buy out of town, what in thunder will become of our town? Ever think about it?

He Had Kidney Trouble And Soon Found Relief

That's Why Mr. J. Johnston Recommends Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Ontario Man Now Free From His Pains—Would Not Be Without Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Listowel, Ont., March 18.—(Special). "I suffered with my Kidneys and Back for a long time." These are the words of Mr. J. Johnston, R. R. 1, well-known resident in this locality. "My neighbour advised me to get Dodd's Kidney Pills. I suffered terribly with my kidneys. I am very thankful to tell you I received such a great benefit, that I now recommend them to all I know that are suffering. I got relief after taking three boxes. I am feeling fine now and would not be without them."

The kidneys strain all the poison out of the blood. The very nature of their work keeps them constantly in danger. They need occasional help if they are to do their work properly.

Dodd's Kidney Pills are just a kidney remedy—purely and simply. They can be taken by old and young alike Give them a trial. You will not regret doing so.

THE NEGLECTED DEBUTANTE

THE society columns referred to her as "one of last season's buds." Other girls her age married and set up homes. While she was left to face the future alone. Yet if she had only known in time. . . .

Too often, really charming girls allow poisons of constipation to take the bloom from their cheeks, to bring the pimples and wrinkles that age complexions.

Constipation is so much more prevalent among women, so much more difficult for them. What a pity when prevention is so easy. Simply eat a delicious cereal.

Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, eaten daily, are guaranteed to prevent and relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. In severe cases, use with each meal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN sweeps the intestines clean of all poisonous wastes. How much better than taking habit-forming pills and drugs.

Serve Kellogg's ALL-BRAN with milk or cream, fruits or honey added. Use for making fluffy bran muffins, breads, omelets, etc. Look for the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

E. R. Taylor Honored On Eve Of Departure

An interesting event took place recently when representatives of the different departments of the Canadian National Railway staffs in Peterborough met in the agents office to bid good-bye to E. R. Taylor, one of their number, on the eve of his departure for Belleville where he has been appointed to the position of chief clerk in the office of F. H. Coppin, freight agent in that city.

Mr. Taylor has been in the service of the Railway Company since 1912 and has become a recognized expert in freight classification, especially in the department of grains milled in transit for reshipment. In this industry Peterborough holds an outstanding position among the milling centres in Canada.

The following address was read by Alphine MacNab, freight agent in this city, and was signed also by F. V. Clementi, chief clerk and Charles McGee, shed foreman: "It is with mingled feelings of pleasure and regret that we learn of your deserved promotion to the post of chief clerk of the freight office staff at Belleville."

"The members of Peterborough staff extend congratulations while at the same time we feel that your removal will means a decided loss to our organization here, where you have occupied a niche which has grown in importance with the expansion of manfuacturing and distribution in this city."

"We can only extend to you our best wishes, and hope that you may earn respect and high esteem of the citizens of Belleville, that you have enjoyed in your native city."

The members of the staff presented Mr. Taylor with a chain and stick pin, as a token of the esteem in which he is held by them all.

Mr. Taylor's family will remain in the city for the present.

INSTITUTE AIDS NEEDY FAMILIES

Millbrook Institute Women Plan to Honor Their Thirtieth Anniversary.

TO ATTEND CHURCH.

MILLBROOK, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—Mrs. T. G. Harkness, president of the local branch of the Women's Institute, was hostess for the March meeting which was held at her home, Union street, on Saturday evening with over twenty members in attendance.

The bad state of the roads, and the fact that intervening events made it necessary to hold the meeting in the evening, rather than the afternoon the customary time during the winter months, lessened the number present, but not the interest in the work being accomplished.

The treasurer, Mrs. T. H. Aiken, made a report on the amount received from recent rental of the piano in the Town Hall, $8.50 in all, through entertainments, and of the usual deposit of one dollar in the bank for a new baby in the home of the members, Donald Earle Richards, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Richards.

Aid Several in Need

In the absence of the secretary, Mrs. W. H. Armstrong, Miss E. Grandy acted for that officer, and among the business items given attention was the matter of sending groceries, and arranging for a daily supply of milk, in a home of the community; fruit for another home where the breadwinner has been ill for months; and flowers for the district secretary, Mrs. J. R. Eakins, for whose illness general regret was expressed.

The committee appointed for the April meeting included: Mrs. Weston Fallis, Mrs. Lowes and Mrs. J. H. George, the president kindly offering her home for the gathering. The committee in charge of Saturday's meeting was: Mrs. T. Ingram, Mrs. R. Brown and Mrs. Harold Nattress, and the response to the roll call required a native quotation, or a suggestion on system in house-cleaning.

A piano duet by Misses Dorothy McDowell and Mary Nattress featured the social part of the gathering, during which homemade candy was served, the vote of thanks to the hostess and the committee being sponsored by Miss E. Grandy and Mrs. W. Fallis, and heartily endorsed by all.

In the absence of Mrs. R. J. McKnight, the pianist of the branch, Mrs. Weston C. aFllis, presided at the piano.

Plan Birthday Party

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the birthday party of the Institute met at the president's home on Monday afternoon, when the invitations were addressed and later mailed, the guests being limited to the branch membership which numbers one hundred and twenty-three; and the birthday cake was given its initial coat of icing this matter being in the capable hands of Mrs. Harkness and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong. Each member invited is allowed to bring one other with her, husbands being included with wives in the invitations; unmarried members may bring a friend.

Of special interest to Institute members, not only in the village, but throughout the East Durham district, is the fact that the attendance of all the branches at divine worship in Grace Presbyterian Church which was planned for Sunday evening, March 22, the actual date of the thirtieth birthday of the local branch has unavoidably been postponed owing to the absence of the regular minister, Rev. John Riddell, who will not be in his own pulpit on that occasion, having had a call to preach elsewhere on Sunday.

When roads are in better condition, and cars are running, the church attendance of the Institute members in a body will be carried out, as this has become an annual custom, and it will then be possible to count upon a much larger number being present for what is really a most important occasion. The social gathering on Monday, March 23, will mark the birthday anniversary

TRAVELOGUE GIVEN AT CAMPBELLFORD

J. M. Cotton of Cunard Company Shows Films of England and Scotland.

CAMPBELLFORD, Mar. 18. (By Examiner Staff Correspondent).— A very interesting and instructive moving picture show was given on Tuesday evening in St. John's United Church, by the Cunard Steamship Line Company, when J. M. Cotton the company representative presented ten reels of films depicting a travelogue entitled "Treasures of Britain", these dealing with the scenic beauties of Scotland and the cities and places of interest in England.

During the showing of the films it took little flights of imagination to transport one on board a beautiful Cunarder for a trip to Great Britain and back, and while there to enjoy the wonders of the Old World. It is dificult however to find scenery to compare with the glories of Scotland's wandering waterways, Highland glens, heather covered mountains, and England's historic places of interest, Shakespeare's country, wonderful old Cathedrals, old London with its castle, art galleries and Museum and other centres of historic significance.

The event was attended by a large number of people who enjoyed a good two hours' entertainment and instruction.

FARMERS WANT MEN MEN REQUIRE JOBS

An Opportunity to Get Together on Saturday Next at Employment Office.

There is a demand in this district by farmers for experienced farm help and there is a supply of fully experienced men who desire to contract for the farm, but it is hard to get them together. The Examiner has arranged with Hugh Robertson, in charge of the Employment Service of Canada Office at 197½ Charlotte street, to allow the farmers to meet the men looking for positions at his office between the hours of 9 in the morning and 1 o'clock afternoon Saturday next, March 21st.

Men looking for positions must be steady and reliable, experienced, able to milk and to handle machinery used on farm and in cases sign up for 8 months or a year which it would seem to be good business on the part of the man to do. Remember the date, Saturday next, March 21st, at Employment Office, 9 to 1.

CASE IS DISMISSED BY JUDGE O'CONNOR

W. T. Hall Had Sued Town of Campbellford for $270.00.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 18 (By Staff Correspondent). — The case which William J. Hall brought against the town of Campbellford has been dismissed with costs by Judge O'Connor of Cobourg.

In 1928 William Hall petitioned the Campbellford Council to construct a sewer on Booth street. He owns two lots in the municipality in the same block; one with a frontage on Second street and the other with a frontage on Booth street. His house is located on the Booth street frontage. The council entered into an agreement with Hall to construct the sewer on Booth street if he would pay frontage tax on both streets. They also gave Hall the work of digging the drain, which amounted to approximately $270.00.

Hall claimed that this agreement was never entered into, while the council contended that those were the terms under which the work proceeded. Hall refused to pay the frontage tax, and the council refused to pay Hall's wages until an agreement was signed for the said frontage.

Hall sued the town for the cost of the work, the case coming before Judge O'Connor in June, 1929. He reserved his decision, however; the judgment dismissing the case with costs having just been received.

DR BANKS NELSON IS NOMINATED

Lindsay Presbytery Approves of Montreal Overture.

MINISTER RESIGNS.

LINDSAY, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—At the meeting of the Lindsay Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church held here yesterday, the overture which the Montreal Presbytery is sending to General Assembly, asking that the Church in Canada adopt the Scottish Church Hymnal was approved.

Dr. Banks S. Nelson, of Hamilton, was nominated for the Moderatorship of the General Assembly for 1932.

Rev. Mr. Snider, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Fenelon Falls, resigned his charge. The congregation was cited to appear in their interests at the next meeting of Presbytery.

Purchase Reported

It was reported here yesterday that the Canadian Distillers, Limited, had purchased the local plant of the Lindsay Distillers, Limited, which went into liquidation several months ago. No information was given out as to whether or not the local plant would be operated by its new owners.

The distillery, which is modern in every detail, has been in the hands of the receiver for some months. Bottling operations were carried on, however, as there appeared to be a good demand for the products of the plant. There was also quite a supply of liquor on hand at the time the plant went into liquidation.

Official confirmation of the report that the plant had been taken over could not be obtained. Those who were in close touch with the plant, however, claimed yesterday that it was now in new hands.

JUNIOR AUXILIARY FORMED IN TWEED

Members of the United Church Hold Most Enjoyable Irish Social.

TWEED, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence).—A junior branch of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican Church here was organized at the home of Mrs. E. R. Kinch on Friday evening. Rev. W. L. Wright, the rector, was present and opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Kinch, which is greatly interested in junior auxiliary work, read the constitution and outlined the duties of the various officers. The following officers were elected:—

President, Joyce Morrison; Secretary, Helen Hagerman; Treasurer Doris Elliott; Organist, Margaret Hindle.

Beverly Wheeler and Fay Simmons were appointed to the visiting committee; Doris Kinch was made literature secretary, and the pages are Connie Morrison and Dorothy Way. Twenty-five girls were present.

At the recent meeting of the W.M.S. of the United Church held in the church parlors, the third chapter of the study book was taken by Mesdames Patterson, Barnet, Craig and Grier. Mrs. Grier delighted her audience with a solo and a Japanese story was told by Mrs. McGuire.

Held Irish Evening

A most successful Irish evening was held recently by the United Church congregation when over 125 attended. Irish decorations were most evident and the lunch, which was typically Irish, was served in real old Irish style. Dr. Bowlby gave a most interesting paper on Ireland. Mr. Hicks gave a short review on the life of St. Patrick, the patron saint. The musical part of the program consisted of a violin solo by Mrs. Frost, who was accompanied by Dr. Locke, and Irish folk songs were sung by all those present.

Miss Millicent Moffatt left on Saturday to enter Toronto General Hospital as nurse-in-training. Mrs. Moffat accompanied her daughter to Toronto.

Rev. Leonard, accompanied by Rita Ryan, spent the week-end in Kingston.

Miss Lavelle of Toronto is taking Miss Coughlin's place for a couple of weeks on the High School staff.

Mr. Jack Ryan and Sidney Arber spent Sunday in Belleville.

Mrs. William Collins of Morie spent Sunday with friends in Tweed.

OFFICIALS DISCUSS CANCELLING TRAIN

Local Between Tweed and Havelock to be Discontinued This Summer.

TWEED, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—W. Fulton, assistant general passenger agent of the C.P.R. and W. McMill, superintendent, met a deputation of the Tweed Board of Trade here on Tuesday morning to discuss the proposed cutting off permanently of the Tweed-Havelock train.

It has been the custom to cancel this train during the winter months, but owing to reduced revenue the railway to discontinue the service altogether. Mr. McMillan stated that it costs $700 per month to operate the train and the revenue averages only $100 monthly.

It was suggested that if the train was run in the winter the revenue might be increased, but Mr. McMillan took the opposite view. It was urged that a better passenger service be instituted on the regular train. While sympathetic the officials gave the deputation little encouragement to hope that the train would be continued.

What To-day Means To You

"PISCES"

If March 18th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:15 a.m. to 1 p.m., from 4 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. and from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. The danger hours are from 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m., and from 7 p.m. to 8:15 p.m.

The planetary aspects of March 18th ar favorable for ommercial enterprise, but are unsatisfactory so far as social life is concerned. After sunset, conditions improve and augur a more restful and less energetic atmospher. Guard against impulsive words and deeds!

A child born on this March 18th will be self-reliant and concentrated. It will always know what it wants, and go after it with vim and confidence. It will be affectionate, clean minded, energetic and unselfish. As a lover it will always be constant.

If your birthday falls on March 18th, you lack concentration, and scatter rather than focus. You promise, if this line of action be uncurbed, to become a Jack of all trades and a master of none. In this highly specialized age, it behooves you to settle on that which you can do, and would like to do, best. Then bend all your energies to the prosecution of the task that you choose until success crowns your efforts.

You are rather disposed to speculate on what the future holds in store, instead of working at the job near to hand. Everything comes to those who hustle whilst they wait. You are easily discouraged, forgetting that the most outstanding successes have only been achieved after repeated failures. A setback often illumines the road to final accomplishmen.

You are domestic ated and homeloving, and will be loyal and true, not only to your kith and kin, but to your friends. You are intellectual, and fond of good reading. Although you evince an interest in sports, you take no active part in them. You are uninfluenced by others' opinions, and are no much of a stickler for conventionalities, and gossip or scandal is anathema to you.

SEEK AID AFTER MARCH 31

KITCHENER, Ont., March 18 — The City Council last night decided to ask the Dominion Government to carry on the unemployment relief system beyond the March 31 date. Council members expressed the opinion that if the municipalities are to continue to give relief employment an extension of Governmental assistance is necessary and the aldermen believe that the need for such an extension is urgent at present, just as urgent as it has been for some time past.

Two Sevres vases have been presented by the President of France as prizes for French in English schools.

District Churches

MADOC, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence)—Sunday services at St. Peter's Presbyterian Church on March 15 were conducted as usual, Sunday School at 10 o'clock, and morning service at eleven o'clock, the subject for the morning being, "Dues we owe the World and God." The subject for the evening was, "Are you a companion of Jesus?" After each evening service during Lent, special classes are held for Christian instruction, and on Sunday evening last the subject for consideration was "How to make a success of the Christian Life."

St. John's Church

At St. John's Anglican Church, the rector, Rev. P. Gatley Reynolds, who has been seriously ill for some weeks, was able to take charge of the services for the first time during Lent. Sunday School was held as usual, all the teachers being present, with the exception of Mrs. Reynolds, who has undergone an operation at Belleville General Hospital, and is convalescing slowly. The usual Lenten services of morning prayer and litany were followed by an instructive and earnest message by the rector, whose subject was, "The wages of sin is death."

Evensong and sermon was at the usual hour of seven o'clock with special Lenten sermon and Lenten hymns.

Trinity United Church

At Trinity United Church the subject taken was "The Way of Life" taken from the sermon on the Mount Matt. 7, 13 and 14. "There are two roads in which to travel—the narrow and the broad. The way we travel determines our goal. Jesus invites us to take the narrow road—it leads to a worth-while goal—Life. This road is broad enough to meet the needs, and the gate is wide enough to admit all who are willing to pay the price. As we travel along the narrow road with Christ, we share His nature. Our sympathy, purposes and hopes will become broader. We are on our way to be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is."

During the service an anthem "I Learn of Him" was rendered by the choir.

In the evening the choir was composed of the younger members, the "Junior Choir," who gave a special selection of familiar hymns, and of these several hymns were explained and the origin of each given by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Rivers, who also spoke on "Christianity and Music."

THE MISTAKE OF A FAMOUS DOCTOR

Dr. Robert G. Jackson's paternal grandfather, father and seven paternal uncles and aunts, and his own brother and sister, all died of heart disease. At 50 the great Sir Wm. Osler gave the doctor himself only four months to live, dying from heart disease and "general breakdown." He'd lived five years on the ground floor, unable to climb stairs. Four years after Osler gave him up he climbed the fifty storeys in Washington's Monument, up and down, and was not even tired. All a result of changed living habits—chiefly a change from civilization's disease-causing acid foods to alkali-forming Roman Meal. His 438-page book, "HOW TO BE ALWAYS WELL," tells the entire story—shows how anyone may be always well, by natural means. Remit $3.00 by P.O. order for a copy, or write for descriptive literature to ROBT. G. JACKSON, M.D., 502 Vine Ave., Toronto 9, Ont., or write for his free booklet, "HOW TO KEEP WELL," and sample of Roman Meal and the new alkaline beverage, "Kofy-sub."

CAVAN

On Sunday evening in Cavan United Church, the pastor, the Rev. J. E. Whitham spoke on the crucifixion of Christ, taking his text from Luke 23,33. On each Sunday until Easter his sermons will be appropriate to the Easter season.

On Wednesday evening the Young People's Society are having an open meeting at which the chief attraction will be a debate, "Resolved that Women have had a greater influence in the World than Men."

The affirmative will be upheld by the Misses Vera McKim, and Ena Vander Horne, while the negative side will be supported by Messrs. Reg. Sutton and Ralph Staples.

Mr. David Swain, Valentia, visited friends in Cavan at the week-end.

Cavan Women's Institute will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Eber Syer on Thursday afternoon.

LADIES' AID PLANS CROKINOLE PARTY

Centenery Ladies Work Diligently at Making Quilt for Society.

ROSENEATH, Mar. 18. (Examiner Correspondence).—The Ladies Aid of Centenery held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Silas Sherwin and was extra well attended considering the condition of the roads.

As many as could be seated comfortably worked diligently at quilting a quilt and accomplished their task in a few hours, having ready for sale a beautiful piece-work quilt neatly worked.

While some of the ladies were quilting the others took charge of the meeting, lead by the president, Mrs. T. Arthur.

After the opening exercises a discussion and later plans were made to hold a crokinole party on April 1st in the school-house. Committees in charge appointed were Miss Josephine McGee and Miss Jessie Sherwin to secure crokinole boards, etc.; Mrs. N. Lean and Mrs. Bruce Arthur to purchase prizes; Mrs. D. Timlin, Miss Emma Sherwin and Miss Hilda Arthur to provide other numbers of amusement and entertainment for the evening.

The Ladies Aid at Centenery is a small society as yet, it being entirely in the country but the members are doing their utmost to make it a success and as in all their gatherings of the past a big time is anticipated.

After repeating the Mizpah benediction, lunch was served and a social time was spent over the teacups.

The April meeting will be held in Centenery church on the 9th at 2.30 o'clock.

SOME SIMPLE WAYS TO FIGHT flu

EVERY DAY NOW, national and local authorities are issuing urgent requests for precautionary measures against the spread of flu, colds and pneumonia.

Their advice is simple and sensible. The exact cause of flu is not definitely known. But a weakened run-down condition may expose us to greater risks of flu—just as it may expose us to greater risks of other diseases. So the wise thing is to build up our vitality and resistance. Keep free from worry. Avoid exposure and over-fatigue. Get plenty of nourishing food, sleep and exercise. And start at once to take a good, fortifying tonic.

Doctors advise Scott's Emulsion

Scott's Emulsion is recommended by doctors because it brings the remarkable health-building and disease-resisting vitamins of cod-liver oil—in the pleasantest way. Scott's Emulsion is emulsified. So it's free from that strong "fishy" taste. Easier to take. Easier to digest. And more quickly absorbed into the blood stream. As a result, Scott's Emulsion benefits you almost immediately. It promptly strengthens and revitalizes weakened systems. It improves your weight and appetite. It increases your resistance against the dread attacks of pesky colds and other winter ills.

Wonderful for children!

Try Scott's Emulsion for pale, thin children, too. Made of purest, tested Norwegian cod-liver oil, Scott's Emulsion is rich in vitamin A, the growth-promoting vitamin that helps guard against disease. It is rich in vitamin D, the sunshine vitamin that prevents rickets. It also contains vital mineral elements that aid in forming sound bones and teeth. And remember—Scott's Emulsion tastes good! Get a bottle at your druggist's to-day!

Convenors for these were appointed as follows: Mrs. F. Skitch, Mrs. W. Flannery, Mrs. S. Gibbs, Mrs. Fowler, Mrs. A. G. Metheral, and Mrs. D. G. Eldred. Members for the various groups were drawn for. A service of dainty refreshments was served by the hostess.

Mrs. N. D. Seaton, Frederick Avenue, was hostess on Monday evening to the members of the Draamtic Club of the Lyceum Women's Art Association. The members enjoyed a very pleasant evening and were intensely amused by the fun provided by the proposal scene from "Oliver Twist," when Mr. Bumble, the pompous beadle, proposes to the rich lady of his fancy. Mrs. L. J. Pettit and Miss Viola Fusee impersonated the beadle and his charmer, much to the delight of their listeners. Mrs. Pettit, who is directress of the Dramatic Club, also gave a very interesting paper.

Yesterday afternoon, during the tea hour, many ladies dropped into the Ladies' Parlor at St. John's Parish House, for a cup of tea near the cosy fireplace. The north group of the Church Women's Association acted as hostesses with Mrs. T. P. McCullough and Mrs. W. J. Kent in charge. The ladies were received by Mrs. J. Comstock, president of the C.W.A., and Mrs. R. C. Blagrave. The table was arranged very prettily with a large bowl of spring flowers, ivory tapers, and green shamrock cut-outs in honor of the season. Tea was poured by Mrs. T. A. S. Hay and Mrs. Denmark, assisted by Mrs. A. E. Caddy, Mrs. C. H. Rogers, and Mrs. Bruce Hutchinson. A very successful and enjoyable St. Patrick's Day dance was held in Austin's Tea Rooms last night under the auspices of the Social Club of the Canadian Departmental Stores, with an attendance of about one hundred and twenty-five people. The hall was attractively decorated with St. Patrick's Day novelties and colors of green and white. A St. Patrick's Day birthday dance, with shamrocks as favors, was won by Miss Josephine Clancy and Mr. Frank Douglas. During the evening, the presentation of a cigarette lighter and case was made to Mr. Herbert Masterson by his associates of the Social Club. Mr. Masterson recently severed his connection with the Canadian Departmental Stores, to take another position in the city. The committee in charge of arrangements, with Mr. H. Turvey as convenor, included the Misses Iris Payne, Loretta Carrol and Florence Hetherington, and Mr. George Wensley. Among those present were the following: Mrs. H. Turner, Mrs. A. Queensboro

QUEENSBORO, March 17.—(Examiner Correspondence).— A fine evening on Friday brought a good crowd to listen to the Old Tyme concert put on in the Orange Hall under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the United Church. Great credit is due the committee, Mrs. John O'Rourke, Mrs. Bruce Leslie and Mrs. J. F. Everson for the success of the occasion. There were some twenty-one took part in the program all of whom were dressed in costumes of fifty to one hundred years ago. The ladies wearing long hair, high topped shoes and long dresses with full skirts, ear-rings, bonnets and wide rimmed hats w drapings. The men were dressed in swallow tailed coats, white vests, wigs, goatees, moustaches, dickies, high collars with turned down corners and bow-ties.

The stage was arranged with a picture of the late Queen Victoria draped with hand-worked lace, the window with lace curtains, the walls with a motto of Home Sweet Home, grandfather's clock, postcard racks and quaint pictures of grandparents. Among the furniture were old fashioned rockers and on the floor were mats of former days.

The whole setting was unique and brought roars of laughter from the audience as the following program proceeded each number of which was greatly appreciated and heartily applauded.

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

Have you ever talked with anyone who apparently was not listening attentively, but tried to appear so?

• • • • • • •

In other words the person seemed to be making an effort, as it were, to give his or her attention, and whose gaze kept wandering to other persons as they passed.

• • • • • • •

Sure signs of latent unpopularity in a young person are desultory listening and a roving eye when supposedly being engaged in conversation.

• • • • • • •

The person you talked to probably acted as if she felt constrained to hear what you had to say but it was only because it would be discourteous of her to leave you and she hesitated about going off abruptly.

• • • • • • •

I wonder if you know that such absent-mined listening can become a habit? Mothers should tell their children that to be a good listener is one of the secrets of popularity.

• • • • • • •

If they find conversation with any particular person is actually boresome, they should manage to free themselves graciously after a very short talk.

• • • • • • •

During the time of the conversation the attention must not waver visibly. It not only appears discourteous, but it is actually rude.

• • • • • • •

Yu signify that what is said is not wrth listening to and also that you would much prefer being in the company of someone else. When inattentiveness becomes a habit, these insinuations are not true, in most cases, and yet they appear so.

• • • • • • •

Then you are blamed and criticized just the same and so beware of forming such a reprehensible habit.

• • • • • • •

If you are with a person who is not paying due attention to what you are saying, be quick to release her graciously. There may be a reason wh'ch you have nothing to do with.

• • • • • • •

It may be something is bothering her or she may have promised to meet a friend for whom she must be looking, but of course if the latter is the case, she should be courteous enough to mention the fact.

• • • • • • •

While there should be this reciprocity in conversation, the responsibility of paying heed to what another is saying rests with the listener if she would be popular.

AGED ROSENEATH COUPLE 48 YEARS MARRIED ON THURSDAY

Veteran Couple Endured Many Hardships in Pioneer Farming.

BOTH WORKED HARD.

ROSENEATH, Mar. 18. (Examiner Correspondence).—Thursday, March 20th will mark the forty-eighth milestone in the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mouncey of this village.

This veteran couple have endured many hardships in pioneer days and farming was no easy task.

It was a case of clearing the land and carrying on mixed farming, working early and late to make a living and for which they now reap the benefit. Mr. Mouncey is past his 77th year and believes the farmers and the people of those early days were happier than they are today. He says, to-day the world seems to be travelling at too fast a clip. People are restless and always on the go, that even the farmers are almost too busy to put in full time on the farm. It is evident that Mr. Mouncey would enjoy a drive behind a team of horses in preference to an automobile although he says one must keep up with the times.

Mrs. Mouncey has passed her 73rd birthday and like her husband has worked very hard in her early days helping her husband and raising her family.

Faithful Institute Worker

She enjoys the blessing of undimmed faculties and memory and when health permits is always present at the W.M.S. or W.I. societies of which she is a faithful member.

Mr. and Mrs. Mouncey in their declining years have not been in the best of health, yet they are able to be around the house and love a quiet chat with their friends and neighbors, who join in wishing them heartiest congratulations and trust their health may be fully restored to enjoy many more anniversaries.

They can converse with their family every day except one son, Bruce who is in Vancouver. The others are Archie, Harry and George of Alnwick township, John of Fenella and one daughter, Mrs. William West of Hastings; also twenty-two grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

COLDS AND PNEUMONIA

A motorist thought he felt a little jar under his footboard, but it didn't occur again for two or three days. He intended to speak to the garage man but as he only felt the jar occasionally he forgot about it.

Stopping for a red signal light, he attempted to go ahead when the green light appeared but found his car would not go, although the engine was running all right. He was towed to a garage, where it was found that an axle was broken and the lining of the hub was "chewed up." Had he attended to this first "knock" he would have saved a lot of money.

What is my thought?

That the common cold can start in a very simple way by an irritation in nose and throat. If the individual neglects this cold, does nothing to cleanse out the intestine, does nothing to induce sweating, continues to eat heavy meals, the cold may hang on and bronchitis develop. Despite care, pneumonia may follow and then he is in for real trouble.

As you know, when you think of a serious illness you think first of pneumonia, for despite all the progress made in medicine by curing malaria, small pox, yellow fever, and lessening the death rate of tuberculosis, there does not seem to be much success in lessening the number of cases, or lowering the death rate, in pneumonia.

How does pneumonia start?

In the majority of cases, about four out of five, it follows a "cold."

The actual organism that causes pneumonia may be in the nose and throat in healthy people. It would seem that the cold either makes it more harmful, or what is more likely the cold renders the natural healthy lining of the nose and throat less healthy, and so the pneumonia organism doesn't have to fight hard to start trouble.

Thus the trouble extends from the nose and throat down the bronchial tubes to the little tubes and little sacks or bags which form the lungs. The same tissue, the same lining, as found in the nose and throat, extends downward to the lungs.

If you were to spill some water on your vestibule floor, then there is nothing to hinder that water extending into the house, into sitting room, dining room or even the kitchen, because it is all the same floor.

So don't neglect a cold. It can usually be checked by rest in bed, cleansing intestine, inducing perspiration, and eating light meals.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY PLAY AT GRAND IS PRESENTED BY DRAMATIC CLUB

Play, "Kathleen Mavourneen," Well Enacted By Splendid Cast.

REAL IRISH PLAY.

(By Jeanette)

Another anniversary of the natal day of the great saint of the Emerald Isle has rolled away and another St. Patrick's Day Play has added itself to the list of annual amateur events that commemorate the wearing of the green.

"Kathleen Mavourneen," that romantic Irish drama in four acts, was the play chosen for presentation this year by the Dramatic Club of St. Alphonsus Lyceum. With a cast recruited from the three parishes of the city and with specialties that kept alive that spirit of song and dance that has animated always the green little island over the sea, the performers entertained their audience for two and a half hours last night. The Grand Opera House echoed one more to strains of Irish music and the sound of the Irish brogue.

It is a very entertaining production, this romantic drama that revolves about the dream of the heroine, Kathleen O'Connor, when she hesitates between the true love of an Irish lad and the offer of an amusement-seeking squire. The second and third acts are occupied by the progress of her dream, which pictures in melodramatic style the fate that awaits her as the wife of the rich man. To those who think the action piles itself up rather heavily, the climax comes as a very successful way out. Kathleen dreams in wholesal fashion, and never stops until she has been nearly murdered and her lover is about to be hanged. The awaking from the dream saves the situation and turns the hatefulness of the evil third act into the phantasy of a nervous brain.

The play was well enacted, with a splendid cast and setting and lighting that added the final touch to its interest.

Miss Minnie Allen was he heroine, Kathleen O'Connor, who won the love of the squire and the humble Irish lad with the sweet voice. She was all that an Irish colleen should be, with a pair of blue Irish eyes under a head of dark Irish hair, a real Irish turn to her voice and a green and white dress that suited her slender figure to perfection. Miss Allen was exceptionally good in her part.

William Collins, as Terence O'More, good foil for the little Irish colleen. With his fine voice ringing out in the strains of Gaelic love songs and his cheerful attitude overcoming the terrors of his little sweetheart's dreaming, he was a real broth of a boy and filled his role excellently.

The Two Villians.

The villains of the piece were the squire, Bernard Kavanagh, and his terrifying henchman, Black Rody, while the lesser companions for these two very bad people were the squire's sister, Miss Dorothy Kavanagh, and the assistant to the "murthering ruffian," Red Barney. The frightening atmosphere that dwelt about them in two acts could hardly be driven away by the resumption of pleasanter manners in the final act. Even when Kathleen left off dreaming about them, they still appeared to be in bad repute. The gallery occupant who cried suddenly "Oh you brute!" as the squire revealed his villainy last night had an echo in many a heart in the audience, for the bad men were very bad indeed. Squire Kavanagh (Don McKinnon) was ready to murder his wife at a moment's notice, and purchased her death from a rascally fellow who was quite callous about the details and flouri hed his throat-cutting knife with horrible ease and abandon. Mr. McKinnon filled the unlikeable role of the squire with skill and ease and John Madden was so thoroughly frightening in his role of the money-grabbing murderer, Black Rody, that he struck terror to the hearts of all. His make-up was splendid.

Miss Peggy Roche as the squire's haughty and imperious sister, Dorothy Kavanagh, quite content to have Kathleen put out of the way when it suited her plans, was splendid. Her voice and manner had a professional touch and she looked superb in a beautiful white evening gown.

The two comedians of the play were the cause of hilarious laughter. They might well have had bits of fun-making, so good were they in their parts. Miss Stella Brady as Kitty O'Laverty, the loyal maid of Kathleen, was very good, as was Herbert Masterson as Bill Button Cap. The agility and long limbs of this red-headed gentleman, the startling plaid of his suit and the effervescent manner in which he made love to the trim maid, were items that brought hearty and sincere laughter from a pleased audience.

Vincent McCabe was as clerical as he could be in the role of Father Cassidy, staunch friend of the humble lovers. Joseph Clancy had a small, but well played part as David O'Connor, father of "Kathleen Mavourneen," and Thomas Lynch doubled very satisfactorily in minor roles, as Red Barney, comrade and co-villain with Black Rody, ready to cut a throat for a handful of gold, and as the jailer who brought Terence in for a loving good-bye, in the dream scene.

It was real Irish play, abounding in romance, laughter and tears, and the audience appeared to enjoy it thoroughly from the opening minute to the last satisfactory bit. With costuming that was appropriate and very pleasing to the eye and with furnishings loaned by Gerald McFadden, it was a thoroughly interesting drama. Miss Lillian Simons, who directed the play, is to be congratulated on the success of the production.

Assistance in Staging

Expert assistance was given by Miss Lillian Hurley, as musical directress, J. McCabe, as master of properties, and W. Collins, as stage manager.

The immaculate Conception orchestra, under the direction of P. O'Toole, played lively and pleasing Irish music between acts, and there were specialties which included plenty of Irish music and dancing.

Applause was generous for all the numbers. A double encore greeted the efforts of the agile little dancer, Miss Rosalie Clancy, in her snappy emerald and white outfit.

The specialties included songs by Mrs. Leo Picard, singing "Terence's Farewell to Kathleen"; Miss Geraldine Collins, singing "Danny Boy" and "The Last Rose of Summer"; William Collins, singing, (during the play) "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," and other incidental Irish song numbers, and Joseph Clancy whose splendid voice was heard to much advantage in "Mother Machree" and its repetition as an encore.

There were also two very amusing recitations by Miss Lillian Simons, the first, all about Rory's courtship of Kathleen, bringing an enthusiastic burst of applause and a funny little encore; and dances by Miss Rosalie Clancy and the Misses Curtin and Flynn, two trim little ladies who also wore the pretty green and white of a pair of Irish dancing colleens.

At the final curtain, pretty bouquets of flowers were presented to the ladies in the cast, also to the director, Miss Lillian Simons, and to Miss Rosalie Clancy.

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SILLY CAT

"Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed the Wolf.

"Ho! Ho! Ho!" laughed the Fox.

"What makes you two chaps so jolly?" asked the Bob Cat, who had come to the den of the Fox to pay a visit. There he found the Wolf who had also come to see Mr. Fox.

"Oh, I just can't help laughing!" said the Fox.

"The same with me," spoke the Wolf. "Ha! Ha! Ha!"

"This is very strange," mewed the Bob Cat. "You two didn't used to be so jolly. You look hungry, too, and I know I am.

"Well, I am hungry," admitted the Fox. "But still I can't help laughing. Tee-hee! Hee-tee."

"I feel the same way!" snickered the Wolf. "Tum, te tum, te tum!"

"Something must have happened," growled the Bab Cat, "to make you chaps so jolly. What was it?"

"Well, Uncle Wiggily pointed his funny tickle stick at me," said the Fox, "and, ever since then, I can't help laughing. Not that I want to, for it makes me hungry to laugh and there is nothing to eat here in my den, nothing at all."

"Do you laugh, Mr. Wolf, for the same reason Mr. Fox does?" asked the Bob Cat.

"Yes," was the answer, "I do. Uncle Wiggily saw me one day when I was crying, because my wife had been peeling onions to make a pie. But when that rabbit gentleman pointed his tickle stick at me I had to laugh and I've been laughing, more or less, ever since."

"Well, Uncle Wiggily can't make me laugh!" declared the Bob Cat. "Tickle stick or no tickle stick, he can't make me laugh!"

"Just you wait!" chuckled the Fox. "That's a very strong stick which Uncle Wiggily has."

"Bosh!" mewed the Bob Cat. "I'd like to see him try it on me! And I'm going to give him the chance. I'm going out and see if I can catch that rabbit. If we do, maybe he will give us something to eat."

"You can't get anywhere near Uncle Wiggily," said the Wolf.

"Why not?" the Bob Cat wanted to know.

"Because," went on the Wolf, "as soon as he sees you coming, with your silly little tail, Uncle Wiggily will know who you are and he will run back to his hollow stump bungalow and you will be left behind."

"That's all you know about it!" snarled the Bob Cat. "I'll show you! I'll fix my short tail—Oh, yes, I know its very short and bobbed—but I'll fix it so Uncle Wiggily won't see it."

"How?" asked the Fox.

"I'll tie a paper bag around my tail," mewed the Bob Cat. "Or I'll ask one of you chaps to do it for me if you can stop laughing long enough. Then, with the bag on my tail I can get close enough to Mr. Longears to ask him for something to eat. He'll never know me for the Bob Cat with my tail hidden in a paper bag."

"Well, we can at least try it," said the Wolf. "Ha! Ha! Ha!"

"Surely!" agreed the Fox. "Ho! Ho! Ho!"

"What are you laughing at?" asked the silly Bob Cat.

"I'm laughing to think what will happen when Uncle Wiggily points his stickle tick—I mean his tickle stick—at you!" said the Wolf.

"I'm laughing at the same thing!" chuckled the Fox. "Oh, that tickle stick! Ha! Ha! Ha!"

"Well, get me a paper bag and tie it on my tail," mewed the Bob Cat "Hurry! I'm very hungry!"

So the Fox and the Wolf tied a paper bag around the little, short tail of the silly cat and he went out to look for Uncle Wiggily. It did not take the Bob Cat long to find the rabbit gentleman who was out looking for an adventure. Mr. Longears saw the Bob Cat, but, seeing the paper bag istead of the little stump where most cats have a long tail, Uncle Wiggily, for the moment, sis not quite know what it was.

"Hello there!" called the rabbit gentleman, friendly-like.

"Hello there!" mewed the Bob Cat walking closer with his stubby tail in the paper bag. "I want something to eat!"

"Well, how would you like a bit of this?" asked Uncle Wiggily and he pointed the tickle stick, which he was using as a cane, straight at the Bob Cat. And no sooner was the stick pointed than the Bob Cat began to laugh as hard as he could chuckle.

"Ha! Ha! Ha! Ho! Ho! Ho! Tee hee! Hee tee!" laughed the silly cat and he laughed so hard that the paper bag slipped off his tail, and when Uncle Wiggily saw the short stump at the end of the animal, at once the bunny knew it was the Bob Cat.

"Oh ho! So you tried to fool me by hiding your silly tail in a paper bag, didn't you?" cried the rabbit. "No! No!" He pointed the tickle stick again and the Bob Cat laughed so hard he couldn't chase Mr. Longears.

MANSON ASKED TO RESIGN POST

RIGHT TO REPLY DENIED.

VICTORIA, B.C., March 18. (CP) Calling for the resignation of A. M. Manson, K.C., Liberal, Omineca, and Dr. H. C. Wreinch, Liberal, Skeena, because of an alleged payment of $700 to Dr. Wreinch by order-in-council in 1928, the last order passed by the former Liberal Government, Hon. A. C. Shelly, President of the Executive Council, threw the British Columbia Legislature into intense excitement yesterday.

Both Mr. Manson and Dr. Wreinch sought to reply to the allegations, but were shouted down by the Conservative benches. As both had spoken previously in the budget debate they appealed for indulgence for leave to answer the assertions made, but this was denied.

After the Liberal Government had been defeated in 1928, and the interregnum set in, 162 order-in-council had been passed by the old administration, Mr. Shelly stated. The last order-in-council, he said, was one authorizing the payment of $700 to Dr. Wreinch, in connection with a land deal. Dr. Wreinch had not been entitled to this payment, he submitted, and Mr. Manson had assisted him to secure it, signing the order as "acting Minister of Finance" when, Mr. Shelly said, he would submit Mr. Manson at no tife had held that position.

The Legislature, defeated by a vote of 33 to 11, the motion of F. M. MacPherson, Cranbrook, which would have placed the house on record as "regretting the extravagant expenditures of the Government and the increase in taxation consequent therein." The division followed straight party lines.

Rideaus to Meet Tigers for Ontario Supremacy

OTTAWA PADDLERS WIN RIGHT TO REPRESENT EASTERN AREA BY OUSTING MONTCALMS 3-2

Battle Intermediate Champions to Draw in First, Rideaus Win Second 2-1.

SURPRISES IN WEST.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18. (CP) Another intermediate team, North Battleford, has jumped to the forefront of Allan Cup contenders. The Saskatchewan champions last night eliminated the senior titleholders of that province by 2 to 1 on the two game round.

Regina Vics, rated as strong aspirants for the dominion title earlier in the season, struck a snag in the first game with North Battleford. The latter team won, 2 to 0. Last night they held the Vics well and the best the Regina squad could do was net the puck once.

Another surprise occurred on the coast when Edmonton, Alberta's proud monarchs, rallied magnificently to tie Trail, British Columbia titlists, 3-all, after the B. C. hockeyists had secured a two goal lead in the first 20 minutes.

The second game of this series will be played on Thursday at Trail, the winner qualifying to meet North Battleford.

Ottawa Rideaus will represent that district in the Allan Cup competition. The Paddlers won that right in the Capital city last night by defeating Ottawa Montcalms, intermediate champions, two to one. The first game ended in a 1-all stalemate so the Rideaus captured the round 3 to 2.

Will Meet Tigers

The Ottawans will now meet Hamilton Tigers, Ontario Hockey Association representatives and conquerors of Sudbury Wolves, Northern Ontario Hockey Association champions. The first game will be played at Hamilton on Saturday.

At Montreal to-night the Quebec provincial situation is expected to be clarified when McGill University, senior titlists and St. Francois Xaiver, intermediate champions, clash in the second of their two game series. The first tussle ended in a one-all tie. Previously the teams had fought a gruelling 60 minute goalless duel, but this game was thrown out by the Quebec Amateur Hockey Association when it decided to substitute a two game series, goals to count on the round.

The winner of the Quebec title leaves immediately for the Maritimes for a two game joust with Truro Bearcats, champions of the provinces "down-by-the-sea."

ANDERSON BEATS HURSTON.

OSHAWA, March 18—With 45 rinks from many parts of Ontario competing, the annual bonspiel of the Oshawa Curling Club got away to a good start yesterday. Many out-of-town rinks were entered.

The bonspiel was officially opened by President W. H. Ross of the local club, who extended a hearty welcome to the visiting curlers. The draw was made by Ernest Parsons, assisted by H. W. Sanders of Stouffville, and Archie Paterson of the Royal Canadians.

Play started yesterday morning for the McLaughlin Trophy, the chief event, while this evening saw a start on the games for the Albert Sykes Memorial Trophy, also a fine piece of silverware. The rinks losing their first two games are eligible to compete for the W. E. Eaton Trophy in the consolation event. Splendid prizes have been donated to the winners of first, second and third place in each event.

JEAN BOROTRA WINS THIRD ROUND MATCH

Frank Shields Also Advances in Indoor Tennis Tourney.

NEW YORK, N.Y., Mar. 18. (CP) Step by step, Jean Borotra, French veteran, and Francis Shields, New York youngster, march toward their anticipated clash in the final round of singles of the National indoor tennis championships.

Shields and Borotra, along with Perrine Rockafellow of New York, and Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, had gained the fourth round to-day, a step ahead of the rest of the field.

Borotra had lost only nine games in turning back three successive rivals in straight sets Shields' record was even more imposing for his three opponents had succeeded in winning only five games all told.

Borotra was to meet the winner of a third round match between Frank Bonneau and Frank Bowden late to-day and another easy victory for the basque was in prospect. Shields will not play his fourth round match until to-morrow when he will face either Pierre Landry of France or Herbert L. Bowman of New York.

Doubles play got under way yesterday with eight teams, including the four seeded combinations, advancing to the quarter-finals.

STIRLING LOSES PLAYER PROTEST

Campbellford and Frankford Cast Majority Vote at Executve Meeting.

TEAMS CENSORED.

STIRLING, March 18 (Examiner Correspondence). — Stirling's protest regarding eligibility of a player under the residence rule of the Trent Valley League playing with Madoc in the final game was defeated at Trent Valley League executive meeting held here on Tuesday afternoon. Representatives from Campbellford and Frankford cast the majority vote.

Both teams were censured by the executive for playing three games in the league play-offs instead of two.

Junior Semi-Finals Commence To-Night

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 18. (CP)—Eastern and western junior hockey finals commence to-night in widely separated cities. Survivors of a strenuous campaign on the prairies, Regina Pats, four times Dominion finalists and three times winners of the O.H.A. Memorial Cup, emblematic of the Canadian crown, skate out on the ice at Winnipeg to defend their laurels against the Elmwood Millionaires, Manitoba champions.

While the western drama is being enacted at Winnipeg the two best squads of the east will clash at Ottawa. The Primroses of the Capital city, Ottawa and district champions and conquerors of the Quebec provincial titleholders, will endeavour to gain a lead over Niagara Falls Cataracts, monarchs of a 90-team series in the Ontario Hockey Association.

The return games in each instance will be played on Friday, the winners on the round qualifying to meet at Toronto next week in the Dominion final. Regina Pats play their second fixture at Winnipeg, but the Niagara team will return to home ice at Niagara Falls for the second game with the Ottawans.

American talkies are the most popular in Finland this season.

LONDON DROPS DECISION TO JACKETS 1-0

With Two More Games to Play, Londoners Still Have Chance of Entering Play-offs.

BISONS BLANK BULLDOGS.

Windsor Beaten 5-0 in Buffalo's Last Home Game of Schedule.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 18. (CP)—Practical elimination of London Tecumsehs from the International hockey league championship series was the feature development in the King loop last night.

Playing at home the Tecumsehs dropped a valuable brace of points to their fourth place rivals, Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets, by a 1 to 0 count. The victory entrenched the Smoky City squad in the fourth berth, three points in the van of the Londoners. The latter still have two more games to be played while the Yellow Jackets have one and therefore have a mathematical chance of regaining the final dividend paying position.

In the other scheduled fixture the league leading Buffalo Bisons shellacked Windsor Bulldogs, 5 to 0, at Fort Erie. Both teams had already clinched play-off berths and the result meant little to either side. The Bulldogs have two more games in which to assure themselves of second place. They are leading last season's champion Cleveland Indians by one point at present.

The shutout register by Goalkeeper Billy Taughter of the Bisons was his 13th of the season and he now leads the league net-guardians in this respect.

The Bulldogs travel to Syracuse to-day where they meet the tail-end Stars. Victory for the Windsorites will clinch the second rung.

MAROONS LOSE LAST CHANCE TO EVEN COUNT WITH LEAFS

N.H.L. Play-off Pairings.

MONTREAL, March 18.—The alignment of teams in the National Hockey League play-offs was decided here last night when Montreal Maroons were beaten by New York Americans, and lost their chance of nosing Toronto Maple Leafs out of second place in the Canadian division.

In the play-offs, which begin next week, Montreal Canadiens will meet Boston Bruins; Toronto Maple Leafs play Chicago Black Hawks, and Montreal Maroons meet the New York Rangers.

GROVE LOSES 1ST DECISION

Choates' Hardware Takes 3-2 Victory From Preparatory School Team.

ICE HINDERS PLAY.

Grove School first team met their Waterloo when they ran into Choates' Hardware at the Brock last night. The latter won 3-2 gaining the only decision over the Lakefield team this year. The winners deserved the victory, but the lighter schoolboys certainly surprised everyone by the close battle they put up. On faster ice, it's just a question whether the East City Huskies could "take" them.

The teams started fast with Grove combining good despite the soft ice. The Choates' outfit were bigger and faster and began threatening right away. Disney had to stop a flock of close in shots, and only two beat him, Merritt and Gardiner each notching one. Stuart got one of them back before the frame ended. Play started even in the middle session, but Choates' soon resumed the aggressive to hammer the rubber at the Lakefield net continuously. Near the end, Gardiner went through the whole outfit on a classy rush to make it three for the winner. In the final chapter, Grove sent four players up the ice and had an edge on the play. They shot hard and often but missed the net on many tries. Stuart again scored for them when he took a pass from Wright. Play was even enough at the last bell.

Disney, Wright and Stuart deserve special mention for the game they turned in for the losers, though their teammates gave all they had throughout. The three regular forwards and Wilshaw were extra good for Choates, while Anthony and Francis played good defensive hockey. The others tried hard also.

The teams:

Referee—Jim Ellis.

AMERICANS WIN 2-1.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 (By George Maguire, C.P. Sports Writer) —The three play-off teams in the United States group and Montreal Maroons, third place holders in the Canadian section, enjoyed brisk workouts in last night's National Hockey League activities. Four games were played. The three American Stanley Cup aspirants were successful but the Maroons took the short end of a 2 to 1 score handed them by New York Americans.

New York Rangers and Ottawa Senators wound up Manhattan's current schedule in a somewhat desultory contest which went to the Rangers, 3 to 1. The Gothamites finished third in their group and will, therefore, meet the Maroons in the first round of the play-offs. The Montrealers qualified by chalking up 20 victories compared to 18 for the Americans. The latter team tied the Munromen in the point column with 46. However, the Canadian team has another game to play yet and may break the deadlock, even though it is immaterial.

Chicago Blackhawks, who won second place in the Southern division and will meet Toronto Maple Leafs in the first round, handed the tail-end Philadelphia Quakers a 4 to 0 pasting in the Quaker City. The Hawks are experiencing a busy closing week, for on Thursday they tackle their play-off opponents in Toronto and wind up the schedule with Detroit on Sunday.

Boston Bruins, champions of the United States section and opponents of Montreal Canadiens for the league championship, easily beat Detroit Falcons in the Hub, 4 to 2.

HOCKEY'S "BABE RUTH" SETS RECORD

Howie Morenz is the greatest hockey player of all time according to Leo Dandurand, manager of "Les Canadiens", and there are plenty of fans who will says that Leo knows his stuff. Morenz is undoubtedly the greatest box office attraction that hockey has today. At the time of going to press Morenz had passed the 200 GOAL MARK by a very wide margin. The following table shows the complete scoring record of Howie Morenz since he broke into the game:

	Goals	Assists	Points
1923-24	13	3	16
1924-25	27	7	34
1925-26	23	3	26
1926-27	25	7	32
1927-28	33	18	51
1928-29	12	10	27
1929-30	40	10	50
1930-31	24	19	43
	197	77	279

This is exclusive of the goals that Morenz scored in the play-offs and the Stanley Cup games from time to time. In the N.H.L. play-offs of 1924-25 against Ottawa Howie scored 3 goals and an assist and in the double cup series that followed he notched four goals. This was his first season in the Major League. In the play-offs in 1925 against the Toronto St. Pats, Morenz scored three goals and in the cup series that followed he had three goals and an assist. In the 1926-27 play-off series he scored one goal broke the tie in an overtime with the Maroons and put the Canadiens out into the next round against Ottawa. In the play-off he rang in three goals against Chicago Rangers and Bruins in which "Les Canadiens" won the World's Title. This gives Morenz a grand total in points of 298, goals 219, assists 79 including league games and play-off matches. W.M.S., particularly in Canada.

'NEATH SUNNY SKIES

Spicy Bits of Baseball Gossip From Majors' Camps.

Chuck Klein has turned down three invitations to come to the Phillies' training camp at Winter Haven, Fla., to confer with officials of the club concerning his salary.

This was revealed to-day by president L. C. Ruch, who said he had gone to the end of the road with the slugging outfielder.

"Since I arrived here", Ruch said, "we have sent three telegrams to Klein, asking him to come and talk over terms with us we have had three replies, each saying he would not budge from his home until his demands are met. Now I have gone to the end of the road with him."

Phil Collin has also refused to sign his contract and has not reported at the training camp.

The Athletics, twice world champions, now training at Fort Myers, Fla., need to be stirred up, in the opinion of captain Eddie Collins, and manager Mack agrees with him.

Excepting Hank McDonald, big pitcher obtained from the coast league, there isn't a rookie in the camp who Mack thinks will help the A's this season. Recruits who make two stabs at a grounder and swing blindly at tame pitching aren't kidding their boss.

"They don't impress me much" Mack said, "except, maybe, McDonald. The rest don't look like anything. Butcher may come along, possibly gain, too. I haven't seen a great deal of them in the exhibition games. But if we get one prospect out of the 21 we will maintain the average."

Not even in the palmiest days of "murderers' row" have the New York Yankees shown so powerful batting punch as they're exhibiting this spring training season at St. Petersburgh, Fla.

In the last six games, all of which they've won, the Yanks have pounded out 83 hits, good for 54 runs. That's an average of nine runs and a fraction under 14 hits a game.

Acting on advice of coaches, Eddie Connolly, Boston Red Sox catcher, has switched his batting activities from the right side of the plate, where he enjoyed but mediocre success last season, and is whanging the ball with extreme gusto from the port side.

Connolly started in baseball as a natural left handed hitter, but changed over when some misguided adviser told him he would never make the grade as a big league catcher if he did not bat right handed. The Red Sox are at Pensacola, Fla.

To satisfy the demands of the customers, the Chicago Cubs, training at Los Angeles, Cal., will engage only major league clubs during spring training exhibitions next spring.

President William Veeck said that arrangements would be made to play Pittsburgh, Detroit and Cleveland during the 1931 training grind.

Oilers Cinch Lead Of American League

CHICAGO, March 18 (C.P.).—Out of a melee of lusty scoring, Tulsa Oilers emerged to-day as definite leaders of the American Hockey League. They cinched top place by defeating Minneapolis Millers 7 to 1, and made their lead over Kansas City Pla-Mors, 1930 champions, an even half-dozen points.

A 2-to-1 win over Chicago Shamrocks placed Duluth Hornets just two points from the play-off position race. Buffalo Majors, who trimmed St. Louis Fliers 7 to 4, edged into fourth place with Shamrocks and are favored for the place because they have two extra games to play.

CANOE MANUFACTURERS BLANK GRANT & THORPE 5 TO 0 IN SUDDEN DEATH TITLE BATTLE

Winners Retain Unbeaten Record for Year—Win Easy Victory Last Night.

GOOD BACK-CHECKING.

C. Meyette Counters Four Markers for Victors, Doug Miller Gets Fifth.

Peterborough Canoe Company drifted into the Mercantile League championship at the Brock last night by shutting out the Grant & Thorpe outfit 5-0 in a sudden death game for the title. The winners had not lost a game all year and experienced little difficulty in last night's contest.

The ice was in poor shape and the boys were continually overskating the rubber, while passing was useless at any time. The losers put up a good exhibition of back-checking and gameness, and the Paddlers should have won by a bigger score only for this.

The opening frame was slow enough with both outfits trying to get through alone. Shots were mostly from some distance out and gave the goalies little trouble. C. Meyette got in close to score the first one and a few minutes later winged another lon gone past Reid to make it two. The middle stanza was faster, with the Canoe squad having an edge on the play most of the time. Halfway through, Doug Miller bulged the twine for the only counter of the period. They threatened often and only good saving by Reid kept them out. Starting the final chapter, the winners buzzed around their opopnents' net steadily and C. Meyette worked in on the defence to notch another marker for them. A little later, the same player took a pass from Clancy for the final tally of the game. The last five minutes found Heal of the Electricians' crew leading a desperate attack in an attempt to avert a shutout, but the stronger Canoemen checked hard to hold them out.

Meyette Boys Star.

Reid, Heal, Robertson and Davis worked extra hard for the losers, while the others giving their best also to hold their opponents. For the winners, 'King' Clancy and the Meyette boys looked good as did Kennedy and the defence pair. Doug Miller hit them hard and timely with legitimate body checks though his rushing was a bit off. The teams:—Grant & Thorpe—Goal, Reid; right defense, Callan; left defence, Miller; centre, Heal; right wing, Robertson; left wing, Davis; alternate, Lucas.

Canoe Company: Goal, Pierson; right defense, Miller; left defense, Hunter; centre, Clancy; right wing, J. Meyette; left wing, C. Meyette; alternate, Kennedy.

Referee—"Gamey" Jarvis.

Fourth Battery Wins 6-4 Softball Victory

Fourth Battery squeezed a 6-4 win over Machine Gunners in a Garrison Softball game at the Armouries last night, in the best fixture seen this year. The losers got four runs in the first inning, and were blanked for the rest of the game. W. Piercy struck out ten of the winners' batters, while the opposing twirler, Hilliard, had the boys unable, most of the time to knock the ball out of the infield. Both outfits turned in a snappy fielding exhibition and it was anybody's game right till the last out.

The M. G's. bunched their hits in the first to score all their runs, while the Battery crossed the plate once in the third, twice in the fifth and three times in the sixth. In the fifth inning, an error at first permitted two runs and that provided the break enabling the winners to take the advantage. But they found the delivery of Piercy hard to solve all the time.

The teams:

Machine Gunners: Hope, 1b; Taylor, ss; Westran, lf; Ridyard, m; J. Hope, c; Davidson, 3b; Gilders, rf; Piercy, p; Adamson, 2b.

Fourth Battery: Foster, c; Thirnbeck, 1b; Hilliar, p; Devlin, m; McCarroll, 2b; Weyer, lf; D. Hilliard, rf; Coit, 3b; Corderley, ss.

Father Of Bouchers Succumbs Suddenly

OTTAWA, Ont., Mar. 18 (C.P.).—The father of one Canada's outstanding athletic families, and himself a star athlete in his youth, Tom Boucher dropped dead last night while at his work in the composing room of the Ottawa Journal. He was speaking to a fellow-worker when he collapsed and died in a few minutes.

Mr. Boucher was the father of George Boucher, coach of the Montreal Maroons; Frank of the New York Rangers; Bill, of the New Haven Eagles; Bobby, who played in recent years with several professional teams and Carol and Joseph of Ottawa.

LIGHT BLUES FAVORITES IN CLASSIC RACE

ON MARCH 21ST

First Named Has Edge as Winners in Recent Years.

LONDON, March 18 (By The Canadian Press).—At 2:20 p.m. on Saturday March 21, the gun will bark and the Cambridge and Oxford boat crews will burst away on the historic four and a quarter mile stretch on the Thames between Putney and Mortlake, in a renewal of the century-old Battle of the Blues.

Hundreds of thousands along the banks of the Thames, on the bridges that cross it, and the river-craft following the racing shells, will see the culmination of months of strict training and staid old London will be a gay city that evening.

What a different scene it will be from that first boat race of 1829. Besides the modern racing shell, the boats used in that far-gone day look like lifeboats. The old pictures show bearded athletes and top-hatted coxswains. But the spirit of the event remains unchanged. And while the race has grown to immense popularity, it was popular from the start. No fewer than 20,000 persons thronged the lovely Henley reaches on the first occasion, June 10, 1829.

The origin of the race is generally credited o Charles Wordsworth, of Christ Church, Oxford, nephew of the poet and an enthusiastic rowing man, who, in the course of frequent visits to his father, Master of Trinity College, Cambridge, was naturally brought into close contact with Cambridge rowing men. The year 1849 is regarded as the most eventful in all the hundred years' history of the race. Two contests took place in it. In the first, all the Cambridge crew were Trinity men, and they won easily. Eight months later Oxford won on a foul, though Cambridge passed the winning post a quarter of a length in front of their rivals.

Lord Desborough—he was then W. H. Grenfell—rowing at No. 4 for Oxford was in the eventful race of 1877 when the only dead-heat took place. Naturally, the decision of John Phelps, the judge, did not go unchallenged, but criticism, as has always been the case where this fine sporting event is concerned, was in no sense acrimonious.

82 Contests in All.

The Battle of the Blues were not waged annually until 1856. The total number of contests is 82. Cambridge has won 41; Oxford 40. (The race of 1877 was a dead heat.) Cambridge, the Light Blues, have taken the last seven races, and appropriately enough, evened the score on the centenary occasion of 1929.

The tide of battle definitely turned to Cambridge after the war and in recent years they have produced some of the finest crews that have figured on the historic roll. Oxford have had th longer consecutive streaks—witness nine victories starting in 1861; and nine more starting in 1894. The Dark Blues also took the five races up to 1913. Cambridge won the 1914 race and since they resumed in 1920, the Light Blues have won 10 out of 11.

Takin the record of recent years into consideration Cambridge justify their position as favorites. But the Light Blues have also been considerably more impressive in their 1931 trials than Oxford.

In their full-course trials about two weeks before the ace, the Light Blues showed considerably better form than Oxford. Oxford, on a weak tide, with smooth water and a following wind, covered the distance in 19 minutes, 33 seconds. Their style seemed to show room for improvement. The day afterwards Cambridge went out in a fairly strong wind and rough water, and set a time of 19 minutes, 46 seconds.

Oxford have the slightly heavier crew this year, and on the records the heavier crews stand a 2 to 1 chance. The difference will probably have very little effect, however, under the circumstances. Cambridge, in J. M. Ranking, have the lightest coxswain in 45 years. He weighs 97 pounds and is five feet high, but has a man-size voice.

The rival crews will probably be as follows:

Oxford (won 40): Bow, D. E. Tinne (Eton and University), 171 lbs.; No. 2, G. M. L. Smith (Winchester and Brasenose), 172 lbs.; No. 3, R. A. J. Poole (Eton and Brasenose), 186 lbs.; No. 4, C. M. Johnston (Shrewsbury and Brasenose) 178 lbs.; No. 5, J. E. Platts-Mills (Nelson College No. 3, and Balliol), 185 lbs.; No. 6, L. Clive (Eton and Christ Church), 184 lbs.; No. 7, W. D. Erskine-Crum (Eton and Christ Church), 171 lbs.; Stroke, R. W. G. Holdsworth (Shrewsbury and Brasenose), 159 lbs.; Cox, E. R. Edmett (Herne Bay and Worcester), 116 lbs. Total weight, 1522 lbs.

Cambridge (won 41): Bow, C. M. Fletcher (Eton and Third Trinity), 171 lbs.; No. 2, W. A. Prideaux (Eton and Third Trininty), 171 lbs.; No. 3, R. H. H. Symonds (Bedford and Lady Margaret), 168 lbs.; No. 4, H. R. N. Rickett (Eton and Third Trinity), 176 lbs.; No. 5, P. N. Carpmael (Oundle and Jesus), 184 lbs.; No. 6, G. Gray (Bolton and Queens), 185 lbs.; No. 7, C. J. S. Sergel (Monkton Combe and Clare), 172 lbs.; Stroke, T. A. Brocklebank (Eton and Third Trinity), 150 lbs.; Cox, J. M. Ranking (Cheltenham and Pembroke), 97 lbs. Total weight, 1483 lbs.

HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS IN THE SPORTS WORLD

BOOSTS AND KNOCKS For EVERYONE

The local Curling Club held their annual meeting Monday night and lined up officers for next year. They're an enthusiastic bunch and cleared up their business in short order. Prospects look good for next winter, according to the officers.

* * * * * * *

It was interesting to hear that there are now twenty-four junior curlers belonging to the club. It's a good idea to encourage the youngsters to learn the game, as any sport requires new blood once in a while.

* * * * * * *

Curling started in Europe in the 15th century, though there is considerable disagreements as to which country gets the credit for it. It must have been one of the northern countries anyway. Well, if Scotland didn't create the game, that country at least contributed a great deal toward the development and progress of curling.

Last Saturday, the Edmonton Grads ran up a record basketball score when they defeated Calgary Central Grads 104-24. The winners got another great team together this year and are likely to cop their ninth consecutive Canadian basketball championship.

* * * * * * *

Tiger juveniles are journeying down to Norwood to-night to play the Rink Rats of that village. The latter team recently held the husky Choate's outfit to a scoreless draw. They must have quite a team.

* * * * * * *

Manager Murphy has had the same Tiger team for three seasons now, and they have won their sectional title in the South End City League every year. He hopes to enter them in the Junior City League next year.

* * * * * * *

The Tigers work together like a machine. They are small and light, but have a tricky combination and backcheck continuously. Maybe, they'll be playing O.H.A. as a team in a few years' time.

* * * * * * *

The Grove School has a pretty nice team for a bunch of kids. Choates' had their work cut out to win by one goal. And on a fast sheet of ice, the score might easily have been reversed. Last night's defeat was their first this year.

* * * * * * *

Disney in the Grove net is a cool guardian. He had to be the first part of last night's affair. And he was ably assisted by the defense pair. While the fast-breaking forwards are enough to keep any man's team worried.

* * * * * * *

One thing they all seem to do well, and that's shoot. Every time one of their players got hold of the rubber, it went whistling toward the net about four feet high. But not always straight.

* * * * * * *

Coach Ken Mackenzie has invited Choate's to play them again in Lakefield. They will whenever assured of fair ice.

* * * * * * *

The Paddlers are now Mercantile League champs. They had not much trouble whitewashing Grant & Thorpe's 5 to 0. It was a sudden death game last night, and the winners had a big edge.

* * * * * * *

Bill Miller who coached and managed the undefeated Canoe Company team all winter has a nice outfit together. Every player deserves credit for the title, with the Meyette brothers playing first-class hockey all the way.

* * * * * * *

Westclox girls' hockey team will journey to Norwood tonight to take on the fair ones of that village. They will be entertained at a dance afterward. A return game will be arranged.

INTEREST GROWS IN MOTOR SHOW

AT SELKIRK & ELLIOTT'S.

The spring motor show at Selkirk & Elliott's automobile salon, 171-175 Hunter Street, is proving of acute interest to present and prospective auto owners. It opened Saturday to hundreds of visitors, and still they come, from city and county, attracted by the report which has gone abroad that this is an exhibit of outstanding merit. The show continues until late Saturday night, and no automobile enthusiast should fail to see and have demonstrated by courteous attendants those new 1931 features which are increasing that distinctive popularity enjoyed by Durant and Studebaker cars in Canada for some years.

Performance And Beauty.

Without going into details, here in the Durant is an automobile exposition of performance, beauty, durability and comfort—a worth-while showing of what Canadians can accomplish in the way of building for Canadian people cars that have on merit alone won their way into the hearts of thousands of owners—and they are not expensive.

Prominent Man Coming

An additional incentive to visit this show on Saturday will be found in the presence of Mr. R. D. Kerby, president and general manager of Durant Motors of Canada. Mr. Kerby is expected to reach here at about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. A dinner at 6 o'clock is being arranged for him, to which prominent local citizens will be invited. Mr. Kerby stands particularly prominent in the eyes of Canadians these days as having recently joined forces with the Nash executive for building both Nash and Durant cars in the big Durant Canadian factory at Leaside, Toronto—thus creating more work for Canadian workers. After dinner Mr. Kerby will undoubtedly be pleased to meet at the motor show in Selkirk & Elliott's auto salon as many of Peterborough citizens as possible.

Change Of Time.

The time for closing entries in the $1,000 prize contest has been extended from 6 o'clock Saturday evening to 8 o'clock. Mr. Kerby will draw for the 10 lucky winners at 9 o'clock instead of 8, as previously announced.

A new bridge will be constructed over the Thames at Richmond, England, at a cost of $905,000.

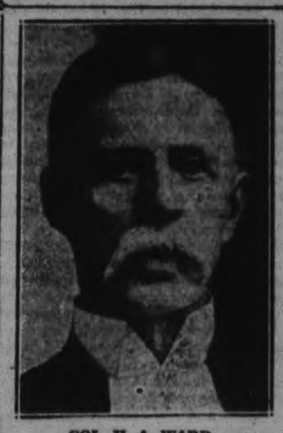
FIRST CANADIAN HOCKEY TEAMS FORMED BY OTTAWA POLITICIANS

Encouraged by Lord Stanley, Teams Played First Organized Games.

STANLEY CUP ORIGIN

(Special to The Examiner—Copyright, 1931)



COL. H. A. WARD.

PORT HOPE, Ont., March 18—Lt. Col. H. A. Ward, K.C., ex-judge of the County of Durham, late commander of the 46th Durham Regiment and a former member of the Dominion Parliament, is widely known in many circles but few are aware of the fact that this same venerable old gentleman was a member of the first hockey team ever organized in Ontario, and probably the first in Canada.

Hockey in those days was not the specialized game it is now and the fast game of to-day featured by rugged bodychecking was unknown. The game consisted more of individual efforts but at that the opposing players entered the sport with a keen desire to win.

Judge Ward, as he is generally referred to, is a native of Port Hope and has had a life brimful of activity. He practiced law here from 1872 to 1914. At the latter date he was made County Judge and continued in this position until 1924 when he was retired. Since that time he has conducted his former law business. He joined the 46th Durham regiment in 1867 retiring in 1909 with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He commanded the regiment for six years.

He is well known in the political life of the Dominion and represented the County of Durham in the Federal Government from 1885 to 1891 and from 1900 to 1908.

The first two teams organized in Ontario represented Government House and the House of Parliament. Judge Ward was a member of the Parliamentary team and in the description which follows recalls a number of incidents and persons who have taken a prominent part in the political life of the Dominion:—

By Lt. Col. H. A. Ward, K.C.

"It is rather difficult, after the expiry of over forty years to recall very many years ago, and people associated with them, but I shall do my best to tell about three of the teams that played hockey at Ottawa during the regime of Lord Stanley as Governor General of Canada from 1888 to 1893.

The Stanley Cup

"His Excellency, as is well known to those interested in the game, presented a valuable cup to the Ontario Hockey Association for the promotion of the game in that Province, and through his sons the Hon. Edward and Hon. Arthur Stanley encouraged the formation of a Parliamentary team, resulting in many pleasant matches between the Government House and Parliamentary teams.

"John A. Barron, K.C., M.P., for Victoria and J. G. A. Creighton, Law Clerk of the Senate were mainly responsible for the organization of the Parliamentary Club, which numbered among its members the above named gentlemen, Senator Power, Hon. Sidney Fisher, St. Denis Lemoine, Sergt. At Arms of the Senate, Agar Adamson, Junior Clerk in the Senate, myself and others whose names I cannot recall.

"Rebels" Formed

"Subsequently, as an off-shoot of these two teams, another club came into existence known as "The Rebels," and the two Stanleys and E. C. Grant who often played with the Government House team and Messrs. Barron and Creighton were the main movers in its formation, the object being, I think, to bring in some players not connected with Gov't House or Parliament. P. D. Ross of the Ottawa Journal, a well-known sportsman and young Bogart, now in New York, a brother of Clarence Bogart, Esq. of the Dominion Bank were two of these I remember.

"The 'Rebels' played four games outside of Ottawa: with 'Queens' at Kingston and in one trip at Lindsay, and at Toronto the following day.

"I think those who played in the last three matches were, Hon. Arthur Stanley, J. A. Barron, J. G. A. Creighton, P. D. Ross, Mr. Wingfield of the Coldstream Guards, a guest at Government House, E. C. Grant and H. A. Ward.

"A few years ago, desiring to get some information that would help my memory of the old scenes, I wrote my old friends John A. Barron, K.C., now a retired Judnge and J. G. A. Creighton, and I am sure that some extracts from their letters in reply will prove very interesting.

First Team Formed 1877

From Mr. Creighton: "As regards the Rebels my memory is quite distinct and precise, but does not contain anything much of importance or interest. It is a pity that I have not any clippings regarding matches played by the early hockey teams, by teams at Montreal between 1874-1877 at which later date the first team playing under settled rules was formed there, and also by teams playing at Rideau Rink much later on.

"The Rebels were an off-shoot from the Parliamentary and Government House teams which used to play against each other during the regime of Lord Stanley, 1888-1893. No doubt you remember the members of the respective teams. I had the honor to be Captain of the team of the first regular hockey club formed in Canada at Montreal in 1877, out of the first fifteen of the Montreal football club. The Government House team being rather short of players, E. C. Grant on several occasions played for them as a substitute against us.

From Mr. Barron, K.C.: "I recall that one afternoon Col. Colville, A.D.C. (you will remember him) came to me in the House and said, 'Lord Stanley wishes to present the Stanley Cup to promote hockey in Ontario and would you and Mr. Ward and Mr. Fisher go into Ontario and play some games'; I said I would and I think I saw you and you agreed; Fisher could not come. We went—played at Lindsay and won. Next a.m. went on to Toronto—played at Mutual Street Rink and Victoria Rink.

Crashed Brick Wall

"I have reason to remember the Mutual Street match for one of the opposing team banged me against the brick side of the rink and in the rebound my head struck the ice first, but I soon recovered and played on—Soon after this our Captain MacMahon told one of our men to follow the offending player, get in his way whenever he could and treat him as he had treated me—He did—and successfully obeyed orders.

"We won at Mutual Street and were beaten at Victoria, I think we had previously played at Kingston against "Queens"—As you are no doubt aware MacMahon, Power and Fisher have all passed away.

"The matches at Lindsay and Toronto were played, I believe, in the winter of 1889-1890.

"Barron was, in my opinion, the star player of the Parliamentary team and the Honorable Arthur Stanley was best for the Government House team.

LOST LINK IN HISTORY OF QUEBEC IS TRACED

Montreal Architect Announces Completion of Amazing Volume on Lost Genealogy.

OF FRENCH REGIME.

MONTREAL, March 18 (By The Canadian Press).—A large gap in the history of the French race on the North American con inent was filled ecently when E. Z. Massicotte, Court House archivist here, announced completion of what is virtually a Who's who, giving names, dates and destinations of over 15,000 hardy voyageurs who left the Montreal di trict under the French regime with working contracts that sprinkled them from the fur-bearing "pays d'en haut" of the Northwest, through Ohio and Illinois and down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.

Months of labor on the mellowed documents of forty-two old French notaries royal have given this information to the world. Every time a voyageur "signed up" with a trader or with the Crown for a summer, for a year or two years, the agreement was drawn by a notary, signed by the contracting parties, then registered in the notarial files. The result bares the trips of 15,000 Canadiens legally engaged; but, as Mr. Massicotte emphasized, to that total must be added the hundreds of outlaw fur traders, the coureurs de bois, who sneaked into the fur-bearing country in defiance of the Crown monopoly without legal engagement. Of them records say nothing, for they usually remained far out of reach; they could not safely return to Montreal.

Mr. Massicotte modestly gave the opinion that this work is one of the most considerable he has contributed to history in years. "It will explain the origin of thousands of families spread through the routes the voyageurs took," he said. "It will point to their settlement in various spots at the end of their engagements; for some of the voyageurs went for their wives, others married Indians, and from them sprang families now spread all over the continent, and whose genealogies lack their roots for, up to now, no records have been published which would aid the historian in showing family sources. And for French-Canadian historians of this region, I think, too, the record will be valuable. How many times do we find the record of the arrival of a family from France, then, suddenly, the line disappears! The list of contracts will show that many a young man left Montreal as a voyageur and never returned. In a word the record demonstrates to what extent the lust for travel and adventure, always a characteristic of the Canadian of New France, drained the area around Montreal, contracting and recruiting centre for the voyageurs, and departure point for the Northwest and West.

Excerpts from Work.

Random excerpts from Mr. Massicotte's work show how complete is the guide for the genealogist and historian:

"1682, May 20—Contract of Nicolas Pre to the Sieurs Francois Hazeur and Charles de Monseignat 'pour fàire le voyage des Otawats (Ottawas)—Magutie records."

"1704, April 25—Contract of Michel Lemay, of Batiscan, to the Gentlemen of the Colony of Canada, to make a trip to Pont Chartrain Fort on Lake Erie—Adhemar records."

"1704, April 30—Contract of Francois Benoist dit Livernois of Longueuil, to Mademoiselle Marguerite Messier, wife of Pierre Le Sueur, to make a voyage to Fort de la Mouille on the seashore in the lower Mississippi—Adhemar records."

In each case the first name is that of the voyageur, the second that of the individual or firm employing the voyageur, oft-times holding a fur-trading permit from the King of France, who monopolized the fur trade. The last name is that of the notary before whom the contract was drawn.

The Massicotte paper is being published in the report of the archivist of the Province of Quebec for 1929-30, distributed through P. G. Roy, of the Department of the Provincial Secretary. The 1929-30 report contains but one half of the contracts; the balance will be published in the report for 1930-31 to be issued next spring.

All-Party Committee Plans To Aid Snowden

LONDON, Mar. 18—(A.P.)—Premier Ramsay MacDonald announced to-day in the House of Commons plans for the formation of an all-party committee to make recommendations to the Chancellor of the Exchequer for ways of effective possible economies in the national expenditures.

Each of the three parties will nominate two members to the committee.

The question was put by R. Morley, Labor member for Southampton.

Another questioner also got a negative answer when he asked whether the Government had taken any steps in the last six months towards revision of war debt and reparation payments in view of the drop in commodity prices, which the interrogator said had increased the burden of such payments to a degree uncontemplated at the time the debts were incurred or agreements made for their liquidation.

APPEAL CASE ALLOWED.

LONDON, March 18—(By Thos. T. Champion, C. P. Staff Correspondent.)—The Judicial committee of the Privy Council to-day granted leave to appeal in two matters of considerable importance to Canada.

The first case is the dispute between the Dominion and Provincial governments as to jurisdiction over aviation.

The other case is the claim by the Government of Saskatchewan and Alberta, that the proceeds of lands and other natural resources, disposed of between 1870 and 1906 and recently handed back to the provinces, should be accounted for by the Dominion Government to those provinces.

New Hudson Eight Town Sedan

There is plenty of room in this Hudson Town Sedan. Greater roominess, luxurious fittings and upholstery and new performance standards mark this new Greater Hudson model. Both front and rear seats are adjustable and even the tallest passenger will find ample leg room. A big demand is expected for this dashing car. Motor and chassis refinements have increased the flexibility of the Greater Eight motor.

GAS COMPANY GETS FRANCHISE IN BRAMPTON.

TORONTO, Ont., March 18 (C.P.)—Grant of a franchise in the town of Brampton to the United Suburban Gas Company was approved by the Private Bills Committee of the Legislature to-day. The company operates from Hamilton and has agreed with the town for an exclusive franchise for 30 years gas to be supplied at 1.00 per thousand cubic feet.

210 REPARATION CLAIMS TO BE TABLED IN HOUSE

Awards Are Made By Commissioner Errol MacDougal Who Succeeded James Frell

OTTAWA, Ont., March 18.—(CP)—A further list of reparation awards in settlement of approximately 210 claims, were tabled in the House of Commons yesterday by the Hon. C. H. Canan, Secretary of State. The awards were made by Commissioner Errol MacDougall, who succeeded Commissioner James Friel. Already approximately six and a half million dollars have been paid out in satisfaction of awards made by Commissioner Friel, to those who suffered losses during the war.

The list of names and the amounts which were tabled yesterday is a fairly lengthy on. Amounts range from $100 up to $20,000 and the beneficiaries are scattered over Canada and in the United States. The majority of the awards are for small amounts. Quite a number of reparations claims remain to be dealt with by the commissioner.

CELEBRATE ARMISTICE NOV. 11.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 18 (C.P.)—Armistic Day will be observed on November 11 and on no other date, if a measure to be introduced in the House of Commons to-morrow by A. W. Neil (Ind., Comox-Alberni) becomes law. At present Armistice is observed with Thanksgiving Day on the Monday of the week on which November 11 falls. Mr. Neill states in his proposal that definitely fixing November 11 for observance is being supported by many branches of the Canadian Legion.

Teddy, a bear cub, and Lady Jane, a Great Dane, at Southport, England, engage in friendly wrestling matches, which sometimes last for hours.

EARTH'S AGE TOLD BY STRATA LAYERS

Read Now Just as Rings on Trees Indicate the Age of the Timber.

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 18.—A new method of reading the earth's age by counting certain peculiar layers in her crust, just as tree rings are read, is in preparation here. The layers are "varves," the geological name for thin annual earth deposits laid down many thousand years ago by the glaciers. The reader is Prof. A. E. Douglass, director of Steward Observatory of the University of Arizona.

In one of the most amazing feats of modern science, Douglass discovered a method of tree-ring reading that identifies trees which were growing when the pyramids were building, that tells the dates of constructing prehistoric wooden houses of the American southwest, that identifies even the drought years of past ages.

Water melting from the glaciers in summer deposited a layer of sand and dirt. In winter this deposit stopped. Very hot seasons left their finger marks in the form of extra deep deposits. Through thousands of years these successive layers were each season buried more deeply, pressed flat and hard, but as distinguishable as are tree rings, permanent leaves of history for whoever finds the key to their meaning.

BANDIT ROBS BAKER OF $75

WINNIPEG, Man., March 18 (CP) Armed and alone, a bandit stepped into a bakeshop in the midst of the downtown area last night, herded two customers, the baker and the proprietor into the rear of the store, and escaped with about $75. When the baker hesitated about putting up his hands, the robber hurried him along with a revolver shot into the ceiling.

How Robbers Are Caught

They Leave Prints

Many robbers are identified by finger prints they leave on things they touch. If the robber is a known criminal, his prints are on file, his description and his record are there, too.

These finger prints never lie. They cannot be forged. When exhibited as above on a screen to a jury, they identify the man beyond doubt.

All finger prints are divided into four types: arches, loops, whorls and composites. The eye needs but a few minutes study to decide whether two finger prints were made by the same person or not.

Over 200,000 finger prints of known criminals are kept on file in Ottawa and the number is added to daily.

Watch Your Prints

You are not a robber, of course, but remember no one can touch anything without leaving a print. It is often a dangerous print laden with germ infections.

Hands pick up germs all day long. Often by touching things others have touched, or by shaking contaminated hands. Any piece of food you touch may carry those germs to the mouth.

Life Extension Institute lists 27 diseases which may be conveyed in this way. Colds are the most common—conveyed by hands which are used to check a sneeze or a cough.

That is a reason for Lifebuoy Soap—a germicidal soap. It either kills germs or makes them inactive. Wash your hands with Lifebuoy often, and always before a meal. See that your children do it. Otherwise, you are sure to convey germs to the mouth, where they breed.

Also Fights Odours

Lifebuoy Soap also kills body odours. See it in a bath, and you are safe for hours. No perfume in it, but a germicide—a mild, refreshing scent of safety that disappears in a few minutes.

Yet Lifebuoy is also a dainty soap, based on two palm oils. No beauty soap was ever created to do more for the skin and complexion.

Millions of people, the world over, are protecting themselves in this delightful way. They get all the joys of an exquisite soap, with all this protection added. You will join these millions when you know Lifebuoy.

MRS. E. W. COON GUEST SPEAKER AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH BANQUET

Mother and Daughter Gathering Held Under Auspices of Mission Societies.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

Mrs. E. W. Coon, president of George Street W. M. S., was the guest speaker last night at a Mother and Daughter banquet, held in Wesley Hall, under the auspices of the W.M.S. Auxiliary and the X.L. Mission Circle of St. James' United Church.

The guests were received by Mrs. A. E. Moorhouse, W.M.S. president, and Mrs. E. J. Wagar, Miss Jessie Martin and Miss Connie Wagar, representing the Circle and Band

At 6.30 nearly one hundred and fifty mothers and daughters gathered around the festive board.

The very attractive table decorations were carried out in the W.M.S. colors, yellow, green and white, with fluted crepe paper streamers over the snowy damask.

The delicious repast was prepared under the splendid convenorship of Mrs. W. K. Sloan, and her energetic committee, and most efficiently served by a group of St. James' young men.

Following the banquet, community singing was heartily enjoyed with Miss Jessie Martin conducting, and led by Misses Jennie Smart and Marion Wood. Miss Aileen Rose accompanied at the piano. This part of the program was closed with prayer by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Moorhouse.

The toast to the King was proposed by Mrs. Moorhouse, who presided as chairman throughout, and the company responded as usual with the National Anthem.

Miss Margaret Kidd proposad the toast to "Our Country"; Miss Muriel Moorhouse ably responded.

The toast to "The Church" was voiced by Mrs. P. Sollitt. The Rev. Mr. Moorhouse in responding, emphasized the power and value of the church to the community and brought greetings to the gathering from the Board of Managers.

To Our Mothers

On behalf of the daughters, Miss Connie Wagar paid tribute to "Our Mothers" and "Our Mother Society, the W.M.S.," to which Mrs. M. H. Drysdale responded in a few sympathetic and understanding words.

The toast to "Our Daughters," proposed by Mrs. J. Fairbrother, showed the happy relationship which might exist between mother and daughter. Miss Jean Hammond made a most pleasing response, recalling happy memories of childhood and girlhood under a mother's influence.

A varied and entertaining program arranged by Mesdames English and Moorhouse, was given as follows, and was in keeping with the spirit of the occasion:

Readings by little Miss Barbara Miller included "If I Were Mother," and "Mary Ann." piano duet, Misses Aileen Rose and Olive Prest, A.T.C.M.; readings, "Mother's Old Cottage Organ" and "The Little Irish Girl," Mrs. Harold Bennett; vocal solo, "That Wonderful Sweetheart of Mine," Mrs. Elmer Frost; vocal duet, "Santa Lucia," Mesdames McLaren and Rosborough; chorus by Mission Band girls, "Working Together," Misses Marion and Irene McAdams, Dora and Lavina Lowes and Bessie Reesor.

The Guest Speaker

The speaker, Mrs. Coon, was introduced by Mrs. R. B. English, as one who could bring first-hand knowledge of the missionaries and their work, having her own daughter, Miss Marion Coon in active service in China.

Every missionary, said Mrs. Coon, is challenged with the question, "Why did you come? Is there anything worth while to bring to us?" There is but one answer. That "Something" is the Lord Jesus. Mission were born in the heart of God, and are the result of Christ's last command to His disciples. The call that comes to young people for this form of service is really from God.

The speaker told of how this call had come to her own daughter, and in continuing her address, gave a most vivid and illuminating word picture of the life and work of a missionary in China, referring to both humorous and tragic incidents. Her intimate descriptions of country and city, and the Chinese people were exceedingly interesting.

A vote of thanks to the guest speaker and the visiting artists as well as to all those who had contributed to the success of the evening, was tendered by Mrs. F. D. Armstrong, with Miss Dorcas Nixon seconder.

The closing number on the program came as a happy surprise to one of the chief participants. A reading by Mrs. H. Davidson proved to be an address of loving appreciation from St. James' W.M.S. members and officers to Mrs. E. J. Wagar, who has been connected with the society continuously since its inception. The accompanying gift, a beautiful black envelope purse and Edgar Guest's "The Light of Faith," was presented by Mrs. W. Rose.

The banquet was brought to a conclusion with prayer by the pastor.

THE SON OF TARZAN No. 15 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

The task of lowering the boy's "grandmother" over the ship's side to a waiting canoe was rather difficult. The lad insisted on being always at her side. When at last she was safely settled in the bottom of the craft bearing them shoreward her grandson dropped catlike after her. So interested was he in seeing her comfortably disposed he failed to notice the package that slipped from his pocket into the sea.

It was quite dark when the boy and the old woman entered a rickety shack boasting the name "Hotel" and were given a back room on the second floor. Here a wave of homesickness overcame him, as he explained to his "grandmother." She could remain in Africa if she wished. As for him, his conscience demanded he return by the same steamer to England and his parents. To which "grandma" said nothing much, seeming to prefer sleep.

Having come to a decision, the lad felt a sense of relief from the worry that had haunted him for many sleepless nights, and when he closed his own eyes it was to dream of a happy reunion with those at home.... And as he dreamed, Fate, cruel and inexorable, crept stealthily upon him down the dark corridor of the squalid "hotel." Fate in the form of the crook, Condon, who had shadowed the lad's every move since they left the ship.

Cautiously the man approached the door; listening until the regular breathing inside assured him the inmates were asleep. Deftly he inserted a skeleton key, entered and bolted the door quietly behind him. The moon dimly lit the interior as he groped his way toward the bed. In the far corner of the room something moved—moved with such slight stealthiness that even the trained ears of the bugler failed to hear it.

NEW SOUTH WALES BEHIND IN INTEREST

CANBERRA, Australia, March 18 (C.P. via Reuters).—Prime Minister Scullin announced in the House of Representatives to-day the State of New South Wales had paid only $123,000 out of a total of $1,228,000 interest due to the Commonwealth on March 15.

The Federal Government had the matter under consideration, with a view to taking appropriate action to ensure the upholding of the Commonwealth law and constitution, he added.

IN MEMORIAM

JONES.—In loving memory of my dear sister Olive (Mrs. George Jones), who departed this life March 18, 1926.
Beside your grave we often stand
With heart both crushed and sore;
But in the gloom, the sweet words come:
"Not lost, but gone before."
And only those who've lost can tell
The pain of parting, with sad farewell.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow,
For memory keeps you ever near us
Although you died five years ago.
—Sadly missed by sister, Sybil (Mrs. Harold McMahon).

MACDONALD SMITH SAILS FOR HOME

Veteran British Golfer to Play in Open Championship in June.

NEW YORK, N.Y., March 18. —(C.P.).—MacDonald Smith, veteran British golfer, sailed for home to-day on the liner George Washington to get in trim for the British open championship in June.

DIED

HOPE.—The death occurred at his late residence, Indian River, on Tuesday, March 17, of John C. Hope. Funeral announcements later.

MRS. JAS. STUBBS IS LAID TO REST

SIMPLE TRIBUTE PAID.

The remains of the late Mrs. James Stubbs, who died in Toronto following an attack of pneumonia, were yesterday afternoon laid to rest with quiet but fitting ceremony. Her body was taken to the George Street United Church at 1.30, and was laid at the front of the church, surrounded by wreaths and flowers from the organizations with which she was for years connected, and from relatives and a multitude of friends.

The service which commenced at 2 o'clock was conducted by Rev. J. E. J. Millyard, assisted by Rev. Harold Young of St. Paul's United Church, Toronto, and Rev. A. I. Brown of Peterborough. Mrs. Stubbs' favorite hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past," was sung, led by the choir. Mr. Brown read the scripture lesson taken from Psalm 103. Several well-chosen prayers were said by Mr. Millyard. Douglas Carlisle sang a solo entitled "Sunset and Evening."

Taking for his text the words, "I go my way to prepare a place for you . . ." Mr. Young, as former pastor of George Street Church and as a close friend of the deceased, spoke of her beautiful character and the crowning of her labors by passing to a more glorious life. "It is many years since Mrs. Stubbs first passed through the doors of this church," said the speaker. "Perhaps no one realised what she would come to mean to the whole life of the church. She gave freely of her friendship, and she gave a richness with it. She was steady and unfailing in the sacrifice of self, and she thereby emanated love, joy and hope to all with whom she associated.

"She created a new power in the Church through her leadership and encouragement. She served in the Sunday School. Mrs. Stubbs was indeed the "Mother of the church." She possessed a deeply genuine and religious faith, yet simple in its nature."

Rev. Mr. Millyard also said a few words of appreciation for the untiring service of the deceased in the church. "Her death is not a sad occurrence," he said, "it is rather a joyous promotion, a victory which has overcome the world."

After the singing of "Forever With the Lord," the very large congregation filed by her coffin, paying their last respects to one who had been taken from their midst. Interment was later made in Little Lake Cemetery.

Dr. J. E. Middleton, Percy Hetherington, Leslie Sarginson of Toronto, Bertram Allen, George Robertson and L. M. Richardson acted as pall bearers. A large number of distant relatives and friends from all parts of the Province attended the funeral.

SOCIETY DINNER PLEASING AFFAIR

St. Patrick's Day Dinner Held Under Auspices of St. Paul's L. A.

MUSICAL PROGRAM.

Counter attractions, to some extent, last night prevented the attendance of a greater number of patrons at the St. Patrick's Day dinner provided by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church—an annual custom. The number of friends, however, who partook of the sumptuous fare was encouraging, and the result was a delightful meal, amid surroundings of comfort and good fellowship. There was a free and easy atmosphere during the two hours of service—and let it be said here, service of the best.

Added to the passing of pleasantries was the harmonies descriptive of Old Erin poured forth from a dozen violins in the hands of youthful players. With Martin B. Chenhall at the piano, these budding musicians played splendidly together and though but recently formed, this nucleus may blossom forth into a worthwhile organization, and every one belonging to the church.

The decorations on the tables lent that air of Irishism, green predominating, to the jellies and the candles, in addition to pot plants and ferns.

The period of waiting between the dinner and the musical program in the church at eight o'clock was not much noticed, most of the auditors proceeding to the main building and enjoying a chat until a short organ recital was introduced by Mr. Chenhall about 7.30.

At eight o'clock Hurrell Dodds, as chairman, introduced a male quartette, Messrs. East, Coleman, Jr., Hope, and Anderson, with "An Irish Medley" and "Belle Mahone."

Fred Roy was present, and gave an interesting showing of moving pictures—a travelogue of Egypt, Palestine, and Athens; a moose hunt at Folyat, ayont Sudbury; skiing above Nassau; and cutting and shipping rock elm logs from Tully's Farm to Halifax and Britain. Each film was explained in terse manner by Mr. Roy, and the enjoyment was enhanced thereby.

Solos by Dr. J. C. Smith of Lakefield and John Anderson, and a dialogue and solo by W. A. Logan interspersed the picture films, the concluding number on the program being "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," by the quartette.

Prior to the National Anthem, E. F. Mason moved a vote of thanks to the Ladies' Aid, the picture operator, Fred Roy, and artists, orchestra and conductor, the audience showing its appreciation, especially to the Aid executive and all who assisted at the tables during the dinner.

Matthews Is Determined To Make Good When He Has Served His Term In Prison

Like the man he had proved himself to be when he faced the levelled gun of Dave Montgomery, Leonard Matthews yesterday made the trip which mile by mile carried him closer to the thick walls of Portsmouth Penitentiary. Matthews' composure and gentlemanly bearing on that trip earned him the admiration and respect of his guard.

"I have conveyed many men to Kingston but none who stood the journey or acted just in as fine a way as did Matthews" said S. R. Pearson, high county constable.

Pearson was the only guard in the car. He encountered no difficulties. In fact the officer stated that it seemed Matthews' single thought was to make the trip as easy and natural as possible.

He chatted most of the way and told the constable that he was determined to make good when his term was over and set about paying back the hundreds of dollars he had stolen from local business men.

Only once did Matthews' courage break down. That was as he walked out of the county jail and took his seat in the car with handcuffs about his wrists. Sobs choked him then and he could not speak. Tears ran down his face as he told Pearson his grief at leaving Peterborough, his wife and two children.

"Whatever anyone says about Matthews, he proved to me yesterday that he is a man" Officer Pearson stated emphatically.

OBITUARY

MRS. DENNIS McCARTHY.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Dennis McCarthy, 449 Rogers Street, who passed away after a few hours' illness in St. Joseph's Hospital, on Tuesday morning, will be held on Thursday morning from Immaculate Conception Church, where Requiem Mass will be said at 9 o'clock. The cortege will then proceed from the church to St. Joseph's Cemetery, Douro, for interment.

Mrs. McCarthy, formerly Jane Harrigan was celebrating her 56th birthday at the time of her demise. She was a member of the League of the Sacred Heart and of the Altar Society of Immaculate Conception Parish. Her loss is mourned by a sorrowing husband, four daughters, Helen of Detroit, Gertrude of Toronto, and Emma and Josephine at home, and one sister, Mrs. Ellen Buckley of Douro. A daughter, Mrs. John Corkery, predeceased her six years ago.

Troops Guard Illinois State Prisoners

DRASTIC ACTION TAKEN AS RESULT OF REVOLT ENDING IN 3 BEING SHOT, FIVE BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Resentment Against Parole Board Action and Overcrowding Blamed.

$300,000 DAMAGE DONE.

Warden and Chaplain Helpless to Halt Prisoners in Wild Rush for Safety.

JOLIET, Ill., March 19. — Officials ruled Illinois's two state prisons with a hand of iron today to prevent a repetition of yesterday's riot in which five buildings at Stateville Penitentiary were burned by some of the 1,800 milling prisoners, three of whom were wounded, one fatally before the insurrection could be put down.

Warned that the smoldering resentment of the convicts might flare into a new uprising in the older of the two prisons penitentiary authorities posted extra guards and marched members from four different companies of State Militiamen into the dining room, to halt the development of any further plot. They had the support of the State Government at Springfield which indicated the slogan for discipline would be "more guns and less talk."

Highway Police Called

In addition to 200 National Guardsmen a like number of State Highway Police, under command of their chief, Walter Moody, are on duty to stop any disturbance like that of yesterday when property damage estimated at $300,000 was done and three guards were beaten.

South Pole Moved 100 Miles North-Westward

HOBART, Tasmania, March 19 (C.P.).—The magnetic South Pole has moved 100 miles north-westward since his last visit to it, Sir Douglas Mawson said to-day when his Antarctic exploration ship Discovery put in here because of a coal shortage.

The explorer said many discoveries of new land had been made in the Antarctic and much scientific material had been gathered. The ship will return to the Antarctic after a few days when repairs have been made to its engine and boiler.

Cyclone Leaves Path of Destruction in Northern Portugal—Help Rushed In.

LISBON, Portugal, March 19.—(AP)—Almost all of Portugal ached today from the fury of yesterday's gales. In Lisbon chimneys were blown down, cellars flooded and tiles torn off roofs. Black Horse Square on the banks of the Tagus River was inundated when the water rose almost eight inches.

Firemen were busy today pumping out water and tearing down buildings which threatened to collapse under forty-eight hours of incessant rain. Several ships sought shelter in the harbor with their rigging or bridges swept away by wind and heavy seas. Warships anchored in the Tagus, lashed by tall waves, signaled a lifeboat which towed the gunboat Republica to safety.

PRINCES GREET CANADIAN GROUP

British Heir Congratulates Delegates on Efforts at Trade Fair.

MOVING PICTURES TAKEN.

BUENOS AIRES, March 19 (C.P.). — The Prince of Wales and Prince George this morning received approximately 80 Canadian delegates in the reception room of the British Embassy. The Prince of Wales, simply dressed, descended the grand stairway in the Embassy and greeted Sir George Perley, leader of the delegation. He congratulated the Canadians on their efforts at the trade fair. The other members of the delegation formed a line and the Prince shook the hand of each, exchanging courtesies.

In conversation with the Montreal representative on the delegation, the Prince of Wales expressed a desire to meet Mayor Ludd, the city's new chief executive. The reception was very informal.

HOTELMEN SEEK TAX EXEMPTION

Claims Smaller Hotels Will Be Forced From Business Unless Given Relief.

APPEAL TO HENRY.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19 (C.P.) —A deputation of the Ontario Hotelmen's Association to-da asked Premier Henry for legislation to exempt hotels from all municipal taxation with the exception of education and local improvement taxation.

It was argued that under a clause in the Liquor Control Act, it is made optional for municipalities to pass bylaws granting such exemption, but they now urged total exemption be placed on the Statute books in view of conditions they now are facing. Many of the smaller hotel men declare they are being forced out of business, and that unless some relief is granted the smaller hotel will disappear.

The hotelmen are also asking a consolidation of all legislation pertaining to hotels. Some time ago they prepared a brief on the question for the Government, but this was not followed, and they are again asking it in order to clarify all hotel legislation under one heading.

Royal Salesmen on the Job

R. A. F. Craft Strikes Tree as Flier Does Acrobatics Over Home Town.

FALLS IN FATHER'S FIELD.

BOURNE, Cambridgeshire, England, March 19 (C.P.). — David Angell, young pilot of the Royal Air Force, was killed to-day while doing aerial stunts for the residents of his home town.

Angell was stationed at Northweald, Essex, but he often flew over to his home town. While doing acrobatics close to the ground in his plane this morning, he struck a tree, crashed, and was burned to death in a field which belonged to his father.

It was the 24th air fatality in the Royal Air Force since the first of the year.

Young Man Shoots Self in Abdomen

NORTH BAY, Ont., March 19 (C.P.)—Ernie Tippler, aged 26 years, died in Queen Victoria Hospital at North Bay this morning from a shotgun wound said to have been self-inflicted last night at his home. He was delirious until the time of his death, and gave no reason for taking his life.

Tippler had been talking with his mother and a young girl in their home when he suddenly went upstairs to his room where he shot himself in the abdomen with a .16 gauge shotgun. He was given first aid treatment and rushed by car to the hospital at North Bay.

CHARITY TAX IS RIDICULED

J. F. Strickland Takes Part in the Budget Debate in the Provincial House.

DEFENDS COMMISSION

TORONTO March 19—Ridicule for S. C. Tweed's proposed "charity" tax was voice by J. F. Strickland (Con., Peterborough), in the debate on the budget in the Provincial Legislature. He declared that a wave of indignation would follow such a preposterous idea as taxing meals. Similarly, he said, the people would consider a tax on liquor sales as merely an increase in price.

"And the member also criticizes the price paid for power by the Hydro commission," continued Mr. Strickland. "I am no authority, but it is inconceivable that the splendid men on our commission, backed by the best of technical advice, would be so foolish or lax as to sign contracts at exorbitant figures."

ARREST IS MADE IN CONWAY DEATH

Police Capture Joseph Vizeneau, Trapper, in Turtle Lake Bush Country.

NO CHARGE LAID.

FORT FRANCIS, Ont., March 19 (C.P.). — Arrested in the Turtle Lake bush country, Joseph Vizeneau, a trapper, was brought to Fort Francis by a Provincial Police escort and is held in jail here pending investigation of the Conway murder.

No charge has been placed against Vizeneau, and he is held merely for questioning, police state.

Duncan Conway, an aged trapper of the Turtle Lake district, was shot and killed early in December, but his body was not found until last Monday, located beneath a woodpile in front of his isolated cabin, near his winter trap lines.

Conway's guns and furs were missing from the cabin. The trapper had been attacked from behind, two bullet wounds being found in his neck and shoulders.

COURT DISMISSES CAVAN FARMER'S DAMAGE ACTION

Hon. G. N. Gordon, Solicitor For Plaintiff, Gives Notice of Appeal.

"AN UNFORTUNATE CASE"

Mr. and Mrs. Nill And Mrs. Kincaid Give Evidence For Defence.

(By Staff Reporter.)

COBOURG, March 19.—Harold Kincaid's suit for $10,000 damages for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections by William Nill was dismissed without costs by Mr. Justice Rose in the Spring assize of the Supreme Court of Ontario here Wednesday afternoon.

G. N. Gordon, K.C., solicitor for the plaintiff, subsequently intimated that he would appeal the judgment.

Walton Stevenson, of Peterborough, assisted by W. F. Johnston, also of Peterborough, represented the defendant Nill.

Kincaid and Nill are Cavan farmers and live on adjoining farms. A serious illness had prevented Kincaid from doing his farm work during the first half of 1928. Nill had assisted the family in this emergency, and Kincaid alleged that during that time and also in the following year Nill had shown marked attentions to plaintiff's wife which developed an estrangement in his own home.

Mrs. Kincaid, who was called as a witness for the defense yesterday, declared that the cleavage between her and her husband had its beginning eight years ago when they occupied the Fair Iarm. From that time there had been virtual separation between husband and wife, although they had continued to live in the same house up to the present.

A reference to some derisive incident at that time was made by Mr. Stevenson in the first question he asked Mrs. Kincaid in her examination. It was something that was said or done before the "hired help" on the Fair farm.

Mr. Gordon interposed that remark that Mrs. Kincaid need not answer that question, and Mr. Justice Rose said to her: "You are not bound to answer any question as to anything that may have been said to you by your husband."

Mrs. Kincaid did not relate the details of the occurrence. Later in her evidence she stated that there had been no change in her attitude toward her husband through her acquaintance with Mr. Nill. She also swore that they had never met secretly, nor had the any secret conversations, and also that there had been no improper conduct.

Throughout her testimony she re-

Four Brokers Arrive at Portsmouth Penitentiary.

AVOID CAMERA MEN.

KINGSTON, Ont., Mar. 19. (CP)—William J. Smart and Maurice E. Young, of the Homer L. Gibson Company, D. S. Paterson and Austin Campbell, of the D. S. Paterson Company and Malcolm Stobie and Charles J. Porlong, of the Stobie Porlong Company, arrived in the city at one o'clock to-day, enroute for Portsmouth penitentiary where they will serve terms ranging from two and a half to three years.

The chief concern of the brokers seemed to be to avoid being photographed as they stepped from the train. They took whatever precautions they could and seemed relieved when they were hustled to the taxis awaiting them and were immediately driven to the penitentiary. A camera man attempted to snap them, but the brokers were too quick and covered their faces.

The prisoners were smoking cigarettes as they stepped from the train and looked more like successful business men than prisoners for the penitentiary. They were in charge of three deputies from the sheriff's office at Toronto and in quick time were whisked off to the institution and the doors closed behind them.

According to the deputies the trip from Toronto was an entirely uneventful one.

A widow and three children survive Rooney.

In 1929 he was a delegate to the London Trade Union Congress, representing the American Federation of Labor.

WINDSOR WOMAN FATALLY BURNED AS OIL EXPLODES

DAUGHTER INJURED.

Blast Occurs as Coal Oil is Poured Into Stove to Hurry Fire.

WINDSOR, Ont., March 19 (C.P.). — Mrs. Mary Turcinek, 23, is dead in Metropolitan General Hospital, her husband Mike, aged 28, is a patient there suffering from serious burns about the face, arms and hands, while John Malik, 30, brother of Mrs. Turcinek, was seriously burned about the face, arms, hands, legs and feet. Mary Turcinek, four, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Turcinek, is at the home of neighbors of the family suffering from slight burns about the head, face, and hands.

The four were injured this morning when an explosion followed an application of coal oil which Mrs. Turcinek used to brisk up a fire. The interior of the home of the Third Concession of Sandwich East Township was considerably damaged by fire which followed the explosion.

Injured Expected to Live.

The others are expected to live. All the clothing was burned from the woman's body as she dashed from the home and ran about the yard before she fell exhausted in the snow.

Martin Tomes, who lives in an adjoining house, was slightly burned when he attempted to extinguish the fire in the woman's clothing and later while helping to battle the fire inside the house. He rushed Mrs. Turcinek to the hospital and she remained conscious.

The house, a three-family apartment, was not badly damaged, but the furnishings in the Turcinek home were practically destroyed.

Seaplane Hurtles Into Pisa Harbor Without Warning

Colonel Umberto Maddalena, Finder of Dirigible Italia Survivors, Lieut. F. Cecconi and Mechanic Sergeant Damonte Are Killed Instantly.

CRAFT MAKES SUDDEN DIVE FROM 1,500 FOOT ALTITUDE, ONE MAN JUMPS, PARACHUTE HAS NO CHANCE TO OPEN

Trio Who Had Just Recently Returned From Atlantic Flight With Gen. Balbo to Brazil Were Heading For Rome to Seek New Endurance Record.

PISA, Italy, March 19 (C.P.). — Colonel Umberto Maddalena, famous Italian flier and finder of the dirigible Italia survivors, Lieutenant Fausto Cecconi and Mechanic-Sergeant Damonte were killed to-day when their seaplane fell into the sea.

Maddalena discovered General Umberto Nobile and a group of other survivors of the Italia in 1928 near Spitzbergen, and dropped medicine and supplies to them on the ice after the Italian airship had been wrecked on its North Pole flight.

He and Lieutenant Cecconi formerly held world air records for distance and duration flights and both had recently returned from the Latin-American flight of Air Minister Italo Balbo, on which Maddalena was adjutant.

Their seaplane was flying at at a height of 1,500 feet, and about 900 feet offshore to-day, when observers saw it dive suddenly and crash toward the surface of the water.

Two hundred feet above the sea one of the three fliers was seen to detach himself from the plane and plunge out with a parachute but he struck the water with such speed that he met death with the others.

Boats Rush to Scene

Colonel Maddalena was 35 and Lieutenant Cecconi was 26. The two and Second Lieutenant Giuseppe Damonte all flew in the same plane with General Balbo on the squadron flight to Brazil.

Colonel Maddalena himself was piloting the Savoia-Marchetti 64 seaplane over the harbor of Pisa when it plunged into the sea.

The three officers were among Italy's most famous fliers.

They were on their way from Sesto Calende to Rome to begin training for an attempt to recapture the world records for distance and endurance in a closed air circuit, which were wrested from them several days ago by the French fliers Boussotrot and Rossi.

General Italo Balbo, Minister of Air, arrived by airplane from Rome and hastened to the scene of the accident. When he arrived the waves were already beginning to carry shoreward loose fragments of the plane but the bodies had not yet been recovered.

RESCUERS LAND ON HORSE ISLAND CARRYING FOOD

Doctors Care For Injured After Trying Three Days to Beat Ice Barrier.

24 STILL MISSING.

First Party of Viking's Crew Travels Out to Steamer Sagona Where They Are Fed.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., Mar. 19.—(CP) —The ice barrier is beaten. After three days of effort, word flashed down from Horse Island this morning told how doctors and men from three ships had made their way over the five mile stretch of ice between the rescue flotilla and the survivors of the wrecked ship Viking, and how the Viking's men were already moving outward to food and care aboard the Imogene, Beothic and Sagona.

Doctors Landed

Doctors and men from these three ships treked across the ice this forenoon and landed on the island. Four of the 125 survivors of the Viking, all of whom have waited there in the cramped quarters afforded by five homes since their vessel blew up and sank on Sunday night, were given immediate medical care.

They began the work of assisting the men who are able to travel outward to the vessels. Already several have reached the coastal steamer Sagona for transportation to St. John's. Food for the others on the island has been landed. The few women of the little settlement who have cared for the sick and injured have reached the point of exhaustion. But Captain Abram Kean, injured, when his ship was wrecked, is gaining strength. Already he has improved sufficiently to join in the work of assisting those weaker than himself.

Word of the successful landing was wirelessed to the Postal Superintendent here and to H. B. C. Lake, Minister of Marine, by Otis Bartlett, operator at Horse Island.

FIRE AND SMOKE DAMAGES STORES

DAMAGE SET AT $4,000.

A fire which broke out in the Lundy Block, 291 George street, last evening at 6.20, made some headway before the Fire Department received a call, and in all there was about $4,000 damage to the building and the dry goods in three stores.

The building is owned by Louis Chesler and Harry Zacks, and the street floor is occupied by three dry goods merchants, M. Abrahamson, M. Fine and Botnick Bros. The other two floors are occupied by tenants.

The fire broke out in the northwest corner of Fine's store. The lower corner shows no signs of fire, but the desk is completely destroyed, and so it is thought that the fire must have started there. The flames crept up the walls and spread rapidly along the painted metallic ceiling. The dry goods at the rear of the store were soon a mass of flames, and the fire was about to break out in the next floor when the Department was summoned.

On the arrival of the firemen, the building was found to be completely flooded with smoke. It was with some difficulty that Firemen Gimblett Jr., Hulley and Electrician Asiels were able to bring the tentants down the rear fire escape. However, no one was injured. The firemen set to work and stopped the fire from making any further headway.

The back section of Fine's store was totally destroyed and the front part is greatly damaged by smoke. Botnick's stock is also badly damaged by smoke. Abrahamson's were more fortunate.

The building is partially covered by insurance and although no definite statement has been made yet, it is estimated that total losses will be in the vicinity of $4,000.

COMMITTEE IS SEEKING METHOD OF RATIONING TIME IN PARLIAMENT

Despite Old Traditions British Commons Proves Speedier Than Ottawa.

PREMIER WANTS CHANGE.

LONDON, Eng., Mar. 19. (By Geo. Hambleton, C. P. Staff Correspondent).—The mother of Parliaments is due for a shaking up. While members hold forth in the House below, a special committee upstairs is exploring ways and means of rationing time.

To the Canadian visitor, the House of Commons at Westminster is a source of perennial wonderment. It rumbles along in old traditions, yet works with a speed that would put Ottawa to scorn. It has more than twice the membership of the Dominion House. Yet it records a critical division in less than half the time. It limits loquacity with closures and guillotins and "kangaroos" yet it permits the private member to harass a long-suffering Government at question time in a way that Ottawa would regard as almost unseemly.

MacDonald Has Plans

But the virus of change is at work. Premier MacDonald would limit members' questions to one or two. He would allow no supplementary questions except from the original questioner. Tom Kennedy, Chief Government Whip, would put a 20-minute time limit on speeches—the same time-limit originally proposed when the Ottawa rules were revised. Sir Archibald Sinclair, who resigned as Liberal Whip only yesterday, thinks there should be more free votes in the House and the executive thus brought more under the control of the Legislature. Mr. Baldwin holds out for adequate discussion. Mr. Lloyd George wants a small standing committee to examine estimates before they are submitted. Mr. Winston Churchill would like to see an economic sub-parliament associ-

Monkey Business

LONDON, March 19 (C. P. Cable)—The pride of the Beaverbrook-Rothermere forces helping the unofficial Conservative candidate in to-day's by-election in St. George's, was a huge canvas spread on the Flatiron Building—"Vote for Petter."

Baldwin supporters occupying an apartment above the banner, during the night super-imposed in exactly similar lettering the word "Don't."

Grand Nationale Horse Is Winner at Sandown

SANDOWN, Eng., March 19.—(AP) —Victor Emmanuel's Grand National candidate Rhyticere showed good form today in winning the select handicap steeplechase over three miles and 125 yards from five other horses including three other Grand National candidates.

B. D. Davis' Gib, one of the heavier weighted Grand National entries was second four lengths behind Rhyticere and the same distance in front of Mrs. Chester Beatty's Swift Rowland. Stephen (Laddy) Sanford's Hook was unplaced.

Gib was the odds on favorite at eight to 13, while Rhyticere paid off at 100 to 9. Swift Rowland was 100 to 30 against.

SOLLOWAY AND MILLS ARE FACING CHARGES INVOLVING CONSPIRACY

Two Mining Brokers Appear For Hearing in the Toronto Police Court.

SPECIAL PLEAS ENTERED.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 19.— (By the Canadian Press.)—While six other former Toronto stock brokers were journeying to Portsmouth penitentiary to serve terms of two and a half and three years imposed on various counts of conspiracy, I. W. C. Solloway and Harvey Mills, former partners in the now defunct stock brokerage firm of Solloway Mills, appeared before Magistrate Jones in police court to-day facing 14 charges involving conspiracy and theft of stock.

Shortly before the time scheduled for the former brokers' hearing, a number of citizens had filled the corridors in the City Hall, but only a few of the spectators were allowed in the court room.

To-day's hearing marked Solloway and Mills' second trial in Toronto courts as both men were convicted last fall on a charge of "bucketing." In each case a fine was imposed.

Boiler Explodes Sailor Is Killed

ABERDEEN, Wash., Mar. 19. (CP) Wireless messages received here today from the Norwegian motor ship George Washington said a boiler in the ship had exploded, killing one man and injuring another.

The ship was about 10 miles off Gray Harbor and was proceeding slowly toward the harbor. A physician was sent out immediately on a pilot boat. Extent of the damage to the ship was not given in the messages and no names were mentioned.

SENATOR FORKE SUGGESTS PLAN TO RELIEVE WEST

Mr. Bennett's Gibe At Liberal Member Is Strongly Resented In House of Commons.

LEADERS CLASH.

Two Saskatchewan Members Lock Horns In The Debate On The Speech.

OTTAWA, Ont., March 19 (C.P.).—H. E. Spencer, United Farmers' member for Battle River, Alta. will lead off the debate on the Address in reply to the Speech from the Throne to-day in the House of Commons. A long list of members desirous of participating in the debate is in the hands of the party whips, who say there is no possibility of a division being reached for many days.

Sir George Foster, in point of service one of Canada's oldest parliamentarians, will lead off the Address debate in the Senate. Senator G. D. Robertson, Minister of Labor, yesterday gave the Senate a resume of the steps taken by the Dominion to relieve unemployment and incidentally said Canada might profit from the failure of Great Britain's unemployment insurance scheme to remove the basic causes of distress in that country.

Senator Robert Forke said he had never seen conditions in the west so difficult as they are to-day. He suggested a ten-year scheme of amortization for farmers' debts as one means of permitting them to continue operations without a back-breaking financial load.

Verbal Fireworks.

The House of Commons opened its short Wednesday session with considerable verbal fireworks. As an upshot of protests made by E. J. Young (Lib., Weyburn), Speaker George Black asserted the principle of free speech for members would be preserved, and no efforts to infringe upon it would be tolerated.

Mr. Young saw in a statement made the day before by the Prime Minister, and which referred to him, an attempt to forestall free discussion. Before his protest had been finished the chamber was in a tempestuous state with Rt. Hon. W. L. M. King coming to the assistance of his follower. C. H. Bell (Cons., Hamilton West) joined the fray in defense of the prime minister. There was shouting from members on all sides until the speaker concluded the incident by assuring the members that free speech, in accordance with the established rules of the house, would be preserved.

Promises Not Kept

Hon. Fernand Rinfret, former Secretary of State in the King cabinet, led off the debate, charging among other things that Premier Bennett's election promises had not been kept or the pledges implemented. Conservative teacers, he declared, had promised to end distress and at once. "Now" he continued, "they say: 'give

DRASTIC ACTION

The dead prisoner, Raymond Barney, died early today. He was wounded, along with Edward D. Vaney and Michael Farrare when they and hundreds of other convicts refused to obey immediately orders from the warden to return to their cells after the rioting had begun.

Overcrowding Blamed

Over-crowding of men in both prisons, which are separated by five miles, and resentment against parole board procedure, were blamed by Warden Henry C. Hill for yesterday's outbreak in Stateville. Other sparks which helped to touch off the revolt were the killing February 22 of three prisoners as they tried to escape from the old building and the rioting there last Saturday in which two prisoners were killed and two wounded. Another was the death of a prisoner in solitary confinement.

The rioting of the 1,800 convicts began in the Stateville chair factory, by a pre-arranged signal at 2 o'clock 180 convicts in the chair factory attacked three guards, lit torches of inflammable material and ran into the prison yard.

Almost simultaneously there was an outpouring of convicts from adjoining buildings. Seizing torches they applied them to the laundry, the shoe and carpenter shop, the garage and the dining rooms, and then under cover of the smoke assembled in the open yard. Efforts of the Rev. Eli Weir, the Catholic chaplain, to stop the men resulted in nothing but hoots and cries against the Illinois Parole Board.

Jeers Greet Warden.

Another chorus of jeers greeted Warden Hill when he walked, unarmed, into the yard and ordered the convicts back to their cells. As he spoke armed guards from the prison walls were gathering, but the prisoners stood their ground. At the warden's direction two shots were fired by them over the tops of their heads, but still they refused to move. There was another order for the men to disperse. This likewise was refused and the guards fired.

The shooting put an end to the affair and the prisoners hastened to their cells to escape the fumes of tear bombs, hurled by the guards. The prison gates then were opened to admit members of the Joliet Fire Department who put down the flames.

After an investigation by the coroner, Leblanc was absolved of blame.

LABORITE GOVT'S LIFE DEPENDING ON LIBERAL MOVE

Lloyd George Drawing Up Resolutions Outlining Party's Relation To Gov't.

PLANS KEPT DARK.

MacDonald's Followers Await Outcome Of Next Tuesday's Session.

LONDON, March 19 (A.P.)—Duration of the Labor Government depended to-day, critics believed, upon solution of the crisis in the Liberal Party which probably will reach its head at a meeting of the Liberals next Tuesday.

Unless Rt. Hon. David Lloyd George, nominal leader, can secure the loyalty of the bulk of his followers and rely upon their co-operation in divisions, he obviously cannot guarantee that support to the Government which it must have if it is to live.

It is understood that he is using the interval until next Tuesday, when he will present to the Liberal party a series of resolutions outlining their relaton to the Government, in attempting to reach an agreement with the Government which will be endorsed by his own followers.

Plans Not Disclosed

Nobody but Mr. Lloyd George and his confidants know his plans for solving this difficult problem, but lobbyists to-day credited him with a scheme for keeping the Government in office at least eighteen months. It was said that this plan would be elaborated in conference with Premier Ramsay MacDonald and Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson and then submitted at next Tuesday's Liberal Party meeting.

The Labor members generally are not making advances to the Liberals and are waiting to learn their plans before talking, but The Herald, Labor organ, to-day quoted an unnamed member of the Cabinet as saying: "I don't understand Lloyd George's tactics. Why doesn't he and the Liberals who agree with him take a bold course and join the Labor party?"

The Liberal Party meeting yesterwas not attended by Sir John Simon, Walter Runciman, or any of the other Liberals who voted against the Government in the Electoral Reform Bill Division Monday evening.

OSHAWA SEEKING GAS PLANT SALE

Amendment Introduced To Public Utilities Act To Permit Scheme.

TAYLOR TO OPEN FIREWORKS

TORONTO, Ont., March 19. (CP)—Debate on the budget in the Ontario Legislature will to-day bring speakers from the Progressive ranks into the fight. It is expected D. J. Taylor, (Prog., Grey north) will be the chief financial critic for this wing of the Opposition.

Yesterday the house advanced a number of non-contentious bills through different stages and the committee on municipal law began its consideration of bills dealing with the municipal income tax. One bill would abolish the tax and the other would leave it optional with municipalities to collect the tax and give them discretion to fix the rate separate from the general tax rate.

Strong opposition developed to both measures and representatives of a half dozen cities appeared before the committee to oppose it. Having heard the objections from outside the committee, at its next meeting, will debate the proposals and take a vote on them.

An amendment to the public utilities act, introduced by Hon. Leopold MacAulay, Provincial Secretary, is to enable the city of Oshawa to sell its gas plant. It provides that where a municipality owned public utility is no longer required it may be sold. In the case of a hydro system the consent of the Provincial Hydro Commission has to be secured.

BLAME IS LAID UPON NO PERSON FOR MARMORA QUARRY TRAGEDY

Frank Dayton Killed As Result Of Delayed Dynamite Blast Is Inquest Verdict.

JURORS NEVER LEAVE ROOM

(Examiner Correspondence)

MARMORA, March 19.—"We the jury empanelled to enquire into the death of Frank Dayton, find that the said Frank Dayton came to his death in the village of Marmora, County of Hastings on the 21st day of February, 1931 as a result of injuries received on the 20th day of February 1931 at Bonter's Quarry in the Township of Marmora in the County of Hastings as the result of the delayed explosion of a charge of dynamite placed by the said Frank Dayton."

This was the verdict arrived at, at the Town Hall, Marmora on Wednesday afternoon without the jury having to leave their seats. Coroner H. H. Alger of Stirling presided at the inquest and County Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan of Belleville examined the six witnesses called. Mr. Webster represented the Department of Mines.

A little diversion was caused through the forgetfulness of one juror to be present. Provincial Constable P. Gray having to drive to Stirling to ensure his attenance. Provincial Constable P. Gray was also the first witness to be called. After he had given the results of his investigations, Dr. H. Crawford's evidence was taken.

No Post Mortem

The doctor said that no post mortem examination had been made since it was clear that death was due to a fracture at the base of the skull. He had examined deceased previous to the accident and found him in good health.

The next witness, John Bonter, manager of the quarry, stated that Dayton had been employed there most of the time he had been in charge. He did general work and was entrusted with most of the blasting. In some cases he used half a stick and never more than a whole stick of dynamite. He (Bonter) had instructed him to use a three foot fuse in all cases.

Fred Bonter, who preceded his brother as manager of the quarry stated that Dayton had been employed for some time under him and that the latter, claiming to have done blasting previously, asked to be allowed to do it at his quarry

Arthur Mechan and Percy Cooper, fellow employees of the deceased were the last witnesses called. Cooper in his evidence told of precautions taken by Dayton when placing dynamite charge

The jury was composed of the following, W. R. Linn, (foreman), C. Wellman, F. S. Johnston, T. E. Potts, H. Nayler, T. Warren, J. Finnegan and J. Blakely.

UNITED CHURCH WILL PROTEST RUM TRADE FROM FRENCH ISLES

Canadian Appeal To Geneva And France Probably Be Suggested To Ottawa.

FIGHT FOR BAN.

COBOURG, March 19.—Organized protest from all United churches in Canada will greet expected efforts to life the ban on liquor export clearances to the United States. In addition the Bay of Quinte Conference Committee on Evangelism and Social Service has been called for a special session by Rev. Andrew McLaughlin, Grafton, the chairman, to frame a demand that Canada enter a protest to the League of Nations against the use of the French islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, as bases of supply for the illicit liquor traffic in the United States.

"The United States not being a member of the league," Mr. McLaughlin stated last night in an interview, "cannot protest to the league, and doubtless various reasons of statescraft forbid its making representations to the French Government.

"Canada, however, is a member of the League of Nations, as France is, and Canada can protest against the uses to which St. Pierre and Miquelon are being put as a matter of international justice.

"Such action on Canada's part would serve two splendid purposes. First, it would demonstrate unmistakably Canada's friendship to the United States and its earnest desire to co-operate in their effort to stamp out bootlegging, which flourishes in defiance of the American Constitution. Second, if Canada's protest should be followed by mandatory action on the part of the League of Nations, it would be of tremendous value as an example to American citizens of what the League of Nations can accomplish. World peace, after all, depends very largely on the hoped-for conversion of the United States from its present attitude toward the league.

"This is Canada's great opportunity and success in this effort, however it might be condemned as being too altruistic, might begin a new chapter of history for the whole world and a happier one."

Calls to the special session of the Social Service Committee are being sent out to committee members today, and it is understood that the session will be held at Cobourg.

CAMPELLFORD, March 19 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent)—The Ionic Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, Campbellford, celebrated its 22nd anniversary on Tuesday, March 17, when it was honored by the visit of the Grand Superintendent, Rt. Ex. Comp. W. J. Hoar of Bowmanville, and was host at a banquet given in honor of the occasion.

The first part of the evening was devoted to lodge work, the Mrked Master Degree being exemplified. Numbers on the musical program for the entertainment included two selections by the Ionic Chapter Quartette, consisting of Comps. J. M. Bygott, W. Henson, Dr. H. O. Richardson and A. Hazell, "In a Little Old Town" and "Juanita," and a vocal solo by Comp. Henson, "Strike Up a Song." A feature of the evening was the observance of two minutes silence, to honor the memory of the late Rt. Ex. Dr. E. J. Free, who always took an active part in the work of the chapter.

Tribute to Member

Ex. Comp. F. C. Bonnycastle presided over the toast list. The King and Craft being duly honored. Ex. Comp. L. B. Glover, in his address, paid a glowing tribute to the character of the men who composed the Grand Lodge. He pointed out that the jurisdiction of this body covered 16 districts with 156 chapters and a total of 20,000 members. He stated that the leaders were men who were outstanding in the community and nation had given of their best to further the interests of the fraternity which goes back into history and who's symbols have never changed.

Rt. Ex. Comp. Hoar replied to this tribute, congratulating the lodge on its work and briefly reveiwing the work of the Chapter in the district. He also spoke of the splendid opportunity of all Masons to exemplify their principals in life and to be stepping stones instead of stumbling blocks.

The toast to 'Our Guests" was made by V. Ex. Comp. Dr. O. C. Watson and responded to by Ex. Comp. T. McKim of the Colborne Chapter. He spoke of the benefits that can be derived from Masonry along the lines of social, moral and intellectual uplift, urging upon all to take the advantages afforded them along these lines.

The toast to the candidates was made by Comp. S. H. Neale, Comps. T. J. Craighead and R. Smith responding.

A pleasing function of the evening was the presentation of a past First Principals jewel by Ex. Comp. C. A. Kingston to the Immediate Past Principal. Ex. Comp. A. J. Crucifixion To Be Given In St. Andrew's Campbellford Presbyterian Choir Will Present Stainer's Cantata on Sunday. March 29.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 19 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent) — After the decided success of last year the Choir of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Campbellford, will again present the sacred cantata of Sir John Stainer, the "Crucifixion," on Sunday evening, March 29, under the direction of the choirmaster and organist, W. A. Newcourt, A.L.C.M.

The tenor solos in this production will be taken by William Collison and the bass solo parts by George Colman, Jr., of St. Paul's Church, Peterborough. Solo parts will also be rendered by John Storie, J. Nelson and L. Rollo.

The services on Easter Sunday will be featured by several musical selections by the choir and special musical numbers on the organ.

At the morning service two anthems will be sung, "They Have Taken Away the Lord" (Stainer), and "Conquering Kings," (Maunders). In the evening Mrs. Charles Milne will be the soloist and the anthem "Send out Thy Light" (Gounod) will be sung. The preacher for the day wil be the Rev. J. C. Robinson.

Growing Deaf With Head Noises? Try This.

If you are growing hard of hearing, and fear catarrhal deafness, or if you have roaring, rumbling, hissing noises in your ears, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmint (double strength) and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and a little sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy, and the mucous stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to take. Anyone who is threatened with catarrhal deafness or who has head noises should give this prescription a trial.

Bailieboro District Roads In Bad Shape

BAILIEBORO, March 19 (Examiner Correspondence).—On Monday the men residing east of the village attempted to plough the snow from the road, but found it so deep that it was unsafe to put the horses into the snow.

The road on which traffic is travelling is very high and as the snow melts away from the sides it leaves it unsafe for cutters and light traffice, while it is impossible to haul a load over the roads.

Perhaps one of the greatest drawbacks to the farmers, is the fact that they are unable to get their grain ground, and this year, on account of the cheap grain, the farmers are feeding large numbers of hogs and cattle, and it is difficult to keep their stock in condition without chop.

eight months'. How much time do they want? How log will it take them to make good their promises to the electorate? They do not know, we do not know and, unfortunately, the poor elector does not know."

Two Saskatchewan members locked horns later in the debate over the question of racial prejudices in that Province; F. W. Turnbull (Cons., Regina), charged Liberals with preaching and fostering sectionalism. George McPhee (Lib., Yorkton) said the Conservatives elected in Saskatchewan in the last election had subscribed to a charge that the Liberal Government had been dominated by the French. There had been a "racial cry" in the Province during the campaign, Mr. McPhee said, fostered and maintained by the Conservatives.

In referring to the Imperial Conference, Mr. Turnbull, who sprang into national prominence by defeating Hon. Charles Dunning in Regina, said for the first time grain marketing interests had been included in the Canadian delegation. At least an attempt was made, he said, to solve Canada's wheat problems, adding that until the conference was ended, no one might say a solution had not been propounded.

Mr. McPhee advised the Government to abandon its high protection policy, saying it never would be received by the farmers of the West. Under a high tariff wall, he declared, the West would continue to feel economic distress.

F. T. Shaver (Cons., Stormont), said conditions in the cotton industry had been improved materially by the tariff legislation enacted at the special session. He foresaw still greater industrial improvement due to the tariff legislation to be introduced later in the present session.

WARKWORTH, Mar. 19.—(Examiner Correspondence.) — An enjoyable evening was spent on Tuesday night in the church hall, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Norham church, when the glories of Old Ireland were given in speech and song.

Mr. John Diamond was the genial chairman of the evening.

The program commenced with the singing of 'Tipperary' by the audience, followed by the chairman's address. He spoke of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland and of the significance of March 17th.

Mrs. Harry Wilson sang very sweetly "Come Back to Erin, Mavourneen."

A reading, "The Real St. Patrick," by Mrs. Stanley Brenton, gave a very interesting account of the life history of St. Patrick and an account of the evangelization of Ireland.

Mr. Fred Huycke, wearing a hat decorated wth green, sang in his humorous way "The Hat My Father Wore on St. Patrick's Day.'

An instrumental duet, violin and guitar, by Miss Dora Palmateer and Mr. Harry Hutchison, was much enjoyed.

Mr. H. C. Curtis then recited "The Chariot Race by Ben Hur" and as the story of Ben Hur's life, and the chariot race was presented in vivid word pictures the attention of all was held with intense interest.

Mr. Richard Knight sang "Mother's Old Sweet Lullaby" in splendid voice.

The Highland Fling was given by Annie Grant and Lenore Isaac.

Mrs. Oscar Laver, dressed in old-fashioned costume, gave 'A Village Monologue," a humorous rendering of a talkative woman who monopolized the conversation.

Mr. Fred Huycke, again sang, "Where the River Shannon Flows."

Miss Palmateer and Mr. Hutchison gave another instrumental duet.

This was followed by impromptu speeches, which were very brief and to the point.

Mr. Ewart Huycke told an Irish story.

Messrs. L. Huycke, R. Knight, and H. Curtis gave a number of vocal selections, including "Hear 'Dem Bells," "The Bullfrog on the Bank" and "I Want a Long Wife," which were very much enjoyed by those present.

MONTREAL PRODUCE

MONTREAL, March 19—Arrival of the new shipments of potatoes, in bags instead of in bulk, and a decline in potato and butter prices to retailers, were the features of the produce and dairy market here yesterday. Egg and cheese prices were unchanged.

The first carlot shipments of New Brunswick Green Mountain potatoes, in 80-pound bags, instead of in bulk, arrived here to-day. Prices were quoted at 75c per 80-pound bag, and to retailers 85c to 90c per 80-pound bag. Remaining stocks of potatoes, in carlots, per 90 pounds bulk, were still on sale, being quoted at 80c.

Carlot prices of British Columbia fresh eggs were quoted at 25c for extras, and 23c a dozen for fresh firsts and pullets. Ontario and Prairie fresh extras, in carlots, were quoted at 24c, firsts at 22c and seconds at 16c a dozen. Prairie extras and firsts for shipment with delivery in about a week were 23½c and 21½c a dozen. To retailers, quotations were 4,557 cases.

On the butter market, prices of solids and prints to retailers lost 1c, at 33c and 34c a pound. Regraded Eastern Townships and fresh Western No. 1 butter was unchanged at 31c to 31½c a pound. Receipts were 25 boxes.

Winter colored cheese was quoted at 14½c to 14¾c a pound, and receipts were only 5 boxes

TORONTO PRODUCE

TORONTO, Mar. 19.—Receipts of eggs continued heavy yesterday, greatly exceeding the local demand, and all prices were lowered 1c per dozen. The market has shown decided weakness during the past few days and dealers and brokers have been reluctant to comment on future conditions. It was the opinion of all, however, that retailers would have to get nearer the 30c mark for fresh extras, instead of the prevailing 35c to 30c range, before consumption would be stimulated to any extent. A price to the consumer of 30c per dozen for extras would give the retailer a 6c profit at yesterday's wholesale prices for graded supplies.

Yesterday local wholesalers were quoting the retail trade: Fresh extras, loose, at 24c, and, in cartons, at 26c per dozen; firsts at 22c, loose and seconds at 19c, loose. Country shippers were quoted 1c less, at 18c for extras, 16c for firsts and 14c for seconds, delivered, ungraded, cases returned, making the return to the farmer very low, when delivery charges were subtracted. Brokers were offering graded eggs, in free cases, at 21c for extras, 19c for firsts and 17c for seconds, a drop of 2c for the week.

Butter

The butter market was steady, with prices unchanged at 31c to 31¼c for No. 1 creamery solids, and 30c to 30¼c for No. 2. Some sales were reported, but trade generally was not very active. Small lots changed hands, and an occasional fair-sized sale was made, but they were of little importance on a market of this kind.

Cheese

There was a moderate trade in cheese at steady prices. Brokers quoted new makes at 14¾c for large, 15c for twins, and 15¼c for triplets. Retailers were quoted 16c for new, large; 16¼c for twins, and 16½c for triples.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, March 19. — Lack of foreign interest and limited offerings gave bears the edge in a dull wheat pit session here yesterday. Closing quotations were ⅛c to ¾c higher than Tuesday's close.

A firm opening gave way to a drop in prices, but the market recovered and inclined upward in the succeeding period. There was no feature to the market. Offerings were limited and most of the wheat reached the market via spreading operations credited to Southern interests.

Export business overnight and yesterday was estimated at 200,000 bushels.

Demand for cash wheat and coarse grains remained quiet with prices holding.

IRON OUT THE INEQUALITIES.

While the attempt to abolish the municipal income tax has given many municipal governments some bad moments, the agitation will not be without its value if it leads to the ironing out of some of the inequalities of the present tax.

Even those who most bitterly opposed the Ellis and Honeywell bills were forced to admit that the present law could stand correction in a number of respects, and it is to be hoped that the publicity the whole matter has been given will eventually result in a more uniform and a fairer law.

Obviously it is not a desirable condition that in one municipality a citizen is required to pay municipal income tax while in another no such tax is collected.

If the law is to remain on the statute books it should be carried out in every part of the Province and on the same terms, so that the element of discrimination and injustice will be removed.

At the same time there are other features that deserve some consideration—among them the suggestion that the amount of income tax paid to the Federal Government should be deducted in computing the municipal income levy, and another, the proposal that there should be a uniform flat rate throughout the Province, thus doing away with the inequalities of the present system.

The whole question is of great importance and might be profitably turned over to a commission for a thorough study and consideration.

ARMISTICE DAY.

With the attempt of A. W. Neill, member for Comox-Alberni, to have Armistice Day always celebrated on November 11, the actual date of the anniversary of the end of the war, a good many veterans as well as thousands of other people will be in thorough sympathy.

Under the present plan Armistice Day is observed together with Thanksgiving Day on the Monday of the week on which November 11 falls, and the ceremonies and services that should commemorate this most significant anniversary have to be dove-tailed in with those peculiarly associated with Thanksgiving Day.

There are many Canadians who have felt for some time that Armistice Day is of sufficient importance to justify a demand that it should always be celebrated upon November 11, and that it was a mistake to have chosen another date and combine its observance with that of Thanksgiving.

The haphazard celebration of this anniversary under the existing arrangements, which sees the Armistice marked by ceremonies in some cities on the Sunday before the 11th, others on the Monday set apart for the purpose and in still others on November 11th itself, is not satisfactory, and there is a strong current of public opinion behind the proposal voiced by Mr. Neill, that the end of the war should be celebrated on the date of the actual anniversary.

To much emphasis has been placed on the convenience of a week-end holiday, and not enough on the historic importance of Armistice Day.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The announcement of the officers chosen to direct the activities of the Peterborough Chamber of Commerce for the next year indicate that the organization can be relied upon for the same genuine service in the public interest that it has been providing.

John R. Marshall, who succeeds James Dutton as president, is widely known both as an executive and as an earnest worker for the community welfare, and from here energetic leadership can be expected.

The same tribute can be paid to the other new officers. Charles Cummer, who becomes vice-president, has been a very enthusiastic and efficient treasurer of the organization, and J. A. McKone, who takes over the treasurer's duties, has as a member of the Board of Education and in other capacities given proof of his ability.

The retiring officers have earned a vote of gratitude, not only from members of the Chamber of Commerce, but from the community generally.

Mr. Dutton's three-year term as president has been marked by a faithful attention to the responsible duties of that position that may well serve as a model to other executive heads. He has untiringly devoted himself to the work of the Chamber of Commerce to such an extent that the prestige and usefulness of the organization has been enhanced.

F. D. Kerr, K.C., as vice-president, is another who has given unsparingly of his time and ability to the service of the Chamber and has merited general thanks.

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

A most interesting and helpful pamphlet on Canada and the League of Nations, written by Frederic H. Soward, associate professor of history in the University of British Columbia, and with a foreword by Sir Robert Borden, has been issued by the League of Nations' Society in Canada.

Professor Soward covers the whole question of Canada's entry into the League, the means by which that entry was accomplished and with what has been done since in a clear-cut, interesting fashion that cannot fail to give those who read it a much more accurate knowledge, not only of the League itself, but of Canada's participation in its activities, than most of them have had.

"Professor Soward has made an admirable contribution to a more intimate knowledge of Canada's part in the service of the League," says Sir Robert Borden in his introduction to the pamphlet. "It is essential that the youth of our country should realize that service and our share therein. Each Canadian delegation to Geneva must represent not merely the Government but the people."

These statements being so obviously true, it is well that such authentic and forcibly written articles as that of Professor Soward should be widely distributed and carefully read.

A knowledge of the contribution made toward world peace by the League of Nations and the by no means secondary part played by Canada's representatives should be widespread.

BEAUTIFY CANADA.

Another spring is on the threshold. Close at hand is the time when Old King Winter will breathe his last and sprightly Miss Spring will take her place upon the stage, in the full glare of the spotlight. In many respects the winter just drawing to a close has not been of the most pleasant type. Not too vigorous, it is true, but the depressed condition of industry has made it appear a trifle long and few there are but who are willing to be rid of it and who will welcome the raiment of spring as the possible turning point in world wide conditions.

In the change of seasons such as Canada enjoys a a heritage that is not fully appreciated by the native born. Warmer climes may boast of their sunshine, their continuous even tempature, but there is nothing to make them appreciate that nature has taken on renewed vigor, that she is starting upon a new day, full of life and garbed in the cloak of purity and fragrance.

It is our duty as Canadians, living in this favored land, to give Mother Nature a helping hand. And we can best do that by beautifying the surroundings in which we live. Industrially speaking we may not, for the moment be prosperous, but does that not afford a relief to cultivate some of the ideals and characteristics that proceed from the human heart and mind? Canadians, of necessity are children of nature; we are sprung from a wilderness and, never hampered by seething masses of population, we have ever been enabled to live close to nature.

With the provincial departments of agriculture throughout the Dominion, principally through the horticultural societies, providing the machinery for reaching rural and urban districts, it behooves every loyal Canadian this year to enhance the beauty of his surroundings. It entails but little expense, it requires but little labor, but through combined effort and with the generous support of Mother Nature our cities, towns and villages can be developed to such a state of admiration and degree of beauty as to leave gloom and depression but a small part in the picture.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

THOSE "WINDSOR UNIFORMS."

In the world of birds we know that it is the male that is decked out in fine plumage, which he sports gallantly to attract the female. It is the reverse with homo sapiens, for in a general way it is the women who don beautiful raiment, and this, curiously enough, not to attract the males, but, as we know, to arouse the envy, the admiration, and the approval of the other women. Yet clothes, on their decorative side alone, have a significance not to be despised. Did not crusty old Carlyle write a whole philosophy of Clothes? "Has not," he remarked, "your Red hanging-individual a horse-hair wig, squirrel-skins, and a plush-gown; whereby all mortals know that he is a Judge? Society, which the more I think of it astonishes me the more, is founded upon Cloth."

Only the other day we learnt that the King and Queen had approved certain designs for the dress of debutantes at the Royal Court. We confess to only a languid interest in the fact that the design is to be "all in white, with a full flaring skirt hanging in three folds, and a bodice of the fashionable sheath-like shape." These are mysteries not to be intelligently discussed by the male mind. But, seeing that democracy will shortly be in action and the annual Function on Parliament Hill is taking place, we are led to speak for a few moments of an occasion which calls for the donning of fine clothes on the part of the male, as well as the female of the species. And we do this fearing that we ourselves and many of our brethren of the Fourth Estate have in the past, by careless use of terms, been confusing the public mind on the question of uniforms, and have repeatedly referred to the wearing of "Windsor Uniforms" when something entirely different was meant. If, as is the case, certain clothes have been prescribed for certain occasions and purposes it is, perhaps, well not to indulge in "terminological inexactitudes."

The real Windsor Uniform is worn exclusively at Windsor Castle by members of the Royal Family and by a few others on whom the King has specially conferred the right. It consists of a tail coat of blue cloth, white, single-breasted waistcoat, but, strangely enough, black trousers. The collar of the coat and the cuffs are covered with scarlet cloth. The buttons are of best gilt with the Garter Star embossed.

The name, "Windsor Uniform," is often erroneously applied to the uniform worn by Privy Councillors, the coat of which is of dark cloth with heavy gold oak-leaf embroidery; on full-dress occasions worn with white breeches and stockings, and on other occasions with dark trousers with a heavy gold stripe. This is the "Civil Uniform," of either the First, or Second Class. Imperial Privy Councillors wear that of the First Class, others the Second, the only difference being that in one the embroidery is five inches wide, and, in the other, four. It should be called the "Civil Uniform," or might be not inappropriately termed a "Privy Councillor's Uniform," but certainly not a "Windsor Uniform," which is a different dress, and officially authorized for a specific purpose and place.

We understand that when he opens Parliament next Thursday, our distinguished fellow citizen, the present Administrator, will wear the Court or Levee dress, which is a uniform of still another type. There are those who may smile, and talk about tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee. Yet, after all, if clothes do have a special significance perhaps it is well to call things by their right names. If, therefore, we have ourselves erred in the past we shall strive not to err again.—Ottawa Journal.

EDITORIAL NOTES AND COMMENT.

Mr. Baldwin may be slow to start, but he hits from the shoulder when he gets under way.

About all that the six hours of oratory by Mr. King and Mr. Bennett disclosed was the fact that the former is not satisfied with the Premier or what he has been doing, while Mr. Bennett is perfectly satisfied with both.

Mr. Tweed proposes a tax on meals, but as he set a limit of one dollar, newspaper men can breathe again.

Fifty cents out of every dollar spent on liquor in Ontario goes into the federal and provincial coffers. And now another tax of 10 per cent. is suggested.

A great seeker after information is Hon. Peter Veniot, former Postmaster-General, who has twenty-one questions on the order paper of the House of Commons.

Toronto school principal says that the youth of today is better than that of yesteryear, which would seem to be a very nice start for a heated controversy.

More girls than ever, we are told, are seeking positions. Maybe because they couldn't husband their resources.—Liverpool Weekly Post.

The Red-Headed Goddess

"Atca dil pali taoskle."

"Atca dil pali taoskle."

Yet in spite of the measure of comfort she was receiving, and the feeling of security that had grown upon her through the week, and in spite of her genuine interest in these strange, new-old surroundings, her thoughts were constantly going out to Dirk and her father, so that by the sixth day she could think of nothing else. She awoke early that morning and lay quietly in her tent, waiting for sounds of the camp outside, with both of her beloved men on her mind.

She thought of Dirk, and for the first time permitted herself to dream of the past and future. Dirk! Darling Dirk! He had been so brave, so tender, so thoughtful of her through all their difficulties. Yet underneath that cool calmness of his lay a hot, throbbing love, the thought of which made her breathless now. Would she know his arms again soon? Would she feel his kisses burning her face, her neck? The sweet pain of her hopes was almost unbearable. And then, poignantly mingling with this ecstasy, came the old returning fears, as she remembered Dirk's dear length stretched on his bed in his shelter, as she recalled his bruised head, his sick, feverish mutterings, his terribly swollen foot. She had left him so sick! Had Silver Tongue found him rational? Had he taken him supplies? Had he really told him all about her, so that he wouldn't worry? She could scarcely wait to know, could scarcely endure another moment of the time that must pass before the Indian returned with news. But it was today. Today! The endless week, the timeless century of waiting had passed, and Silver Tongue would return today. He had said they could not talk together, but they must talk! There was too much to be asked and answered.

She sat upright, impatient to begin the day, to get ready for Silver Tongue's return. How would he come? Across the desert or up the canyon? Across the desert, she thought, if he stopped to see Dirk again as he said he would. Across the desert! The words made a kind of song in her heart. Across the desert. And across the desert, too, would come her father.

At thoughts of him deep slow, tears welled up surprisingly in her throat. She had scarcely dared to let herself dwell on him, knowing so well what agony he had suffered in her absence, what dreadful imaginings must have been his through the days of her disappearance, and what torture as they proved to hold, each of them, only silence, endless silence. Her imagination carried her back readily enough to the big white mansion and to her father's study, and it was easy to picture him there, behind his desk, his telephone in his hand, his notebook and pencil by his elbow, engineering the search for his daughter with his usual thoroughness and capability. In her mind's eye she saw him reaching out with all the different antennae science has provided; she saw him taut and alert to every quivering response; she saw him anxious and careworn as, one by one the various instruments failed him; and she saw him hopeless at last, before a baffling mystery that he could not help but conclude had ended only one way. And then she saw him receiving the message from Silver Tongue. Her mind rushed into the immediate future at this point. Her father had had the telegram for two days now. He might be crossing the desert himself at this very time, toiling with guides and riends behind Silver Tongue.

Her thoughts were interrupted by her two Indian maidens, who appeared to carry her screen and her blankets to the pool. Lorraine's plunge this morning was swift, not only because the water was beginning to feel the effects of the frosty nights, but because she was impatient to go above to the desert with the children, where she might watch for Silver Tongue.

But first there was her ridiculous ceremony to the Sun-God, which seemed this morning, now that her thoughts were turning homeward, more ridiculous than ever—and no longer amusing. She started intoning her chant with a faint show of impatience, but was suddenly startled out of it by the baleful stare of old Scarface.

There was in his look today the same crafty suspicion which had so terrified her in the cave and which she had glimpsed once since, the day she popped the corn for the Indian boys; and suddenly her heart was chilled with forboding. She had been so unexpectedly happy here, had felt so free and safe. Had she been careless? Had she overestimated her safety? Silver Tongue had told her to watch Scarface, and she hadn't. He had told her to make up ceremonies and dances. Had she neglected her role? Had Scarface, always suspicious, discovered the pretense, pierced the sham? Had he detected her for what she was, because of that unfortunate and innocent revelry with the popcorn and brown sugar? It was impossible to guess but, as a result of her misgivings, constraint so fell upon her that an awkward accident occured.

For, with the rush of self-consciousness that swept over her, her movements lost their certainty and, when it came time to toss the water from the bowl to the sky, the vessel twisted in her hands in some unaccountable way, so that the whole cold contents dashed into the face of the grim-visaged medicine man. He gave a start at this unexpected icy shower, while the children giggled, the women smiled and the men broke into loud laughter. As for Lorraine, she was stiff with terror and strangling with a nervous laugh frozen in her throat.

Scarface would think this was deliberate. It had queered her prayer, which had already lost conviction under his gaze. What could she do to establish again friendly relations with the old fellow and at the same time convincing communication with her husband in the sky? While she groped for some method of making amends, her mind went blank, but, fortunately for her before her nervousness broke in to an irrepressible bubble of laughter, the dripping old figure stalked furiously away, with only an indignant grunt, and disappeared down the canyon trail.

In her relief, Lorraine began to dance. She danced and danced, snatches of things she had learned in private dancing classes, weaving a pattern in joyful leaps of her own imaginings, and so outdoing her own previous efforts that the Indians were spellbound. But as suddenly as light-heartedness had come to her, it vanished. Where had the old man gone? And what was he thinking—planning to do? Abruptly the little brown figure pinning like a leaf in the wind, tossed up her arms and sank to the ground, waving her audience off to their customary duties of the day.

While she waited for the breakfast to be brought her by the little Indian servants, she was plunged into a state of depression she was unable to shake off. Only half aware of what was given her, she drank goat's milk, ate canned blueberries and the inevitable corncake, then, rising, she stood irresolute. Should she wait here until Scarface returned, and try to make peace with him, or should she let it pass for the accident it was and go up to the desert with the children?

The matter was decided by the impatient children themselves, who tugged at her skirt and pointed questioningly upward, shivering to indicate that they wanted to follow the sun's warmth, which had already left the canyon. So Lor aine nodded assent and started along behind them with her little lamb at her heels as usual. She passed the women, busily at work on their looms, passed the girls grinding corn in their "metates" and finally came to the forges. But here she stopped short in astonishment.

For instead of making the silver jewelry, which as a rule occupied all their spare time, the men were engaged in another and strangely menacing activity. They did not pause in their occupation as the girl lingered nearby, her wide, startled eyes questioning them silently; but each held to his particular piece of work, apparently unaware of her, until at last, unable to ask or be answered, she went slowly on her way.

But there went with her a feeling of fear. For these Indian savages had been preparing weapons of warfare; there was no doubt. Clearly and unmistakably that was what they had been doing. One had been examining with great care a Colt revolver; another was fashioning arrows; others were sharpening gleaming knives, while others—were they tomahawks, those blunt, cruel ax-like looking things? Her blood ran cold at the thought, while she groped for an answer to this mystery, and the farther she climbed behind the chattering children the more menacing seemed the picture she had left behind. Those silent, intent figures, unaware of her, their peaceful pursuits frogotten in their intentness on preparation for warfare—on whom?

Suddenly it burst upon her. These were the mutinous Indians her father was to study! This was the band threatening an uprising! The Navajos in whose midst she had been dwelling with such contentment were in reality her worst enemies at present. And yet she was with them alone, unarmed, helpless and—worst of all—suspected by the most powerful of them.

In the light of this new and painful knowledge, she began to wonder if Silver Tongue, after all, were playing fair with her? Had he really telegraphed her father? If so, would her father get here before the rebellion broke? Did he, perhaps, know when and where it was being planned, or was he coming in a blind rush to save her, ignorant of his danger? Why should Silver Tongue bother to do this—save her— anyway, with tribal matters of so much more moment afoot? The answer came readily enough. Her father had doubtless offered a ransom, and the Indian wanted it.

Very well, then, if her father had really received the wire, and was on his way to her rescue, would he arrive simultaneously with the outbreak of the Indians? Would Silver Tongue return her and Dirk to him, only to follow them with war-whoops and murder them all on the homeward way? With her present intimate knowledge of the Indians and their habits, it seemed probable enough. They were still uncivilized, still barbaric in thought; why not in deed?

These ideas were not pleasant companions and her little playmates felt a change in her when they reached the desert. Was Estsanatlehi displeased' Had the smiling Goddess of the Red Hair been offended? Gravely they drew apart, discussing her wonderingly, as she sat lost in thought on the sand. Her laughter had vanished. She did not wish to play. She did not even look up. So they, instead of dashing merrily into games, sat down disconsolately on the ground not far away.

What To-day Means To You

"PISCES"

If March 19th is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m., from 3:15 p.m. to 4:45 p.m. and from 8 p.m. to 10:15 p.m. The danger hours are from noon to 2 p.m. and from 6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

The astrological signs of March 19th augur a day that will reward concentrated effort, and the problem, whether business or domestic, that has, so far, not yielded to treatment will solve itself. A day of fresh thought. Clouds of worry will disappear and the sun of clear thinking will shine.

Children born on this March 19th will have exceptional opportunities in life, and, provided the motive power is with them, will achieve success. Their home life should be ideal, as they will love with vigor, and will be considerate and thoughtful where those, near and dear, are concerned.

If March 19th is your birthday, your disposition is a happy one, and you radiate sunshine wherever you may be. In your case, all is not gold that glitters, and you often feel depressed, as you are a victim of moods.

You never display this to others and are always the same cheery individual, and often have to listen to "sob-stories" when you might be telling one yourself. You possess a great sense of humour, and to you it is a saving grace. You are generous and sympathetic. Rather Bohemian in your tastes, but always avoiding any act that might cause scandal or gossip. It is written that, left to yourself, you would not make much of a success of any enterprise. However, with a partner of a serious nature, and who thinks more of the main chance, you might do that which you cannot do "on your own."

Your companionship is sought by all. Your friendship is given to few. In your home life you find great happiness, especially if mated with one born in either the month of January or August. You are a great observer of humanity, and this interests you immensely. You do not crave excitement. On the other hand, you are not fitted for a life of monotony.

Weekly Visiting

Paul and Dora worked in the city, many miles from mother and the home town. It occurred to them that weekly trips by Long Distance would save them all a lot of loneliness. So it was arranged—and what fun they get out of these frequent "voice visits!" Their mother wouldn't miss them for anything. And neither would they.

GOD WILL MAKE FULL RESTITUTION

To The Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—Job said, "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away; blessed by the name of the Lord."

We should take care not to misuse another man's words. The text quoted does not say that God had decided to take away from Job first his goods, then his children and last of all his health. The text does not consider God as the author of his misfortune.

Behind it was the machinations of Satan. Evidently Job did not suspect this and was deceived. Job found himself in inexplicable misfortune; and knowing that everything was in God's hands, he preserved his faith in God and blessed Him in the evil days. We cannot say with the assurance of an eye witness that God did this or that.

To speak with such authority, we should need a mind of which we fall far short. Our minds cannot compare the Divine activity apparently contradictory. We must not let any misfortune, disgrace or heartbreak suggest to us that God is a despot, who plays with our affections and destinies and admits in return nothing but silent obedience. If your son is murdered, you do not say God killed him; if your son dies from illness how apt we are to say it is His will and that God sent the evil. Did God organize life as we live it to-day? Did our hygiene form part of His creation? It is an intolerable idea to think of God as causing directly everything that happens. This transforms religious life into an utterly penal existence. "Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but Jehovah delivereth him out of them all." "All things work together for good to those who love God."

Making use of our common sense along with our faith in God, our misfortune should bear fruit that would contribute to our well being. We need and have a God who offers life, not a cold implacable cruel God, who crushes us without flinching, strikes us down without a tremor and yet demands that we rejoice in our suffering.

"God is our Father," this thought or rather truth is not emphasized enough and will never be, this side of the day of restitution of all things. False ideas of God and not misfortune is what destroys us. Some day all who mourn shall be comforted, even the desert shall blossom as a rose. It is the will of God that good will eventually prevail. The will of God shall be done that which he has purposed he will surely perform. This is our hope and salvation. With hearts wounded and torn, it is not ours to be overcome by grief and resigned to its domination, but it is ours to be glad to know that in that glad day all who mourn shall be comforted and restitution of all things shall be an accomplished fact.

M. T. Butcher.

WHAT HE SAID IT WAS

To The Editor of The Examiner,

Sir,—Your readers will do me the justice to remember that my opposition to the Bennett policy at the last election was due to a clear and reasonable belief that it aimed at the independence of Canada and was dangerous to the unity of the Empire. That my view was the correct one is now made clear by the questions asked of Mr. King during his speech yesterday by the Hon. C. H. Cahan, K.C., of Montreal, one of Mr. Bennett's ministers.

I clipped them from The Mail and Empire and are: "Was that the sort of preference that Russian wheat was now enjoying in the British market? Mr. Cahan asked.

"Mr. King continued that the preference continued under his own administration had been the preference of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and that of Sir Robert Borden. Members on the government side of the House were familiar with the figures of Canada's trade. They know how Great Britain was Canada's best customer and that the United Kingdom bought more and more Canadian goods than this country bought from her.

Bourassa, the Nationalist leader from Quebec who left the Liberals at the last election and joined Mr. Bennett's independence of Canada movement is reported by The Mail and Empire to have said in this debate, "(Bourassa) admonishing Mr. Bennett to look out for Canada and never mind the Empire. . . ."

It was Bourassa's followers who gave Mr. Bennett his majority in parliament.

GANDHI ATTENDS NEW DELHI MEET

Will Discuss Situation With Princes After Parley With Irwin.

SKEPTICAL OF SUCCESS.

NEW DELHI, India, March 19 (C.P.). — Mahatma Gandhi arrived to-day from Bombay for a series of important conferences with Viceroy Lord Irwin, Indian Princes, and leaders of Moslem and Hindu groups.

He already had protested to the Viceroy by telegraph against what he called delay by the Government in carrying out the terms of the recent truce, especially the provisions affecting the release of all non-violent political prisoners, return of property confiscated, or non-payment of taxes, and adjustments on taxation in certain districts.

Seeks to Set Up Unity.

His errand to Hindu and Moslem leaders is to attempt to establish unity between these sharply divergent racial groups as a preliminary to the second Round Table Conference. Gandhi is frankly sceptical of his ability to accomplish what the first conference at London failed to achieve, but he said he would strain every nerve to harmonize the two groups.

He will depart on Sunday for Karachi to participate in the most important session the Indian Nationalist Congress has ever held. It is expected that he will win over the Extremist members of the Congress to the terms of his truce with Lord Irwin so the Congress may represent a united front at the second Round Table Conference, to which Gandhi will be the principal Nationalist delegate.

The second conference will fall, Gandhi told the Associated Press today, if it does not grant to India full self-government and the modified safeguards for control of the army, finance, and currency offered by the first Round Table Conference.

TWO SENTENCED TO DIE JUNE 10

ONE IS GIVEN LIFE.

CALGARY, Alta., March 19. (CP) Death of two men on the gallows on June 10 will be the last chapter in a story of crime which opened with the killing of Ernest Midwinter, Calgary taxi-driver, and included a search throughout Canada and into the United States for the murderers. Mike Radko and Bertram Jones were sentenced last night to be hanged for the crime.

The other members of the quartette which shot, robbed, gagged and bound Midwinter, leaving him on a lonely road to die, have escaped the noose. Albert Allen, charged with being an accessory, was given life imprisonment; and the fourth of the gang, known only as "The Kid" is still at large.

"Allen, who claimed that Radko and Jones did the killing, was sentenced to life by Justice C. Simmons in criminal assizes court while the jury was deliberating the alleged murderers' fate. After less than an hour's consideration, the talesmen decided Radko and Jones were guilty. The two condemned men smiled at the verdict.

In the "big house" at Leavenworth, Radko had been found months after the murder which occurred last August. A red-jacketed "Mountie" brought him back to Calgary and to justice, and in court, Radko shouted that Allen had done the killing. Jones, who did not face the stand at his trial, was found serving a term at Lethbridge, Alta. Allen, arrested at Carnation, Wash., confessed his part in the crime to free two youths who were arrested with him.

LINER LOSES PROPELLER—TURNS BACK

NEW YORK, March 19. (CP)—The Norwegian American Line passenger steamer Stavangerfjord, with about 300 passengers, was returning to New York to-day because of a broken starboard propeller shaft. The shaft broke yesterday and the starboard propeller was lost.

Officials of the line said the steamer, which left here last Saturday for Norwegian ports, was in no danger.

IRWIN AT CONFERENCE

NEW DELHI, India, Mar. 19. (AP) Lord Irwin, Viceroy of India, will meet informally Saturday with 25 delegates to a round table conference for the purpose of exchanging views regarding methods to be pursued in preparation for the constitutional development of India. The Viceroy has also invited a few members of congress to attend the meeting.

ISSUE REGISTERS 3 1-2 POINT ADVANCE ON STANDARD LIST

Activity Laid to Announcement of Important Gold Discovery on Property.

BASE METALS FIRM.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19 (C.P.).—Moving on the strength of the official announcement that important gold values had been encountered in drilling, Noranda featured the forenoon session on the mining market today, heavy accumulation being reported locally and in New York. Price opened around $20 and at noon had climbed to a new high for the year of $23.25, up three and a half points from last night.

Other base metals were firm, International Nickel gaining 35, Hudson Bay 15 to $5.55, Waite-Ackerman 5 to $1.60, Pend Oreille 10 to $1.40 and Amulet 3 to 43. Lindsley's failed to respond, Sherritt Gordon dropping 5 to $1.10 and Ventures a couple to 76.

Higher priced golds remained in good demand, Lake Shore advancing a quarter to $26 and Dome 10 to $11.30. Mining Corp. recovered 7 to $2.68 and Wright-Hargreaves was a couple higher at $2.09. In the cheaper golds Moss and Big Missouri were up a cent or so apiece, while Eldorado dropped 4 to $1.06 and Kirkland Lake gold a cent to 66. Pennies were easier, Bidgood, Manitoba Basin, South Keora and Bobjo all showing minor recessions at mid-day.

The oil section was quiet with Home Oil up a couple to $1.04 and Ajax Oil off 9 from last night at $1.51.

CHAIN STORE STOCKS FIRM

Dominion Stores and Loblaw "A" and "B" Set New Highs for Year.

C.P.R. DECLINES.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19 C. P.—Trading over the general list on Toronto Stock Exchange this morning was slow and the market generally did not make any headway. However, action of half a dozen individual stocks gave a semblance of strength and made for spotty action along the board.

The conspicuous trader was Noranda, which shared spectacularly from the opening, reaching a new record price for the year of 23½, where it was approximately 4 point above last night's close. Nickel rose slightly but at mid-day was up only a small fraction.

The chain stroe stocks were strong, with both Dominion Stores and Loblaw "A" and "B" at new highs for the year. C. P. R. came back slightly. Brazilian held up but other utilities slackened. Ford of Canada lost ½ point, Service Stations was down under 31, while the oils at bes were unchanged.

Gypsum had considerable selling to absorb but at mid-day was above 10 its previous close. Goodyear common jumped three points to 112.

Winnipeg Review

Special Service to The Examiner through the courtesy of E. J. Bawlf Company, Grain and Stock Brokers, of Toronto

Wheat during the greater part of the day was again dull and featureless, but prices were mostly higher than the previous close. During the early period there was scattered buying by seaboard or export houses with offerings fair, part of which came from Chicago, principally selling Winnipeg July against purchases of Chicago July or September. However, these offerings were well absorbed after an early dip of ¾ cent, prices advanced fractionally and held firm. During the latter part of the day the market was largely a professional affair with locals buying on the dips and unloading on the upturns. After the start the offerings were light there being no selling pressure in evidence. Export sales overnight and yesterday morning were placed at from 200,000 to 250,000 bushels of Manitobas.

The U. S. Farm Board are still offering wheat abroad for sale, but their sales up to the present are reported to be well under one million bushels.

Liverpool was a little firmer than due closing 3-8 to 5-8 lower, B. A. was ½ higher at 3 o'clock, probably due to short covering as all Argentine markets will be closed on Thursday.

The local cash wheat market was very quiet. Demand featureless and spreads unchanged to await developments, and only odd cars changing hands. The flour situation was unchanged and is generally quiet.

There was a little short covering near the close which carried prices to top levels, futures closing 5-8 higher.

Coarse Grains.—Outs and barley closing fractionally lower were steady, rye moved in sympathy with wheat. Flax little firmer closing ¾ to ⅞ higher, but there was little going on.

Liverpool Cables due 3-8 higher based on Winnipeg.

GENERAL MOTORS LEADS UPWARD MOVEMENT IN NEW YORK TRADING

Prominent Motor Issue Sells Up 2 Points Into New High Ground for 1931 at 47.

"BULLS" HOLD MARKET.

NEW YORK, N. Y., March 19. — (CP)—Bulls opened their heavy artillery in today's stock market for the first time this month.

After a vigorous drive against the bears in the first hour, however, the offensive was halted, and bulls were content to defend their new position. Trading was in large volume in the first hour, but slackened as the day wore on. General Motors was brought forward as a leader, a role in which it has served infrequently since its violent rise of 1928.

This prominent motor issue sold up 2 points into new high ground for 1931 around 47. Other issues breaking into new high ground included McKeesport Tinplate, Johns Manville, and Dupont rising 2 to 4 points.

Lad Lost Three Days Is Found Dead In Pit

HALIFAX, N.S., March 19 (C.P.)—The body of Gerald Quinn, twelve-year-old boy missing since Sunday, was discovered this morning when workmen pumped six feet of water out of an elevator pit at the excavation for the new infirmary on Queen Street. The boy left his home on Wright Avenue on Sunday with his dog. The dog returned later that afternoon, but an intensive search failed to reveal the boy's fate. It is believed that he broke through the ice on the excavation for the building.

FIRST EARL OF ARUNDEL'S REMAINS ARE EXHUMED FROM OLD CASTLE

Action Asked by Pope in Connection With Plans to Beatify Earl.

MUST BE SURE OF IDENTITY.

ARUNDEL, Sussex, Eng., March 19 (A.P.).—After 336 years the skeleton of the first Earl of Arundel, who died in 1595, has been exhumed from the vault of ancient Arundel Castle.

Pope Pius XI. requested the exhumation for purposes of identification in connection with plans to beatify the Earl, a loyal Catholic Peer of his day.

In the presence of the Duke of Norfolk, a leading British Catholic Peer; the Right Rev. P. E. Amigo, Bishop of Southwark, and several priests, the body was identified from a copper plate on the coffin and parchments inside as that of "Philip Howard, First Earl of Arundel." It was explained that "recognition" plays an important part in the program leading to beatification. Proof of identity as well as the life history of the deceased must be placed before the Pope before he makes a decision.

Tried to Flee Country

Philip Howard's wife embraced Catholicism in 1582, leading the agents of Queen Elizabeth to suspect him in the Throgmorton plot. He himself joined the church a year later and attempted to flee from the country. He was confined in the Tower of London, tried in a Star Chamber session on charges of treason, fined and condemned to execution, but he died before the sentence was carried out.

Records in possession of the present Duke are being forwarded to the Pope to substantiate the claim for beatification of his ancestor.

One of the main facts which it was sought to establish by the exhumation was whether the Earl really died a natural death. This was confirmed by discovery of the complete skeleton in the coffin. There was no indication that Howard had been beheaded.

MINING BRIEFS.

TORONTO, March 19 (Special to Examiner).—Noranda on the strength of the official announcement that high gold values had been encountered in deep drilling was under heavy accumulation on today's mining market, price moving steadily upward to a new high point for the year. Strength was noticeable in the higher priced golds also, giving the board an unusually buoyant appearance. Substantial buying in Noranda is reported to have developed in New York, with quotations there setting the pace for local action in the forenoon.

Ore reserves, as reported in the recently published annual statement of International Nickel Co. are estimated to have a value running anywhere between two and three billions of dollars at prevailing metal prices. It is sometimes thought nickel is highly capitalized with over 14,500,000 common shares outstanding. If the company was divided into ten separate units with a capital of 1,500,000 shares apiece each unit would still have ore reserves running close to $300,000,000, which compared with reserves shown by the majority of mining companies, would constitute a huge mining proposition in itself.

Halstead Lindsley, president of Sherritt Gordon Mines, states concentrates from Sherritt Gordon will be going forward to the Flin Flon Smelter within a week according to reports from the pas Grade of Ore has been fully up to expectations and it is expected the first unit will reach its capacity of between, 500 and 600 tons per day next month. With regard to the copper situation Mr. Lindsley said, "I expect there will be a gradual improvement in the price of copper, and there is little use of using up good ore with only a slim margin of profit."

Advices from the Turner Valley field state home oil output for month of February was 8,128 barrels of Naphtha. This was some 2,700 barrels below the January total of 10,810 bbls., and compared with 11,741 in December and 12,095 in November last. For twelve months of 1930 Home oil produced 256,461 barrels of naphtha compared with 313,282 in 1929. Home oil produced 350 barrels of crude oil in February and 6,278 barrels of crude for the entire year 1930.

According to notice to shareholders of Siscoe gold there has lately been quite an active solicitation for proxies by persons acting entirely on their own responsibility. Messrs. Tebbutt and Robert are the only parties officially authorized to take proxies, it is stated, so that while shareholders have a perfect right to give their proxies to whom they please, it is nevertheless felt they should be advised as to the actual prevailing conditions.

Wheat Holds Steady On Chicago Market

CHICAGO, Ill., March 19 (C. P.).—Despite indications of rain or snow throughout the domestic winter and spring wheat areas, wheat displayed unusual steadiness early today. Millers stocks in Europe were believed low, with the supplies at six continental ports showing 1,800 000 bushels decrease in the last four weeks. Opening unchanged to ¼ cents off, wheat afterward held near the initial range. Corn started unchanged to ¼ lower and then kept firm.

SOLLOWAY, MILLS

Asked by the Magistrate as to how they would plead, Arthur G. Slaght, K.C., defence counsel, said special pleas of "autre-fois" were to be made. In a lengthy expostulation of jurisdiction, Mr. Slaght contended that convictions registered against the accused in Alberta last June, and the charges on which they were tried and acquitted here last fall, covered the charges now laid against them.

Solloway and Mills were convicted in Alberta on charges of conspiracy to defraud and conspiracy to affect the market price of stocks, and sentenced to four months and one month's imprisonment, respectively. A heavy fine was also imposed. The two men were then brought to Toronto to face similar charges, but the Ontario courts dropped both charges as they were similar to the ones imposed in the West. They were, however, convicted on a charge of "bucketing."

Mr. Slaght contended that if the two men are again tried on charges of which they were acquitted, such a procedure would be contrary to British justice. Defence counsel asked His Worship to reserve judgment on the plea until after the hearing of evidence. The Magistrate is hearing the evidence and will direct the case to the jury if the evidence is sufficient.

Ogilvie Flour Mills Advances At Montreal

MONTREAL, Que., Mar. 19.—(C.P.)—Stock prices moved irregularly higher during this morning's session of the Montreal Stock Exchange. At noon Montreal Power was selling at 65 5-8, up 1 3-8 as compared with last night's close. In earlier trading this issue touched 65 3-4. In the first sale in several months Ogilvie Flour Mills Pfd. shot up 2½ points to 130. Dominion Textile advanced 2½ points to 80.

Nickel was up 3-8 at 19 and Brazilian was off ¼ at 26¼. National Steel Car and Shawinigan were up one point each at 38 and 5, respectively.

Sliding Ground Destroys Over Forty Homes—Others Threatened.

ENGINEERS PUZZLED.

LAPAZ, Bolivia, Mar. 19. (AP)—Complete abandonment of the Santa Barbara section may be necessary shortly as a consequence of gradual sliding of the ground on which the district rests toward the Rio Choqueyapu.

More than 40 houses have been totally destroyed by the creeping of their founlations and hardly a house in the area does not each morning show some new effects of the earth movements.

Engineers and geologists are disagreed as to the causes of the landslide but both assert the waters of the Rio Choqueyapu have filtered in to subterranean cavities and undermined the area.

The Government has appointed a commission of experts to study the situation and report back as to feasibility of checking the movement, which some engineers believe may be done by planting trees, vines and plants with long roots in open places.

Hoover Off For Visit To Caribbean Islands

OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., March 19. (CP)—As batteries boomed from ship and shore, the battleship Arizona steamed out toward the Virginia Capes and the sea this morning carrying President Hoover to the United States' island possessions in the Caribbean.

The voyage will be in the nature of a vacation for the President, although he will visit the islands for the purpose of gaining first hand knowledge of the conditions there.

In keeping with the informal nature of the journey, the navy was instructed to dispense with as much ceremony aboard the battleship as possible without violating the rules and traditions of the navy.

COURT DISMISSES DAMAGE ACTION OF HAROLD KINCAID

ferred to her husband as Mr. Kincaid. At the conclusion of the trial Mr. Kincaid left the court room alone through the main door, and Mrs. Kincaid and the four children went out another door with a group including Mr. and Mrs. Nill.

At the present time, Mrs. Kincaid said, she was looking after the care of the house and also the marketing, but was not doing any outside work.

"An Unfortunate Case"

Mr. Justice Rose in prefacing his judgment said it was unfortunate the action had been brought for trial. "I am unable to see how I could find from the evidence that has been submitted that the plaintiff's wife was more affectionate in the early part of 1929 than later. As to the meetings of the defendant and Mrs. Kincaid, I think that the plaintiff's claim arises out of his illness and because he was more or less suspicious. As to meetings in Peterborough, and others, they were the natural meetings of neighbours whose interests and business and amusements took them to the same place at the same time, unless some sinister influence were to be drawn. I think the meetings were not the result of any design by the defendant Nill."

Mr. Justice Rose discussed the evidence at some length. As to the evidence of a witness for the plaintiff which received some emphasis in Mr. Gordon's summation, His Lordship remarked that it was a question of believing Mr. Nill or the witness Jones, and he decided to accept Mr. Nill's statement, which was a flat denial of Jones' assertion.

Mr. Nill resumed his evidence Wednesday morning under examination by Mr. Stevenson.

Mr. Stevenson—It has been said that on August 31 last Mrs. Kincaid and her daughter Ellen took their cows to the pasture in Hutchinson's field at 8 a.m., and you were waiting for her there.

Mr. Nill—"When they came I was in the field salting my cattle. I talked with Mrs. Kincaid fifteen minutes or so. Ellen was there with her mother all the time. I didn't expect them when they came along."

Nill explained the incident which had been related by Darcy Gallagher on Tuesday.

"I was in Hutchinson's woods when Mrs. Kincaid came along with her four children. There had been some lumbering going on there. We looked at what had been done, and talked about it. Two of the Kincaid boys said they saw a man behind a tree. It was Gallagher. He started to run away dodging behind the trees. We went on to the 9th line. Some of my cattle were there. The children were present all the time. I went on to salt the colts. Coming back I was standing on a bridge. I saw Gallagher coming towards me. When he noticed me he took to his heels. I after him and headed him off. I says "What the hell are you running away from me for.' He said, "Oh, it's you is it Billy. I was just going home. I wasn't running from any one."

Mr. Stevenson referred to the date September 13, the last day of the Peterborough Exhibition. It had been alleged that Nill had run down toward the woods and met Mrs. Kincaid when she came from the train.

"I was at the Peterborough fair with my wife and family," Nill said. "We got home around seven o'clock. I hurried down after the cows in the pasture. I noticed that one cow was not with the others. I met Mrs. Kincaid and three children coming from the train. I asked her if she knew who let my cow across the track. I then went over the railroad after it. I didn't know Mrs. Kincaid was coming home on the train. I walked back part of the way with her and the children."

Mr. Nill said the shortest way from the C.P.R. station at Cavan to Kincaid's house was to walk down the railway, then cross fifty acres and "angle" toward the house.

Continuing his rebuttal, Nill acknowledged that he had cut the two Kincaid boys' hair at Hutchinson's because they had asked him, and also to cut it at Hutchinson's. He declared that Mrs. Kincaid was not there. He didn't charge them anything. Nill said he had cut "a lot of hair."

He told of having given to Mrs. Kincaid on the market one Saturday the Silverwoods cheque which Mr. Gillespie had asked him to deliver. He also admitted having met Mrs. Kincaid in Kresge's last Saturday.

"I went in the store, and saw Mrs. Kincaid talking to Mrs. Howden at the refreshment stand. They were having a cup of tea. I talked with them for a little while. Mrs. Kincaid's daughter was also there."

Neighbors Cooked Meals.

Mr. Stevenson—It was also stated that Mrs. Kincaid went to your house and cooked your meals for you.

Mr. Nill—Yes, she did, for a few days while the sawing was going on and my wife was sick. Mrs. Kincaid and her daughter, and Mrs. Cathcart and her daughter, came and cooked for me. My mother and aunt were in the house all the time.

The defendant denied that he had ever tried to meet Mrs. Kincaid by appointment, and he also stated that there had never been any improper conduct. He did give her three presents. One was five pounds of lard for cooking while his wife was sick, another was a beef's heart one time when he got two of them, and asked Mrs. Kincaid to cook and stuff one of them for him. The third present was a bottle of port wine when Mrs. Kincaid was sick last summer and unable to eat solid foods.

Said Letter a Bait.

Nill explained the "Yours for ever" letter which he had written and left near Kincaid's gate. It was found by Howson.

"Mrs. Kincaid had told me Howson was threatening to shoot me. She cautioned me to be careful. One night my wife and family coming home from Peterborough saw Howson on the road with a gun. I heard from several he was going to shoot me."

Mr. Gordon—Why was he going to shoot you?

Mr. Nill—He was jealous of me—of Mrs. Kincaid going out with our family. When I called early in the morning for milk I saw Howson several times searching around under sticks and stones and logs as if he were looking for something.

Nill said he had written the letter and put it under a brick near the Kincaid gate, but it was only a bait for Howson.

Mr. Gordon—Why did you want him to get it?

Mr. Nill—I expected Howson would be out with a gun.

Mr. Gordon asked the defendant why he hadn't taken the letter to Howson if he wanted him to get it.

Nill's story was that he intended to inform the provincial police and at the same time bring Howson out into the open. But the next morning he changed his mind because he thought somebody was going to get shot, and also he believed that Howson would cool off. But when he looked for the letter it was gone. Nill said he then concluded that Howson had got it.

Nill testified that his wife had been much alarmed by the reports of threats against her husband. She had asked him to drive in and out the lane with the car lights turned off. This was intended to be a precaution in the event of Howson being around.

Mr. Gordon asked Nill about a letter which his wife had written to Mrs. Kincaid complaining about their association.

Nill denied that it was a letter of "bitter complaint." It was only giving advice.

Mr. Stevenson objected to the reading of Mrs. Nill's letter. Mr. Justice Rose agreed with him.

Replying to a question as to what money Nill had received from Mrs. Kincaid for drawing milk defendant said:

"I got just as much as I got for picking Kincaid's potatoes when he was sick. That was nothing."

Nill said he drew the milk from December until Spring. He also stated that he had sometimes taken to Mrs. Kincaid her cheque for milk from Silverwoods.

Nill admitted that he might have taken Mrs. Kincaid her milk cheques fifteen times.

Mr. Gordon adduced the fact that the defendant had transferred his property to his wife last year. This conveyance was made before Mr. Kincaid issued the writ in this action. It was also after Kincaid had previously warned Nill to discontniue his attentions to Mrs. Kincaid.

Mr. Gordon—So, all you own as you stand are the clothes you have on?

Mr. Nill—Yes.

Nill explained that he had transferred the property to his wife because of a promise made to his father years ago. He had made the transfer when he was in his lawyer's office in January 1930 about the police court case with Howden.

Mrs. George Howden.

Mrs. Howden told Mr. Stevenson her home was half a mile from Nill's. Recalling the Orillia excursion witness said she had been with Mrs. Kincaid all that day except half an hour. A group of friends had been together. There was no sign of anything improper.

Mrs. Howden said she had not seen Nill and Mrs. Kincaid together very often; just a few times on the market.

"Have you ever been photographed before with a man's hand on your shoulder except your husband?" Mr. Gordon asked.

Weak After Operation

"I was very weak after an operation. My nerves were so bad I would sit down and cry and my husband would not go out and leave me alone. Now my nerves are much better, thanks to a booklet that was left under the door. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound surely put me on my feet. I have taken eight bottles. My friends tell me I look fine. My sister has taken this medicine too."—Mrs. Annie Walton, 67 Stanley St., Kingston, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Howden—No I don't think I ever had.

Mrs. Nill Examined.

Mrs. Lillie Nill, wife of defendant, said that relations between the two families had been agreeable until June 1929 when Mr. Kincaid telephoned to Mr. Nill and asked him if there was no other way of Mrs. Kincaid travelling except in Nill's automobile.

Witness said he had made arrangements for going to the garden party at Cavanville when Mrs. Kincaid accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Nill. She told of having invited Mrs. Kincaid on other trips when Mr. Nill was also present.

Mr. Stevenson asked her about several occasions on which she remained in her car and had lunch while her husband and Mrs. Kincaid went into a restaurant.

Mrs. Nill said that in 1929 she was on a diet and had to take insulin. For that reason she took her special food with her when going to Peterborough. She did not wish to go into the restaurant because she would have to take her food in to eat it there. But she had told her husband and Mrs. Kincaid to go in without her.

In regard to the "Yours for ever" letter written by Nill and found by Howson, Mrs. Nill said the first information she received about it was from her husband.

Witness said she had suggested to her husband dimming of the lights on their automobile as they drove in and out of their lane. She said she knew Mr. Kincaid and Howson were watching her husband and were saying things about him.

"I was afraid of Mr. Howson because I had seen him carrying a gun, and because of some talk I had heard."

Mrs. Nill's Letter.

Mrs. Nill wrote two letters to Mrs. Kincaid last year; one was on August 10 and the other September 7.

The first one was as follows:

"Mrs. Kincaid—I am very sorry to need to write these few lines. When Dannie and I went to meet his father on Thursday night off the train he was not to be seen and we asked about him and was told he and you got off the train on the other side. Why should either of you not want Harry Jones to see you. I hope you are not going to start more trouble. You ought to think just to do a thing like that after the trouble there was before. You surely did give Will a fright the message you sent by Louis to meet him. It will be you if there is once more anything like Thursday night. You always have something nasty to tell Will about your husband, just keep him in a state of dislike. Now do not make any more trouble, and if you tell him this I will surely know."

Mrs. Nill's reference to the station incident related to the return of the excursion from Orillia. In his evidence Mr. Nill had explained that one of the Kincaid girls became sick on the train, and because it was so crowded Nill proposed that they get off on the opposite side of the train, away from the platform.

The previous trouble mentioned in the letter was the occasion when Mr Kincaid had flared up about his wife going to Peterborough in Nills' automobile.

The passage in the letter about "giving Will a fright" referred to an occasion when Nill was taking some papers, including "funnies" to Kincaid's, and Kincaid and Howden were waiting for him and ready to fight him, witness said. And also Mrs. Kincaid had heard of threats they were making concerning Mr. Nill.

Mrs. Laura Kincaid.

Mrs. Kincaid was the last witness for the defence.

"It was on account of Mr. Kincaid's wish," she said, "that I asked Mr. Nill to come to our place and help with the farm work when Mr. Kincaid was taken sick. Mr. Nill and Mrs. Nill asked Mr. Kincaid if it was satisfactory to drive me to the store at Bethany. I went there about once a week for supplies we needed."

Mr. Stevenson—Who made the arrangements for any of the trips?

Mrs. Kincaid—Mrs. Nill used to call me on the phone.

Witness explained why there had been a special telephone signal with Mr. Nill to be used when there was cream to be taken by him to the station. Her statement on that point agreed with the evidence given by Mr. and Mrs Nill about those early morning calls

Mr. Stevenson—Did you ever make a secret of your conversations over the telephone?

Mrs. Kincaid—There are no secrets on the phone.

Witness said she had once driven alone with Mr. Nill when they went to Peterborough to bring Mr. Kincaid home from the hospital. She also went to the hospital with Mr. Nill when they went to the city to visit his wife during her illness.

Mrs. Kincaid said she had occasionally met Mr. Nill on the market in Peterborough, but she didn't go in every Saturday.

Mr. Stevenson—In June, 1929, there was a meeting between you and Mr. Nill at the line fence as a result of which there was some disturbance?

Mrs. Kincaid—Mr. Nill was working in his field west of my place. I was in our field. Mr. Nill called something to me, but the wind was blowing and I couldn't hear him, so I went over to the fence. He said his fence had broken down and some cattle got into our field. He said he had fixed it up and it wouldn't happen again. I was talking to him only a few minutes.

"After that I went out with the Nills once or twice. I met Mr. Nill occasionally, but only casually. I never had any pre-arranged meeting with him."

Recalling the excursion to Orillia, witness said she had gone with Mrs. Howden and had taken her four children. "We had lunch with Mrs. Howden, the Byers family, my father and Mr. Nill. I wasn't alone with Mr. Nill at all on the excursion."

Mr. Stevenson—Did Mr. Nill ever send you a present?

Mrs. Kincaid—Yes. He sent me a bottle of wine when I was sick last summer.

"Was there ever any improper conduct between you and Mr. Nill?"

"There never was."

"Did you ever tell Mr. Nill that Howson was threatening to shoot him?"

"I did."

Attitude Unchanged.

"What change, if any, has there been by you toward your husband as a result of Mr. Nill?"

"There has been no change."

"Were you ever east of Peterborough with Mr. Nill?"

"No. I was never on the Norwood Road."

"Mrs. Nill used the words 'more trouble' in a letter she wrote you. What trouble, if any, did you cause?"

"I expect she meant the trouble Mr. Kincaid raised at the time I talked to Mr. Nill at the line fence the day I went over to hear what he tried to call out."

Mrs. Kincaid stated that after her husband's expressed objections to her driving with the Nills she and the Nills had talked it over in Peterborough and had agreed that she would not accompany them any more.

Mr. Stevenson — Who suggested that?

Mrs. Kincaid—Mrs. Nill suggested it.

The witness replied to various other questions asked by her solicitor, much of this evidence being virtually a corroboration of preceding testimony by other witnesses. Mr. Kincaid had told of his wife and Nill throwing hay down in the barn. Mrs. Kincaid said Nill had offered to help on that occasion because her husband could not do that work. He came into the barn when they were throwing down the hay.

Mrs. Kincaid declared that she never had a secret meeting with Mr. Nill

Mr. Kincaid, recalled, said that when he telephoned to Mrs. Nill after the meeting of Mrs. Kincaid and Mr. Nill at the "line fence" he had called Mr. Nill a sneak. Mrs. Nill went to the Kincaid home and objected to what Kincaid had said about her husband. She said her feelings had been hurt. Mr. Kincaid told her he did not intend to do that, and apologized to Mrs. Nill.

Ellen Kincaid, 16, daughter of the plaintiff, told of occasions on which she had been with her mother when they had met Mr. Nill, either in the pasture or on the railway. She said she had been present with them during their conversations.

VOTERS HEADED TOWARDS POLLS IN ST. GEORGE'S

Campaign By Two Conservatives Been One of Most Remarkable in Years.

BALDWIN VOTES EARLY.

Constituency in London Still Retains Considerable of Old-time Glamor.

LONDON, March 19 (By Thomas T. Champion, C.P. Staff Correspondent) —After one of the most remarkable of by-election campaigns in recent years, voters of St. George's Division of Westminster went to the polls today. They had to choose between two Conservatives — Captain A. Duff Cooper, official party candidate and supporter of Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin; and Sir Ernest Potter, unoffocial candidate backed by the Rothermere and Beaverbrook press in a fight against the Baldwin leadership.

If Captain Duff Cooper falls to get a majority of at least 2,000 votes in this strong Tory constituency, the Baldwinites may consider themselves morally defeated.

If Potter gets six or seven thousand votes, the "Beavermere-Rotherbrook" press, to use a derisive phrase popular at the moment; will feel fairly satisfied.

The seat is vacant by the death of Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, former Conservative War Minister, who had a majority of 16,154 in a straight fight with a Labor candidate in the last general elections.

The constituency embraces a quarter of London to which a certain proportion of the old aristocratic families remain faithful. The Church of St. George's, Hanover Square, for instance, retains much of its old-time glamor and is the temple in which the nuptial rites were celebrated among denizens of Vanity Fair.

Stories of Ancient Times.

Doubtless therefore stories have gone afar of how "her ladyship" has practised her political ills upon the butler, footman, and parlormaid, working down through the domestic hierarchy to the stable boy and the kitchen wench. Such versions of what has happened in St. George's in this campaign may be taken with amused scepticism. For one thing, the structure of Mayfair socially and in a host of other ways is vastly different from what it was in the Thackeray era.

Stories that were set afoot earlier in the campaign, of drawing-room meetings promoted by duchesses for the political enlightenment of their domestic staffs, faded out almost at birth. Frantic as both sides seem to have been to miss no chance, they early recognized that this would be no way to woo the voters of the present day. Thirty years ago, perhaps, and with a straight old-fashioned L'beral-Tory fight, it would have been appropriate; but other times, other manners.

A considerable portion of the riding, too, is far from fashionable, lurking around the purlieus of Victoria Station are hosts of mean streets, the hangers-on so to speak of the thoroughfares of wealth and fashion.

Baldwin Votes Early.

Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin recorded his vote early, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Betty Baldwin. The news of his arrival at the polling booth caused a large crowd to assemble, and they heartily cheered the Conservative leader.

"I am not going to say for whom I voted," Mr. Baldwin laughingly told a questioner, "but perhaps you can guess."

The day was a most springlike one, and a good poll was expected, though the political experts would be most surprised if the vote turned out to be exceptionally heavy.

A BEDTIME STORY

By Howard R. Garis

UNCLE WIGGILY AND SAMMIE'S SNEEZE

Once upon a time, not so very many years ago, when it rained in summer and snowed in winter, something very strange happened in the Hollow Stump School where the Lady Mouse Teacher taught the animal children their lessons. It was on a Friday morning, when Sammie and Susie Littletail, Johnnie and Billie Bushytail and Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, as well as all the bunny boys and girls of Uncle Wiggily, were thinking, happily, that it would soon be Saturday when there was no school.

All of a sudden Sammie Littletail, who was a rabbit boy, gave a loud sneeze—"ker choo!"

"Sammie!" squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher.

"I beg your pardon! Excuse me! I couldn't help it!" said Sammie.

"I suppose you couldn't," went on the Lady Mouse. "But it is very disturbing, Sammie, to hear a loud sneeze in school."

"Yes'm, I know it is," said Sammie "I'll try not to do it again.

The Lady Mouse teacher went on with the lesson. She asked Susie, who was Sammie's sister, how to spell carrot. Now Susie liked carrots very much, indeed, as do most rabbits, but, as it happened, Susie did not know how to spell the word carrot. So she put her paw in her mouth and twiddled around in her seat.

"Take your paw out of your mouth, Susie, my dear," squeaked the Lady Mouse Teacher kindly. "You can't get the letters out if your paw is in the way. Come, now, how do you spell carrot?"

Poor Susie didn't know what to say. She wanted to spell the word but she had forgotten how, even though she had studied it. She knew the first letter was a C, so she boldly said that.

"Very good—go on!" begged the teacher.

But poor Susie didn't know how to go on. She didn't know what latter came after C in carrot. And she was squirming around in her seat when, all at once, Sammie sneezed again, loudly:

"Ker-zoo!"

"Sammie Littletail!" exclaimed the Lady Mouse. "Oh, how could you!"

"I—I couldn't help sneezing!" said Sammie.

"Oh, I wish I could believe you!" spoke the teacher sadly. "But it seems very much, Sammie, as if you sneezed on purpose to make a noises of couldn't hear your sister Susie spell carrot. I'm sure Susie doesn't know her lesson. But perhaps you thought, by sneezing, and making a noise, that I would think Susie spelled the word when she didn't."

"Oh, no, Miss Mouse!" said Sammie. "I wouldn't do anything like that."

"I cannot believe that you would, Sammie," went on the teacher. "But it is very strange that, when Susie couldn't spell, you should sneeze."

"I'll try not to do it again!" promised Sammie.

"Do, please!" his teacher begged. "Mind, I don't say you sneezed on purpose, but if it happens again I shall have to think so."

"I won't sneeze any more!" Sammie said.

Then Miss Mouse called on Jackie Bow Wow to answer the number question of how many are one and one.

Now that seems easy, but Jackie had not studied his lesson. So when he tried to tell Miss Mouse how many one and one were he couldn't. And he twiddled his tail and then, all of a sudden, Sammie sneezed:

"Ker two!"

"Now, Sammie, this is enough!" squeaked Miss Mouse. "I am sure you sneezed ker two on purpose to tell Jackie the answer of how many are one and one. It is two, as you well know. But it isn't fair for you to sneeze the answer that way."

"Oh, Miss Mouse! I know it isn't!" said poor Sammie. "And, really, I didn't mean to sneeze—anyhow I didn't mean to sneeze ker two. I could just as well have sneezed ker three and that wouldn't have been the right answer."

"Sammie," said Miss Mouse sadly, "I am sorry, but I shall have to put you out of school until you can stop sneezing. Once you sneezed to make me think Susie knew how to spell carrot. Again you sneezed to tell Jackie the answer to how many are one and one. You must go out of our school, Sammie!"

Well, it was very sad. Susie almost cried, she felt so sorry for her brother, and Sammie, blinking to keep back his tears, walked slowly out of the Hollow Stump School. He had not gone far toward home before he met Uncle Wiggily.

"What! Out of school so early?" cried the rabbit gentleman. "Why?"

"Because I sneezed!" Sammie answered.

"Oh! Oh!" exclaimed Mr. Longears. "We must see about that!"

URGE GREATER USE OF FIRST AID KITS

Ontario Retail Druggists Urge Placing Equipment in Every Vehicle.

Street and highway accidents are so numerous and so vital that the carrying of first aid material and equipment in every vehicle is advocated by the Ontario Retail Druggists' Association.

When motor accidents happen on city streets the injured parties are usually rushed to a nearby drug store for assistance, thereby possibly losing valuable minutes which might mean the loss of human life. "A first aid kit for a private auto can be purchased for a very small amount," said Mr. F. A. Jacobs, secretary of the Association.

The materials necessary for a travelling first aid kit are few and simple and can be had in compact, convenient form. They generally consist of absorbent cotton, absorbent lint, gauze bandages, adhesive plaster and iodine. Larger cases are available for public conveyances and in fact there is definite agitation on the part of many persons to make it compulsory that all such vehicles carry first aid equipment, said Mr. Jacobs.

Insurance companies and the government require all industries to be prepared with first aid equipment, but so far offices, theatres and public buildings are not required to be so covered.

"Homes are the most neglected of all. The articles are simple and inexpensive, and should be in every home. They include absorbent cotton, absorbent lint, boracic acid, peroxide, hot water bottle and douche attachments or fountain syringe, mouth antiseptic, cough preparation, analgesic balm, laxative tablets, gauze bandages, adhesive plaster, iodine, vaseline, gargle, liniment, epsom slats or castor oil. Failure to have any one of these handy in emergency may result in serious consequences. The services of the druggist to his community have been so well rendered that many parents have been neglecting their personal responsibility," concluded Mr. Jacobs.

MALE STUDENTS OUT FOR WOMEN'S RIGHTS

McGill Executive Council Recommends Inclusion of Females With Equal Voting Power.

MONTREAL, March 19 (By The Canadian Press).—The cause of women's rights has advanced a step at McGill University in the approval by the Students' Executive Council, composed entirely of male undergraduates, of a report which recommends that women students be admitted to the council on an equal status with the men. The vote was 6-3. Women will have equal voting powers, will have representatives sitting on the council, and will have a large share of the administrative duties of undergraduate affairs if a motion along the lines of the report is passed when presented to the next general meeting of the male students.

The proposed amalgamation has been discussed for many years but has come to the fore recently with the increased activity of women on the Campus and the difficulties that have arisen in arranging co-operation between men and women. At the present time the men have their students' council, the women their students' society, but the functioning of the two when they have matters of common interest on which to legislate ha proved unsatisfactory, it is stated.

The inclusion of women on the staff of the McGill Daily, in the Debating Union, the Players' Club, and other societies controlled by the men has increased complications.

The debate on the question at the annual meeting of the men students is expected to be a lively one, as indicated by the last paragraph in the detailed report on conditions presented by a subcommittee of the students' council: "Your committee is unanimous in recommending this amalgamation. At the same time it realizes that the objections emanating from men students will be those urged largely on grounds of traditionalism, and dictated by a desire to maintain the status quo. While individually the members of the committee share these views, they consider, however, that in the interest of progress these changes should be made."

FOR COOKING

The value of Bovril in cooking is very great. A little added to soups and gravies puts real Beef strength into them; not merely coloring.

When cold meats have to be hashed or warmed up a little Bovril makes a truly wonderful difference and puts life into them.

Just put a little Bovril into the next lot of soup you make, or pep up the next lot of gravy with Bovril and you will never again be without it.

"Clothes come so white with Rinso they look like new! No hard work at all. Rinso is marvellous in hard water; it gives thick, lasting suds, without the help of powders or softeners. It saves the clothes, too, because now they don't need to be boiled and scrubbed threadbare. I use Rinso for dishes and all cleaning."

How World Wags

By That Ancient Mariner
DEAN D. HURMDY.

A baby was born in an auto that was marooned near Sault St. Marie in the big storm. They auto call him Baby Austin.

Increased price for liquor announced. Drinking drivers won't have so much money for gasoline. More taste, less speed.

Fashion note: "Hats of Yedda straw smart for spring." Oh, yeah? But yedda thought thedda gotta betta namen that.

From St. John's, Newfoundland, we learn that 21 stowaways were found in the sealing fleet.

There were twenty-one stowaways stealing
A ride in the ships that go sealing:
When caught, may I ax,
Did they get sealing-whacks
That produced a most powerful squealing?

Toronto man in search of his pants, entered the wrong room and go into a fight. If they were short pants he was after, he'd have lots of them when the scrap was on.

THE BIG STORM

Our boss sent us to interview the prognosticator who lays out the weather, 12 months in advance, for the medical almanac. We expected to see a venerable chap with enough chin whiskers to stuff a mattr ss. Instead we found a smart young man with concise mustachios like quotation marks directly under his nostrils. He was in the office of Powker's Peculiar Pellets.

"How come," we said, bitterly, "you didn't predict the big snow storm?"

"Have a pellet," he said, suavely, changing the subject with remarkable adroitness, and passing us the circular box.

We chewed a mouthful of them savagely.

"They have a horrid taste," we snapped, simply not caring how we sauced him.

He bowed until his forehead touched the floor.

"The customer is always right," he riposted, with Chesterfieldian unctuousness.

"Let us get round to the subject again" we prompted.

"Certainly! Follow me!" he said, leaving the office abruptly. We followed.

"This is the rounding room," he explained, opening a door. "The pills are cut into little squares, and are then sandpapered, and sandpapered, and sandpapered until they are round.

We watched them doing it. There were millions of girls, each holding a square pill between thumb and forefinger, while other millions of girls sandpapered them until theywere spherical—that is, the pills.

"But," we said, musingly, while we roguishly spirited pellets up into the air from between compressed lips, hoping they might adhere to the ceiling, "but don't they ever sandpaper the thumbs, and make them bleed?"

"No," he said, adjusting his Adam's-apple, nonchalantly, "for that would turn the pills blue: all our help being composed of blue-blooded, Russian refuge princesses. And we much prefer the brighter, more cheerful reds and pinks from the ink bottle for our pellets."

"But that storm?" we maundered, concisely.

"Why bring that up?" he answered, in a so-called laughing manner.

"Our boss——"

"Well, I'll tell you," he said, confidently. "Once upon a time our Russian employees used to do nothing except eat caviar and look at the snow. We had run out of caviar temporarily, so we just had to let it snow to keep peace in our one large family. Put that in your pipe and smoke it, old floater!"

We floated away, chewing pills and waving to him until we were out of sight.

So that explains the storm.

THE WARM SIDE OF THE STONE

St, Patrick! St. Patrick! I pray ye
Don't turn up the warmth o' the stone!
Let it snow in July,
And I'll tell ye for why.
'Tis because of sweet Norah Malone.

When I begged her to promise to wed me,
She laughed till me heart made me moan.
"If it snows in July,"
She said, "sure, I'll comply,
And I'll never this promise disown."

So, St. Pat, keep it chilly, I beg ye,
And summer till August postpone.
If it snows like the dickens
Till chicks are old chickens,
Your Worship I'll ever enthrone.

OBITUARY

MRS. DENNIS McCARTHY

Mrs. Dennis McCarthy, formerly Jane Harrigan, passed away after a few hours' illness in St. Joseph's hospital on Tuesday morning, on the anniversary of her 56th birthday.

The late Mrs. McCarthy had been a resident of Peterborough for the past sixteen years, where she made for herself a host of friends. She was a faithful member of the League of the Sacred Heart and of the Altar Society of Immaculate Conception parish.

Her loss is mourned by her sorrowing husband, four daughters, Helen of Detroit; Gertrude, of Toronto; Emma and Josephine at home; also five sons, Michael and Frank, of Peterborough and William, Tim and George at home; also one sister, Mrs. Ellen Buckley, of Douro, and a wide circle of friends and relatives. A daughter, Mrs. John Corkery, predeceased her six years ago.

WILFRED DWYER

Wilfred Dwyer passed away at his home, 14 Aylmer Street, this morning after a lingering illness of about a year. Mr. Dwyer was born 67 years ago in Asphodel, but removed to Peterborough at an early ago. For the past number of years he has been a faithful employee of the Quaker Oats Company. He was also a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters and of the Holy Name Society. He is survived by a sorrowing wife.

The funeral will take place from the house at 8.45 Saturday morning to Sacred Heart Church for Requiem Mass at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Peter's Cemetery.

FRENCH SHIP SINKS—14 DROWN.

SHANGHAI, March 19 (C.P.). — The French steamer Changkiang, bound here from Hong Kong, struck a rock off Heinan Island, near Haimen, on March 16, and is a total loss with fourteen of those aboard killed or drowned.

A report to Lloyd's agent said that the French gunboat Marne was standing by and had taken off the remainder of the crew and passengers, numbering possibly a hundred altogether.

Ceylon will be made a whaling center.

PUTS SAILS TO TRAIN TRACK

With five miles to and from work to travel each day, and with no means of transportation, W. H. Slater, a retired naval officer, devised this ingenious means of reaching his labors at Cliffe, Kent, England. The "sail-train" or land yacht, is constructed from an old quarry truck chassis and sails, and travels over the rails of the abandoned quarry at a fair rate of speed.

Kaye Don Will Attempt To Set Speed Record At Buenos Aires On Wednesday Of Next Week

BUENOS AIRES, Mar. 19.—(A. P.)—The ship which is bringing to Buenos Aires the speedboat Miss England II, in which Sir Henry O. D. Segrave set a world record last summer on a dash which cost him his life, steamed into the harbor to-day and Kayne Don, British racing driver, prepared to remove the boat at once and prepare it for a performance on the River Plat.

A high-speed propellor will be put on the racing craft and other mechnical adjustments made, perhaps in time for a speed trial Saturday.

Next Wednesday Don hopes to try for a speedboat record which will centre world attraction here and promote further Britain's goodwill and sales program in Argentina in connection with which the British trade exhibition is in progress.

The report that the Prince of Wales might accompany Don on the first speed trial in the Miss England II was doubted to-day, since the Prince is to visit Montevideo Saturday.

Don said preparation of the racing course was proceeding satisfactorily. One precaution will be an airplane patrol, to detect such obstacles in the water as the branch which turned over the Miss England II last summer after her record dash and caused Segrave's death.

Japan To Supply Own Aluminum Trade Needs

By Percy Whiteing, Canadian Press Staff Correspondent

TOKYO, March 5.—(By Mail)— A menace to Canada's aluminum trade with Japan looms up in a scheme that has now reached the formative stage, to supply all of this country's requirements of this metal by a plant to be established in Chosen, Korea.

The project, which is sponsored by Jun Nochuchi, president of the Japan Nitrogen Fertilizer Company, which in turn is backed by the powerful Mitsibishi Corporation, calls for a 60,000 K. W. hydro-electric plant to be built on the upper reaches of the Yalu river, which separates Chosen from Manchuria, in a region reported to have plentiful supplies of the necessary clay. The output of the proposed plant is to be in the neighborhood of 10,000 tons a year.

ALBION CLUB DANCE.

Jolly Evening is Spent in Havelock Town Hall on St. Patrick's Night.

HAVELOCK, March 19 (Examiner Correspondence).—A jolly dance was held in the town hall on Tuesday evening last, under the auspices of the Albion Club. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with green and white, as befitted a St. Patrick' dance. The dance was a great success in every way except financially. The boys had very little left for the treasury after the expenses were paid.

The spot dance was won by Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jamieson while the prize for the best waltz went to Miss Eva Sanderson who had as her partner, Jim Gray, of Campbellford. Miss Marion McCauley, of Toronto, with Ernest Sanderson was a close second in the prize waltz. Isaac Anderson acted as a very capable floor manager both for the round and square dancing.

The hostess provided refreshments for the occasion.

UNFAIR SYSTEM IN HOG GRADING
Petition From 800 East Kent Farmers Presented to Agriculture Committee.

WANT HIGHER PREMIUM.
TORONTO, Ont., March 19 (C.P.).—A petition from 800 farmers of East Kent protesting against the Federal regulations of hog grading was presented by P. J. Henry, M.P.P., East Kent, yesterday to the Ontario Government Agriculture Committee, who heard arguments on the question from representatives of producers, drovers, graders and packers.

The petition is directed to Hon. Robert Weir, Federal Minister of Agriculture, in which it is claimed the system is unfair, the premium on select grades being inadequate.

W. Fletcher, representing the stockyard company, declared the market for hogs has dwindled since grading was introduced a year ago.

Others who discussed the question were: Producers: Thos. Banting, Alliston; Fred Joyce, Milton; Graham Crawford, Brampton; Drovers: Dawson Boyce, Alliston; Graders: L. W. Pearsall, chief of the Ontario Hog Grading Branch; Packers: Fred Schneider, Kitchener, and S. E. Tod, Industrial and Development Council of Canadian Meat Packers, Toronto.

FOUR GIVEN LIFE TERM.
MADRID, Spain, March 19 (AP)—Captain Salvador Sediles, sentenced to death Tuesday by a court-martial for his part in the December republican revolt at Jaca, was reprieved yesterday at the direction of King Alfonso.

The death sentence of Captain Sediles, the only extreme penalty imposed in the cases of 77 officers charged with rebellion for their part in the revolt, had not yet been pronounced officially, pending confirmation of 11 and the prison sentences decreed by the court-martial judges.

Four men for whom the prosecution has asked death sentences were sentenced to life imprisonment. The two instigators of the revolt in the army garrison were executed immediately after the uprising had been put down in mid-December.

Fenwick Landmark Destroyed By Fire
WELLAND, Ont., Mar. 19. (CP)—The large two storey frame residence of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Idtodi, Fenwick, known as the Rogers property for over half a century was destroyed by fire early yesterday.

The crying of a two year old baby awakened the mother who found the entire house in flames. She managed to get her two children through a window and then jumped herself after her night attire was scorched.

Neighbors responded to the alarm but a scarcity of water hampered them and soon the building was blazing beyond control. Cause of the blaze is unknown but the loss is covered by insurance.

LENTEN SERVICE FOR CHILDREN

Rev. William Simpson Has Charge of Service in St. Thomas' Church Parish Hall.

AT MILLBROOK

MILLBROOK, March 19 (Examiner Correspondence)—A Lenten service specially in the interests of the boys and girls was held in the Parish Hall of Saint Thomas' Anglican Church on Tuesday, at 4.15 p.m., the pupils from the school being invited to attend and the new rector of the parish, Rev. William Simpson, B.A., being in charge.

A number o fthe adult members of the congregation were present in addition to a fair representation of the boys and girls, the minister using the special prayers and responses of the Children's Service in the prayer book in opening the worship period.

The scripture lesson was the story of Christ's temptation in the wilderness as related by Saint Matthew, and in his address Rev. Mr. Simpson spoke of his personal pleasure in meeting with the boys and girls, thus early in his local ministry, stating that he has been actively working among young people for the past ten years. Through the question and answer method the rector tested the young folk as to their knowledge of the meaning of Lenten season, the approaching Easter, one of the greatest festivals of the Christian church, and of the early events in the life of Christ.

The value of testing in developing character was brought out in a manner suited to the younger element among his listeners, and the parents were strongly reminded of their share of responsibility as the speaker talked to the boys and girls of the solemn rite of baptism through which, in babyhood, they had been definitely given to God, their parents and god-parents promising for them that they should be taught to grow up as Christians.

Relating an incident that came under his personal observation in a court of law in the west, the rector spoke impressively of the grief caused not only to the parents and other relatives, but to the loving heart of the Father when any of His children go astray.

The hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," appropriately followed the address, the closing prayers and blessings bringing a very helpful service to a close.

The next Lenten service will be in the Parish Hall on Thursday, March 19, at 8 p.m., when the rector will use the evensong prayers and ritual for the opening worship, and a set of slides will then be shown continuing the series that has been followed through Lent, and sponsored by the A.Y.P.A.

Presentation Made

A feature of peculiar interest at the quarterly reunion and Mess Banquet of the Third Prince of Wales' Dragoons, held in the Armouries Peterborough on Saturday evening, was the presentation of a ten dollar gold piece to Lieutenant B. B. Dawson, Millbrook, as a token of appreciation from his fellow-officers of the high honor achieved by the local cadet corps, of which he is the Instructor, in winning first place in the rifle competition of the British Empire for the small unit, and thus bringing to Canada in 1930 the handsome trophy, the Earl Jellicoe Sword.

The chaplain of the Regiment, Rev. J. D. Paterson, rector of All Saints' Church, Peterborough, made the presentation to Lieutenant Dawson, who is also principal of the local public school, and who expressed his thanks in apropriate terms.

By special request Lieutenant Dawson brought the Earl Jellicoe Sword with him on Saturday evening, and it was on exhibition so that all might have the opportunity of seeing a much-coveted trophy, with the winning of which had come to the local Corps five bronze and three silver medals as rewards for individual high scores.

Miss Charlotte Luxon took up the chapter from the study book, covering in an instructive and interesting manner the educational and political advantages of Japan. The business part of the meeting was in the hands of the president, B. B. Dawson.

PASTOR DISCUSSES MISSIONARY WORK

Havelock Efficiency League Holds Meeting in Basement of United Church.

HAVELOCK, March 19 (Examiner Correspondence)—The regular meeting of Havelock Efficiency League was held in the church basement on Monday evening, March 16.

The meeting opened with a brief service of worship, after which routine business was dealt with. After the business had been disposed of Miss Alma Hagerman leader of Khaki group, took charge of the program.

The first number was community singing in which that popular song of Erin Killarney, was sung by all present.

This was followed by a reading by Miss Irene Hagerman, after which Henry Campney favored the gathering with a vocal solo. Rev. Mr. Archer took the topic, and discussed the United Church Home Missionary work. He stressed the fact of the great challenge to the church, presented by the task of assisting the many foreigners in Canada to become good citizens. He urged the members of the league to systematize their contributions to this worth while work, by making use of the envelopes furnished for this purpose.

This talk was followed by a piano solo by Everard Chiles and a reading by Miss Winnifred Chiles. A contest which followed was won by Blues, with the three other groups all tied for second place. The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction by Rev. Mr. Archer.

Shamrock Social

Havelock Girl Guides held a delightful Shamrock Social for their regular meeting on Friday, March 13, when the colors of Erin were the order of the day in the decoration scheme. Shamrocks and four-leaf clover played a prominent part, and the small cakes and cookies were cut in the form of topper hats, pipes, shamrocks, four-leaf clovers, etc. Green jellies, and mint colored icings gave a colorful note to the gaily decorated tables.

Much ingenuity was shown by the girls in introducing the various emblems of Old Erin into the supper menues.

The tables were all so very dainty, that judging, for the purpose of awarding the prizes was most difficult. Finally, by a vote of all competitors the first prize was awarded to the Sunflower patrol, and the leader Miss Reta Leeson was presented with a guide knife.

The second prize was awarded to Poppy patrol, with Marguerite Roche leader. She received a Guide whistle. A very delightful evening was afterwards enjoyed, when the Brownies provided a musical program.

Oddfellows Social

Havelock Oddfellows were hosts at a social evening on Friday evening last when a very enjoyable euchre party was the order of the evening.

First prize for high score was captured by Mrs. T. C. Jamieson, and Mrs. Joseph Little. The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Rice and Mr. E. Leeson. A splendid lunch was served at the conclusion of the games.

A Red-Letter Day

With Tom away at college, Sunday was pretty lonesome for his parents. But it became a red-letter day when he started to telephone in the evening. There was so much for him to tell them, and they in turn kept him in touch with the home news. Nothing could have been pleasanter.

FENELLA UNITED CHURCH

FENELLA, March 19 (Examiner Correspondence)—Rev. R. W. Paton of the United Church chose for his text for the evening sermon, last Sunday, Mark 6:45, "And straightway he constrained His disciples to get into the ship and go to the other side before unto Bethsaida while He sent away the people."

The reverend speaker said, "In this chapter of St. Mark's gospel, we have some interesting and helpful glimpses into the life and ministry of Jesus. The disciples returning from their first missionary journey were anxious to have a period of retirement and quiet with Jesus. But there were interruptions—a great crowd followed Jesus, a crowd hungry for spiritual food and Jesus having compassion on them began to teach them the truth about God. As evening approached the disciples suggested sending the people away, but Jesus said, "Give ye them to eat" and then was performed the miracle of the five loaves and two fishes. When the disciples were crossing the lake alone Jesus having gone into the mountain alone to pray, a great storm arose and to the disciples who had expected a calm voyage, it seemed that the winds and waves were in league against them. What a disappointment to the disciples to have a different from what they had expected.

"We have here an illustration which appears and reappears in human life. The path of duty is often a path of storms. Moses was called to be a deliverer for his people, but he found the path of duty beset with difficulties and discouragements. Jesus Christ found the path of duty a trying and difficult path, one which led through the Garden of Gethsemane and up to Calvary's cross.

"This story teaches us another lesson. The course of the obendient voyagers was marked by a praying Saviour. Had they only known that Jesus was watching and praying for them they would not have been afraid. What was true that night on the Lake of Galilee is true to-day—Jesus watches us as we make our way on life's voyage. He knows our needs, our sorrows and distress and our course is marked by a praying Saviour.

"Jesus not only prayed for His disciples, but He came to them with a message of reassurance. 'Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.' This is a truth we should all endeavor to learn. When we are in distress when the storm of life surround us, when we are discouraged and perplexed, not only does Jesus pray that our faith be strengthened, He comes to us with the same reassuring message, 'It is I, be not afraid.'"

W.M.S. IN MADOC WELL ATTENDED

Mrs. L. Ashley Gives Interesting Talk on Different Religions in Japan.

DISTRICT MEETS HELD.

MADOC, Mar. 19. (Examiner Correspondence). — The attendance at the March meeting of Trinity W.M.S. held at the home of Mrs. Jas. Irwin, on Thursday, March 5th, was very encouraging, considering the number who were ill and others attending the Domestic Science Classes. Mrs. M. Bristol was in charge of the Devotional period. After a hymn and the Lord's Prayer in unison, Mrs. McMechan read the Scripture lesson, and Mrs. Fair led in prayer, especially for the workers in Japan.

After singing "Hark the Voice of Jesus Calling," the President, Mrs. S. S. Ashley, called for the minutes of the last meeting and the Roll Call which was responded to by passages on "Works". It was decided to hold a cooking sale during the month. Mrs. M. Maybee, Secretary of Christian Stewardship, gave a few thoughts on that subject. Mrs. Empey, President of Eldorado W.M.S., being present, was called upon and all enjoyed her brief greetings from the sister society. Regret was expressed that two members of the executive, the secretary and treasurer, and other members were absent through sickness.

Mrs. Huffman then took charge of the programme and called on the Heralds of the Watch Tower, the following responding: For China, Mrs. Bristol; Africa, Mrs. McMechan; India and Japan, Mrs. Huffman; Oriental, Mrs. L. Ashley; following which the Heralds for the next three months were appointed. Prayer for the workers in India was led by Mrs. Rivers. An excellent devotional leaflet, "Thine is the Power;; was read by Mrs. Geo. Maybee. After singing, "O, Master, Let Me Walk With Thee", Mrs. L. Ashley gave a very interesting and enlightening synopsis of the 6th chapter of the Study Book, which dealt with the different religions of Japan, especially showing the difference between Christianity and Buddism. The Japanese are great readers and the newspapers are used greatly to help spread the Gospel. At present there are 9 stations, 26 missionaries on field, 3 new appointments and 6 on furlough under the W.M.S. The Benediction was given by Mrs. Huffman from Eph. 3: 20-21.

The usual social cup of tea followed, Mrs. Lough and Mrs. S. S. Ashley being assistant hostesses.

Cooper and Remington

Cooper and Remington held their W.M.S. meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed. Holmes on Thursday, March 5th, Mrs. A. Wyatt presiding. After a hymn and sentence prayers by Miss V. Moorcroft and Mrs. Will Rollins, the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Hathaway, taken from the tenth chapter of Luke. Minutes and roll call followed, after which matters of business were discussed. Mrs. A. Wyatt read the devotional leaflet and a reading was given by Mrs. W. J. Rollins. Four of the members took up a synopsis of the chapter of the Study Book. An Easter Pageant was splendidly given by a number of young ladies. A reading by Mrs. Wyatt, was followed by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Melvin King, and the closing prayer was offered by Mrs. H. Rollins, Sr.

Eldorado Gathering

Eldorado W.M.S. held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Wm. McEwen, with Mrs. Empey, the president, presiding. After opening the meeting with a hymn and responsive reading of the Scripture lesson, Mrs. Empey read the devotional leaflet, "For Thine is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory." Prayer by Mrs. Beckstead and Mrs. Comerford was followed by "Jesus, Master, whose I am". The study of the day was Japanese religious thought, and the Christian message, showing what Japan's own primitive religion was, and how other religions were introduced, and finally in the nineteenth centure the religions of Christian Europe and America were introduced.

Special attention was called to the work of the native evangelist, Kagawa, and the service by the women of the Christian churches. There are 600 women altogether engaged in mission work in Japan. Our own Board has 36 engaged in work among the women and girls. Four large publishing houses cater to the use of Christian literature for women and girls, and there is considerable literature published by the daily papers.

Readings on the topic were given by Mrs. A. Empey, Mrs. H. Shaw, Miss A. Holmes, Mrs. L. Robinson and Miss Alice Chambers. "First things, first" was read by Mrs. Empey. The Christian Stewardship department was represented by Miss A. Holmes, who gave a very instructive reading, "Tithing eggs," while the Temperance secretaries provided several readings: "Wake up, Canada", by Mrs. F. Chambers; "Shame, Canada," by Mrs. Comerford, and Mrs. H. Parnell gave an account of Dr. Week's lecture in England.

Theq uestion of an Easter W.M.S. church service was left with the executive to decide on. The meeting closed with "Take My Life" after which refreshments were served by the hostess and committee. There were present 13 members and 3 visitors.

Nixon read the Watch Tower, an article on China and was very interesting.

Suggestive program leaflets were read by Mrs. A. Braithwaite, Mrs. J. A. Nichol, Mrs. L. Turner, Mrs. J. Braithwaite and Mrs. Alfred Sherwin, each one giving a message of she "Fruits of hChristian Missions in Japan."

The Japanese have always been tolerant of foreign religions so long as these do not endanger national institutions. Christianity in Japan has developed rapidly and Buddhism and Confucianism are vastly fading away. In this "Kingdom of God Movement" and Christian literature that is widely circulated through Japan, misionaries preaching and appealing for decisions for Christ in the hope of increasing the membership of the Christian church to one million, so that a broad and enduring foundation of Christian culture may be laid in the native land which gives promise of encouragement to those who pray and labor for the betterment of Japan.

Refreshments were served by the committee.

OVER 2 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Just Between Us Women

A daily chat with Examiner neighbors conducted by Anne Wilcox

And so here we are again, back to sewing and embroidery work, after talking about St. Patrick's parties during the past week.

• • • • • • •

A combination of embroidery and net, sometimes with textile applique, is used effectively on guest towels. The net is laid over the towel in the portion where you desire it to appear.

• • • • • • •

It is first run down onto the textile and then closely buttonhole-stitched or overcast, each stitch going through both net and textile. These stitches of whichever sort chosen, are taken in the embroidery medium.

• • • • • • •

The net matches the tone of the textile generally, but it can be very interesting if in a contrasting color that matches one of tones of the embroidery.

• • • • • • •

Sometimes the net applique is in the centre and has embroidery on both sides. Sometimes it is at one side of the centre and is balanced by a bit of colored applique on the other, each so combined in the design that variety is pleasingly accepted.

• • • • • • •

Or there are many other positions it may take, and I am sure you would find no trouble in positioning it in such a way that it will add to the attractiveness of the towel.

• • • • • • •

One of the features of this guest towel decoration is the use of textile applique. Fine linen is used on huckaback towelling and on damask or plain linen.

• • • • • • •

While the towel beneath the stout, fine mesh is out away when it has been outlined with the embroidery medium, it is left underneath the textile applique.

• • • • • • •

The applique and net are both so small and dainty, that they correspond with the delicacy of the embroidery pattern in which they are introduced.

• • • • • • •

The work can be carried out in but one contrasting color, or several may be employed.

• • • • • • •

The choice of styles may correspond with the color used in the bathroom decoration. If but one color is in that, it is harmonious to confine the color work on the towel to white.

• • • • • • •

If many colors are found in the room, on the other hand, then all of them may be used on the towel. Accent the main color and use the secondary hues sparingly.

That Body of Yours

THE FEAR OF GOING MAD OR INSANE.

One of the unfortunate conditions in some mental hospitals is where the friends of a patient seek to have him become an inmate, because he thinks he is "going mad."

On examination the superintendent can find no real mental ailment except this one condition, the fear he has of going mad, of becoming insane.

To put this patient in a mental hospital and have him feel that he is one of the patients, behind locked doors, and under guard, might be the very means of increasing this fear, and of making him a real mental patient.

However, in connection with many of these hospitals now are what are called outdoor departments. The patient lives at home, goes about his daily tasks, but reports regularly to the hospital for treatment. This puts him in the same class as patients attending the outdoor departments of regular hospitals for treatment for rheumatism or other common ailments. The fact that the doctor or doctors of the mental hospital do not consider his case serious enough to put him into the institution under guard, is bound to be of help, because he realizes that if he were likely to "go mad," they wouldn't take a chance but would lock him up at once.

As he reports from time to time the treatment consists in discussing with him why he thinks he might go made become insane, then explain how he likely got the idea, perhaps from something that occurred in childhood, and further explaining what must be done to get the idea out of his head. He is told definitely that it is only an idea and there is no real reason why he should have it.

You can thus see what a great saving in minds and money is going to be accomplished by this outdoor or home treatment. Many of these cases, without this outdoor care, would finally become inmates of our mental hospitals. By this means they are going to become or remain useful members of the community, and not a source of expense, aside from all the mental suffering of the patient and his family.

MADRIGALS PLAN ANNUAL CONCERT

Splendid Program is to be Given by Madrigals on Tuesday Evening.

IN COLLEGIATE HALL

The program to be given by this famous organization of women's voices, under the direction of Dorothy Allan Park, challenges the attention of every lover of beautiful music. It contains outstanding examples of ensemble singing, and will be sung entirely from memory, which is the unfailing rule of this noted choir. "The Madrigal Singers" include in their Tuesday night program a group of exquisite Brahms' quartets, a Palestrina motet, some sixteenth century offerings, several folk songs of different countries, and four modern compositions, including Elgar's delightful "Snow" with violin and 'cello obbligato, played by Deane Miner and Bobby Spergel.

Margaret Brown of Toronto is one of the outstanding women pianists of that city, and will play two groups of solos that will amply demonstrate her beautiful tone and scholarly interpretations. Chopin's massive "Winter Wind," and Liszt's dazzling "Canzona Napolitana" are included in her program.

Bobby Spergel, eleven-year-old 'cellist, also of Toronto, is one of the favored few to whom the word "genius" can be applied with truth. He plays his instrument with a depth of tone brilliancy of technique, and maturity of understanding that make it difficult to realize that he is still a child. Fritz Reiner, the celebrated conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, says Bobby is "amazing," and all the musicians interested in him predict a career in the front rank, with the great players of the world.

Peterborough citizens have only to read the criticisms of "The Madrigal Singers" in the Toronto papers after each performance there, to realize that this city has a choir of outstanding beauty and excellence that has won actual fame in one of the most critical choral cities in the world, and delighted the most exacting musicians. Peterborough should be proud of this unique and lovely choir, and turn out in large numbers to hear a program that will satisfy, educate, and delight the eye as well as the brain.

FIND FIRST BODY UPON ICE FLOES

Two Sealers Reach Spot Littered With Wreckage Where Viking Exploded.

SEND BOAT TO ISLAND.

NEW YORK, March 19.—One body from the sealing ship Viking was found to-day near the spot in White Bay, Newfoundland, where the ship sank Sunday night, Bowring Brothers, Ltd., ship owners, were advised yesterday from St. John's, Newfoundland.

The sealers Eagle and Neptune which, with other craft from the fleet are searching the ice-filled waters of the bay, found the body—the first to be found. They were in the approximate position where the Viking exploded, burned and sank.

The message to Bowring Brothers, from their headquarters in St. Johns said:

"Eagle, Neptune found ice where explosion occurred; wreckage, timbers, clothing and one body.

"Reported ice conditions terrible.

"Steel boat trying to reach island (Le Barbe Island where most of survivors are). Conditions theer must be very hard."

Three More Found in Dory

Late yesterday forenoon the sealing ship Beothic picked up a dory containing three survivors of the wrecked vessel Viking. They were W. G. Johnson, master watch, Alfred Kean, second hand, and Fred Best, helper of the moving picture party which went north with the steamer.

The men were suffering from slight injuries but were otherwise all right.

Coastal Steamer Sagona yesterday was trying to force her way through the ice with supplies for the survivors. The Eagle, Neptune, Beothic, and Ungava are all continuing the search. The Foundation Franklin, unequipped for icebreaking is still well offshore.

Survivors of Sunday nights disaster are doing well, on Horse Island. The ten men reported found by the Beothic were those seen for the past two days in and surrounding a dory about five miles out.

The rescue of Johnson, Kean, and Best reduces the list of men unaccounted for to 24.

The program for the evening consisted of community singing, two pleasing pianoforte selections by James Linn, two well-rendered songs by S. B. Cheeseman and an admirable talk on the Church of England by the Rev. E. R. James, guest speaker of the evening.

Refreshments were served at the close.

Services at St. Paul's.

MAGNESIA BEST FOR YOUR INDIGESTION

Warns Against Doping Stomach With Artificial Digestants

Most people who suffer, either occasionally or chronically from gas, sourness and indigestion, have now discontinued disagreeable diets, patent foods and the use of harmful drugs, stomach tonics, medicines and artificial digestants, and instead take a teaspoonful or four tablets of Bisurated Magnesia in a little water after meals with the result that their stomach no longer troubles them, they are able to eat as they please and they enjoy much better health. Those who use Bisurated Magnesia never dread the approach of meal time because they know this wonderful anti-acid and food corrective, can be obtained from any good drug store, will instantly neutralize the stomach acidity, sweeten the stomach, prevent food fermentation, and make digestion easy. Try this plan yourself, but be certain to get Bisurated Magnesia especially prepared for stomach use.

BOOK OF RUTH IS DISCUSSED

Captain Casey Holding Study Classes in St. John's Church.

EVENING SERVICES.

Captain Casey, of the English Church Army held a Bible Study Class yesterday afternoon in St. John's Church. The study which will continue Thursday and Friday is on the Book of Ruth.

The first evening services last evening consisted of Intercessions, congregational hymn singing, brief service an address and a quiet talk at the end.

The Captain's subject was "sin" and he chose for his text, II Sam. 12:13 "And David said until Nathan, I have sinned against the Lord." Sin, the speaker pointed out, was ignored to-day but we have only to think to realize what great havoc it produced in the world. The best way to know how to contend with an enemy is to know what his strength is. Sin is so powerful that it invaded even Heaven itself, "and there was war in Heaven."

It is the cause of untold bitterness and misery on earth and a place dear to Heaven and Earth, was the scene of its greatest tragedy, Calvary. Very telling illustrations within the Mission's own experience were offered as instances of sin's power—how little people know at the commencement until it gets so great a hold upon them that they cannot break free. "Oh wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death," but "if we confess our sins He is faith and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."

The service was altogether very impressive and it is hoped that many will seize the opportunity of hearing Captain Casey during the next two days.

PILE SUFFERERS

Can You Answer These Questions?

Do you know why external remedies do not give quick and permanent relief.

Why cutting does not remove the cause?

Do you know the cause of Piles is internal?

That there is congestion of blood in the lower bowel—the veins flabby, the parts almost dead?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy for itching, bleeding or protruding piles discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID that is guaranteed?

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause. It stimulates the circulation in the lower bowel—drives out the thick impure blood, heals and restores the affected parts. This remedy has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers.

Don't waste time on external remedies or think of an operation until you have tried a bottle of HEM-ROID tablets. McDermid & Jury, Bond's Drug Store guarantees money back if they do not end Piles in any form.

WEST VS. WILSON CASE RE-OPENED

Dismissed With Costs By Magistrate Payne, West Appealing Costs.

JUDGE HUYCKE TO DECIDE.

CAMPBELLFORD, March 19 (By Examiner Staff Correspondent) — Appealing the decision handed down by Magistrate G. A. Payne in the Campbellford Police Court in reference to the West vs. Wilson action, the case will now come before his Honor Judge Huycke in Divisional Court on April 2.

This case created much interest some time ago, when Dr. Simon West brought action against James Wilson for breach of the Municipal by-law forbidding the practice of coasting on the town streets. It appeared in the evidence that Wilson had come home with three bags of coal on a hand sleigh and living on a hill which is a boundary road, and on which Dr. West also resides, had dragged the bags of fuel up to his residence one at a time, coasting down to give his small son a ride. West objected to this, bringing action against Wilson in the Campbellford Police Court on February 9.

In the summing up of the case, D. J. Lynch for the plaintiff had pleaded that a habit of coasting had been established. N. Alex MacColl for the defence, however argued on point of law, pointing out that the road was a boundary road and that according to the Municipal Act both municipalities must be jointly agreed on any act. In this case, there is no corresponding by-law in the Township of Seymour.

Decision was reserved by Magistrate Payne and judgment handed down February 20, dismissing the case with costs. West is appealing the costs.

Missing Doorman Found Dead On Ice

OTTAWA, Ont., March 19 (C.P.).—The body of Patrick Lynn, doorman at an Ottawa hotel, who disappeared last November 12, was found frozen on the ice of the Rideau Canal last night. The remains did not bear any marks of violence, but the fact that the clothing did not contain a large sum of money relatives said Lynn carried at the time he disappeared, raised the possibility of foul play. A post-mortem will be held to determine the cause of death.

Lynn, a single man, is 54 years old and a native of Quyon, Que.

FRED HOOPER, JR. WINS FIRST $25

Peterborough Boy is First to Win Prize Offered By Mr. Beech-Nut.

GAVE MANY HINTS.

"Mysterious Mr. Beech-Nut" was captured yesterday, and to Fred Hooper, Jr., a schoolboy sleuth goes the honor of being the first person in Canada to win the $25 reward which Mr. Beechnut has in his pocket for anyone, in possession of the label of a Beech-Nut Gum package, who can identify him.

Fred is a pupil at Cehtral School and last night the details of his capture were broadcast.

It was no mean feat! The Beech-Nut Company's advertising campaign has taken the elusive Mr. Beechnut in several larger centres, than Peterborough where he has escaped detection. It is however a tribute to the efficacy of newspaper advertising.

On Monday last the Beechnut advertisement splashed itself across six columns of The Examiner. It carried a real clue to the identification of the Mysterious man, who drops in suddenly where least expected, and it piqued the curiosity of the entire populace. The picture of Mr. Beechnut minus the eyes and mouth was carefully scrutinized, the conformation of the brow was carefully noted, the mode he has of dressing his hair, the shape of the chin, etc., while the hints as to Mr. Beechnut's whereabouts which are broadcast each day were eagerly swallowed by the listening myriads of radio fans.

Mr. Beechnut was in our midst yesterday. That is a fact, because he was waylaid by Fred Hooper; but from whence he came, how he came and where he has now gone is a mystery. He may still be here and the only qualification necessary to earn the reward of $25 is to purchase a packet of Beech-Nut Gum, challenge your man and produce the label from the package. If your guess is correct you will receive the prize money without question.

It is understood that Mr. Beechnut while in town yesterday, threw out various hints. He is said to have stopped a boy on the street, questioned him, given him a dime with the injunction that he purchase a packet of Beech-Nut Gum. He again stopped a Collegiate pupil, giving him a transparent envelope containing Beechnut Gum and counselling him to give the package to his teacher.

The hints apparently went unheeded but young Hooper, hot on the scent, had had his suspicions confirmed and tackled his man. "Are you Mr. Beechnut" he demanded, producing the label from a packet of Beechnut Gum.

Mr. Beechnut could no longer hide his identity, and later in the day interviewed the boy's parents, to whom he expressed his admiration for young Fred's astuteness. He is also very observant, and asked what the badge on Fred's sleeve represented, and was interested to know that it signified membership in St. John's Church choir.

"How do I keep my figure?"

"I eat Shredded Wheat but instead of cream I use whole milk—just as it comes from the bottle. That kind of meal gives me pep and strength. It's delicious and nourishing and easily digested. Sometimes for variety I add sliced bananas or other fruits, but I like it any way at all."

MONTREAL IMPRESARIO COAXED MELBA TO SING

The Australian Nightingale Was Upset by Loss of Diamond From Her Slipper

A CURIOUS personal experience is told by Louis H. Bourdon, Montreal, impresario, who claims to have broken all records when Caruso, under his management, took $27,888 gross out of the Montreal public in the one night concert given September 27, 1920. It was during his presentation to Montreal of Dame Nellie Melba in October, 1923. "Till the very last minute I had feared that Madame would not sing, she was so much upset by the loss, on her way to the theatre, of a fine diamond set in the buckle of her shoe. The concert was scheduled to start at 8.30, but did not begin until 9.10. I spent a hectic forty minutes convincing the great diva that she could not possibly disappoint the audience because of the loss of a stone. Melba was very temperamental. It was not the loss of the diamond that affected her, valuable though it was. It was the feeling of which that loss was the culminating cause that things were going wrong with her, a feeling she had that luck with her went in curves. It ascended with continual good fortune up to a point; then there was a corresponding depression. Madame Melba thought she was in the beginning of a descending curve. I had a hard job to get the idea out of her mind. When I finally succeeded, she went on and gave one of her most brilliant recitals. I was all in for a couple of days afterwards."

L. H. Bourdon

In the twenty years that Mr. Bourdon has been acting as an impresario in Montreal, he has a number of interesting anecdotes of the great and near-great to relate. Once he was down to his last dollar bill, after guaranteeing a French orchestra in a cheque for a thousand dollars to play in a Montreal theatre. It was the famous "Societe des Concerts du Conservatoire de Paris," under the baton of the famous composer Andre Messager. It had been sent over to the United States by the government of the French republic for an official tour under the official approval of the United States government. On account of this official character of the tour, only chambers of commerce were to sponsor this orchestra. The Montreal Chamber of Commerce was not interested, so Mr. Bourdon determined to book it into Loew's theatre in Montreal on his own responsibility. He soon found that the difficulties were almost insuperable. First, a $4,000-guarantee was required. Second, he had no standing with the French authorities. He immediately left for Washington and discussed the matter with the French ambassador. To leave Montreal, third French city of the world, out of the tour was, he told the ambassador, unthinkable. All obstacles were quickly ironed out. Still, there remained the question of money. He had just $1,000 in his bank and a dollar in his pocket when the guarantee was reduced to the $1,000 and the orchestra booked into Montreal. So striking was the success of the concert that a second was given three days later. "I was able to send to Paris a draft for 18,000 francs to Stephen Pichon, the then French minister of foreign affairs, after all local expenses had been paid. At my request this money was paid in to the War Orphans of France fund."

In April, 1913, when Bourdon was in the early twenties, he booked Joseph Lhevine, great Russian pianist, into Montreal. Talking to the artist just before the recital, the latter said: "Where is your father? After all, I must meet my concert manager before I play." Mr. Bourdon had the greatest difficulty in convincing Lhevine that he was doing that very thing. Employees of the theatre had to be called in to prove his bona fides before the pianist would go on the stage.

Barrie a Tough Nut For the Interviewer

J. M. BARRIE (beg pardon! Sir James) is reputed to be one of the shyest men in the world.

Isaac Marcosson is the world's greatest interviewer. But even Marcosson found it difficult to run down Barrie. He usually went to England, carrying a letter of introduction to Barrie, but he always came away without being able to see him. "He invariably proved as elusive as one of the fairies in "Peter Pan," says Marcosson.

Isaac Marcosson

There came a time when Marcosson "just had to see him"; he was writing a life of Charles Frohman, and Barrie was the source of the most important material of the English end of the story. Marcosson wrote from New York that he was coming, and told Barrie what he wanted. When he reached London he found that Barrie had gone to Kirriemuir, Scotland. Marcosson went to France, came back to London, finished up everything except the material he wanted from Barrie. Barrie wrote several times promising to show up, but never appearing. Then suddenly he was off on a motor trip to Wales. Marcosson had to leave in a week so in desperation he wired:

"Cannot leave England without seeing you. No matter if you are in England, Ireland, Scotland, or Wales, I will come to you if only for an hour."

"Then "the coon came down." Barrie's reply telegram said that he would return to London, and asked Marcosson to lunch with him at the Reform Club in Pall Mall.

This was the beginning of a warm and intimate friendship between one of the shyest and most silent men in the world and the man whose business has been to unlock the gates of speech of the greatest personages of the times.

Barrie and Frohman were also great friends, although the two were almost equally shy and silent. What a pair they made when they paid a visit to Theodore Roosevelt at his home at Oyster Bay! "Rosevelt talked the whole time," said Barrie. But the silent Scot was able to interject at least one telling remark. "Colonel," he said, "with the air of one impressed by greatness, "Colonel, you and your four sons seem to constitute the whole United States army."

Mr. Killam

By R.T.L.

I. W. Killam

MR. KILLAM owns a newspaper in Toronto called the Mail and Empire, and occasionally reads it.

He lives at 512 Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, and thinks he is a Methodist.

He is a very pleasant man to talk with because he rarely says anything himself.

His office is on the top floor at 164 St. James, which is a one-way street in Montreal, famous for its philanthropic institutions.

One of these is the Royal Securities Corporation, which Mr. Killam owns.

He is also head of Calgary Power Company. Its office is at 164 St. James, too.

His first two names are Isaac Walton, but he never caught a fish in his life except, perhaps, in business.

He was born in Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, and sold newspapers in front of the post-office there until he was seventeen.

Then he got fed up with working and went into the financial business as clerk in a Halifax bank.

In the bank he met Mr. Max Aitken, who was kind enough a little later to start the Royal Securities Corporation.

He got into Royal Securities as a salesman when he was twenty, was managing director at twenty-four and got the business as a keep-sake when Mr. Aitken moved to England.

He now has several million dollars, which shows what opportunities there are in Canada for bank clerks with ambition.

He nearly always wears a navy blue suit and carries a yellow walking stick.

He is still ambitious and would like to make a little money before he is too old to enjoy it.

He once quit Royal Securities and went to Quebec City to be an investment banker, but he could not speak French very well, so he returned to Royal Securities after four months.

He speaks St. James Street French almost perfectly.

He bought the Mail and Empire because he thought Toronto ought to have one good morning paper and believed he might move to Toronto himself, but decided not to because he did not like the view from Casa Loma.

He is gentle of voice and very slim, and looks quite a lot like a choir leader, though he is really not fond of music.

Someone told him a number of years ago that he had the smartest financial brain in Canada, and he has wondered lately if this was really a compliment.

He has been in Yarmouth only a couple of times since he was a boy, but is glad he came from there.

He does not like using the telephone, but would rather do this than write a letter, because he regards all letters as documentary evidence.

He is over six feet tall and wears a high starched collar because he has a long neck.

He likes going to the races and once or twice has bet some money.

He does not like people to make jokes he cannot understand, and believes that most people who laugh a lot are stupid, except Lord Beaverbrook who only laughs to fool people.

He has wondered lately whether he might do well in politics and intends to ask Beaverbrook about this the next time he goes to England.

He belongs to the St. James club in Montreal and sometimes plays a little at a golf club so he will feel well enough to make some money.

He makes some at the St. James club.

He has dark and sunken eyes which make him appear more romantic than he really is.

He does not believe in fairies, Santa Claus, four-leaf clover or patron saints, and thinks that every man makes his own way in the world as long as he knows the right people.

He has a keen sense of humor and once made a speech favoring the St. Lawrence waterway.

He has never let himself be interviewed or photographed, but this is a matter of caution rather than conceit.

He does not like eggs.

He knows Sir Herbert Holt and when they get together they sometimes talk to each other.

He is forty-five years old and believes he still has time to make a success of life.

THEY MUST LIKE HER

PROBABLY few women of prominence in public life to-day have received a greater number of affectionate nicknames than has the Right Hon. Margaret Bondfield, M.P., the minister of labor.

In the old days when she served behind the counter of a little draper's shop, she was christened "Birdie Bondfield" by her workmates, on account of her bright, chirpy disposition and her remarkable sense of humor.

Later on, when she was appointed junior secretary to the Shop Assistants' Union at a salary of £2 a week, she became "Merrie Maggie" to her colleagues, and "Madcap Maggie" to her intimate friends.

NIX: "Do you know that your counfounded dog barks all night?"

Mix: "Yes; but don't worry about him. He sleeps all right in the day-time."

Actress in Police Court But Not as Prisoner

RUTH DRAPER, world-famous character interpreter, who during her American stage tour this year has played in Toronto and Montreal, has probably faced the judge in police courts more often than the world's most hardened criminal.

Ruth Draper

In the largest cities in practically all the civilized countries Miss Draper has appeared at some time or other before the local magistrates and yet her name does not appear in any police record and her photograph, though widely displayed, is not yet included in any rogues' gallery. And her appearances have always been voluntary.

Ruth Draper is in all senses of the word a one-woman-show, and her character portrayals have brought her world-wide fame. In order to keep her performances fresh and up-to-date she is always on the look-out for new types and her favorite haunts are police courts and jails. Recently, while playing in Montreal, she was given an opportunity to sit on the bench in the Superior court with Mr. Justice Surveyer during the hearing of a habeas corpus plea, and she quickly took advantage of it. During the hearing she listened attentively to all the evidence and for the greater part of the time sat with her eyes glued on the prisoner who sat nervously twitching in the prisoners' box. Occasionally the famous actress jotted down a few notes in a note book she carried in her purse.

"Policemen as well as prisoners go down in this note book," she said after the hearing was ended, "and I have made my court type collection all over the world."

Every day adds new items to Ruth Draper's programs and she is confident that her list can never run out or become stale as long as police court sessions are held as frequently as they are.

Radio Fans Will Be Able to Follow Sir Hubert's Submarine Into Arctic

SIR HUBERT WILKINS, who is shortly to make an attempt to reach the North Pole in a submarine, is nothing if not imaginative. He conceived the idea of making his perilous under-water journey after reading Jules Verne's "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea," and in honor of the submarine in that book he has christened his submarine the Nautilus. Sir Hubert is an old hand in polar regions, and is remembered in Canada as the adventurous second in command of Stefansson's Canadian Arctic expedition just prior to the war.

Sir Hubert Wilkins

In fact, so far away from civilization was Sir Hubert that he did not hear of the war until November, 1915, and then he made one of his famous dashes to be in it before it was over! He was not disappointed! He went to France and there was given the job of making "movies" of the fighting, and he soon became a well-known figure in his battered old automobile chug-chugging around for exciting scenes to photograph. For his daring exploits under the very noses of the Germans he was promoted to the rank of captain and awarded the M.C. His knighthood came along later.

During his forty-three years of life Sir Hubert Wilkins has many brave and daring feats to his credit. He comes of that virile, pioneer stock that originally settled the Canadian west—he is of the type that the British Empire has always been able to produce when wanted. A man of courage, faith, resourcefulness and simplicity, he says little and does much. During his last five years of polar exploration work he has claimed, under the authority of King George, over 250,000 square miles of territory for the British Empire. He has discovered fourteen new islands and 500 miles of coastline in the antarctic. He has flown more than 5,000 miles over territory never before seen by human eye. In 1927, after their aeroplane had been forced down, he and a companion had to travel some 180 miles, most of it crawling on their hands and knees, hauling their scientific apparatus after them.

Sir Hubert Wilkins' coming trip is not the dream of a daring explorer and wild adventurer looking only for the thrill that comes from facing death and cheating eternity. His object is to make a preliminary survey for the establishment later on of meteorological stations in the polar regions, as with such stations Sir Hubert believes it will be possible to forecast the length and temperature of the seasons for at least three years in advance. Such forecasts would save billions of dollars, especially in the case of agriculture, as farmers throughout the world would be advised as to what crops to plant each year, and over-production would be avoided.

The originality of Sir Hubert Wilkins in planning his submarine trip to the north pole is shown in a number of ways, and one of the features of the equipment that his ingenious mind has thought of is a continuous "talkie" film. Such a sound film will be of great value after the voyage is over for it will permanently record things scientific as well as things that are of an intensely human interest. And Sir Hubert proposes to broadcast to the world his own account of the adventure. To use the microphone he will bring his submarine to the surface, and he expects to give listeners some thrills, especially at the end of his talks. "Good night, folks! We are now submerging into the arctic waters!"

Sir Alfred Yarrow Is a Real Pioneer

SIR ALFRED YARROW, grand old man of transportation in Great Britain and known the world over wherever steel ships do down to the seven seas, has just entered on his 90th year. In spite of his great age, however, his interest in the affairs of his profession is as keen and alert as when he first became an engineer.

The other day Sir Alfred shared the limelight with a new vehicle designed to modernize transportation. A great railway company had produced a machine called the "Ro-Railer," intended, as its name indicates, to run on rails or road. Certainly none of the passengers on the successful pioneer trip attracted more attention or public comment than the erect veteran.

Strangely enough, this was at least partially a case of history repeating itself. Seventy years ago Alf Yarrow, as he was then known, took a friend into partnership to construct a steam vehicle for road use. "It ran all right, too," the inventor tells. "An old lady who saw it rushing past her house on noticing the flames leaping from the funnel declared that she had seen the devil!"

This steam-wagon, as it happened, got into parliament, metaphorically at any rate. One evening the two experimenters when they were travelling at twenty-five miles an hour met a mounted policeman. The horse took fright and threw his rider, who suffered a broken leg. The case was brought up in the House, and in due course parliament passed a bill which prohibited the use of mechanical vehicles on the road unless preceded by a man carrying a red flag. Many former old-countrymen now in Canada can remember the rescinding of the regulation.

Sir Alfred is the father-in-law of Lord Dawson of Penn, the King's physician, but he has many other claims to distinction. In a lifetime which has extended through the entire era of the transformation of transportation from stage coach to aeroplane and of communication from toy telegraph to radio broadcast over the entire world, he has done more practical "first things" than almost any of his contemporaries.

"As a boy of eighteen," he said the other day, "inspired by the lectures of Faraday I had the honor of erecting the first complete overland telegraph system in England; it ran from my home to that of a friend just two streets away. I have lived to talk to millions over the wireless."

He was the first man in England to use a typewriter. A consignment had been shipped over from the United States, but the case containing them was accidentally dropped overboard in harbor. Later the shipment was remembered and recovered, and Sir Alfred bought them for a song. They had not suffered, and he managed, after trying one himself, to obtain an operator by advertising for a clerk who could play the piano!

His experiments in shipbuilding and with steam boilers are so much a matter of history that it is difficult to realize that this grand old pioneer of progress is still alive and able to take some part in the civilization he has helped to make.

Harold Kreutzberg and Yvonne Georgi, the sensational young German dancers, are repeatedly asked if they are married. Many people are quite sure that they are man and wife. They are not. Neither of them is wed. They have been friends since early youth when they were pupils at the same dance school in Berlin. Even then they had begun to evolve dances which led to their present partnership, culminating in their renown as the world's greatest dancers. Strange to say, however, Kreutzberg and Georgi are never so good as when they dance together. The public want to see them dance in unison for they have harmonized their respective dances to a degree never before achieved.

"Bad Eggs," Said Judge "Improve With Storage"

LORD DARLING, who at 81 years of age has returned to judicial duties on the bench, has long had the reputation for a dry wit which enlivens the dull technicalities of the law. Last year, when he officiated at the opening of an egg-packing depot, he referred to his long experience in sorting the good from the bad. All who came before him as a judge, he said, had to be graded, some into one box and some into another, the idea being that if kept for some time, they might improve. "At the same time, you must understand that this system cannot be applied to eggs," he explained.

Lord Darling

Even as a young counsel, pleading at the bar, Lord Darling had a reputation for ready retort. But he once came off second best in an encounter with a London cabby. Appearing as counsel for the defence in an important case, Mr. Darling aroused considerable amusement by prefacing many of his questions in the cross-examination of witnesses with the words, "Would you be surprised to know—?" Winning his case, he came out in high feather and beckoned a cabby drawn up near the entrance to the court. The cabby, a true Cockney, looked round leisurely and recognizing the prospective fare, drawled: "Would you be surprised to know that this cab's engaged?"

LAST year in America 13,000 new laws were passed. Thus providing a generous allowance for breakages.

SCOTTISH MILLIONAIRE MAY STEP INTO BREACH

Sir Robert Horne Is Picked by Many to Lead Britain to Prosperity

FROM humble Scottish manse to King's councillor, cabinet minister and millionaire industrialist—that is the romance of the life of Sir Robert Stevenson Horne, one of Scotland's outstanding men of the century. Just sixty years ago baby Robert came into the world. His father, the Rev. R. S. Horne, was minister of the parish of Slamannan, Stirlingshire, and not too well endowed with this world's goods. To him learning was greater than riches, and many were the sacrifices he made in order to give his son an education that would fit him to fight the battle for existence. In Robert the minister had the right material, and the young man passed from school to Glasgow University to graduate for a career that many predicted would be an outstanding one.

Sir Robert Horne

Young Robert Horne's studies at the university trained his mind along somewhat academic lines, and an opening that presented itself as lecturer in philosophy at University college, Bangor, North Wales, seemed to give him the opportunity he wanted to pursue his studies and at the same time support himself. He took it, but philosophy lost its hold on him at the end of a year and he gave it up for the law, being called to the Scottish bar in 1896.

The war, however, gave Robert Horne his real opportunity. He felt there was so much more he could be doing than he was doing, so he gave up his legal practice in Scotland and migrated south to London. In 1917 he started on his public career by becoming assistant inspector-general of transportation, a job that exactly suited his powers of organization and faculty for getting things done. Believing it would be a help to him to become a member of parliament, he fought and won the Hillhead division of Glasgow in 1918, a seat he has retained for the Conservative party ever since.

The next move Sir Robert Horne made was to the admiralty, where he became director of the materials and priority department and finally a civil lord. As it was apparent he had "a way with him," he was transferred in 1919 to the ministry of labor, where his tactful handling of the many difficult and complicated industrial disputes that came up for settlement about that time proved him to be a negotiator of front rank standing. When he left the board of trade to become chancellor of the exchequer in 1921, it was thought that he had taken on politics for life, but he cast aside the glamor of office when the coalition government came to an end.

It is quite likely that Sir Robert Horne may decide not to return to an active political life on account of the great sacrifices in income that his come-back would entail. He is a Scotsman, and like the majority of his countrymen a most industrious person. He is among many other things a director of the Suez Canal Company, the Great Western Railway and Lloyds Bank, one of Britain's "big five," and these three concerns would keep the ordinary man busy without any more. But Sir Robert has a host of other companies of which he is a director, and the income he derives from his business connections is believed to be, and probably is, in excess of $250,000 a year.

Apart, however, from his business activities, an increasingly large body of the British Conservative party look upon Sir Robert Horne as a pillar that will some day support it with a strength that it may have lacked in the immediate past. The long head seems to be the one thing above all others that is needed in the present state of affairs in Britain, and Sir Robert is the happy possessor of this great asset.

The Murderer's Joke Was a Trifle Stiff

COURTNEY RYLEY COOPER, who has written for the enjoyment of millions on almost every subject under the sun, has had a large acquaintance with murderers. As a police reporter he came in contact with about two hundred of them, according to his own statement. One in particular, accused of murder by strychnine poisoning, was tried on evidence which had been gathered, for the most part, by Mr. Cooper. At the conclusion of the trial, while the jury was still debating, the prisoner sat calmly munching chocolate from a well-filled box. Catching sight of Mr. Cooper, he called:

Courtney Ryley Cooper

"Hello, Cooper! Have a piece of candy?"

Cooper had a piece of candy.

"Another?"

Cooper had another.

"Say, Cooper, you've made quite an effort to convict me, haven't you?"

Cooper had.

"By the way," said the defendant, meaningly, "Have you noticed any constriction about your heart in the past few minutes?"

Cooper jumped.

"Any weakness in your legs, Cooper!"

Decidedly there was. Especially about the knees.

"I suppose strychnine poisoning is the most cruel death known," laughed the archdemon. "The convulsions are terrible. You're sure you don't find anything wrong with your heart?"

The door of the jury-room opened. Here was the verdict! For an instant, Cooper, the reporter, forgot his heart as he rushed for a telephone. His paper must have it at once! For a few minutes he was too busy to think of himself; and when he found time for a session of self-examination it was obvious that the candy had been—just candy.

Campbellford Maroons Win the Robertson Cup

Defeats Madoc 3-1

Maroons Rally To Counter Two Goals In Later Frames To Take Decision.

WHITTON STARS ON ICE.

While Hulin Is Easily The Outstanding Player For The Madoc Sextet.

BELLEVILLE, March 19 (Special to The Examiner). — Again the old dope pail of hockey was tumbled over when Campbellofrd, practically last place team in the Trent Valley League all winter, rose to great heights to defeat Madoc, the winners of this group, in the finals of the Robertson series at the Belleville Arena last night by a score of 3-1. The first frame was even, each team notching a tally, but Campbellford rallied in the last two frames to score two well-earned markers and take back with them to the Hydro town a trophy that they won last year in the same series. On account of the splendid exhibition that Madoc team gave in the series that have gone before, even the most biased Campbellford supporter did not figure his team in the running, but they came through with a fine performance and did the needful. They had more punch when it was needed and they knew how to protect their slim lead in the final frame. Madoc team appeared as if they had gone hockey stale. They did not exhibit the same free skating they have shown, nor did their forwards check back with their usual skill.

No one will deprive Campbellford of their victory and two or three players figured prominently in the win, chief being "Buster" Whitton, centre ice star. This boy, although creeping on to the time of retirement, clearly outplayed any player that Father Meagher trotted out, and still he had time to score a couple of goals and make himself a general nuisance in the pivot position as far as Madoc was concerned.

Whitton Ably Supported

He was ably supported by Fred Ingram on the left rail and McKay on the other side. Ingram showed more finish than any player out, but was not aggressive. At times he would go wild and other times would hang back leaving it for George to do. He tested Hulin on several occasions with wicked drives.

McKay turned in one of his best games and was literally robbed on several occasions. He took desperate chances in hurdling sticks and gave Hulin some anxious moments. Cornell and McArthur played steadily on the defense, with Sanders turning in a good game in the nets although he did not have the shots to handle that Hulin took care of. The two juniors, Endy and Bush, made a favorable impression and there will be no dearth of hockey players as long as such boys are coming along to fill the bearch.

Hulin Stars Again

Hulin was easily the star for his team and all winter he has earned for himself a niche in the hall of fame. He apparently never has an off night and he is calm and collected at all times and knows what it is all about. Andrews and Mcguire were unsteady and their rushes had no sting. Henderson played a fair game, while L'Heureux and Johnston were standouts on the front line. Both checked hard and carried the play but they weer both closely watched, Moon and Watson were used extensively and did not weaken the team when out. Campbellford ran a special train to the game augmented by fans from Madoc and Belleville. At the conclusion of the game Claude D. Tice who was in charge of the series with directors of the arena presented the trophy to Cowell the captain of the team for Dr. Robertson, the doner of the cup, who was unable to be present. It was a great series and the best team undoubtedly won.

Even in the First

Play opened slow with Campbellford laying back waiting for the breaks when it livened up. Whitton broke upu many plays in centre and Fred Ingram made a number of rushes that worried Hulin. Campbellford goalie had two close calls in succession, one from Johnson and one from McGuire. Campbellford seemed to combine better than Madoc. Endy, a junior, came on and was no easy mark in the pivot position. Ingram nearly cut Hulin's cap off with a fast drive. Madoc worked into scoring position, with Henderson and L'Heureux doing the needful and Henderson scored on a pretty pass from close in. Andrews drew a penalty for tripping. A scramble ensued in the Madoc goal, and "Buster" Whitton slapped one in to even the count. Campbellford nearly notched another when Cornell and Ingram staged a rush, with Cornell shooting, but Ingram missed the rebound. Sanders made a nice save from Watson. The period ended with Campbellford pressing. The play was about even.

Campbellford Has Edge

McGuire went for holding when the period opened, but Campbellford could not combine to advantage. McKay used unfair tactics, when he crashed Hulin over the gloves after charging in. Ingram dusted Hulin with a hard drive and Madoc took up the offensive and Campbellford could not keep pace with the speed they turned on. Both teams tired midway of the period, it appearing that both squads were suffering from too much hockey. Whitton made a beautiful rush; out-guessed the defense and was over anxious when inside, shooting into Hulin's pads.

McKay was benched for a trip and showed his ire by throwing his stick as he entered the penalty bench. It appeared a petty trick. McGuire deliberately tried to get Whitton going in and was rightly benched. Ingram had a small chance, but all he could see was the pads. Hulin made a beautiful save from McKay, but "Buster" Whitton made no mistake on the next one, shooting past a defenseman to pick the corner. The game roughened near the close, but Referee Burtt watched proceedings closely. Campbellford had a slight edge on in the frame.

Win In Third

Campbellford started out to play a defensive game but Madoc soon backed the Hydro team in their own end. The rushes were spasmodic. McGuire went into action and showed his best work of the game. A slow dribbling roller nearly beat Hulin while the crowd groaned. Whitton was very shifty and led many attacks. Blue nearly scored when he shuffled back a rebound from Whitton's drive. McGuire and McArthur tangled in center ice and both were sent away to cool their ardour. As the team grew short, Campbellford players shot down the ice to protect their lead. Cornell was sent away for holding and McGuire for high sticking McKay, Madoc pressed and nearly scored. Cornell came into the ice and picking up the disc circled the defense and beat Hulin with an akle high drive to cinch the pastime, Madoc however did not quit and Sanders was given some tough ones to handle. Johnson missed the open net. Bush and Endy the juniors for Campbellford played well in the frame.

Line up:

Madoc—Goal, Hulin; defense, Andrews and McGuire; center, Lheureux; wings, Henderson and Johnson; alternates, Watson, Moon, Rupert.

NEW YORK, March 19.—(C.P.)—The National League hockey palyoff war will open on three fronts March 24—in Boston, Toronto, and probably New York—the club owner and directors decided today at a meeting here.

Boston and Montreal Canadiens, first place winners in the two divisions will meet at Boston March 24 and 26 and at Montreal March 28, 31 and April 2, if five games are needed to decide. This series is played best three out of five games, each game to be played to a finish.

Toronto and Chicago, second place winners, will open their home and home series on Toronto ice March 24, shifting to Chicago for the second game March 26. The series is decided on total goals in two games.

The New York Rangers and Montreal Maroons probably will play their first game in Madison Square Garden, New York, March 24, with the second in Montreal March 26. Montreal was to have been the site of the first game but difficulties in securing the Garden for the second date may cause a shift. This series also is decided on goals.

The dates for the playoffs between the second and third place winners and the final Stanley Cup contests between the winner of that contest and the first place series winner is to be set later.

Primroses Blank Falls in First Game

OTTAWA EARNS 4-GOAL LEAD OVER NIAGARA

Long Range Shots Easily Handled By Primroses' Net Guardian.

FOR EASTERN TITLE.

Dan And Bill Cowley Dominate Play—Second Game On Friday Night.

OTTAWA, March 19.—A band of Ottawa youngsters, who make up for a lack of avoirdupois and experience with an abundance of hockey brains and co-ordination continued their amazing march along the junior championship trail by defeating Niagara Fall's Cataracts 4-0 here last night. In the second game on the Cataract's home ice Friday night, the Ottawa Primrose players will carry their well-earned lead. The two-game series, total goals to count, is for the Eastern Canada title and the right to oppose the best of the West's juniors for Dominion honors.

A close combination and ability to take advantage of the breaks won for the young Ottawans. There was no wasted effort in their smooth attack, and once inside the bulky Niafra defense it was a dead-on shot the Cataract goaler had to handle.

Hard shooting crried the Primroses to the championship of this district, and it was smoking drives that beat the agile goaltender, Dunham, last night. He didn't have much chance to save on the shots that streaked into his cage.

The quick-thinking Cowley brothers Dan and Bill, as usual dominated the summary. Bill shot two goals and laid down a reckless pass for another. Dan concluded the scoring in the third period. But from the goal out the winners were brilliant and didn't seem at all impressed by the fact the Niagara aggregation outweighed them some 15 pounds to the man.

A distinction to crash through the Ottawa defense cost Cataracts many promising scoring chances. The majority of their tries were of the long-range variety and were useless against the cool Primrose netman.

The game was rush with sparkling hockey from the initial face-off. Both young teams worked combinations smooth as silk and the netmen had to be good to save early attempts for goals. Outweighed all along the line by their opponents, and visibly lacking the experience of Cataracts, the homesters showed more speed and near mid-session romped into a two-goal lead through their slim superiority in this department.

OSHAWA ENTERS LEAGUE SERIES

Pats Defeat Silverwoods 5-1 on Round to Enter Loop Play-offs.

WIN SECOND GAME 2-1.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 19.—(By the Canadian Press.)—Oshawa Pats prepared to-day to enter the regular play-offs of the Ontario Hockey League wtih Guelph, Stratford and Niagara Falls. The Pats overcame their last obstacle at Kitchener last night by defeating the Silverwoods of that city, 2 to 1, in the second game of home and home contests. Having won the first tilt at Oshawa, 3 to 0, the Pats took the round, 5 to 1.

This series was necessitated by the three-way tie for fourth place at the conclusion of the schedule between Oshawa, Kitchener and Galt. The latter team headed the parade most of the season but slumped badly in the final stages.

Guelph Maple Leafs took the lead in the play-off derby last night by defeating Stratford Nationals, 5 to 4. A rousing last period rally which netted them three goals gave the Leafs victory. The Nationals scored two goals to the Leafs one in the first frame and added two more in the middle chapter to apparently clinch the contest. The Leafs, however, lasted better on the slushy ice and had enough stamina left to sweep their opponents into submission in the closing frame.

REGINA PATS EARN ONE-GOAL MARGIN

Dominion Junior Champions Beat Winnipeg Elmwoods 1-0.

WINNIPEG, March 19. — One dazzling thrust gave Regina's defending Pats a 1-0 triumph over Elmwood Millionaires of Winnepeg in the first of a two-game series for the Western junior hockey title. The Canadian champions will take their single goal advantage into the second contest here on Friday night.

Ralph Redding, fair-headed Pat left-winger, dashed half the length of the ice, midway through the second period for a goal that made Al Ritchie's smooth band favorites to win the Abbott Cup. The victory gave Kenny Campbell, dark-skinned goaler, his seventh straight shut-out in junior hockey playdowns.

WINDSORITES IN KING PLAY-OFFS

Clinch Second Place in Standing by Defeating Syracuse Stars 5-1.

TECUMSEHS NEARLY OUT.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19 (C.P.)—Windsor Bulldogs have won the right to meet the league leading Buffalo Bisons in the first round of the International Hockey League championship play-offs. Lashing the puck into their opponents' net three times during the final period, the Windsorites chalked up a 5 to 1 victory over the tail-end Syracuse Stars last night and clinched second place in the standing.

Earl Robinson, league leading point scorer, led the Bulldogs to victory and at the same time fattened his scoring averages by registering two goals and giving an assist.

With absolute elimination staring them in the face London Tecumsehs, holders of fifth place, clash with Detroit Olympics in to-night's lone scheduled game. A win for Roy Brothers' clan will place them within one point of the fourth place Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets and a play-off berth, leaving the final games of the schedule to decide the team to meet Cleveland Indians, last season's champions, in the first round.

MEN WHO KNOW STEEL PREFER THE VALET —MEN WHO KNOW FACES PRESCRIBE IT

IN laboratory and factory—wherever technical work is done—accuracy always assures finer results. This is the reason metallurgists and dermatologists—authorities whose opinions are accepted without question—prefer the new Valet blade, recognized among experts everywhere as an exceptional example of precision workmanship.

Every operation in the manufacture of the new Valet is executed with meticulous care and utmost exactness. The steel is processed by secret formula, triple-hardened and finished to a micro-perfect edge. Skin specialists who have conducted comparative clinical shaving tests have definitely proved that this blade is easier on the face—an important aid in the prevention, relief and correction of skin conditions caused by harsh shaving.

The new Valet is intended for use in the Valet AutoStrop Razor, scientifically designed to hold the shaving edge at the correct angle. Cleaning and stropping do not require removal of the blade.

Give Valet a thorough trial. Enjoy the inexpensive luxury of complete shaving comfort. Keep your face young—your skin clear. Learn by experience that steel experts and skin specialists are right—that Valet proves a little more precision makes a big difference in results.

The new blade can be identified by the word "Valet" cut through the steel

FRIDAY GAMES END SCHEDULE

St. Paul's to Meet Westclox While "Y" Seniors Tangle With School Girls.

FOR CITY CHAMPIONSHIP.

Friday evening in the Ladies' Basketball League the final regular scheduled game will be completed at the Y.W.C.A. and the first two teams will then play off for the city champions March 27th at the Y.M.C.A.

St. Paul's are at the head of the second series having won twice and having yet to taste defeat. They will take on the Westclox entry this week and as the Clockmakers have lost their last two starts, their chances for a play-off berth are nil. A win for the Presbyterians in this contest would simply entrench them more firmly in first place, while a Westclox victory would be only a moral win and would bring St. Paul's down to a tie for first place with the "Y" Senior—Senior School winners who also meet Friday night.

The Seniors and the Senior School team are at present tied for second place honors, each having won and lost once, so the victorious team in this contest will move into second place or possibly into a tie for first place, but in either case a play off berth is assured them.

Thus, the "Y" Senior-Senior school fracas will be the only Senior fixture Friday that will have any decided bearing on the standing as this winner will meet St. Paul's for the coveted trophy.

Tied in Junior

In the Junior section the "Y" Elementary squad and the Blue Petes are tied for the top position but with these two outfits tangling as part of Friday's triple header and with first place at stake, an interesting battle is assured.

Friday's games will get away at 8 p.m. sharp on the Y.W.C.A. gym floor and these three fast and exciting 'cage struggles will undoubtedly attract the largest crowd of the season.

Team Statistics

Statistics, while often misleading, at least provide an interesting manner to compare the competing teams.

The Senior School quintet has scored the most points to date, with 133 to their credit; Westclox comes a close second with 124; "Y" Seniors are third with 114 and the pace setting St. Paul's squad have accounted for but 99 markers.

The "Y" Seniors stew up as the best defensive aggregations, having had but 37 points chalked up against them. St. Paul's are a close second with 46 and the Westclox next with 50. The Senior school squad which showed the greatest offensive strength also show that their defence must suffer from their open style of play and 79 points have been registered against them.

The individual scoring honors go to Helen Cole, clever centre player of the School team, who has accouted for no less than 72 points. She is closely pursued by Isobel Davidson of the "Y" Seniors who has been out of the game for the past two weeks with an injured ankle but who has ran up a total of 53 markers. Third place goes to Leona Kingdon of the Westclox with 48 points and Mazie Cowan of St. Paul's follows that with 47 tallies.

The following girls are the twelve highest scorers in the league to date:

	Games	Points
H. Cole (Sen. School)	8	72
I. Davidson (Seniors)	8	53
L. Kingdon (Westclox)	8	48
M. Cowan (St. Paul's)	7	47
E. Bradley (Westclox)		36
J. Harvey (Sen. School)	8	32
E. Armstrong (Seniors)	7	26
C. Patterson (St. Paul's)	7	19
A. Comstock (St. Paul's)	8	17
S. Sharpe (Seniors)	7	15
H. Foster Westclox)	6	12
K. Haggart (Seniors)	8	10

forwards battled until they were off their feet.

In addition to the McGill-St. Francois game, two other important Allan Cup playdown matches are scheduled to-night. At Winnipeg the Seniors of that city, Manitoba champions, entertain Port Arthur's championship aspirants in the second of the two-game series. In the Western Canada semi-finals, the Ports outscored the Winnipeggers, 2 to 1, in the first clash at the Lakehead city, but may find a one-goal lead a slim margin to work on to-night.

Trail, British Columbia titlists, and Edmonton, Alberta champions, renew their Far Western feud at Trail. The teams fought to a 3-all stalemate in the first match and will, therefore, start on even terms again.

The winner of this series will qualify for the Western final as North Battleford, Saskatchewan's gallant Intermediate outfit, will journey to Winnipeg to meet the winner of the series there.

HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS IN THE SPORTS WORLD

BOOSTS AND KNOCKS For EVERYONE

That softball game at the Armouries on Tuesday night was a whiz, and no fooling. Airtight pitching and snappy fielding gave fans the finest exhibition seen this winter. That's the way the game should be played.

• • • • • • •

Bill Piercy had the Indian sign on the batters facing him. He struck out ten and that's nice hurling for a seven-inning affair. Hilliard, the Battery flinger, also pitched a nice game. Both infields were right on their toes all the time.

• • • • • • •

De Laval, by winning their last game over Westclox, are on the top of the heap in the City Basketball League. They have not suffered a loss throughout their schedule.

• • • • • • •

Sturgeon, for the De Laval sextet, seldom misses the hoop no matter from what angle he shoots. And his teammate, Levine, is a fast, tricky ball-carrier. Taken all round, they have a pretty classy outfit.

• • • • • • •

There was a good turnout at the Armouries Tuesday night for boxing. And more talk of a tournament here early in April. The boys are taking more interest in the manly art now that hockey is over.

• • • • • • •

Reg. Lesurf is keeping in trim. Gord Garwood, the instructor, hopes to match him with a Toronto boxer for the tournament. Maybe Gord and Fred Shaw, the well known welter, could get together and stage an exhibition bout on the same card.

• • • • • • •

Babe Ruth rowed himself out of a boat right into the Gulf of Mexico the other day. While rowing with a couple of companions, the Bambino lost his balance and fell into the water. His buddie pulled him out. Imagine the splash he made.

• • • • • • •

The Ontario Baseball Amateur Association's annual meeting will be held here on Saturday, April 4. That's only a couple of weeks away. The Empress Hotel will be the spot, and 9.30 a.m. will be the time it commences.

• • • • • • •

Genial Bill Kay is chairman of the Reception and Entertainment Committee for the meeting, so that end of it is left in good hands. Visiting delegates will be received with open arms.

• • • • • • •

The 1931 playing certificates are now ready, and may be obtained by the secretaries of the league.

• • • • • • •

They're winding up the hockey season in the northern states, and beginning baseball in the southern states now. Well, that's the way it should be. We want sport, and lots of it.

• • • • • • •

Chuck Gardiner, star goal-minder of the Chicago Blackhawks, has had a great winter. Though only 25 years old, he is one of the most colorful net-guardians in the league. He never stands still and is always coming out to meet opposing players.

• • • • • • •

Chuck can do this to perfection. One of his notable feats this winter was shutting out four teams in a little over a week. The Rangers, Bruins, and Americans were three of the teams.

• • • • • • •

He is not a big fellow at all. About 5 feet 8 inches in height, he only weighs 155 pounds, but he can sure stop the rubber. Chuck is one of the few players in the National League who was not born in Canada. Edinburgh, Scotland, gets the credit.

Freddie Martin hands out the raspberries generously at the Duffus Bowling Alleys, all right. And Bud Weese gets most of them.

Bowling Alley Gossip

By Pin Boy

The Duffus Recreation Academy came in for one of the noisiest bowling sessions of the season last week-end when 30 lusty pin spillers from the Toronto Davenport Works of the Canadian General Electric Company crowded the alleys to give battle to an equal number from the local plant, in the annual inter-works tournament.

The visiting "Knights of the Polished Aisles" had the Indian sign on the locals for once and finally fought their way to a 58 pin victory after an hour and a half of noisy competition. This margin is far from being a total to feel secure about and the boys from the big plant in the south-end feel rather confident that they can reverse the decision on the 28th of this month when the return games will be played in Toronto.

John Playford, local wood spiller of note helped to balance the argument on Saturday when he burned up the alleys with an 820 triple which included a single of 319. Dave Grant with 759 was next in line and Fred Hickey was also well up.

Foster was the sharp shooter for the Queen city trundlers, securing a single of 326 while his team-mate, Hainsworth, slipped along to a nice solo score of 306.

G. W. Partland, representative of the United Last Company, makers of bowling pins, who was present at the banquet, tendered the Toronto bowlers presented W. G. Shiner with a beautiful silver trophy in recognition of the latter's perfect score made last year. Mr. Partland, in an interview with the writer, stated that uniformity in weight as well as shape, was one of the essential features in pin manufacturing. This statement should smother a few of the alibis often heard on the alleys, from some of the wise guys who figure a 450 score an impossibility.

The return trip to Toronto will take place on the 28th of this month when the Peterborough bowlers will probably be guests of the Toronto players at a Stanley Cup Hockey Match. It is understood that a bus will be chartered if a sufficient number make the trip, however, a great many of the bowlers will travel by private car and it is felt that some confusion may result from this arrangement. All inquiries should be mailed to Bud Weese or Fred Martin.

Any quintet of maple maulers who have hopes of annexing the five pin record for pinnage in Canada should remember that 4203 pins is the total which they must exceed. This score was set up by Ka ry's Sheppard team last year.

McGILL AND ST. FRANCOIS FAIL TO SETTLE HOCKEY DISPUTE FOR RIGHT TO MEET TRURO BEARCATS

15,000 FANS SEE GAME.

Three Important Allan Cup Playdown Matches Scheduled for To-night.

TORONTO, Ont., March 19 (C.P.)—Apparently there are a lot of players desiring to make the trip to Lake Placid as representatives of the Maple Leaf at the 1932 inter-Olympiad, if the orgy of hockey marathons in the Allan Cup playdowns is the correct diagnosis of the undying spirit of the teams.

McGill University, Senior champions of the Province of Quebec, and St. Francois Xavier, Intermediate titleholders, last night continued their prolonged dispute for the right to journey east and tackle the Maritime champions. The game ended in a 1-all deadlock after 30 minutes overtime and the teams will start all over again to-night, as the Quebec representatives must be in Truro, N.S., on Saturday, for the game with the Bearcats there.

A week ago these well-matched rivals fought through 90 minutes of scoreless puck chasing and on Monday night they entered upon a new series of home-and-home games, goals to count. This meeting ended in a one-all stalemate so that four goals has been the sun total of 240 minutes of keen play.

The Students got the jump on the Saints last night when Jack McGill made a perfect play for Farmer to skate in and score with less than half a minute remaining in the first period.

Near the halfway mark of the middle chukker the Intermediates afterwards knotted the count, when Armand picked up a loose puck from a scrimmage near the McGill cage and netted.

15,000 Fans See Game

Some 15,000 fans cheered the teams through the remainder of the hectic contest, but neither side could notch the winning marker though the rival teams in action, although whether it is curiosity to see the Leafs' first play-off opponents or the two-fold attraction of "King" Clancy and the "kid" front line drawing the fans to the old arena is a matter of conjecture.

'NEATH SUNNY SKIES

Spicy Bits of Baseball Gossip From Majors' Camps.

The players at St. Petersburgh, Fla., who believe the saying "As Ruth goes, so go the Yankees" believe that New York's chances for winning the American League pennant are getting better daily. The Babe complains that he is getting in shape too fast, but instead of loafing through exhibition games as in past years, he is working in the ffeld, running out every hit, and keeping his tongue busy in the odd moments encouraging his mates. So far Ruth has failed to satisfy the home run demands of the fans, but he has hit a .350 clip through eight exhibition games.

Despite their great potential batting strength, the Brooklyn Robins now at Fort Myers, Fla., are becoming a bit worried about hitting as their exhibition tour progresses. Babe Herman, formerly their outstanding clouter, has not shown much so far, and the Robins believe he has been trying too hard to keep up with the ex-Philadelphian, Frank O'Doul. The current belief is that Herman may have a bad season if he is not able to get the batting lead right at the start.

There was much self-congratulation and not a few laughs directed at the St. Louis Cards in the Braves' camp at St. Petersburg, Fla., to-day over a certain red-headed outfielder by the name of Worthington. The Braves bought Worthington from the Rochester International League club, a Card's farm, and that young man smashed out a terrific home run to far left center in the third inning of yesterday's game with the Cincinnati Reds, besides making a single and scoring two runs.

Howard Ehmke, Athletics' winning pitcher in the opening World Series against the Chicago Cubs, in 1929, loomed to-day as a comeback. Asked to confirm reports that the veteran would rejoin the "A's" at Fort Myers, Fla., Manager Connie Mack said: "If Ehmke says his arm is sound and that he is ready to pitch again, he can have a job with us. His word that he is in shape to work is sufficient. We need pitchers and if he says the word, we certainly can use him."

Barney Friberg, man of all work and now the oldest player on the Phillies' roster in point of service, has been named captain. He succeeds Fresco Thompson, traded to Brooklyn. "Friberg gets the office," Manager Shotton said, "because he just naturally seems to be captain. He will look after our rights and can demand justice from an umpire without losing his head and exploding. Friberg has been with the Phillies five seasons. The Phillies are now at Winter Haven, Fla.

Trainer Tommy Brammell of the St. Louis Browns reported at West Palm Beach, Fla., to-day that Centre-fielder Fred Schulte, who was spiked yesterday, would be out of action for at least a week. Frank Waddey, late of Memphis, will sub. for Schulte. Waddey has been fielding and hitting well lately and appears to be assured of a utility job with the Browns.

SECOND PLACE TEAMS TO MEET

Toronto Leafs and Chicago Hawks Will Also Meet in Play-offs Next Week.

SMYTHMEN FAVORED.

TORONTO, Ont., Mar. 19 (By Geo. Maguire, C. P. Sports Writer).—For the second week-night this season only one game is scheduled in the National Hockey League to-night. By a twist of the hockey fates this contest brings together Toronto Maple Leafs and Chicago Blackhawks—second place teams in the Canadian and United States sections, respectively.

While the result itself means little; more than ordinary interest attaches to the game as the teams will clash in the first round of the Stanley Cup play-offs, the first game being played at Toronto next Tuesday.

The Leafs have never experienced a great deal of difficulty in beating the Blackhawks. During the current schedule they met and trounced the Windy City hockeyists three times, the Leaf snipers apparently being wise to the weak spots in "Chuck" Gardiner's near perfect goalkeeping.

ITALY OBSERVES ST. JOSEPH'S DAY

Young Men Carry Easter Eggs to Homes Containing Marriageable Daughters.

USED AS CALLING CARD.

ROME, March 19 (A.P.)—St. Joseph's Day was celebrated in Italy to-day.

At Monterosso, oldest sanctuary of the Ligerian coast, a long procession of pilgrims visited the shrine and helped bank narcissus and hyacinths about the finely-carved wooden statue of the Madonna there.

In the mountainous region of Val Gardena young men took Easter eggs to homes containing marriageable daughters, the gifts being a sort of calling card for visits to take place once Lent is over. Once upon a time such visits were tantamount to proposal, but now each man makes several visits and each girl receives any number of callers.

In Florence particularly the day was one of feasting with special bits of culinary delicacy prepared in celebration of the occasion. Carpenters generally regard Joseph as their patron saint.

Unnecessary Loneliness

The radio was crooning something about "lonely evenings." Kay uttered an exasperated exclamation and shut it off. She was tired of hearing about lonely evenings. She had too many of them. "I wonder—" she meditated, and picked up the telephone. In a few moments she was talking to her mother miles away. "Why haven't I thought of this before? It's so nice to talk to you, Mum!" Kay made it a weekly habit, from then on!

Chinese Assassins Of U.S. Women Trapped

NANKING, March 19 (C.P.).—The slayers of Mrs. Vera White and Mrs. Victoria Miller, United States missionaries, at Yunnanfu Sunday night have been captured by Provincial authorities, the Foreign Office was informed to-day.

The two women were killed in their sleep while their husbands were absent for the Seventh Day Adventist Mission at Yunnanfu. Mrs. White's home was in Battleground, Washington, and Mrs. Miller's home was in Spokane.

The women were slain with hatchets. Mrs. White's two children, asleep in the Mission, were not molested.

Individual Talent Should Be Utilized

MONTREAL, March 19 (By The Canadian Press)—Recognizing individual talent and utilizing it where it will do most for itself and the world at large is not only possible but decidedly practicable, Dr. W. D. Tait, of the department of psychology, McGill University, declared in a recent address, "Choosing a Career."

In urging a greater concentration on vocational guidance as a means of getting the best possible results from students, Dr Tait pointed out that the youth of the country was the greatest reserve the nation had. "It is, therefore, in the interests of all that we should do all in our power to show them how to build wisely and well," he said.

By means of psychology, Dr. Tait averred, it was possible to guage a person's capabilities. He believed that vocations should be suited to the individual's as well as to individual likes and dislikes. In the case of human analysis, it was not so much the question of the existence of certain characteristics in a person as the number of each possessed by that individual.

Green Face Powder Is Latest Discovery

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 19.—Whoever coined the expression "there's nothing new under the sun" apparently had not heard from Louis Clement, noted Parisian authority on women's styles.

Green face powder is the latest, and new, Clement said in addressing the annual convention of the Philadelphia Hairdressers' Association, here. Women of ruddy complexion should never use rouge, says M. Clement, hence a pale green powder has been compounded for them.

"And for evening use," he added, "under the shaded lights of the dinner table or ballroom, there is a shade of lavender calculated to improve the most charming woman.

"The style in make-up is changing. It is no longer fashionable to appear either very pale or with extreme vivid smears of rouge and lipstick. The violet nail polish is also disappearing, and some well-dressed women prefer no polish at all. Vivid red shades were never popular among women who really set the pace for style, and the entire trend is toward little make-up. Every woman should use some cosmetics, but they should be applied skillfully, with a knowledge of the proper shade to suit the individual type. No one should try dead-white powder. Darker shades are much better."

No Beauty Lotions For Grain Exhibits

REGINA, Sask., March 19th (By The Canadian Press).—Use of artificial means to improve the complexion of exhibits at the World's Grain Conference here in 1932 will prove to be a detriment rather than an asset, declared J. T. Weiner, secretary of the Canada Seed Growers' Association, speaking at the annual meeting of that body.

In an instructive address during which he outlined requirements necessary to meet keen competition that was to be certain in the many classes, Mr. Weiner warned against interference with nature's own coloring. Use of vanishing creams, furniture polish, varnish and other materials to improve the appearance of grain exhibits would not be tolerated, he said.

Mr. Weiner has acted in the capacity of judge at former International Grain exhibitions at Chicago.

Ocean Streams Vary Bring Mild Weather

EDMONTON, Alta., March 19 (By The Canadian Press). — Periodical changes in the courses of ocean streams, either in the North Pacific or the North Atlantic, is the primary cause of the extremely mild winter the Dominion has experienced this year, in the opinion of L. H. Nichols, professor of physics at the University of Alberta.

Weather reports indicate there has been a change in atmospheric pressure, which runs opposite to the trend of former years. Pressure is low in the north, while in the south it is high and has remained so throughout the winter. It would take two or three years of measurements to produce much information of value, the professor thought.

Asked for his opinion on the weather menu for next winter, Professor Nichols said that an extreme in one direction is invariably followed by a condition of an opposite.

CRIMINAL CODE NEEDS REVISION

Bench Compelled to Mete Out Penalties Recognized as Unsatisfactory.

JUDGE MONET DECLARES.

MONTREAL, March 19 (By The Canadian Press)—The criminal code should be amended and brought up to date in order to cover present day conditions, said Judge Amedee Monet, addressing the Club Canadien recently.

People often read in the newspapers of a judge sentencing a hardened criminal to three years in jail on an accusation of false pretences and in the same column of the same paper they read that the same judge had sentenced a 19-year-old youth to the same term for stealing 50 cents from a postal letter. Judge Monet pleaded with his audience not to judge too harshly in these cases, for, as he put it: 'Should the judge be censured for conforming with the imbecilities of the law?"

Judge Monet pointed out that the criminal code, while demanding a three-year minimum term for the man who stole 50 cents from a letter, only fixed a maximum penalty of three years for the man convicted of obtaining money by false pretenses regardless of that man's antecedents. That such a state of affairs should be allowed to continue is distressing to Judge Monet, and he put down those two provisions o the code as "immoral."

The speaker felt that the public at large should be made acquainted with the activities of the courts and of the men who administered them and he said his motto was: "Give the young first offender a chance."

Here's a Room that PAYS ITS OWN RENT

... ONCE upon a time it wasn't a room at all. It was just waste space beneath the roof. Then we learned how easy it was to make use of such places with TEN/TEST and we converted it into a recreation room.

But it was afterwards that the big surprise came. In building the room with TEN/TEST we had put insulation between the roof and the rest of the house. Heat no longer escaped. The house at once became more comfortable and the coal bill came down.

Now, every year the saving in fuel represents a nice tidy rent from the room, and we have the room too.

We killed two birds with one stone . . . we got another room and we reduced our fuel bill by practically one-third. Not bad for TEN/TEST.

WATER POWER DEVELOPMENT

WINNIPEG, Man., Mar. 19.—(By the Canadian Press)—A water highway from southern Alberta to Winnipeg, cutting the heart of Western Canada's rich coal, wheat and mineral fields loomed as a possibility in connection with development of the huge power project proposed by Premier John Bracken in his recent budget speech. Preliminary report of the scheme already has been made by C. H. Attwood, deputy minister of mines and natural resources.

It is likely that Dominion aid might be asked in the form of locks and other facilities for navigation which could dovetail neatly into the power development.

Central feature of the project would be a huge hydro-electric development on the Dauphin river, about four miles above its mouth into Sturgeon Bay, Lake Winnipeg. This would be made possible by increasing the flow of water through diverting the flow of the Saskatchewan river.

At present the Saskatchewan enters Lake Winnipeg at Grand Rapids by direct channel from Cedar Lake. All that separates Lake Winnipegosis from the Saskatchewan is an isthmus four miles wide between that lake and Cedar Lake, which is a widening of the river. By cutting a canal four miles long from Cedar Lake to Lake Winnepegosis and blasting a few minor rapids, the way would be made clear for uninterrupted steamer navigation from Winnipeg to The Pas, Man., Prince Albert, in northern Saskatchewan, through to points west of Medicine Hat, in southern Alberta. Locks for steamers could be built by the overnment at the hydro-electric plant in the Dauphin river, and at Meadow Portage, and in the canal leading to Cedar Lake.

Explanation of the great power possibilities involved is found in the fact that there is a drop of 108 feet between Lake Winnipeg and Lake Manitoba. This would make possible a head of 87 feet at the power plant on the Dauphin river. Great water storage possibilities would go a long way toward eliminating the danger of power shortage. Lake Winnipegosis and Lake Manitoba could be used as great reservoirs and the flow of the Saskatchewa so regulated, by control gates, that the two lakes could be maintained, at, or very nearly, their normal high-water level.

Alberta is interested in the suggested development because of its possibilities in opening a water route for shipping coal by barges down the Saskatchewan river to Winnipeg. Cost of transportation, it is believed, would be reduced greatly. Economically cheap fuel could be distributed all over the prairies via this route, it is said, and at The Pas a station could be established for heavy coal stocks to be moved by rail into northern Manitoba's mining country around Flin Flon.

Supply estimates before the Manitoba legislature include an item of $12,000 for water power survey. This sum would cover an investigation as to possible stock and feasibility of the scheme. Meanwhile, Charles Attwood is busy continuing his studies into the vast proposition.

Commenting on the proposition, Premier Bracken said that, quite aside from its huge wealth producing potentialities it appeals to him on its basis of supplying work to hundreds of men who thus could be engaged in forwarding a great enterprise rather than receiving doles supplied by the state.

Contract Awarded To Finish Highway

This summer will see an all concrete highway between Lindsay and Peterborough. The contract for the last unpaved stretch has just been let to A. E. Jupp and Company by the Provincial Government. This gap is a 5½-mile stretch between Omemee and Fowler's Corners. Workmen will start the job as soon as weather is fit.

THE SON OF TARZAN No. 16 (Metropolitan Newspaper Feature Service, Inc.) By Edgar Rice Burroughs

Condon searched the sleeping boy's clothes — the money was not there. Perhaps it was beneath his pillow. The cloud that had hidden the moon rolled aside. He saw the boy was alone. At the same instant the lad opened his eyes and recognized Condon. The man made a quick dive for his victim's throat to prevent an outcry. Instead, he felt his wrists seized in a grip of steel, and he heard a low and savage snarl behind him.

He felt other hands at his throat reaching over his shoulders from behind. Casting a terrified glance backward his hair stood on end at the sight his eyes revealed, for grasping him from the rear was a huge, manlike ape, its bared fangs close to his throat. The lad pinioned his wrists. Neither uttered a sound. Where was the grandmother? Condon's eyes swept the room and then bulged with horror as he realized the awful truth.

In the power of what creatures of mystery had he placed himself? Frantically he fought to beat off the lad that he might turn upon the fearsome thing at his back. Freeing one hand he struck a savage blow at the boy's face. His act seemed to unloose a thousand devils in the hairy creature clinging to his throat. He heard a hideous growl—the last thing he ever heard in this world—as he was dragged backward upon the floor.

A heavy body fell upon him, powerful teeth gripped his throat, and his head whirled in a sudden blackness.....The ape rose from the man's prostrate form and shook himself. The boy, horrified, leaped from the bed to lean over the man's body. He knew that Akut had killed in his defence, even as it had killed the villainous Russian, but here in savage Africa, far from home and friends, what would they do to him and his faithful ape?

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Farthing, whose home was burnt to the ground last week, are now established in a house at 210 Auburn Street. Through the kindness of many friends, they have been enabled to start housekeeping again in fairly comfortable fashion. They are anxious to express their gratitude to all who helped them in any way—to the Salvation Army, the Fire Chief and firemen, the Auburn Woollen Mills, whose employees contributed a generous cash donation to Mr. and Mrs. Farthing and their family, to R. M. Glover and The Examiner for publicity and collecting and delivering articles; to those who made up the sum of $35 which was donated through the press to replace the money lost in the fire, to numerous friends, including Mr. and Mrs. S. Pellow, Mr. and Mrs. Kay and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Braund and family, Mrs. W. Godfrey, Beatty Brothers, the Warsaw friends who helped, and all who contributed in any fashion, with furniture, clothing or cash.

NOTICE TO DRIVERS OF MOTOR VEHICLES

On account of the large amount of storm drain work done for relief purposes in the city during the winter, there will be a great many bad places on the streets this spring. It is impossible to back-fill in the winter with frozen material, so that there will be no settlement.

Drivers of motor vehicles are requested to be careful when driving over and along these trenches as otherwise accidents are liable to occur. Co-operation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.
